It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,800. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our mind—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION
Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:
1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

A Coming Elocutionary Treat.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the noted Indian poet-reciter, will appear in the George street church on Monday, the 31st inst., under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society and Epworth League of the church. The Toronto Week says of Miss Johnson: "The enthusiasm with which her recitations were received was amply merited by the beauty, force and originality of 'A Cry from an Indian Wife.'" 1d

A Temporary Bridge Erected.

A temporary bridge was last week built at the Narrows, and now teams are passing over it from one side of the river to the other, daily. The structure will remain until it is necessary for a steamer to pass there, when it will have to be removed. At the present time the water is too low at this point for navigation, and it cannot be raised while the repairs are in progress at Heeley Falls dam, so that the probability is, there will be traffic over the bridge continuously during the remainder of the fall and through the winter.—Campbellford Herald.

It seems necessary to constantly advise the public to be on their guard against substitutes and imitations of popular remedies. And yet, notwithstanding these repeated warnings, the business of selling substitutes and imitations flourishes to a greater or less extent in many parts of the country. There is no remedy in Canada to-day so widely advertised as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and none, judging from the very strong endorsations appearing from time to time, more worthy of public confidence. It is a remedy like this that the counterfeiters and imitators attack, in the hope of reaping a benefit from the extensive advertising of the genuine medicine. It may perhaps be well to caution our readers again, and remind them, that the substitute or imitation can never take the place of the original remedy and that the dealer who gives a customer something else than what is asked for, either representing it as the original, or as something "just as good," is guilty of an action very closely akin to fraud. We learn that the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., with a view to protecting their interests and those of the public and honest dealers contemplate securing the services of a clever detective whose business it will be to ferret out frauds of this kind and bring the perpetrators to justice. 1dlw

A Rare Curiosity.

There is on exhibition at the Croft House a very peculiar species of turnip. It is of Swede variety and consists of eight large well developed tubers all grown from the same root. This large turnip was grown in the garden of Mr. W. J. Whittaker, Ashburnham, and weighs 29½ lbs. The turnip is a most peculiar one its growth, and is examined by many.

A New Skating Rink Proposed.

There is some talk on the part of those interested, of erecting a large skating rink on the corner of George and McDonnel streets this winter to be used for skating and hockey alone. Some think that the present rink is too small for these pastimes, and that it could profitably be devoted to curling alone. A new rink is to be built in Belleville this fall for hockey and skating alone. A number of gentlemen have the matter in hand and will erect the structure at once.

The Foresters' Annual Entertainment.

Court Peterborough, C. O. F., are noted for running the best excursions and giving the best entertainments. The annual entertainment on Friday evening, Oct. 28th will be one of the most enjoyrble. Distinguished High Court Officers will give interesting addresses and a splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music, with illuminated club swinging, will be presented. Altogether a high class entertainment will be given. Don't neglect to attend. Tickets, 25c. and 50c. Seat plan at the Peterborough Bookstore.

A Correction of the Horse Sale Paragraph.

In a paragraph in yesterday's EXAMINER it was stated that Mr. T. Brady purchased a horse brought from Haliburton and that the price paid was $80, which is far short of the amount paid and of the value of the horse, which is a good one, the fastest pacer in Eastern Ontario. The chattel mortgage which was placed on the horse in Victoria county has no effect in this county, and consequently there is no doubt of Mr. Brady's title to the possession of "Molly Bawn."

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

Peterborough Vocalists Abroad.

The Uxbridge Fire Brigade gave their annual concert in the town hall there on Monday night. It was a great success both in attendance and programme rendered. Mr. Grenville P. Klasier, of Toronto, the noted elocutionist was present and volunteered some fine numbers which were loudly applauded. Messrs. John Crane and W. F. Nelson sang two splendid duets, the operetta, "Oh Haste Crimson Morn" and "Excelsior," by Balfhe. Both selections delighted the audience Mr. Crane also sang "The Brave Sentinel," and Mr. Nelson "The Gallant Salamander," both solos were well received

A Word in Season.

During the fore part of the week Mr. J. J. Sheehy received his usual supply of boys', girls' and ladies' fall and winter hosiery. To say that the stock purchased by Mr. Sheehy this year is a large one is putting its very mildly indeed. One would imagine from the appearance of the collosal pile of boxes, that every knitting mill in Canada and Europe had been visited. It is customary at this season for mothers to look around and see "what's going" in the hosiery line. Well, mothers, Mr. Sheehy's goods are so arranged that it is absolutely no trouble to show them. Wouldn't it be a good idea just to step in and see them? It doesn't matter whether you wish to purchase or not; just see them.

The Gun Club Meeting.

Rutherford, Tivey and Loucks were appointed to specify the prizes for the respective events. There will be individual prizes as well as a team prize. The teams will be captained by Capt. Tivey and Vice-President Collins respectively. The award will be 500 rounds of loaded amunition donated by the Dominion Cartridge Company, of Montreal. SILVERWARE!
SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. Each Saturday morning CHINA HALL will place on its Bargain Table its weekly snap. This offer to be valid for one week only. THE RURAL DEANERY

Meet To-Day—The Proceedings—Rev. J. C. Davidson Tenders his Resignation as Rural Dean.

The Rural Deanery of Northumberland met in Peterborough to-day. In connection with this meeting of the Deanery, service was held in St. John's church on Wednesday evening. There was a large attendance, including a number of members of St. Luke's congregation, Ashburnham. The sermon, preached by Ven.-Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook, was an impressive one, and was listened to with close attention. This morning Holy Communion was celebrated in St. John's church at 8.30 o'clock by the rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson assisted by Rev. Geo. Warren, of Lakefield. There was a fair attendance. The business of the deanery began at 10 o'clock. A large number of the clergy who were unable to be present sent excuses for absence. Those in attendance were Ven. Archdeacon Allen, Millbrook, Revs. Geo. Warren, Lakefield, Rev. W. McCann, Omemee, Rev. G. H. Webb, Colborne, Rev. H. Symmonds, St. Luke's, Ashburnham, Rev. W. M. Louck's, assistant-curate, St. John's, and Rev. Rural Dean Davidson. Rev. Rural Dean Davidson informed the Deanery that owing to the urgent demands of his parish work, it was impossible for him to think of adding thereto the duties of Rural Dean, and he requested that his resignation be accepted. In this conection a letter was read from His Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese deploring the loss of Mr. Davidson's services as Rural Dean, but in the event of his resignation being pressed, he suggested that a special meeting be called to appoint a successor.

The subject of holding missionary meetings for the coming winter was then taken up and discussed, and general arrangements made among the members for the holding of such meetings.

A two hours conference then took place on the subject of "Spiritual Intercourse" between the clergy and the people. The subject was opened by Rev. Rural Dean Davidson in an able address which elicited strong opinions on the subject of all those present. The discussion was of a most interesting and profitable character lasting until 1.15 p.m. when the meeting adjourned for dinner.

This afternoon in St. John's church a purely devotional conference was held led by Rev. H. Symonds and all the clergy taking part. At five o'clock the proceedings closed with Evening Prayer. A resolution was also passed calling a general meeting of the Deanery of Northumberland Durham and Haliburton to discuss matters and questions of importance, the archdeacons and rural deans to appoint the time and place of meeting.

It is a Valuable Quarry.

Mr. Harry Grundy, proprietor of the Harvey Lithograph quarry, has received a letter from his brother in Toronto, stating the specimens of stone sent to a gentleman who is an authority on first class lithograph stone, have pleased him immensely and that he will be down in a few days to thoroughly examine Mr. Grundy's quarry. The intending purchaser asks Mr. Grundy not to open negotiations for the sale of the mine with any other parties until he sees it himself. Stones size 24x34 inches and about 3 inches thick are worth 27c a pound. The greater the size the more valuable is the stone. The best specimens of lithograph stone are generally about three inches thick.

TO REPLENISH HAREMS.

A Society of Kidnappers Sends Girls to Constantinople.

VIENNA, Oct. 19.—Considerable of a sensation has been caused by the discovery that there has existed for a long time past in Austrian Galicia a regularly organized gang of kidnappers who have supplied young girls for the harems of wealthy Turks in Constantinople. Since the workings of the gang have become known 60 of the victims have been released from various harems in Constantinople through the efforts of the Austrian embassy there. Some of the stories told by the released girls regarding their treatment by their masters are horrible. Twenty-seven members of the gang are now in custody awaiting trial at Lemberg, and it is expected that many of their victims will testify against them.

English Comment on Hon. Mr. Daly.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The news of the appointment of T. Mayne Daly of Selkirk, Manitoba, to the Cabinet as Minister of the Interior in the place of Hon. Edgar Dewdney has reached London. Commenting on the appointment The Morning Chronicle says: "Mr. Daly's appointment is of more importance to this country than appears at first sight. The new Minister of the Interior is the leading advocate of an energetic immigration policy. We expect that he will expect vigorous measures regarding emigration from this country, probably introducing a system of prepaid passages, by which settlers can secure advances from Canadian local authorities for the purpose of bringing out friends who desire to emigrate to Canada, but lack the necessary means."

An Overdue Vessel.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Great uneasiness is felt in shipping and insurance circles regarding the British ship Knight, Commander Captain Murdoch, which sailed from San Francisco July 30 for Queenstown. It is believed the vessel foundered off Cape Horn.

In Case of an Invasion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—A statement has been received at the War Department from General Manager Odell of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad which shows that in case of an invasion of the United States the four trunk lines leading to New York from the west could land 350,000 troops within 30 hours, with horses and all necessary equipments, and at the same time give enough commercial supplies to meet the current needs of the country.

The Deacon Case.

GRASSE, Oct. 19.—Edward Parker Deacon has received from his wife overtures for a compromise regarding the children. Mrs. Deacon, by the result of the hearing at Grasse, has been shaken in her confidence as to success against her husband, and is therefore willing to come to terms. Mr. Deacon declares he will be satisfied with nothing short of the possession of all the children.

A Collingwood Mill Burned.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Oct. 19.—About 6.30 last evening the fire alarm was sounded and Truesdell's saw mill was found to be on fire. Notwithstanding the efforts of the fire brigade the mill was completely destroyed with the machinery, lumber, shingle bolts and wood that were within it or close by. The mill was worked by Nickerson Bros. There was no insurance whatever; loss about $3500.

Mistaken Ideals.

The ideal woman of every man is the "womanly woman." The ideal man of every woman is the "manly man." And the expression "a womanly woman" means pretty much the same to every man who uses it, just as the "manly man" of one woman expresses a certain combination of qualities well known to every other woman.

The man's "womanly woman" is gentle, amiable, quiet, and domestic. She loves to sit upon a low chair and hem things, with the lamp-light falling over her hair. It is unnecessary to say that although in theory this is the sort of woman a man prefers, in practice he may choose one entirely her opposite. She does not exist in large quantities, which is lucky, as she might prove dreadfully insipid if she did.

The woman's "manly man" means a man strong, brave, and daring. He must perform easily bold deeds which she dare not attempt. She likes that—in dreams. In actual life she may find that a man neither daring or bold has satisfactory and endearing qualities which make him more after her own heart than the ideal of her dreams could ever be.

We are not all alike, thank Heaven! but various. And the spark of originality which is implanted in each of us all is the thing to cherish and develop, and not distort ourselves into ideal forms.—Harper's Bazar.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr. Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

"August Flower"

"I inherit some tendency to Dyspepsia from my mother. I suffered two years in this way; consulted a number of doctors. They did me no good. I then used Relieved in Two Days. your August Flower and it was just two days when I felt great relief. I soon got so that I could sleep and eat, and I felt that I was well. That was three years ago, and I am still first-class. I am never without a bottle, and if I feel constipated the least particle a dose or two of August Flower does the work. The beauty of the medicine is, that you can stop the use of it without any bad effects on the system. Constipation While I was sick I felt everything it seemed to me a man could feel. I was of all men most miserable. I can say, in conclusion, that I believe August Flower will cure anyone of indigestion, if taken Life of Misery with judgment. A. M. Scotland's Prosperity.

One of the most remarkable phenomena exhibited by the United Kingdom during the present century in the growth of Scotland. This is the more striking because it has been contemporaneous with the decadence of Ireland, whose population is now only about one-half of what it was before the great famine of 1846. That not only in the number of inhabitants increasing in North Britain, but that the condition of life are undergoing singular improvement, is proved in a report of the Registrar-General, in which some interesting results of the recent census are embodied.

According to the enumeration made on the 5th of April, 1891, the number of inhabitants in Scotland amounts to 4,025,647. Ten years before the population was but 3,725,573; there has thus been a total increase of 290,074. As, however, the excess of registered births over registered deaths in the same period was 507,492, the loss of inhabitants due to the excess of emigration over immigration has been 217,418. The rate of increase, 7.77 per cent., is lower than in any preceding decade, with the exception of that ending in 1861, when it was six per cent. We may, therefore, assume that the present rate of increase will continue, in which case the population of Scotland will double itself in a little over eighty-nine years. We may add that on the day of enumeration there was a proportion of 107.2 females for every 100 males. This ratio is the lowest that has yet been experienced since 1801, when the ratio was that of 117.6 females to every 100 males. The proportion of females to males varies considerably in different countries. In three the males are in excess; is one of these, Linlithgow, there were only 87.96 females to 100 males. On the other hand, in Forfar, to every 100 males there are 121.50 females; in Bute, 124.14 and in Shetland, 135.3. The extraordinary excess of females in the three last-mentioned counties is, of course, due to the fact that the greater number of emigrants are able-bodied males.

In Scotland, as in England, there are evidences of a marked tendency of the people to concentration in towns, though the drift is not quite so noteworthy as it was in the preceding decade. At the date of the present census 65.37 per cent. of the inhabitants of Scotland resided in towns as compared with 61.75 per cent. in 1881. The proportion of those living in villages is now 11.57 per cent., having been 11.99 per cent. at the time of the previous enumeration. The ratio of residents in the rural districts has fallen from 26.26 per cent. in 1881 to 23.06 per cent. at the present time. It would further appear that, taking Scotland on a whole, there were 135 persons to every square mile, and that the number of acres to each person was 4.7.

1809 Was a Great Year.

A writer in the New York Sun says: In a recent article to your paper congratulating Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes upon his 83rd birthday. I noticed that you spoke of the learned Doctor's evident pleasure in the fact that he was born in the same year as were Charles Darwin, Alfred Tennyson, Lincoln, and Gladstone, namely, 1809. I wonder if it ever impressed the readers of your valuable paper that this year seemed to be most prolific of great men of any year almost in the world's history.

In addition to the five names mentioned, including Holmes, there were born in that year actually a multitude of individuals who have made an immortal name for themselves as literateurs or statesmen. It would be impracticable to name them all, but the writer can name over a hundred. Among them the following names will be recognized by all: Edgar Allen Poe, the great American poet; Hannibal Hamlin, Felix Mendelssohn, the composer; Kit Carson, frontierman; Elizabeth Barrett Browning, the poetess; Albert Pike, poet and Mason; Park Benjamin, poet; Robert Cumming Schenck, Robert Charles Winthrop, Mark Lemon, Robert Shelton Mackenzie, Richard Moulton Milnes (Lord Houghton), Benjamin Pierce, and George Augustus Selwyn.

These are but a few of a great mass of noted personages who can claim 1809 as their birth year, and Dr. Holmes has even further cause to congratulate himself, as they certainly have to congratulate themselves upon their remarkable fellowship with the author of the "Autocrat." The writer does not believe a nobler year can be named in the history of the world.

Preserved in Spirits.

There are, says Labouchere, many good Radical parsons in London. One of their number was recently accosted by a Tory member of his flock, in high glee over the election of a wealthy distiller. "Thank God!" exclaimed the Tory, "our candidate has been returned, and the Church is preserved." "Exactly," replied the rector—"in spirits."

If you wish to secure a certain and speedy result, when using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, be careful in observing the rules of health, or the benefit may be retarded. A fair and persistent trial of this medicine never fails, when the directions are followed.

Never allow the bowels to remain constipated lest serious results ensue. National Pills are unsurpassed as a remedy for constipation. dw

DAVID DOIG

THE GANTALOUPE GIRL.

Something New and Presumably Delightful at the Seaside.

"There she goes. You see she's got one in her hand now."

"Where? I don't see her."

"Why, right before you."

"Oh, yes; doesn't it look odd."

"I should say so, but I'm told that the latest thing out in gastronomy, and the ice-cream saloons have got quite accustomed to serving their wares in the new style."

The subject of the conversation of two clever young women was a very pretty girl who was walking along Atlantic avenue, in a most nonchalant way, carrying a cantaloupe in her hand. She was heading for an ice cream saloon, and soon reached it, followed by the two young women, who were curious to see the last of a certain departure they had heard of this week, which was nothing else than the serving of ice cream in cantaloupes, the cream and the cantaloupes being eaten together. The cantaloupe girl, as the young woman who introduced the custom here has come to be known, seated herself by her escort, who also had a cantaloupe in his hand, and when the waitress came up said: "Please fill one of these with vanilla and the other with orange water ice." The waitress, who a few weeks ago would have looked blank on receiving such an order, took it as a matter of course, and took the two cantaloupes, which had already been halved and cleansed at the fruit store, and came out in few minutes with the four halves filled with a heaping lump of ice cream and water ice.

As they began eating, the cantaloupe girl and her escort were, as the weather-beaten phrase goes, the "cynosure of all eyes," but she didn't mind it, neither did the young man, whom I don't mind saying was the knowing young man, but in this case he bowed to the superior bon vivant knowledge of his companion. "I never heard of it before," he was saying, while the answer came, "And isn't it too delicious for anything?" And it is; and while the ice cream saloons have not got to the point where they supply their own cantaloupes, for, like everything else to the place born at Atlantic City they are eternally slow, still no one minds appearance here, and it adds to the zest to buy your own melons; and you can see almost every evening now young people bent ice creamwards walking along the "avenues" with cantaloupes in their hands.

I asked the knowing young man to describe the sensation and the method of preparing the delicate morsel. "All you do," he cheerfully replied, "is to get a sweet cantaloupe—one of the small green ones—and then get it filled up with the ices. You take a spoonful of the ice cream or water ice and with it a shred of the cantaloupe and your digestive tract experiences a most delightful sensation. It tastes all the way down. Watermelon filled with champagne isn't a circumstance to it. I tell you the cantaloupe girl, who, by the way, is the summer girl, has made a big hit."—Philadelphia Press.

THE LOSS OF THE BOKHARA.

Of the Passengers Five British Officers and Many Civilians Were Drowned.

HONG KONG, Oct. 19.—The chief officer of the steamer Bokhara has arrived here. He reports that the steamer struck at midnight, Oct. 10. The steamer ran into the storm before dark and would probably have come through all right had it not been for the seas boarding her. The water poured in torrents through the hatchings, the covers of which were carried away, and down the companion ways leading to the fire room. The fires were soon extinguished, and then the steamer became helpless. The officers and crew, both Europeans and Lascars, behaved splendidly. Of the crew 102 are missing, and little if any doubt is entertained that they were drowned.

Among those lost are Capt. Sams, Second Officer Inglis, four engineers, the stewardess and 70 natives. Of the passengers the following are known to be missing: Major Turner, Capt. Dunn, Capt. Dawson, Lieut. Boyle, Lieut. Barnett and three sergeants, all of whom had been detailed for service in the garrison here.

The following civilian passengers are also missing: C. Wallace, G. Taverner, G. Purvis, C. Rolf and Mesdames Carnes and Hawley of Bombay, G. Bishop and H. Lalmia of Ismalia, Mr. and Mrs. Chan of London and Mrs. Cunaifey and infant.

The officers saved are Messrs. Prickett, Parry and Sweeney and quartermasters. Sixteen natives and Messrs. Lowson and Marcham and two other Europeans are reported to have landed on the South Pescadores.

The cargo of the Bokhara consisted of $200,000 in treasure, 1300 bales of silk, 800 tons of tea, and an assortment of general merchandise.

The military passengers of the Bokhara who are missing belonged to the Hong Kong cricket team, which every year visits Shanghai. They were all well-known cricketers.

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvey affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flaks. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing, Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

FIRE IN BEETON VILLAGE.

THE BUSINESS PORTION OF THE PLACE DESTROYED.

Great Loss in Buildings and Goods—Unable to Cope With the Flames the Villagers Appeal to Barrie, Which Sent Its Fire Brigade—The Amount of Insurance Unknown.

BARRIE, Ont., Oct. 20.—About 4 a.m. yesterday word was received here that a big fire was raging at Beeton village, 25 miles from here, and asking that assistance be sent. The steam engine was at once loaded on a car, and together with some firemen sent to Beeton and rendered great assistance, although much damage had been done before it arrived. The fire started in the chimney of Hipwell's dwelling. The following are the places destroyed as far as can be learned: Hipwell's store, dwelling and outbuildings, Charlie Baxter's hotel and stables, Young's tailor shop, W. H. Mitchell's two building and furniture store, Batton's empty store and dwelling, W. C. Stephen's store and dwelling, Masterton's dwelling and contents, building intended for Town Hall, Buchanan's bakery, Hayes' shop and dwelling, R. Scott's store and dwelling and a lot of lumber, J. Coulter's hotel and stables, Parker's house, stables and sheds, empty store owned by L. J. Beemer of Toronto, W. A. Hendry's store and dwelling. The contents of the stores and dwellings in many cases are a total loss. The loss will be between $55,000 and $60,000. The insurance is very small, and in cases none whatever.

BARRIE FIREMEN CALLED ON.

They Went to the Assistance of Beeton and Rendered Good Service.

BARRIE, Ont., Oct. 20.—The Barrie firemen arrived from Beeton yesterday afternoon and gave the following account of the fire there yesterday morning: The fire originated in Mr. A. N. Hepwell's dwelling about 3 a.m., and was caused by a defective chimney. The flames spread quickly and soon made their way to the store adjoining, owned by the same party, and then to other buildings on the south side of Main-street, running west as far as Bell's hardware store. Part of this distance it crossed to the north side of the street, consuming everything in its course, the central and business portion of the village being destroyed. Altogether 16 buildings, including the three hotels, besides stables and outbuildings, were burned. Most of the buildings were frame and the flames spread rapidly.

The citizens worked hard and for a time made good progress in checking the flames, considering the only means they had of fighting the fire was with pails, and in some instances they had to carry the water a long distance. The strong west wind that was blowing at the time soon overbalanced their efforts to check the fire, and at 3.30 Reeve Wright, seeing that the entire village was in danger, wired Barrie for assistance. The Barrie engine and 10 men reached the village about 4.30 and soon got to work, and had they been able to get a good water supply the loss would have been considerably less. The efficiency of the engine was soon discounted by the supply of water, which they had to get from domestic wells, emptying six in two hours.

Three or four of the sufferers were uninsured, some fully and others only partly. Nearly all the stores had their fall and winter stocks in, hardly any of which is saved. The loss in almost every case will be total and will be fully $60,000. The telegraph and telephone communications being still cut off it is impossible to obtain a list of the insurances or the companies interested to-night.

THE BORDEN CASE.

A Man Under Arrest Who Claims to Know Who Did the Deed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A Richmond, Va., special says: "John Woods, supposed to have been implicated in the Borden family murder at Fall River, Mass., is in jail here. He is about 30 years of age and has the appearance of being a respectable tramp. He claims to be a hat printer, and came here with an army of fakirs to attend the exposition. He is about medium height, black eyes, regular features, black hair and mustache. He is fairly educated, has tramped a good deal, and resided at Fall River quite recently."

According to the story of a popcorn vendor here, Woods has asserted that Lizzie Borden did not commit the murder, but that he (Woods) knew who did it.

Subsequently he told a reporter that he only knew who Lizzie Borden was from hearsay, and that he had seen her but three times in his life. It is stated that the constable has secured the evidence of three persons to whom Woods stated that a relative of Lizzie Borden committed the murder, and that he (Woods) knew who that relative was.

DETECTIVE PHAIR IS DEAD.

There Was No Hope of His Recovery From the First.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Detective Phair died yesterday at 7.10. Until midnight his condition remained unchanged, except for a gradual weakening. Opiates were administered to deaden the pain, and he seemed to have considerable strength. But suddenly he changed for the worse, and his decline was rapid until the time of his death.

All the dying man's relatives, save his son, John, were present at the deathbed. His brothers and nephews from Brantford had been in London for some days. His son-in-law, Mr. Bush, and his wife arrived from New York yesterday. His son was expected from San Francisco to-morrow.

When it was known in the city that Detective Phair was dead, regret was general. The inquest on the body will be opened this evening.

Mrs. Harrison's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Last night, after his last call, Dr. Gardner reported that Mrs. Harrison had passed a very quiet and very comfortable day, that she had taken the usual amount of nourishment and is holding her own, and no immediate change for the worse is looked for.

Fast Time By the City of Paris.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The log of the City of Paris, which arrived yesterday morning, shows the passage from Queenstown to have been made in five days 14 hours and 24 minutes, the distance traversed having been 2782 miles. The days' runs were: 448, 508, 535, 505, 530 and 256. This beats the record for a westward passage. The record up to this voyage was 5 days 15 hours and 58 minutes, held by the City of Paris.

HAMILTON, Oct. 20.—Mr. Frederick Washington, the well-known barrister of this city, was last evening married to Miss Kathleen Howells, daughter of the late Dr. Howells of Caledonia and a cousin of W. D. Howells, the celebrated novelist.

GRAND DAY IN CHICAGO.

A PARADE WHICH SURPASSED THAT OF NEW YORK.

Thousands of Men in Line, Representing All Sections of the Country—The Organizations, With Banners and Colors, Marched in Full Sight of the Ancient Hibernians and Everybody Was Happy.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The people in town were early astir yesterday, though the booming of the cannon to signal the start of the procession was not heard until 11 o'clock. Out from the crowded hotels and from the boarding houses of the outskirts the people came long beforehand and even before sunrise. The incoming trains of the early morning brought other thousands from near-by and far-distant places. These flowed into the quickening thoroughfares.

The police, as early as 7 o'clock, closed all the bridges which cross the city's turbid and filthy river, so no craft might have the avenues blockaded for their passing until the parading should have ended. This was a measure of safety to the crowds. When 10 o'clock had come the great stretch of pavement was cleared like stony lanes between banked-up throngs on the curbs all along this route: Michigan-avenue, north to Van Buren-street, west on Van Buren to Wabash-avenue, north on Wabash-avenue to Lake-street, west on Lake to State-street, south on State to Adams-street, west on Adams to Franklin-street, south on Franklin to Jackson, and east on Jackson to State, where the procession was to disband.

The sun, which in the gray dawn had risen red beyond the waters of Lake Michigan, soon disappeared from view, and solid clouds intervened. The air was chilly and a searching wind sucked through the streets between the great buildings, and people gathered wraps closer about them. But the overcast sky was such as scarcely forbode rain, and nobody cared for the autumn chill in the gusty air. The children had mounted to their places in the grand stand of the official review, the dignitaries of many nations, the men of place and position, and Vice-President Morton under civil escort, had taken their positions at 11 o'clock.

Signal For the Start.

All was ready then and the waiting was not long. Out on the lake front, soon after 11 o'clock, three sullen booming guns spoke out the signal for the start. Then appeared at the starting point the chief officer of the day, and the police ahead of him led the way, the various bodies falling in from streets opening into the route of march. At the head of the parade to hold in check the dense crowd which thronged the sidewalk and forced itself into the streets came mounted police. Directly behind these came Sousa's marine band, acting as escort for the Mexican National band. The visitors from beyond the Rio Grande were given a warm welcome.

At the heels of this band was Major-Gen. Miles, the grand marshal of the parade. Behind him clattered a swarm of aides-de-camp, many of them army officers.

The Chicago hussars, in black and white trimmings, riding well and headed by their bugle corps, were the escort to the Mayor of Chicago, the City Council in carriages and the governors of the different states, each of whom was surrounded by a brilliant staff. The second grand division was led by the Independent Order of Foresters, 12,000 strong, who made a fine appearance as they swept down the street in the regular formation of 20 front. The dark green of Italy flowed in a tidal wave behind the crimson regalia of the Foresters, and the numerous Italian societies were cheered to the echo as they went by. In the rear was a gigantic float representing "Columbus discovering America." Behind the float tramped 300 men wearing the decorations of their nation's flag—blue and white. Eight thousand men of the Patriotic Sons of America were over an hour in going past. Their ranks were broken at frequent intervals by bands.

The Orangemen Out.

Then in close, even ranks came the descendants of the man who had won the Battle of the Boyne, their persons and banners bearing knots of their favorite orange ribbon. Three thousand five hundred men of the Chicago Turners' Society, headed by the national commission of their order, looked exceedingly well in their neat uniforms of gray. They were followed by 700 men of the Bohemian Turner Societies and these by 500 German veterans, who marched proudly beneath the red, white and blue of their adopted country and the red, white and black of their fatherland. There was a strong reminder of the heather as 1200 bonnie Scots hove in sight, every man in the tartan. The bagpipes, which were many throughout the column, shrieked shrilly, and whenever they died away the big brass band at the head of the column boomed out Scottish music. The Scots were decidedly a feature of the parade, and the 250 men of the Royal Scots Regiment, clad in the Royal Stuart plaid, called forth loud cheers. Fifty men, wearing the uniform of the famous Black Watch Regiment, who were next in line, were followed by a simply endless string of plaids representing every family of Macs between Berwick and John o' Groat's. The black and gold of the Sons of St. George followed the Highlanders. Then came rank after rank of Croatian and Polish societies, containing in all about 2000 men. After them came ten times as many ranks, with their proportionate number of men, and every man a Swede. In four carriages were 15 pretty girls, representing in their attire the various national female costumes of Sweden and Norway. The next division was made up of 2000 boys from the grammar and high schools of Chicago, clad in various styles of uniform, and gave vent every now and then to lusty-lunged expressions of their school yells. Then tramped eight representatives of every Grand Army post in Chicago and Cook County, reinforced by numerous delegations from neighboring cities. The veterans were not above 800 strong, and in their rear was a float representing the famous old Monitor as she appeared before fighting the Merrimac. The sons of veterans, modern woodmen of America, uniformed rank of the Royal Arcanum and Knights of Pythias, 2000 men in all, closed the division. The third grand division, under the command of Chief Marshal Cahill, was led by the marshall surrounded by a large staff, in whose wake came 500 mounted men of the Uniformed Knights of St. Patrick.

The Catholic Orders.

The second sub-division of this portion of the parade was the uniformed rank of the Catholic Order of Foresters, 850 strong, and comprising ten separate commanderies. The third subdivision, headed by the Third Cavalry band, had 4440 men in line and showed the banners of 45 courts and contained ten bands. The fourth subdivision had 2250 men and 34 courts. The fifth division contained 2644 men in 31 courts. Seven hundred men of the Hibernian Rifles came after the Foresters, and behind these 2000 men of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and then 6000 more men of the Catholic faith, who belonged to the arch-diocesan union, 33 societies being represented. The Catholic Knights of America, 1000 men, the Catholic Benevolent Union with 800, the Polish Catholic societies with 1000 men, and St. John the Baptist Society with 1000 men, were next in line.

Miscellaneous Catholic societies, numbering 1200 men in the aggregate, closed the grand division and the parade.

In the rear of the Catholic order of Foresters was a magnificent float entitled "Columbus."

AN AMERICAN SHIP LOST.

The Captain and a Number of the Crew Still Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Mate A. R. Sullivan and six sailors of the American ship W. R. Campbell, wrecked off the Mexican coast, arrived on the Honolulu steamer yesterday and told the story of their sufferings. The Captain's young wife and her baby were put into the larger boat with Capt. Havener and 13 sailors. The Captain, before he left the cabin, sat down at the piano and played Down Went McGinty. He set fire to the ship for fear she might wreck other vessels, and soon afterward she blew up.

"The boats parted," said Sullivan. "Twenty days out all our liquids were exhausted. The men behaved well, with the exception of three Chilian sailors. The men noticed that the Chilian sailors seemed to stand the short allowance of rations better than they did themselves. Watch was set, and during the night they were discovered eating from the rations of the supposed sleeping sailors. It was all I could do to save the lives of these Chilians."

No tidings have been received of the missing boat, which contained Capt. Havener, wife and child, Second Mate Alexander Murray, Third Mate Percy E. Turner and 11 men. When Sullivan's boat reached Hilo he and his 10 men were nearly dead. The sailors on the cruiser Boston clothed the men and made up a purse.

PAPERLESS VANCOUVER.

A Printers' Strike Causes Suspension of Publication.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 21.—All the papers in the city have suspended publication temporarily in consequence of an arbitrary demand on the part of the printers for an increase of wages. The News-Advertiser was the only paper published yesterday, The Telegram and World having closed down last night. To-morrow there will be no paper issued in the city. The publishers are willing to continue to pay the union prices hitherto in vogue, viz., 50 cents per thousand for morning papers, 45 cents for evening papers, and $21 per week for nine hours per day, but claim, the right to run the office, counting room and editorial departments. This, they claim the new union scale practically prohibits, consequently the strike on the part of the printers.

MITCHELL AND CORBETT.

Will Meet at New Orleans During the Mardi Gras Festival.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The management of the Coney Island Athletic Club is said to be greatly surprised over the manner in which it has been outgeneralled by the Olympic Club of New Orleans.

Judge Newton of the Coney Island Athletic Club took a quiet trip to Chicago to secure Jim Corbett's signature for a battle with Peter Jackson. He was clothed with authority to make a generous offer.

He was thunderstruck when informed that Corbett had already signed with the Olympic Club of New Orleans to fight Charley Mitchell during Mardi Gras week in February, it being the chief event of another triple championship affair. The two other pairs of contestants are to be Bob Fitzsimmons and Jim Hall, middle weights, and Jack McAuliffe, light weight champion of America, against Dick Burge, light weight champion of England.

THE ARGENTINE REBELLION.

The Revolt Against the Government Growing Formidable.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 21.—The revolt in Santiago del Estero, capital of the province of that name, is assuming formidable proportions. The rebels are in full possession of the capital and have placed the provincial ministers under arrest. The governor of the province has asked the national government to intervene and restore the status quo. The Provincial Guards are arming to oppose the rebels.

Illness of a Judge.

GUELPH, Oct. 21.—Judge Street, on account of sickness, probably caused by the after-effects of grip and a chill received at the court house, left for home by the 10.30 train, leaving over several of the cases before him and making arrangements for their disposal. There were a good many complaints as to the ventilation and drafts of the court room this week.

Missed the Fox and Killed the Boy.

WINCHESTER SPRINGS, Ont., Oct. 21.—Last Monday evening three men and a boy named Eddy Liberty were after a fox in a hollow log. One of the men shot the fox, but did not kill it. He loaded a second time, and when raising the trigger to shoot again the trigger slipped and the gun went off, its contents lodging in the body of the boy, Liberty, and causing his death last night.

MERCIER DEMANDS TRIAL

HE MAKES AN APPEAL TO COURT IN HIS BEHALF.

Following His Counsel He Addresses the Court in His Own Behalf, Saying He Had His Honor to Defend and the Honor of His Family—The Hearing is Accordingly Set For Saturday.

QUEBEC, Oct. 21.—A large number of citizens were in court to hear the Mercier trial. Hon. Mr. Mercier occupied a seat in front of his counsel and in rear of the sheriff. Hon. Mr. Gagnon. The ex-Premier looked well, though somewhat troubled.

Mr. Dunbar, Q.C., moved that the case of the Queen v. Morissette, charged with forgery, be proceeded with.

Mr. Greenshields, Q.C., on behalf of Hon. Mr. Mercier, arose from his seat and insisted that the case of the Queen v. Hon. Mr. Mercier and Ernest Pacaud take precedence. He said that all the witnesses for the Crown were present.

Mr. Dunbar said that the Crown considered it their duty to first proceed with the trials of those in jail, which was a public duty.

Mr. Greenshields, in answer, said that he was informed that there were only one or two prisoners in jail and he ridiculed the idea that their trial was of more importance than that of the ex-Premier of the province, a former Queen's adviser. Such a thing would not be tolerated in England and France.

Mr. Lemieux followed in a forcible speech, advocating the same right of justice. He quoted the trials of McGreevy and appealed to the judge's intelligence and heart.

Hon. Mr. Mercier next addressed the court, saying that he received a telegram in Montreal last night informing him that his trial would not proceed to-day for reasons best known to the Crown. He did not believe the contents of the telegram and he came down to Quebec to stand his trial. He had a favor to ask of the court, and that was for his trial to be proceeded with at once, let the consequences be what they may. He was on all sides libelled by the press, who maligned his character and called him a robber. He thought he was entitled to this right as a journalist, a lawyer and ex-Premier of the Province of Quebec. He had his honor to defend and the honor of his family. "If my title as a father of a family is not enough, my title as a British subject you cannot take away from me," said the honorable gentleman.

He concluded an eloquent appeal by saying he would stay in court day after day, and if he was not accorded his trial then he would say that there was no justice in this country.

Mr. Fitzpatrick followed in the same strain.

Mr. Stuart, Q.C., associate Crown prosecutor, said that the defendants were on the same footing as other accused and he would resist any special favor being accorded.

Judge Blanchet in rendering judgment said that it was not a political case and he was obliged to follow the regular practice of the court. The Crown has a great responsibility and the court has not the right to fix a trial. It rested with the Attorney-General and he ruled that the case of the Queen v. Morissette be proceeded with.

Mr. Greenshields asked the court to fix a date for the trial, when Saturday was named.

THE CARMAUX STRIKE.

The Strikers Agree to Submit Their Demands to Arbitration.

CARMAUX, Oct. 21.—Ministers Baudin and Duoquesay addressed the Strike Committee yesterday and explained the situation. They communicated to the committee telegrams received from many members of the Chamber of Deputies advising the strikers to accept arbitration.

Ministers Baudin and Ducqueray then withdrew and the committee proceeded to discuss the troubles.

The discussion was of a stormy character and was continued for four hours. It was finally decided that the strikers should agree to submit the matters under dispute to arbitration.

The decision of the committee will be submitted to the men to-morrow, when three persons will be delegated to submit the men's demands to Premier Loubet. The men express their entire satisfaction with the decision arrived at by the committee and it is evident that they intend to abide by the result of the arbitration.

THE BORDEN CASE.

The Man in Custody at Richmond Thought to Be an Impostor.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 21.—The description of John Wood, alias Henry Wood, alias Henry Hahr, who is under arrest in Richmond, Va., tallies with that of a man whose aliases are easily explained, who boarded with Mrs. Houghton and also with her daughter, Mrs. Cross.

He worked in a hat factory last year, but was not in the vicinity of Fall River when the Borden murders were committed.

The police report that there are strange detectives here at work on the Borden case, and they know that they are not in the Government employ. The mysterious woman who figured so conspicuously at the hearings is again registered at the Mellen House and again attracting local attention by her lively movements.

Left Dead by the Roadside.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 21.—William B. Carswell on the way to Wilmington from his home at Elsmore yesterday discovered the dead body of a girl, apparently about 16 years old, partly nude and with a gash across her throat nearly severing her head from her body. A razor and razor case were lying by the girl's side, and there were evidences that she had fought desperately for her honor and life. The body has not yet been identified.

A Native of Toronto.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 21.—Nellie Dunn, who murdered John Wagner, hotelkeeper, at Emerson yesterday, comes from Toronto, where she married a man named Fisher. Since coming here she married John Malcalm, who is now a resident of Morris, Manitoba. She has a sister living in Brockville.

Stolen Goods Returned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The customs officers have turned over to Luiz Pordoe, a representative of the Paul family of Venezuela, the $25,000 worth of jewelry stolen from them by their colored servant, Carlos Wiggins, who fled to this country. Wiggins was arrested when he landed and the plunder taken from him.

A TRUSTEES CONTRIBUTION.

Mr. McBain Submits Evidence in the Inspectorship Controversy.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Being deeply interested both personally and officially in the condition of our public schools, I wish to add a few plain facts to the controversy now going on in reference to the appointment of a permanent inspector. The rash, if not reckless and, certainly, misleading statements and writings of Mr. Dumble, having a tendancy to create an impression in the public mind that, in places where an inspector is employed who devotes his whole time to the work of inspecting the schools, the system has worked unsatisfactorily, and that the results are inferior to the Peterborough system, which is practically no system, I have in order to obtain correct and reliable information, written to a principal of one of the highest public schools in Ottawa, Mr. T. McJanet. Feeling sure that his answers to the questions I submitted, will be of interest to the ratepayers in the present state of the controversy now going on in town on the subject, I submit below the correspondence that passed :—

PETERBOROUGH, Oct. 15th 1892.

Thos. McJanet, Esq., Ottawa :

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly send me some information in reference to school matters in your city. I am informed that your Board of Education employed a permanent inspector, and a resident of your city. How many schools and how many teachers were there when your Board of Education adopted this system? What salary did your permanent inspector draw when the system was first adopted and what effect did the change have? Did it prove satisfactory to both ratepayers and teachers as a rule? If not, why did your Board continue the system and also continue to increase the inspector's salary from time to time? I can easily understand that you have more schools and more teachers as your population has increased. How long have you been teaching in Ottawa schools and how long have you been Principal? Kindly give me all the information you can, promptly, by return mail and greatly oblige,

Yours truly,
J. J. McBAIN,

THE PRINCIPAL'S REPLY.

339 SLATER STREET, OTTAWA, Oct. 17th, 1892.

J. J. McBAIN, ESQ.,

DEAR SIR,—Your letter to hand to-day. In reply I would state that our School Board adopted the system of a permanent inspector in the year 1870. At that time there were 4 schools employing a staff of 25 teachers. The salary of the inspector was $1,000 (one thousand dollars) per annum. At the present time there are 14 schools, employing a staff of 64 teachers. The present salary of the inspector is $2,000 per an. With respect to the effect of the system, I can safely say that it has proved eminently satisfactory, both to the ratepayers and teaching staff. I have no hesitation in saying, and I say it with all due modesty, that our Public Schools are a credit to our city, and would be a credit to any city. Of course what I have said applies only to our Public Schools. The Roman Catholics have their Separate Schools, employing as large a staff of teachers and having an inspector of their own.

I have been teaching on the Public School staff here for nearly thirteen years. For the past eleven years I have occupied the position of Principal. My present position, Principal of "Central School East," is the highest in the gift of the Public School Board.

I have sent you, by this mail, a copy of the rules and regulations which applies to our schools, and which may be of some use to you should you see fit to adopt our system.

Any further information which you may require, will be cheerfully given.

With kind regards, I am,
Yours truly,
T. McJANET.

While I have always considered Mr. Dumble a useful man in some ways, upon the board, and while I am willing to give him credit for the interest he has apparently taken in the schools, I think it my duty to submit that the facts brought out by the foregoing correspondence which I believe are correct and reliable, taken in injunction with other facts that have been previously made public, serve to to strongly confirm the contention of those who are advocating the change in our schools requiring the appointment of a permanent inspector. My desire is only to contribute facts to this controversy, but I cannot refrain from referring in decided terms to the uncalled for insinuation contained in his letter that those advocating a change in the inspectorship were only "trying to make an office for a friend." For myself I repudiate this incorrect assumption as strongly as words can express, and I feel certain that other members of the board are equally free from a desire to prostitute their positions to secure the advancement of a friend. I believe as firmly as possible that I have presented only facts to the public, whom I leave to draw their own conclusions.

Yours truly,
J. J. McBAIN.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

PAIN from indigestion, dyspepsia and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking Carter's Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this. dw

A TORONTO WOMAN'S PISTOL.

The Keeper of a Bagnio At Pembina Kills a Man.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 20.—John Wagner, proprietor of the Carney House at Emerson, was shot early yesterday by an inmate of a house of ill-fame, located near Emerson, but just across the U.S. boundary line. Wagner, with a number of friends, while on their way home attempted to gain admittance to a house kept by the notorious Nellie Dunn, but were refused. While the party were withdrawing from the house, one of the inmates or keeper of the house commenced firing through the door, one of the balls striking Wagner in the chest, killing him instantly. Nellie Dunn fired the fatal shot. All of the inmates have been arrested and lodged in jail at Pembina, where an inquest will be held. Wagner leaves a wife and two children. The murderess came here from Toronto about 6 months ago.

THE RINK STREET SEWER.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—When the sewage by-law asking for $40,000.00, as an instalment to commence with, was defeated a short time ago, and by so large a majority as two to one, I thought with the majority that we had heard the last of the wretched affair, and that, until the ratepayers had again voted on the question, the council would remain quiet and do nothing in the matter in the way of construction. It seems, however, that we have been mistaken, and unless the people promptly and effectually move in the matter, the council will have inflicted on the town a vastly greater abomination, an abomination dangerous to life and health, in Peterborough and Ashburnham both. It is horrible, it is worse than barbarous, and no amount of chagrin, or disappointment, or failure of the council in its former attempt to foist upon the ratepayers an imperfect system, should warrant this diabolical retaliation upon the town.

With a persistency and tenacity worthy of a better purpose, it must be evident to any one who has followed the subject, that all the old methods, interests and influences are still at work—and upon the old lines,

Under the specious plea of urgency, pressing urgency, of providing the Edison Co. drain, it is sought by the council and its engineers, to introduce the thin edge of the wedge in the direction of Little Lake, and ultimately and as a consequence, the adoption of the old Lock street outfall, the pivotal point upon which turns the success of the engineer's pet plan, contrary to the votes of the ratepayers, to every principle of sanitary engineering, true economy, permanency, and the security and safety of the public health. What the engineers and their abettors are set on is the revival of

THE OLD PLAN WITH NEW EVILS ADDED.

If I remember rightly, the old plan contemplated the admission only of cellar, storm and surface water into the Little Lake, whereas by the drain now being constructed along Rink street, a sewage pipe 15 inches in diameter, a capacity for 7,000 population, is run into it. It is but recently the Board of Health, very properly, passed a resolution forbidding sewage stuff being emptied into the George street old drain. We do not forget the fuss that was made a few years ago about the escapement into the river of sawdust from the mills, and the steps that were taken to enquire into and report upon the condition of Spaulding's Bay.

If such vigilance and precaution were needed in those days of comparative freedom from disease, how are we to regard, not the supineness of the council, but its thought-out, deliberate action in now directing into a central point between the towns of Peterborough and Ashburnham, not separated 200 yards across, a stream of filth, and there in a sheltered cove, in shallow dead water deposit it upon a bed of decayed and decaying sawdust, slabs and other decaying organic matter there to fester and ferment, and spread all around the germs of disease and death. So great an outrage should not for a moment be tolerated. With many people the impression prevails that the Rink street sewer will place the sewage beyond range and touch of the town. This is not the case. It will bring the sewage greatly nearer the centre of the town. Looking at the plan it will be seen that from the head of Rink street at Park, the sewage will travel about 1,800 feet to George street and will be dumped into the cove mentioned, according to specification, only 400 feet east of George street, that is, the sewage will than where it comes from. It must too be borne in mind that the dumping place of the sewage is but a few hundred feet distant from where the town's people and those of Ashburnham get their summer supply of ice, and from where, of late years, train loads of ice have been hauled away. The proximity is suggestive, but it is not nice to dwell upon. The result of course will be that ice must be found elsewhere, if at all, and that many of our workmen and teams will be thrown out of employment when most needed, not taking into consideration the increased cost of ice to the consumer, necessarily caused by the extra labor and haul to procuring a pure article. I state emphatically that the members of council who have furthered the planting of this plague bed in our midst, have incurred, not alone serious responsibility, but the active censure of the community at large, and that the engineers who have designed and are now carrying out the vile and filthy drain, have but a very limited conception of the duties and functions of what sanitary engineers deem of greater value than the triumph of a fad, viz:—Their own reputations and the people's health.

The thing is monstrously reprehensible.

IT ADMITS OF NO PALLIATION.

George street is the chief business and pleasure street of the town. It leads to the prettiest and perhaps best kept cemetery in the province. It leads to our agricultural exhibition grounds and race course, and is the avenue over which exhibitors, visitors and distinguished persons come to and return from our exhibitions. During the summer months, when the days are longest and the sun hottest, may be seen, on Sundays especially, groups of people, young and old, some on pleasure, some upon sad missions, wending their way to God's acre, to ramble through its silent, well-kept grounds, or to mourn over the graves of departed friends and kindred. Are these natural advantages and privileges of pure air and a bracing walk around our Little Lake shore, to be practically put an end to, or rendered nugatory, and our own and visitor's senses and health offended and endangered by the fetid atmosphere to be encountered on the way to these places of resort?

The efforts of our city fathers and sanitary engineers should, instead of bringing in filth, be directed to drive it out and keep it out at every point. Instead of pouring filth into the lake, they should seek rather to clean out and purify it and it to supply with pure air, pure water the people who live on its shores. Better for the future health of the town that our council would reconvert Central Park into a burying ground than run this sewage into the Little Lake. The Central Park would but receive death; the Little Lake will make it. Does it not strike one as preposterous that at a time when every city in Europe and America, and nearer home, Canada, are being quarantined, and cleaned and fumigated, and every effort made by city councils and Boards of Health to ward off the dread scourge of cholera, our town council of Peterborough should seize that moment, not to destroy or lead away the sewage, but actually to collect it from an outlying point 1800 feet distant from George street, and drop it as shown 1400 feet nearer to our main street.

The excuse of having to "fill a contract with the Edison Co." and "avoid a law suit" by laying the drain along Rink street is the merest bosh, and in view of the vital interests at stake, viz, the preservation and safety of the people's health, puerile.

The town welcomes the Edison Co., its staff and people, and wishes for more to come amongst us. They have the same common interest with us all (for it should be all), in preserving and promoting the health of the town, and no doubt the desire to have a proper drain from their premises was prompted by this laudable feeling. They should have had it long ago, and but for the haggling, wire-pulling and manœuvering of certain members of the council they would have had it. None of the Edison engineers would dream of running their sewage into the Little Lake while another outlet was possible.

Hippocrates gave us the cardinal hygienic formula. "pure air, pure water and pure soil." Dr. Smith, a great authority on sanitation says:—"Man is disease is abnormal, and death, except from old age, is accidental, and both are preventible by human agencies."

Disease is not a consequence of life, it is due to an unnatural condition of living, to neglect, abuse or want.

Col. Geo. E. Waring, the eminent American sanitary engineer, an authority early quoted by Mr. MacDougall, Peterborough's chief sanitary engineer, says:—"It cannot be too often reiterated that the great purpose of modern sewerage is to remove immediately and entirely beyond the occupied portions of a town, all manner of domestic waste and filth before it has time to enter into decomposition.

The italics are mine, and I submit that the doctrine propounded is that which I have, from the beginning, been endeavoring, however feebly, to press upon the attention of the people of Peterborough, in regard to the important question of sewerage. All the Edison Company required was ample means of effectually and quickly getting rid of its sewage. I have maintained and always will maintain that Park street affords the best and safest location as the permanent outlet for the sewage of the whole town. The distance from the Edison Works to the foot of Park street is but one-half what the sewage must travel, if it travels at all, by the Little Lake to get to the same point, and the fall per 100 feet on Park street is double that by Rink street, and the water route, to the foot of Park. I contend that our beautiful river and lake should be kept free from all sewage, and where it is possible to avoid it, as it happily is in our case, that should be deposited at any point within the limits of the town (as a terminal point) unless it be immediately destroyed.

I admire the action of the townships of Monaghan and Otonabee. Their representatives are right in guarding against what they conceive to be injurious to the interests confided to them. I wish the same could so fully and truly be said of our town representatives in regard to their constituents. It is a pity the joint committee appointed to consider and report upon this part of the question was not permitted to complete its work. The result in any event could not fail to supply much useful information. But it is of a piece with the indecision and tergiversation that have characterized the conduct of our town solons in their treatment of the whole question from the beginning. From Rink street to the river via Park is about 0,600 feet. If the drain now being built had been turned into Park street it would go one third of the way, and the remaining two thirds would cost but double the amount now being expended, not only upon a useless drain, but upon what I consider to be a most objectionable work; an offensive shocking and wicked piece of so-called sanitary engineering.

There should be no hide-and-seek about the matter. The people's will should sit resolutely upon it.

Apologizing for the unexpected length of this letter, I beg to remain

Yours truly,
J. W. FITZGERALD.

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAID.

Experience Proves It.

A Montreal physician said, the other day, that he was attending a large number of people who were suffering from sore throat, coughs, and affections of the bronchial tubes. The well-known physician remarked: "This is just the season when the troubles come on. The sudden changes in temperature; the cold and damp days are productive of serious results."

When spoken to regarding Harvard Bronchial Syrup, the physician said: "It is a grand remedy, and I frequently prescribe it in my practice; and I know of other doctors who are recommending it.

This king of cough remedies is worthy of a place in every home in case of emergencies. It always gives instant relief, and can be used by the young as well as the old, as it contains no injurious ingredients.

Thousands of men and women in Canada are aware of the wonderful properties of Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and recommend it to their friends. We earnestly advise every reader who suffers from sore throat, cough, hoarseness or enlargement of the tonsils, to go at once and purchase a bottle; every druggists sells it.

MEAT JOB PRINTING AT THE EXAMINER OFFICE.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

The game lasted an hour and was evenly contested throughout both sides sharing alike the honours of the match. The game was very fast and some good passing, running and dodging were done, all the players doing fine work. For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."
A. A. WILLIAMS

SILVERWARE! SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. Each Saturday morning CHINA HALL will place on its Bargain Table its weekly snap. This offer to be valid for one week only. Our bargain this week is a Silver Castor at $3.00—the best value for the money ever offered in Peterborough.

TICKET AGENTS' ASSOCIATION

HELD THEIR SIXTH ANNUAL MEETING AND DINNER YESTERDAY.

The Business Transacted at the Session Mr. W. R. Calloway is the New President-Elect—The Banquet in the Evening a Crowning Success—The Ticket Agents a Genial and Approachable Set of Fellows—Next Meeting to be Held in London.

The members and officers of the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association varied the tedium of business by taking a drive yesterday afternoon around the town, visiting the Edison Works and other manufactories, as well as the various points of interest and beauty which Peterborough possesses.

At three o'clock they returned to the Grand Central hotel and began the work of their sixth annual session. About thirty members were present, Mr. F. Barlow Cumberland, Toronto, president, in the chair. The business consisted of the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by Mr. E. De La Hooke, secretary-treasurer, London, which were ratified, and the report of the treasurer showing a substantial balance on hand. The correspondence which had taken place during the year between the secretary and the executive was then according to a resolution passed at the last annual meeting read. Following, two admirably prepared papers showing careful study and a full knowledge of the subjects, were read, "The Duties of a Ticket Agent by Mr. W. E. Rispin, Chatham, and "Money Spent in Railroad Advertising," by W. Jackson, of Clinton. Considerable discussion of a profitable nature followed. Regret was universally expressed that Mr. J. A. McKenzie, of Woodstock, through indisposition, was unable to be present with his paper on "Our Association, its Aims and Uses."

The time and place of the next meeting were fixed at London on the third Thursday in October next. The business concluded with the election of officers for the ensuing year resulting as follows: President, W. R. Calloway, General Passenger agent, C.P.R., Toronto; 1st Vice-President, J. A. McKenzie, Woodstock; 2nd Vice-President, W. E. Rispin, Chatham; 3rd Vice-President, W. H. Bowman, Berlin; Secretary-Treasurer, E. De La Hooke, London; Auditor, W. Jackson, Clinton; Ex. Committee, T. Long, Port Hope; J. P. Hurley, Peterborough; P. J. Slatter, Toronto; John Paul, London; H. G. Hunt, St. Catharines. The meeting then adjourned.

THE ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL DINNER took place in the evening at the Grand Central Hotel. The elaborate and tasteful banquet provided by mine host Lackie was worthy of the hearty commendation and practical appreciation it received. Hilarity and good fellowship prevailed and a jollier company than the forty association members and their guests never seasoned a first class meal with livelier and with merrier quips and good-humoured sallies.

The menu provided was of excellent quality and of generous quantity. After a vigorous assault and successful rout of the excellent viands the toast list was attacked. Mr. F. Barlow Cumberland, the retiring president of the association, presided, and on his right were seated His Worship Mayor Kendry and Mr. Edson J. Weeks, General Agent, New York Central, Buffalo, left of the chairman were Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P.P., D. W. Dumble, P.M., and others, Mr. E. De La Hooke, the obliging secretary-treasurer of the association, filled the duties of vice-chairman in a creditable manner. The toast of the "Queen" was proposed by the chairman in a few complimentary remarks and was loyally honoured, the strains of "God Save the Queen" ringing out in clear and hearty chorus. Mr. Thos. Dunn was then called upon for a song, "Speak of a man as you find him," which he rendered in a full, rich baritone voice, and at the close was rapturously applauded. In response to two hearty encores he kindly responded with two happy selections which were much appreciated. Prof. Butcher's orchestra, which had rendered some excellent selections while the guests were dining, were tendered the thanks of the Ticket Agents' Association by Mr. F. Barlow Cumberland, for the fine music dispensed and allowed liberty of fulfilling another engagement at Chemong Park for the evening. The "Dominion Parliament" was the next toast proposed by the chairman, which he did by a happy reference to the excellent network of railroads that covered the face of Canada. He spoke of how in years past the people of the Dominion had helped to populate the Western States by these great lines, but he was thankful we now had a great country of our own to develop, the Canadian Northwest which was rapidly growing and developing in a rich and fertile province.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., whose name had been associated with the toast, expressed his very great pleasure at being present at the annual gathering of the Canadian Ticket Association. He made a laudatory reference to the morality, enterprise, health and business push of the town and said it was highly honoured in having all these great advantages which, together with its beauty of situation was what doubtless induced the ticket agents to hold their annual convention in Peterborough. The speaker made a glowing reference to Canada and to the great future which inevitably awaited her. The question of the ultimate destiny of Canada had often been discussed but of all the solutions to this important question he believed that British connection was the right and lasting one. He did not believe that Canada would, as some thought, ever become a parcel or part of the republic to the south of us. (Applause.) Mr. Stratton made reference to the great extent and vast resources of the Dominion, which compared favourably with those of any other country. He warmly commended the chairman's graceful reference to the magnificent territory with which Canada was endowed in the great Canadian North-west. Canada had the longest line of railway operated by a single corporation of any country on earth, and it was as well managed a road as any line on the continent. The telegraph and telephone lines and efficient postal service of the Dominion were next mentioned. The mineral, timber and fishery resources were pronounced unrivalled in extent, variety and productiveness. He thanked the members of the association and the guests present for the hearty manner in which they had honoured the toast and for the attentive hearing they had given. "The General Passenger Agent's Departments" was the next toast on the list and was responded to with a gusto. The chairman said they were all glad when the passenger department was attended to by men of jovial disposition and an obliging nature.

Mr. Chas. Cameron, General Manager of the Collingwood Transit Co. and who was referred to by the chairman as "Commodore Charlie" responded to the toast by expressing his pleasure at being present. He said the steamboat company or railroad lines would be very little use without the ticket agents (cheers). He would like to have all the railroad men go over the line which he represented. "Hear! Hear!"

Mr. Edson J. Weeks, General Agent New York Central Buffalo, whose name was coupled with the toast next replied. He thanked the chairman for styling him "General Ed," and calling his line "America's greatest railroad." The Canadian Ticket Agents he respected and had cultivated some warm friendships with them, and kept these up too.

Mr. E. De La Hooke, London, the genial Sec.-Treas. of the Association, was then called upon for a song and prefaced his selection, which was given in a clear, mellow voice, by a humour-story.

"Our Guests" was next proposed, coupled with the names of Mayor Jas. Kendry and Police Magistrate D. W. Dumble.

Mr. Cumberland said Peterborough-nians had treated them royally, and he hoped the town might long have such capable representatives as these.

The Mayor said: "If this is a sample of your line, Mr. President, I am sure you have a good line. I am glad to welcome you to Peterborough and am sure the citizens are exceedingly pleased to meet you." His Worship then wished the Association increasing success.

Mr. Dumble, P.M., expressed his pleasure at being present and thanked those present for the happy way in which the toast had been received. He took his seat amid applause after making a few brief congratulatory and complimentary remarks.

While Mr. Bowman, C.P.R. agent, Berlin, was thinking about whether he should tell a story or not, Mr. Dumble volunteered a very witty sketch, "Lake of the Woods."

Mr. W. E. Rispin, G.T.R. agent, Chatham was called upon to propose the next toast, that of "The Travelling Passenger Agents." Mr. S. J. Sharp, Canadian Passenger Agent for the New York, Lake Shore, Erie and Western railway, Toronto; Mr. W. S. Dockrill, travelling passenger agent C.P.R. Toronto, and Mr. McLeod, of the Chicago and Rock Island Road, all did the honors of the toast in becoming speech. Mr. Dockrill expressed regret at the absence of Mr. W. R. Callaway, passenger agent of the C.P.R. and the newly elect president of the Association. On his behalf he thanked the association for the honor done Mr. Callaway.

President Cumberland then narrated a facetious tale amid laughter.

Mr. H. A. Hunt, G.T.R. agent, St. Catharines, proposed the next toast, "Our Association." Mr. Hunt was one of the principal originators of the association and its first president.

Mr. E. De La Hooke the obliging secretary-treasurer and Mr. J. Barlow Cumberland, the retiring president expressed the pleasure it gave them to have their names coupled with the toast and made felicitous addresses. Mr. De La Hooke said he hoped the travelling passenger agents would induce all the agents they came in contact with to join the association. Mr. Cumberland spoke of the duties of the ticket agents, benefits and worthy work being done by the association.

The "Press" was next proposed and duly honoured by Mr. J. W. Tierney, Arnprior, and the representatives of the local papers present.

Mr. A. Williams, G. T. R. agent, Brampton, then sang a patriotic song, entitled "Canada, Fair Canada," and was compelled to respond to an encore.

Secretary De La Hooke moved a vote of thanks to Mr. J. P. Hurley, Peterborough, for the assistance and kindness shown the association in paving the way for such a successful session as they had, by his indefatigable efforts on behalf of the association.

Mr. Hurley made a fitting reply, thanking the members for their kindness.

The final toast was that of "The Host," responded to by Mr. D. Lackie, proprietor of the Grand Central hotel. "God Save the Queen" and "Auld Lang Syne" brought the evening's enjoyment to a reluctant conclusion.

'Clear Havana Cigars.'

THE SPY SPEAKS.

He Writes a Book Which His Former Friends Will Find Strong Reading.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The reminiscences of Dr. Le Caron, the spy for the British Government, who gained notoriety in 1889 by his disclosures in behalf of The Times before the Parnell commission, have been made public.

He calls himself a fatalist, and says: "I never sought Fenianism; Fenianism rather came to me."

Writing to his father in regard to the projected Fenian invasion of Canada, he says he never supposed that one result of his father's imparting his letters to the British Government would be that he would receive a commission as a British spy. He declares that when he and Gen. O'Neill were received at the White House at Washington by President Johnson the President told O'Neill that he sympathized with the Fenians and was willing to do all in his power to assist the Fenian movement.

"You must remember," said President Johnson, "that I gave you full five days before issuing the proclamation stopping you. In God's name what more did you want? If you could not get there in five days, by God! you could never get there. And then, as President, I was compelled to enforce the neutrality laws or be denounced on every side."

Le Caron describes the whole Fenian movement against Canada, showing how he got acquainted with every man of importance connected with the movement. He says only twice was he in danger of discovery. Le Caron says the Clan-na-Gael's plans included a treaty with Russia, the manufacture of a submarine torpedo boat to inflict terrible damage on the British navy, plots to assassinate the Queen, to kidnap the Prince of Wales and to rescue Davitt from prison.

"A Staff of Eminent American Physicians" Will Not Work Ireland.

BELFAST, Oct. 20.—A man calling himself Dr. Hale of Philadelphia was arrested on the charge of fraudulent practice. Hale is a member of a firm whose coming was heralded by large advertisements to the effect that "a staff of eminent American physicians" would arrive in Belfast Oct. 20, and would locate permanently. His arrest was ordered from Liverpool, and he will be arraigned there to-morrow.

American Cattle Shut Out.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The outbreak of pleuro-pneumonia among United States cattle on the steamship England at Deptford again postpones the free entry of United States stock to British markets, which the American Government has been strongly urging upon the new Minister of Agriculture.

The decision of the Canadian Government to strengthen the cattle quarantine against the United States in the Northwest is strongly commended in the light of the outbreak.

Rumors of French Defeat in Dahomey.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—The persistent rumors of a defeat in Dahomey have led the Ministry of Marine to publish a note saying that no anxiety is felt by the authorities here concerning Col. Dodds, that his column is advancing steadily but that it cannot possibly have reached Cana yet and that the reports of an engagement are, therefore, without foundation.

A Turnover for Royalty.

VIENNA, Oct. 20.—The heir-presumptive to the throne, Archduke Karl Ludwig, and his wife met with an accident last night. They were returning in a carriage from Wiener Neustadt. The night was very dark and the coachman missed the road. Suddenly the carriage fell into a ditch and was turned completely over. The Archduke was stunned and the lower limbs of the Archduchess were severely injured.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr. Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles is—Try it. You will soon be convinced. THE PAPER AGE.

We Are In It, and the Coming Man Will be Very Much in It.

The world has seen its iron age and its brazen age, but this is the age of paper. We are making so many things of paper that it will soon be true that without paper there is nothing made. We live in paper houses, wear paper clothing, and sit on paper cushions in paper cars rolling on paper wheels. If we lived in Bergen we could go on Sunday to a paper church. We do a paper business, over paper counters, buying paper goods, paying for them with paper money, and deal in paper stocks on paper margins. We row races in paper boats for paper prizes. We go to paper theatres where paper actors play to paper audiences.

As the age develops the coming man will become more deeply enmeshed in the paper net. He will awake in the morning and creep from under the paper clothing of his paper bed, and put on his paper dressing gown, and his paper slippers. He will walk over paper carpets, down paper stairs, and, seating himself in a paper chair, will read the paper news in the morning paper. A paper bell will call him to his breakfast, cooked in a paper oven, served on paper dishes, laid on a paper cloth on a paper table. He will wipe his lips with a paper napkin, and, having put on his paper shoes, paper hat, and paper coat, and then taking his paper stick (he has the choice of two descriptions already) he will walk on a paper pavement or ride in a paper carriage to his paper office. He will organize paper enterprizes and make paper profits. He will sail the ocean on paper steamships and navigate the air in paper balloons. He will smoke a paper cigar or paper tobacco in a paper pipe, lighted with a paper match. He will write with a paper pencil, whittle paper sticks with a paper knife, go fishing with a paper fishing rod and a paper hook, and put his catch in a paper basket. He will go shooting with a paper gun, loaded with paper cartridges, and will defend his country in paper forts with paper cannon and paper bombs.

Having lived his paper life and achieved a paper fame and paper wealth, he will retire to paper leisure and die in paper peace. There will be a paper funeral at which the mourners, dressed in paper crape, will wipe their eyes in a paper handkerchief, and the preacher will preach in a paper pulpit. He will lie in a paper coffin; elsewhere in this paper it will be seen that he has a chance of doing so already if he is a paper—we mean pauper. He will be wrapped in a paper shroud, his name will be engraved on a paper plate, and a paper hearse, adorned with paper plumes, will carry him to a paper-lined grave, over which will be raised a paper monument.—Paper Record.

Some indefatigable purveyor for the public press has ascertained the exact measurements of the feet belonging to the bluest blood in Europe, and this information has done more toward reconciling the American girl to wearing shoes that are comfortable on her feet than all the sarcasm of the reformers or the ridicule of artists with their tiresome reiteration of the measurements of ancient Grecian statues. And so we are told that tight shoes are going out, and trailing after them pointed toes and high heels. No American girl cares a hairpin for some dead and forgotten Grecian beauty, but living proof that large hands and feet are characteristic of the royal ladies in Europe has its effect on the average size of slippers sold by the dealers and gloves fitted by the glovers.

The "umbrella snake" is a little artificial article which promises to wind its way into our favor, for its purpose is to encircle the umbrella in place of the ordinary elastic band, which has a pernicious habit of getting so worn and stretched that one's best umbrella rivals in shape the gingham of Mrs. Gamp.

A bachelor apartment in New York has a dado about its parlor, with frequent oval and square openings in the carvings wherein are inserted the photographs of the man's girl and woman friends. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, too, has carried out somewhat the same idea in her bungalow at Short Beach in a frieze of photographs about her library, though the latter idea is somewhat impractible, as one dislikes to see one's friends skied. The photograph screen will now hide its diminished head.

A charming scheme of decoration for a dinner comprises a cover of pink and white lisse for the table, the pink being fulled slightly over the white. Tall candles in silver candle-sticks are covered with shades of pink and white lisse, and down through the centre of the table silver bowls are placed at intervals filled with pale pink blossoms.

If you wish to secure a certain and speedy result, when using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, be careful in observing the rules of health, or the benefit may be retarded. A fair and persistent trial of this medicine never fails, when the directions are followed.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

THE COW-HORN FLY.

It Creates Much Trouble and May be a Worse Nuisance Than the Potato Bug.

The cow-horn fly may prove a greater evil than the potato bug. From all parts of the country come unwelcome accounts of the presence and activity of the new pest. The cows tormented by the flies are unable to eat, and they consequently lose flesh rapidly, and the production of milk is diminished. It is even stated that cows have died, owing their death directly to the horn fly, but this may be doubted. Though gratifying reports are heard of the good effect of many remedies suggested, it is feared these will give only temporary relief, and that the fly will continue to exist here and multiply and become a perpetual menace to the dairying interests of Ontario.

The reasons of this gloomy view of the situations are given by Mr. A. A. Brodie, of Gladstone, and these are the insufficiency of the remedies proposed and the indifference of farmers generally. He figures out the cost of a single application of lard to the cows on the farms along a two-mile concession line in his own neighborhood, and concludes that this treatment would be too expensive, while the trouble attending frequent applications would make it impracticable. In the case of large herds this is true. Those objections cannot, however, be made with equal force against the use of the kerosene emulsion, which is quite as effective, costs but a trifle, and may be applied with a spray. Mr. William Brodie of Toronto, in a recent communication, suggested the use of the ordinary entomologist's net. With this appliance he himself caught 167 specimens of the horn fly in two minutes. He is of the opinion that a boy armed with one of these nets might easily keep a large herd free from serious annoyance, and entirely abate the nuisance in a short time. This seems like a feasible plan, and, if generally pursued, might at least reduce to a minimum the stock-owner's loss from the attacks of the fly. Mr. Brodie also favors the plan of shutting the animals up in a dark place during the day and turning them out to pasture at night. He points to the established fact that the horn fly does not fly at night. Its habit is to roost on the horns of the cattle it feeds on. By driving the flies from their lodging-place by applications that are offensive to them the cattle may be housed free from their annoying presence, and may be kept in that condition by letting them out of the barn only during hours of darkness, when the horn fly is inactive.

Our Gladstone correspondent doubts the efficacy of any plan to rid the country of this pest or any other similar affliction. "You cannot," he says, "get farmers to benefit themselves by applications to their lands, their crops, houses, barns, or live stock, even when the fact of profit has been demonstrated before their very eyes." Hoard's Dairymen recently remarked that there were a great many farmers feeding worthless flies with costly cows. Unfortunately there is too much truth in both statements. There is not that unity of action among agricultural people that one would expect to see when the interest of each is the interest of all. But what is the remedy? It would seem that the farmers themselves must possess the only cure for this evil. If legislation will help them, no doubt they can obtain all they desire. There is enough law on the statute books, one would imagine, to drive the Canadian thistle out of the country, but that obnoxious weed remains with us still and flourishes. Laws are useful only when those for whom they are made unite to enforce them. There is much room here for the educating influence of the Agricultural Departments.—Globe.

The handkerchief affected by the young woman of fine and original taste is an extra-sized square of linen, finished with a narrow hem, and having a shield in one corner or an oval of color upon which is embroidered in white her initial letter. A pretty idea in the marking of handkerchiefs, too, is that of writing the name in the corner and embroidering the signature in old-fashioned raised lines.

Russian cloths and velours du nord, which is not velvet, but a sort of rep wool, are among the novelties for fall. Among the colors approved are many warm browns, merging into and mingled with yellow. Changeable effects predominate in woollen goods as well as silk.

Among the blues what is known as a real smoke blue is again in vogue; it is somewhat darker than gendarme, and not as cold looking as steel blue. Speaking of blue, the old stand-by, navy, is now combined with heliotrope, and a very fashionable Englishwoman wears a heliotrope silk shirt, with a skirt and coat of navy blue broadcloth.

After Physicians Had Failed,

Mr. W. A. Mallory, of Mallorytown, Ont., says:—"My daughter suffered for years from a most distressing and annoying Catarrh. Her case was under the treatment of eminent physicians in the United States and Canada. Two months' use of Nasal Balm has had more beneficial effects than all former treatments combined. From all dealers or by mail, postpaid, at 50c. and $1 a bottle. G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Back-Ache.

Back-ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition; they are the governors of the system, continual disorder results in kidney consumption which is Bright's disease. dw

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvey affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flaks. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing, Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

A GIRL'S GREAT TROUBLE.

Claims to Have Been Deceived by a Toronto Man.

TORONTO Oct. 21.—In the early part of the summer Jane Weaver of Detroit met and loved a man named William McPherson, whose occupation tion was that of a miller there. He was much older, but this did not make him any the less an ardent lover. They were married in July at the residence of a man who was represented to be a minister. The young woman soon became suspicious of her husband. She read a letter addressed to Mc. Pherson. It was from Toronto, and addressed him as "Dear Hubby." Another letter, written in a scrawling, schoolboy hand, called him "papa" and implored him to come to "mamma."

The girl went to the county clerk's office and found there was no record there of her alleged marriage with McPherson. She now claims to have proof that she was the victim of a mock marriage and that the minister was a "fake."

She placed the case in the hands of the police, and Detective Downey arrested McPherson and locked him up.

A SUIT FOR $20,000.

David Blackley v. the Toronto Street Railway Company.

TORONTO, Oct. 21.—David Blackley, accountant, of Hamilton, has caused a writ to be issued against the Toronto Street Railway Company, claiming $20,000 damages for the death of his son, Ralph Blackley, who was killed on Oct. 1 in Toronto. The writ charges that the young man's death was due to the fact that the strip between the car tracks in Toronto, commonly known as the devil's strip, is too narrow for the safety of the traveling public; also that the employes of the company were negligent in allowing the deceased to ride on the side of the car when they knew that he could hardly escape being killed if he remained in that position. Walker, Scott & Lees are acting for the plaintiff.

After the Shrievalty.

TORONTO, Oct. 21.—The Ontario Government having requested Sheriff Sutton of Bruce to resign, there is a host of applicants, but those having most influence are: F. S. O'Connor, Walkerton; W. M. Dack, M.L.A., Kincardine, Centre Bruce; Dr. Bonner, Chesley, who ran in the Liberal interests in North Bruce in the last two Dominion election contests; R. Truax, ex-M.P., Walkerton; A. B. McCallum, Paisley; Dr. Landerkin, M.P., Hanover; Mr. Bowman, Southampton. The fight is keenest between F. S. O'Connor, R. Truax and Dr. Landerkin, M.P.

Edwin Booth's Condition.

LAKEWOOD, N.J., Oct. 21.—Inquiry at the Laurel House at this place as to the condition of Edwin Booth, the actor, revealed the fact that there was no change in Mr. Booth's condition since yesterday. Mrs. Grossman, the daughter of Mr. Booth, says that although her father is weak he is not confined to his room, and no physician is attending him. He appears at the dining room regularly for his meals.

Declared a Habitual Drunkard.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Frederick Willets, formerly proprietor of The New York Illustrated News, has been declared an habitual drundark by a jury in Jamaica, and a committee is to be appointed by County Judge Garretson of Queen's County, to take charge of his person and estate. The proceedings were begun some time ago by his wife. Mr. Willets squandered a fortune of about $400,000 in six years, and when placed on the witness stand was unable to account for more than $2100. In summing up before the jury Lawyer J. E. Ketcham, who represents Mrs. Willets, stated that Mr. Willets had an income of between $16,000 and $18,000 a year, but he was so overwhelmed by debt that three days after he received this money he had not enough left to buy a hat or a pair of gloves. Mr. Ketcham urged that the money be placed in the hands of a committee to relieve Mr. Willets of the harpies who preyed on him.

The Fire Has Burned for a Week.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 21.—Advices from Milford, Del., state that the fire in Cypress Swamp, which broke out last week, is still burning and advancing toward the small settlement of Parkerstown. It has destroyed thus far $15,000 worth of cypress shingles and eight small houses. There is no way to quench the flames until rain falls. The odor of smoke was perceptible in the air in this city last night, a hundred miles away.

Relating to Chinese Exclusion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The Treasury Department has decided that the wife of a Chinaman, other than a laborer, who may be legally domiciled in the United States may be permitted to enter the United States; also that the children of Chinese persons who may be born while such persons are legally domiciled in the United States and who may have departed therefrom, may be permitted to land on their return when the collector is satisfied that they were born in United States territory.

Matters in Which Toronto is Interested.

OTTAWA, Oct. 21.—The Railway Committee of the Privy Council had a meeting yesterday and considered a dozen or more cases argued recently, including the Queen-street subway and Don Improvement crossing. Decisions will not be made public until the meeting of the committee next week.

Is your blood poor? Take BEECHAM'S PILLS.

A Hamilton Fireman Injured.

HAMILTON, Oct. 21.—Cyrus Miner, a fireman at the Central station, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon. Shortly after 4 o'clock the firemen were called out to a chimney fire at 45 Davenport-street. When returning to the station Miner was standing on the platform of the hook and ladder truck, and in turning out of the car track it lurched and the fireman was thrown off. The front wheel of the heavy truck passed over his right thigh, crushing it severely. His ankle was also broken.

Miner was taken to Dr. Philp's office and received immediate treatment. He was afterwards taken home and Dr. Miller attended him. Miner received severe internal injuries. He rested very poorly last night, but there was an improvement in his condition yesterday.

A Vigorous Immigration Policy.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 21.—Archer Baker, European traffic agent of C.P.R., and John Innis, agent of Allan Line of steamers in Great Britain, who are now in the west, will arrive in Winnipeg on Tuesday, on their return trip. After resting here they will be joined by L. A. Hamilton, C.P.R. land commissioner, and proceed to Ottawa to interview the Dominion authorities in respect to immigration matters. It is likely that as a result of this conference more united efforts will be directed in the Old Country and that a vigorous policy will be inaugurated and maintained.

Went Into an Eternal Sleep.

WAYCROSS, Ga., Oct. 21.—John Randall Kennison, living near Folkston, Ga., was taken suddenly sick Tuesday night and apparently died. The body was prepared for burial and a coffin sent for. Near the hour of midnight those watching with the body were startled to notice a faint quiver of the lips, and in a few seconds the man opened his eyes and sat up. The family was overjoyed, when it developed that Kennison had only been in a trance. The coffin arrived in the meantime and Kennison's friends were about to return it to the undertaker, when Kennison fell asleep again; this time to wake no more.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

CHICAGO'S GLORIOUS DAY

GREAT POMP AT THE DEDICATION OF THE FAIR.

A Great Procession in the Streets and an Immense Crowd in the Dedication Building—An Oration at Night at the Columbus Congress by Archbishop Ireland.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—In the presence of 100,000 and amid the echoes of the largest chorus assembled in the history of modern times, the World's Columbian Exposition was formally dedicated yesterday by the dignitaries of the nation.

The scene presented by the vast gathering in the dedication building was one never to be forgotten. In many respects it was without precedent. Everything was on the order of superlative. The dedication hall, the manufacturers and liberal arts buildings, is the largest structure ever erected, and in it was gathered the largest crowd ever assembled beneath a single roof. In the audience were probably more distinguished Americans than have ever been seen together on any commemorative occasion in the history of the republic. All those gathered here to-day to do honor to the great silent student of 400 years ago, who in his way was the pioneer of them all, who led the van of human thought and manly daring and gave to the world a new continent and to posterity an imperishable reverence for Christopher Columbus. This was the name that was on every lip, in every ode and song, that crowned every peroration, that found utterance in the opening prayer and was softly breathed in the closing benediction. All did him honor; and time, that ripens and mellows the gratitude of nations, after 400 years gives greatest homage to his memory and name.

As the dawn broke the skies were clear, and the reddening east brought further assurance that the thousands should see and shout and go away unsoaked. Business was suspended, and at an early hour nearly everyone in the city was on the streets moving toward the "white city" of the Columbian Exhibition, where the ceremonies and pageant of the day should transpire. Michigan-avenue, from the auditorium to Fifty-fourth-street, was fringed on the curbs as early as 7 o'clock, and in the streets through which the great people should pass and out on the boulevards thousands were struggling for points of vantage. The crowd was in good humor.

The Procession.

The procession which escorted the dignitaries to the grounds was an imposing one. The troops massed in review numbered 15,000 men. As the federal representatives at the head of the procession neared the park the first of 21 guns, the presidential salute, boomed forth. The troops of the regular army and the state militia were drawn up at present arms as the salute was fired. The opening gun boomed just as the vice-president's carriage reached the south open green. Just after the salute concluded and the head of the procession had passed the battery was removed hurriedly to the north inlet of the exposition grounds, and when the long line of carriages rolled slowly over the big viaduct at Sixtieth-street the national salute was sounding over Lake Michigan. The show of troops was imposing. From the entrance of the park to the midway plaisance and thence to the great fair grounds the way was banked with the blue and brass of the military pride of many states, while at intervals the solid ranks of the regular troops lent strength to the array of glistening arms. As the vice-president's carriage passed between these columns there was a sharp present arms, and the procession moved to the "white city" beyond.

The Dedicatory Speech.

Arriving at the dedication hall Vice-President Morton was escorted to the platform and delivered the opening oration.

At the conclusion of the last sentence of the Vice-President's address and as he pronounced the dedicatory words, the members of the foreign diplomatic corps arose simultaneously to their feet in graceful approval of the sentiment, and the example so delicately set by the representatives of foreign nations were instantly followed by all the thousands assembled beneath the vast roof. The hallelujah chorus that followed added to the deep solemnity of the scene, and the true gravity of the moment was ineffaceably impressed on every mind, and when at the conclusion Henry Watterson advanced to deliver the formal dedicatory oration the great editor received an ovation worthy to crown a lifetime of glory.

The Celebration General.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Columbus day was appropriately celebrated with parades and public exercises at Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Providence and in various other cities throughout the New England and Atlantic states.

The Columbian Congress.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The brightest point, perhaps, in the galaxieties of the World's Fair celebration was the night at the Auditorium, when the Columbian Congresses, the purely intellectual part of the exposition, were inaugurated by Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul. Certainly the occasion was brilliant beyond all expectations, and the demand for seats to hear the famous American prelate was relatively greater in comparison with the facilities than the extraordinary pressure for admission to the Dedication hall at Jackson Park to-day.

The world-wide broad character of the Congress and of the audience was exemplified in the fact that while the orator was an archbishop of the faith of Rome, the benediction was spoken by probably the foremost western representative of evangelism, Dr. William R. Harper, president of the new University of Chicago. Another remarkable index was the circumstances that two of the addresses on the night's program were by women, who, it must be said, proved themselves worthy peers of the sterner sex who came before and after—Mrs. Potter Palmer and Mrs. Charles Henrotin.

Preceding all the addresses the opening invocation this evening was impressively voiced by Rev. John Henry Barrows, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago and chairman of the general committee on religious congresses. The invocation contained references to Columbus, to Isabella, and without naming him to Archbishop Ireland that challenged quick attention.

President Charles C. Bonney of the World's Congress Auxiliary delivered the address of welcome, only two sentences long, and the Woman's Branch greeting was equally brief and to the point.

The salutation in honor of Queen Isabella by Mrs. Henrotin was also a beauty of compression.

Archbishop Ireland was next introduced by President Bonney. The singing of "America" by the entire audience came next and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Harper.

The Closing Fireworks Display.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Last night the dedicatory exercises closed with the most gorgeous display of fireworks ever given in the world. To avoid the concentration of a mass of people this display was given in Washington Park on the south side, Garfield Park on the west side and Lincoln Park on the north. It is estimated that no less than 200,000 people saw each of these displays. The programs were all the same and given under the direction of James Pain & Sons of London and New York.

LATEST FROM OTTAWA.

A Despatch from the Colonial Office on the Copyright Question.

OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—A despatch has been received from the Colonial Office with reference to the copyright question, by which it appears that the reason of the delay in dealing with the matter is that it was referred to a commission composed of foreign and colonial officers, the Board of Trade and one of the Parliamentary counsel to consider the whole matter. This commission has made a long report, which makes suggestions regarding amendments to the Canadian act, 1889. These suggestions are confidential for the present, but are understood to indicate a possible solution of the questions pending between Canada and Great Britain on the subject of copyright.

An order-in-council has been passed settling the question of granting holidays to temporary clerks in the civil service and not deducting pay for absence through sickness. Three week's holidays will be allowed persons who have been employed one year, and an allowance will be made for sickness of not more than one week at a time, nor exceeding two weeks in one year.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating the Dominion Embroidery Company, Toronto, capital $40,000.

Mrs. Daly, wife of the Minister of the Interior, will arrive here this morning and spend a few days looking for a house, returning to Manitoba with her husband next week.

Several enterprising newspaper men have been endeavoring to obtain from Mr. Daly some outline of what his immigration policy will be, but he declined to say anything whatever on the subject until he had become more familiar with the working of the department. To The World he said he was fully alive to the importance of the immigration question and would give the matter his best consideration.

Judge Toms of Goderich has been granted four months' leave of absence.

GREAT ORANGE DEMONSTRATION.

All the Western District to be Invited to Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Oct. 22.—A movement has been inaugurated by William Nicholson, Grand Master of Ontario West, to have the next Twelfth of July celebrated in Hamilton in grand style. The practice of the brethren for some years has been to leave the city on the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne and help along celebrations in other places, to the detriment of the order here. The proposal is to invite all the lodges in Western Ontario to unite in the biggest king of a demonstration in Hamilton.

The District Orange Lodge met last evening and discussed the proposition, giving it an unqualified endorsement. Action was taken thus early to permit of the invitations being sent out in time for consideration by the various primary, district and county lodges in the jurisdiction at their annual meetings.

A committee was appointed also to arrange for the annual sermon in commemoration of the Gunpowder Plot.

Welland Perjury Case.

OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—D. B. McTavish, Q.C. here, has been asked by the counsel for Mr. German, ex-M.P., Welland, to have the record in the Welland election case used in the Supreme Court here forwarded to Welland for the case of Wood, who is awaiting his trial there on a charge of perjury. It was on the evidence of this man Wood that German was disqualified. The trial comes off on the 25th inst. Mr. Duval, the official reporter of the Supreme Court, will be forwarded with the documents asked for. As the Supreme Court will be sitting the registrar, Mr. Cassels, will be unable to go.

Indian Outbreak Expected.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 22.—George Bartlett, United States marshal at Pine Ridge, says: "The Indians are talking very freely of engaging in the ghost dance again, and despite the denial of the agents I know there is imminent danger of an outbreak. There are 28,000 Indians on the reservations. Of these 7000 are warriors, and fully 5500 are apt to go into the dance. There will be an outbreak on the reservation this winter or in the spring, or I am mistaken."

CHAPLEAU TO DROP OUT.

THE FRENCH LEADER MAKES THE ANNOUNCEMENT HIMSELF.

He Will Shortly Retire to the Lieut.-Governorship of Quebec and Leave Active Politics Behind Him—It Is Said That Hon. A. R. Angers Will Have Mr. Chapleau's Portfolio.

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 22.—Hon. Mr. Chapleau has at last finally announced his retirement from active politics and the Cabinet. After Dr. Lachappelle, the ministerial candidate for Hochelaga county, had been elected by acclamation, Mr. Chapleau, following the Hon. Mr. Ouimet, made a short speech. In it he said: "Mr. Ouimet has spoken noble words. He has spoken in the capacity of a minister—I might say the first minister—for he will be very soon the first minister in the district of Montreal."

This announcement has made a profound sensation in Conservative circles. It is taken to mean that Mr. Chapleau will very shortly retire to Spencerwood. In view of his health, which is very bad, it is impossible for him to continue in politics. To-day he could scarcely speak, and it was patent to everyone that he was suffering. Hon. A. R. Angers, the present Lieutenant-Governor, is credited with being the man in the gap. He will take Mr. Chapleau's portfolio and Mr. Chapleau will take his place as Lieutenant-Governor.

Another report which seems to come from a very good source is that J. J. Curran, M.P. for Montreal Centre, will succeed Hon. Mr. Costigan, who is billed for the Lieutenant-Governorship of New Brunswick.

ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION.

A Conservative Member Returned for Hochelaga.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.—Dr. Severin Lachappelle, the nominee of the Conservative party, has been declared elected by acclamation as member of Hochelaga County in the House of Commons, in succession to Mr. Desjardins, appointed to the Senate. Mr. Joseph Versailles, who was also nominated, retired from the field yesterday and the returning officer declared Dr. Lachappelle elected by acclamation. The new member was warmly congratulated by his friends. He is a prominent French-Canadian physician of Montreal, in the prime of life, being a little over 40, and is a strong supporter of Mr. Chapleau, who secured his nomination.

Mr. Chapleau in addressing the electors referred to the Manitoba school question. He declared he did not know what action the Government would take, but it would pursue a policy of reconciliation.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE.

Invited to a Reception at Montreal—He Will Take $6000 With Him.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—The Irish Home Rulers of Montreal have been anxiously waiting for some time to tender a reception to Hon. Edward Blake similar to that given by their Toronto friends. Owing to the difficulty of securing a suitable hall they have hitherto not been able to carry out their intention. Now, however, the obstacle in their way has been removed and yesterday Bryan Lynch received a telegram from J. J. Curran, M.P., formally inviting Mr. Blake to stay over at Montreal while en route for Great Britain. The requisition will arrive in Toronto in a day or so and it will be presented to Mr. Blake by Hon. Frank Smith and other leaders of the Home Rule cause in this city.

The collection of funds by the local committee is progressing favorably, and when Mr. Blake sails it is expected he will carry at least $6000 with him and the promise of more to follow.

THE LONDON SHOOTING.

Slemin Arrests a Companion of the Murderers of Detective Phair.

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—A tramp giving the name of Sam Spencer was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Slemin as a vagrant. This is a mere pretence, as the detectives here want to keep track of him. They have good reasons to believe that he is a companion of Burke and Wilson, who shot Detective Phair at London a few days ago. It has been ascertained that for some time Spencer has been traveling through Ontario with the London prisoners. He has also been seen with the boy who it will be remembered figured in the murder of Phair and made good his escape. On one occasion last summer Spencer and the boy were arrested for begging in a small village in Oxford County. Burke appeared at the trial and swore that the accused were his sons. In the night he smashed the lockup door with an ax and the three cleared out.

At Cornwall they attempted a burglary, but were interrupted, and Burke, so Spencer says, shot the man in the jaw and they afterwards escaped.

Burke was sentenced to six months in the Central on Sept. 19, 1890, for burglary. Inspector Stark says he is sure that the murderer of Phair is the same man, as he has a large scar on his left hip, reputed to have been received in the American War.

RATHER THEATRICAL.

A Young Man Shoots Himself and the Shock Kills His Father.

VIENNA, Oct. 22.—While the 20-year-old son of Senator Bonachi was playing on a violin at a party, which had been given to celebrate his success at some examinations, he suddenly threw down the instrument, and before any of the guests could divine his intention he drew a revolver and shot himself dead.

When the young man's father was informed of his son's suicide he appeared to be greatly shocked and fell dead.

Lord Dunraven's Challenge.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Little interest is shown in yachting circles in regard to the proposed race for the America's Cup. This apathy is chiefly due to the fact that Lord Dunraven's challenge emanates from himself privately and without the sanction of any leading yacht club. Kinlock Cooke, Lord Dunraven's private secretary, writing in The Pall Mall Gazette, of which he was appointed editor last week, expresses his confidence that the projected race will take place.

Military Offenders Punished.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The men belonging to the Thirteenth Company of the army service corps at Portsmouth, who were arrested for participation in the mutiny that took place there Oct. 13, have been sentenced each to one year's imprisonment and to be ignominiously cashiered.

JUG-HANDLED JUSTICE.

Mr. Mercier Speaks Out in Condemnation of Delay in His Case.

The people of Quebec drove Mr. Mercier from power for political offences less heinous than those committed by Dominion Cabinet Ministers, yet the latter not content with that insist on criminal prosecution; but they seem to prefer making the charge and perpetrating the injustice of delaying trial. At the opening of the assizes at Quebec on Thursday, when the trial was further postponed, Mr. Mercier rose in court and made his first public speech since his fall. He said:

"May it please the court, I am one of the accused in this case, and I may consequently say a few words in my own behalf. It would be beneath me to request a favor of this court, but I know my rights sufficiently well to vindicate them with energy and claim the justice which is due to me. Last week I was ordered by the court to appear this morning to stand my trial, and, although the rumor was circulated yesterday that my trial would not come off during the present term, I unhesitatingly left my family and my business to obey the order of the court I now learn from the Crown attornies that in spite of the able and eloquent representations of my counsel they are not prepared to proceed, and that my trial is to be indefinitely postponed. This is a crying injustice, against which I protest with all my strength. For over a year past I have been subjected to persecution in every imaginable form. I have been dragged from court to court, from one jurisdiction to another. My case was promptly submitted to the grand jury, but now a trial is refused me. I have been held up to public execration, hunted from power, calumniated on the hustings, my fortune and health have been ruined, and it is spread abroad that at the next Assizes I will be condemned to prison as a public robber. And, yet, although my opponents have obtained control of the Government, the proceedings against me have been conducted with a studied slowness, detrimental to justice and ruinous to me. I tell you that in Montreal these persecutions are considered odious and unworthy of a Government. The judge presiding over the court is an old-time political leader, who opposed me vigourously and with talent, but the day he was raised to the bench he promised to give justice to all those who should appear before him. I believe he is in a position and hope he is willing to do so. The Crown is represented by three lawyers, two of whom are old college companions; the third, their senior, was Crown prosecutor when I held power. If my title of father of a family is not sufficient to induce them to grant me justice, I invoke that of a British subject, which cannot be taken from me, and which I claim with the same pride as did the Roman citizens of yore. As a British subject I demand justice and trial of one of her Majesty's judges, and if my demand is refused this morning, I will each day return and repeat my request until justice is done me and a fair trial granted. My request will be granted, unless my opponents fear the verdict of the petit jury, in which case I will appeal to public opinion, and obtain there the justice which the court refused."

While Mr. Mercier spoke there was a dead silence in the court. He seemed to have recovered all his old time assurance and power of speech. On his leaving the court which he did immediately after his speech, as was his habit in the Legislative Assembly, a number of people pressed around him with eagerly extended hands. He however passed out of court as rapidly as possible and walked to the Union Club, where he is residing during his stay in Quebec.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away. Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival.

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

MRS. W. M. POTTER.

A PROVIDENTIAL DISCOVERY.

A LADY ACCIDENTALLY PICKS UP A BOOK WHILE GOING THROUGH THE HAMILTON MARKET.

It Pointed Out How a New Life Could be Obtained—The Golden Advice was Observed and Almost Miraculous Results Followed.

Mrs. W. M. Potter, of 121 John Street, North, Hamilton, Ont., will remember till the end of life, her discovery of a little book, while passing through the Hamilton market.

To many men and women, such a "find" would not have considered important or worthy of any thought. Hundreds would have thought it a lowering of dignity to stoop for the purpose of picking up an ordinary looking book in magazine form; others would have passed and re-passed without seeing it.

Mrs. Potter was a sufferer; she was physically broken-down, and was also suffering great mental agonies. Still she was being led by the good and unerring hand of Providence. She had evidently been directed to the crowded and noisy market-place by some strong and mysterious agency, which she did not know, or could not describe.

We can imagine the looks of astonishment and wonder that were directed towards the suffering and almost helpless women, by the crowds on that particular day.

Her pale and pinched face, sunken eyes, her nervous and irresolute walk and weak frame, must have drawn expressions of sympathy from friends and strangers who passed her.

Heedless and unmindful of the uttered or unexpressed sentiments of men and women, Mrs. Potter passed onward guided by an unseen power.

Hope and strong faith bade her pick up the book in which was a message of life. She tremblingly laid hold of it, and took it home. With great earnestness she commenced to read the various stories of wonderful cures.

Suddenly her hope brightens, and she is filled with joy!

She reads of one who was afflicted and tortured with the same death-dealing troubles which now bore so heavily on her. She reads how a new life a joyous and happy existence—was found.

The story of the wonderful cure was related in such a truthful, simple and convincing manner, that Mrs. Potter was convinced that she had now found the true cure. She could not rest until she procured the great medicine. There was no hesitation or vain reasoning on her part; no "putting off" until a more convenient season. She was a firm believer in prompt and vigorous action, and, notwithstanding her weak condition, she hurried over to her druggist and procured a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound.

The great remedy was faithfully taken from day to-day, until six bottles were used, and a glorious and complete cure effected.

Mrs. Potter's letter of testimony sent to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound, will do more in the way of convincing sufferers of the nature of that wonderful preparation than thousands of newspaper arguments could do. Under date of September 5th, Mrs. Potter writes as follows:

"For the benefit of other sufferers, I consider it my duty to let you know what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I was afflicted with nervousness, sleeplessness, and loss of appetite, and became so bad that I was obliged to give up housekeeping, and take a room on McNab street last March. I happened one day to go through the market and I picked up a book entitled, "Our Album," which I took home and read. I could see just what I wanted to cure me and went to G. W. Speckman & Co., on Market Square, and bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and commenced to take the medicine four times a day. I used the great compound regularly until I taken six bottles, and I now thank God for such a wonderful remedy. It will be my aim to recommend it to all my friends who are suffering from any trouble. If there are doubters, let them write to me, and I will convince them.

I have commenced housekeeping again; I can eat well, sleep well, work well, and am in good health, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound.

MRS. W. M. POTTER,
121 John St. North, Hamilton, Ont.

The proprietors of the world-famed Paine's Celery Compound, wish it to be distinctly understood that their mission and work is not altogether one of "money-making." They desire to offer a helping hand to all in distress, pain and suffering, and particularly to those who have exhausted their means with physicians, and in the purchasing of remedies which have failed to cure.

The Wells & Richardson Co., of Montreal, will forward a supply of their medicine to any individual who is not in a position to purchase it, provided a letter accompanies the application signed by some clergymen, mayor, reeve, Justice of the Peace, or postmaster, testifying that the applicant is worthy of such aid and assistance.

A skilled physician is employed by the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound, whose work is to prescribe and give advice to all sufferers in Canada.

All correspondence with "Consulting Physician's" department is strictly confidential.

Address, Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P.Q.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds---to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analysed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try Attractive Warerooms.

A. A Coming Treat in Store.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the noted poet reciter. The poems she recites are all of her own composition and she excels when revelling in the beauties of nature. Of her John Greenleaf Whittier, the Quaker poet, says:—"Thy poems have strength as well as beauty. It is fitting that one of their own race should sing the songs of the Mohawk and Iroquois in the English tongue." The Young Bachelors' Ball.

The second annual ball of the young bachelors was held in the town hall, Ashburnham, last night, and was a success. The hall was nicely decorated for the event with flags and bunting. Prof. Butcher's orchestra furnished splendid music. About fifty couples danced the full programme of twenty-six dances, which occupied until four o'clock this morning. Mr. A. Moore was master of ceremonies. At twelve o'clock supper was served in fine style by Mr. John Potvin. The committee who had charge of the event were Messrs. J. Johnston, F. Reid, M. Costello, and E. Blair. Those present spent a very enjoyable evening.

Merchants' Protective Association.

Mr. A. F. Holmes has been in town the past few days, establishing a local office of the Retail Merchants' Protective Association, and which is situated at 325 George street (telephone 325.) The object of the Association is two-fold. The first is the collection of delinquent accounts and next the protection of the members. The system used by this Association has been endorsed by the leading business men wherever it has been used; it is just and equitable to all, and while organized to protect the business man, its influence is not only felt, but the advantages that accrue to the prompt and cash paying customers by the use of this system cannot be denied, for those who do nothing, pay nothing, yet live well, cannot help but prove a direct burden to the person who deals honestly and meets his obligations. Every person who pays his honest debts is interested in the success of the Association. The system is being largely adopted, it is said, by merchants in Ontario, and it will not be long before the class known as "deadbeats" will be driven to pay cash or give security for their purchases.

A GREAT GATHERING.

The Immense Christian Endeavour Convention at London Ended.

Messrs. W. F. Nelson, W. R. Johnson, M.A. Morrison, three delegates from Peterborough deputation, consisting of some fourteen persons, were the first to arrive home to-day at noon from attending the great Christian Endeavour Convention at London. The remainder of the party will arrive this evening and Monday, the majority of them staying over at London and intermediate points. Mr. W. F. Nelson, when interviewed with respect to the convention, said the number of delegates in attendance at London was larger than when the convention was held at Peterborough last year but the meetings were not so enthusiastic. The London people did all in their power to entertain the hundreds upon hundreds of visitors. The street railway company granted the delegates free passes to any part of the city during their stay, and the local Y.P.S.C.E. Union tendered them a magnificent reception in the Princess rink. Over 1,100 persons, all of them delegates, representing every part of Ontario, partook of the fine tea provided so kindly for them. The convention was of three days duration, ending last night with an impressive farewell service. The sessions were held in St. Andrew's church which has about the same accommodation as St. Paul's, Peterborough. The edifice was constantly crowded to the doors during the morning and afternoon meetings and in the evening the throngs became so great that it was necessary for part of the great host to adjourn to another church, the Dundas street Congregation church. Thus each evening a meeting was carried on in the two sanctuaries simultaneously. Every speaker after delivering his address in one church would go to the other and repeat it. The papers read were all ably prepared showing deep thought and clear judgment. Mr. R. J. Colville formerly of Peterborough who had charge of "The Junior Work" introduced the subject to the great gathering and the discussion was carried on by Mr. Atkinson, Toronto, and others. Mr. Nelson read a paper on "How to develop latent talent" which highly complimented by all those who took part in the numerous edifying discussions. Mr. E. A. Hardy, Lindsay, was re-elected Provincial-Secretary, and Mr. Thos. Morris, jr., Hamilton, President. Rev. Dr. Dixon, Galt, the retiring President, presided in a capable manner over all the deliberations of the large body. St. Catharines made a strong plea for the next Convention, but the matter was left entirely with the executive to decide upon. The Question Drawer in charge of Mr. R. J. Colville, was one of the most interesting features of the Convention. York county won the banner for the greatest increase in junior Associations and Grey county for senior Associations.

Running a Century.

Messrs. A. Knapp and F. Rickey, two members of the Kingston Bicycle Club, are in town to-day. They are wheeling a century from Kingston to Toronto, and so get a century bar donated by the C.W.A. Mr. Rickey is a former Peterborough boy. One of their wheels broke down here, and they will have to take the train for Toronto. Returning home they will wheel along the front line.

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

Dogs Chase Their Sheep.

Complaints are made by several farmers in North Monaghan that their sheep have not been allowed to run unmolested of late since the city sportsman with his host of dogs and hounds have begun making excursions to all the country woods and swamps in search of game. It is reported that several farmers residing in Smithtown and Emily Township have had some of their sheep killed through fright, being chased by hounds, while others have had their animals severely bitten. It would be well for sportsmen to be more careful and not allow their hounds to run at will to the detriment of the farmers.

A Largely Attended Funeral.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary Ann McNamara, who died at the age of 18 years on Thursday morning took place this forenoon from the family residence, Park street, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Connell. From thence the cortege proceeded to the Roman Catholic Cemetery where the remains were buried. The obsequies were attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances who mourn deeply the loss of such an estimable young lady as the deceased, whose many kind traits of character endeared her to all. The grief stricken family have had the heavy hand of death knock at their door twice within the short period of fourteen months, an older sister dying last year.

It is a singular fact that the cheapness of an article should even temporarily retard its sale, and yet that was the experience of Messrs. Tuckett & Son in the introduction of their now famous "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. People who had been in the habit of smoking the finest Virginia tobacco could not for a time be made to believe that they were offered the same article at about one half the old price, and it was only by slow degrees that they were induced to put the question to the test of actual trial. When they did adopt that test, however, it never failed to satisfy them.

SILVERWARE!
SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. Each Saturday morning CHINA HALL will place on its Bargain Table its weekly snap. This offer to be valid for one week only. Our bargain this week is a Silver Castor at $3.00—the best value for the money ever offered in Peterborough.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE IN ITS FAVOR.

The best medical men in England, Canada and the United States, favor the use of Lactated Food. They agree that mothers should feed it to their infants if they are unable to nurse them properly.

A prominent Canadian physician says:—"In my opinion, the general use of Lactated Food would very largely reduce the alarming death-rate now prevalent among infants."

Dr. J. Milner Fothergill, of London, England, claims that Lactated Food is the nearest and surest approach to mother's milk, and places great value upon this valuable food as a nourisher and builder.

Lactated food give rest, sleep and health; and in every way promotes infantile growth and happiness.

THE VERDICT NOT YET IN

NO DEFENCE PUT IN THE CASE OF THE PRISONER.

Prisoner's Counsel Asserts That the Identity of the Writer of the Letter to the Clover Girl Has Not Been Established—The Verdict Not Known Up to the Time of Going to Press.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Old Bailey was again crowded yesterday with people anxious to listen to the fourth day proceedings in the Neill murder trial.

Laura Sabbatina, formerly Neill's fiancee, who testified yesterday, arrived early and secured a seat from which she could hear and see everything.

Dr. Thomas Stevenson, the Government analyst, who testified Tuesday regarding the discovery of strychnine in the organs of Miss Clover, was called again by the prosecution. He testified at great length on the process of the analysis and his discoveries, etc.

Sir Charles Russell, who represents the Treasury in the prosecution, then announced that the case for the Government was closed.

Mr. Geoghan, of counsel for Neill, said he did not propose to call any witnesses for the defence, but wished to corroborate certain dates testified to by witnesses for the prosecution. He then turned and began his address to the jury.

He admitted that the writer of the letter dated Oct. 20, the day before Matilda Clover died, had lured the girl to her death. He contended, however, that it had not been proved that Neill was the writer of this letter. He then debated upon the relations that had existed between the Clover girl and the man "Fred," her paramour.

Mr. Geoghan occupied almost the whole afternoon with his address. He dwelt at great length upon the insufficiency of the evidence of the witnesses to establish the identity of Neill.

Sir Charles Russell then began the speech for the prosecution.

THE BRITISH IN UGANDA.

The British Anti-Slavery Society Interviews Lord Rosebery.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A deputation from the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society yesterday waited on Earl Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to urge that Government to establish a protectorate over Uganda and guarantee the interest on the sum necessary to build a railway from Mombassa to the Victoria Nyanza by means of which the slave trade could be successfully combated.

Earl Rosebery in reply to the arguments advanced by the deputation declined to pledge the Government to any course of policy, but promised that the anti-slavery cause would occupy a commanding place in the multiple considerations which had to be weighed before resolution was taken regarding Uganda.

THE MUTINY IN THE GUARDS.

Dismissal of Eight Non-Commissioned Officers.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The recent mutiny at Windsor among the members of C squadron of the First Regiment of Life Guards is having serious consequences among those who are held responsible for the outbreak. The authorities who have been investigating the affair have decided to dismiss from the service eight non-commissi ned officers. One private has already been sentenced by court martial to 18 months' imprisonment and to be dismissed from the service, while the sergeant who had charge of the canteen has been removed from office.

The furloughs and passes of all the officers and men have been stopped until further orders, and officers on leave have been directed to return to their regiment at once. It is said the regiment will be transferred from Windsor.

Commenting on the action of the authorities in regard to the Life Guards meeting, The Chronicle says: The authorities are going the right way to produce mutiny among the Household Cavalry. Their policy of dismissal can only be regarded as an unworthy piece of spite.

Grief Leads to Suicide.

ODESSA, Oct. 21.—Count and Countess Loubinski, with their only daughter, spent the summer at Ostend, Belgium. The countess returned to her home in Zolvibounovo a week before the starting of her husband and daughter who traveled by way of Hamburg. The count contracted cholera and died before his vessel reached Liban, and the daughter, who nursed her father, died of the disease at Liban. When Countess Loubinski learned of the fate of her husband and daughter she committed suicide with poison.

Fell Off the Gang Plank.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Yesterday nine men, some of whom were attempting to get ashore from the Inman line steamer City of New York while the others were trying to board the vessel, were thrown into the water by the tilting of the gang plank and one of them was drowned.

Threw away His Crutches A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. McNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

"August Flower"

What Is It For?

This is the query perpetually on your little boy's lips. And he is no worse than the bigger, older, balder-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is AUGUST FLOWER FOR?" As easily answered as asked: It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this brimful. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country town. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right along—it cures Dyspepsia.

A Charitable Pawnbroking Enterprise.

At the suggestion of Mr. Alfred Bishop Mason, the Charity Organization Society has concluded to form from its members and from others a corporation to be known as the Provident Loan Company, with a capital of $100,000. In order that the company shall not fall into the hands of undesirable persons who would seek to make profits out of the business, it will be stipulated that no transfer of stock shall be made without the consent of the Board of Directors, which shall consist of nine shareholders. The articles of the association, or the charter, if a charter be obtained, will stipulate that no dividends shall be paid in stock or securities or in anything but cash, and that these dividends shall not be greater than six per cent. per annum. Such a provision, it is hoped, will keep the institution within charitable lines, and remove as far as possible the temptation for its capture by selfish persons for the sake of its accumulations and earnings. Another stipulation in the same direction will be that should the reserve fund accumulate above the estimated needs of the company, the directors shall either reduce the rate of interest to borrowers or distribute the surplus to public or private philanthropic corporations or societies.

Now this loan company will do a kind of pawn shop business, and be to the poor somewhat as is the Mont-de-Piete in the Latin countries. So that the company may be a kind of branch of the Charity Organization Society, it will be the policy of the company to give preference to such borrowers as are recommended by this Society and kindred organizations. So far as the poor are concerned who have come within the ken of these societies such a stipulation will be very well; but here again will come in the very difficulty before mentioned that frequently make inoperative the well-intended efforts of these organizations. A man or woman may be in a temporary stress of poverty, where actual starvation seems the next thing in order. Still such persons may shrink from any investigation out of a delicacy of feeling highly creditable. To such, if they must expose their wounds or lay bare their sores, the old shop of the golden balls will be the place to go. But still there is a ripe field for this new company, and it will doubtless prosper, and also do a much-needed service to the poor. —Harper's Weekly.

The American people will expend over $11,000,000 for Chinese tea in 1891-92. Of this vast sum the planters will receive $3,000,000, the tradesmen and home dealers $2,500,000, and foreigners with no interest in America or China, the handsome balance of $5,500,000. Why cannot we have some of it? There is the same field here to-day as in the time of Low, Grinnell, Howland and Train, when we were the owners of the China trade. Why do not our business men take advantage of the opportunity?

Some time ago an eminent Cincinnati physician said: "When I began the practice of medicine a young man whose constitution was even more powerful than my own started in the practice with me. His pet theory was that a man couldn't have too much fresh air, that he wanted to have it circulate inside and outside of his body, and to that end when the rigors of winter came on he spurned thick clothing, which I insisted on wearing. If we rode together, the heaviest garment he had on was an ordinary sack coat. I wore mufflers and a greatcoat buttoned up to the chin. My young and ambitious partner has occupied a narrow home in the cemetery a great many years, placed there after a long and painful wrestle with consumption. He stuck to his thin clothing and became a martyr to his pet theory. I stuck to my heavy clothing when the weather demanded it, and I think the graveyard is a good many years from me still."

The Briggs Heresy Case.

ALBANY, N.Y., Oct. 21.—The Judicial Committee of the Presbyterian Synod reported as follows on the two complaints of Dr. Briggs and his friends against the action of the New York Presbytery: The committee find the complaints in order, but recommend that it is inexpedient to take action at the present time for the reason that the highest court has taken action covering the points at issue and the lower court is now proceeding under it.

FASHION'S LATEST CAPRICES.

A pretty method of indicating the places assigned to guests at a banquet was illustrated at a garden party recently which ended in a dinner, to which most of the guests remained. Small tables were used to seat the guests, and each was decorated with a different flower. Red, white and pink roses, sweet peas and nasturtiums, yellow sweet sultans, and poppies in all their gaudy tints were used. To each lady was presented a fan decorated with the flowers of the table where her place was to be found, and each gentleman received a boutonniere of the flowers carried by the lady he was to escort, all of which saved the confusion and scrambling for place involved in seating large parties.

It is quite the custom now for the intimate friends of a bride elect to present her with the exquisitely fine bed linen now included among the essentials of the fashionable trousseau. These sheets and pillow-slips are all made with hemstitched hems and an embroidery of the interlaced initials of the bride's maiden name. To the collection each of the girl cronies contributes one set which insures a variety of embroidery designs.

The latest whim of the ultra fashionable woman is that of taking her favorite dog into the water with her at the fashionable bathing hour, her bathing dress in such instances being selected to harmonize in color with the dog's coat. A dark-eyed belle of Narragansett Pier, who has been enjoying her morning plunge with an enormous St. Bernard of tawny brown, has worn a serge bathing dress equally tawny in tint with a cream-colored sash and stockings and a bunch of golden rod at her belt, the brilliant blossoms bravely enjoying the ducking as well as the girl and her companion. Unfortunately, however, canine faith in the doctrine of immersion is not always clear and well defined, and the spectacle of a stout, middle-aged person tumbling about in the water with a struggling bundle of hairy wretchedness in her arms, tied up with ribbons to match the color of her bathing suit, is quite the reverse of agreeably picturesque.

The amount of money the dainty woman expends on sweet odors would support a small family in comfort. There are all manner of fragrant waters and soaps for her bath, all kinds of sweet sprays and powders to follow the bath, all sorts and conditions of sachets filled with costly powders scented with the captured fragrance which flowers exhale, and now that the breath itself must be perfumed she squanders no end of money on the little capsules that wily druggists concoct for the purpose, and breathes upon you odors that make you faint with their sweetness.

Black is the universal mourning color in this country, but in Russia pure white is the symbol of bereavement, and in Paris a touch of crimson is permitted among the weeds of woe. In Russia the black is never used for covering coffins, the cloth being of a pink shade when the deceased is a child, crimson for women, and brown for widows. Italians use white cloth for young people, and purple for adults.

Not Spoiled by Success.

As his wife cared little for London life, John Bright always lived during the Parliamentary session in bachelor quarters, and probably never gave a dinner party in his life. For many years before his death he occupied a set of rooms in Piccadilly facing the Green Park. Here he breakfasted and smoked his morning cigar, and at 10 o'clock he was accessible to every one who chose to call. He received his visitors in a gray dressing gown. All were welcome; and it may be safely said that his kindest smile was for the struggling author, or for the American who sought him as the friend of America, often without other introduction than his nationality. Even on the streets of London his well-known face invited recognition; and many a time his hand was shaken by unknown travellers from the United States, men or women, whose names he never knew and whom he never saw again. Whilst he held Cabinet office he transacted with his secretary, when his levee was over, his daily business as Minister of the Crown; after which he would sit down at a little old-fashioned desk and write his private letters, twenty or thirty every day. These were often penned on half sheets of paper, torn from the notes of his too numerous correspondents; but even in this scrappy guise they were models of neatness, written in a small and delicate hand. He never used an amanuensis or left the letter of a stranger unanswered. So punctilious was he in this courtesy that he not only thanked the people who forwarded him presentation copies of their books, but conscientiously read every volume. He even recognized the needs of autograph hunters, and he used to send them a few favorite hints of Whittier's with his signature below.—McLaren's Reminiscences of Bright.

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvey affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flaks. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing, Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

THE DYNAMITERS.

The Question of Their Release Giving Trouble.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—It is rumored that a serious difference has arisen in the Cabinet over the question of the release of the prisoners who were convicted of having taken part in the dynamite outrages that occurred several years ago. A prominent Conservative organ even declares that the situation is so acute that Mr. Asquith, the Home Secretary, has threatened to resign.

The present difficulty has been greatly magnified in Tory quarters. Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, is said to be resolute against the release of any of the dynamite prisoners, while Mr. Asquith favors the granting of amnesty to many of them, though even he hesitates to favor the general pardon of all the dynamiters. The Liberals ridicule the idea that there is any serious dissension over the matter.

HON. MR. FOSTER IN LONDON.

An Interview With Canada's Finance Minister.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—An interview with Mr. Foster, the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada, who is now in England, appeared in yesterday's Chronicle. Mr. Foster admitted to the interviewer that he had come to England with Sir John Abbott, the Canadian Premier, to negotiate with the Imperial Government for a permanent strengthening of the representation of Canadian interest at Washington and other capitals.

Mr. Foster added that the annexationists in Canada were few in number and of little importance.

MUTINY RIFE.

It Is Afoot in the British Army and Is Attributable to Commanding Officers.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The recent manifestations of mutiny coming on top of one another in crack regiments like the Guards and the Thirteenth Hussars are creating a feeling bordering on consternation throughout the country and causing a general outcry for a thorough enquiry into the cause of what appears to be widespread discontent. Letters published in the newspapers from soldiers, some of whom still belong to discontented regiments, force the belief that the officers are greatly to blame. It is asserted that many officers of the Life Guards are quite ignorant of their duties, rarely attend drills and are obliged to have subordinates near them on field days to tell them the word of command to give. Soldiers have even been known to execute movements without commands from their officers in order to save the credit of the troops. Yet the same officers when they inspect troops, rooms and stables find the most stupid and most trivial faults, and impose extreme punishment on the soldiers for their alleged remissness.

The Radical members of the House of Commons have been discussing the situation recently, and when parliament re-opens Mr. Campbell Bannerman, the Secretary for War, will be closely questioned on the subject. A result of this question will probably be an official enquiry that will probe the whole matter to the bottom.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—According to reports from Radical centres one item of the Newcastle program is certain of execution, Sir William Vernon Harcourt having decided that the next budget shall include proposals providing for a free "breakfast table" by the abolition of the duties on tea, coffee and cocoa, the resulting reductions in the revenue to be met by increased taxation of land. Such a scheme would give immense satisfaction to the working classes.

It is in contemplation among the members of the church to have a reception, probably on Tuesday, Nov. 8, at which an opportunity will be afforded the new rector and Mrs. Wade to make the acquaintance of the people among whom they are to labor.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills are superseding all other remedies for the cure of nervous and blood diseases. The action is quick, sure and unfailing, a great blood producer, thus feeding the nerves with the desired vital for and imparting new strength and health to the whole body.

OFFENSIVE ECZEMA

Suffered Terribly. Doctors and Medicines Useless. Cured in Four Weeks by Cuticura.

I have a boy, fifteen years old, born in Fishkill, portrait enclosed, who had the eczema so offensive that I could not stay in the room with him. The poor boy suffered terribly. His feet were terribly sore, he could not wear any shoes, and had therefore to stay at home from school. When he put on a pair of dry stockings in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moisture and very offensive even in the coldest weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his hands and fingers. The thumbs on both his hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood.

It would be useless for me to try to tell the suffering this boy endured. I took him to two different doctors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse. I therefore despaired of ever having him cured. One day I saw the great benefits promised to those who would use CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went right away to the drug store and bought them. I must confess I had but little faith in them. However I used them according to direction, and to-day I say truthfully to all the world, if you wish to publish it, that my son is entirely cured, thank God and thank the discoverers of CUTICURA REMEDIES. They cured him in four weeks as sound as a gold dollar.

CHAPLEAU'S RETIREMENT

SPECULATION AS TO WHAT HE WILL DO.

Good Authority Says That He Will Succeed Mr. Fabre as Agent in Paris and That the Behring Sea Arbitrators Will Avail Themselves of His Services.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—The announcement made by the Hon. Mr. Chapleau at the Hochelaga nomination on Friday that the Hon. Mr. Ouimet would soon be the leader from the Montreal district is interpreted here as meaning Mr. Chapleau's early retirement from the Cabinet. This is not unexpected, as ever since Mr. Chapleau gave up his house last May and took rooms at the Russell House it has been pretty well understood that he would not remain long in Ottawa. Where he will go is a question. The general impression is that he will succeed Lieut.-Governor Angers at Quebec, and that Angers will come here, but it is said by close friends of Mr. Chapleau that he will not go to Spencerwood.

On the other hand it is averred on excellent authority that he will succeed Hon. Mr. Fabre as agent at Paris and that Mr. Fabre will return to Canada and resume his old place in the senate. A further rumor is to the effect that in the event of Sir John Thompson succeeding to the Premiership he will ask to be relieved from the position of Behring Sea arbitrator and that his place will be taken by Mr. Chapleau. Whether Sir John retires from the arbitration or not it is felt that it would be a material advantage to Canada to have Mr. Chapleau as High Commissioner to France at the time the Behring Sea arbitrators meet in Paris. It must be remembered that neither the Canadian member of the commission (Sir John Thompson) nor the British agent (Hon. C. H. Tupper) speak French, which will be the language of the arbitration, and it would be a distinct benefit to Canada to have so thorough a master of both French and English as Mr. Chapleau is in Paris, even if he did not participate in the proceedings as one of the arbitrators. This is only a rumor and is given for what it may be worth. Neither Sir John Thompson nor Mr. Chapleau will say anything respecting its correctness or incorrectness, but there is a very strong probability that the rumor that Hon. Mr. Chapleau is to go to Paris, possibly as one of the Behring Sea arbitrators, will prove to be true, and that the official confirmation will most likely be given in a few days.

Hon. C. H. Tupper will leave for England a week from next Tuesday with the reply to the American case in the Behring Sea arbitration, on which he and Mr. Christopher Robinson have been hard at work for some time past.

The Secretary of State Saturday received a telegram from the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, stating that he had been advised that the crews of the sealers captured by Russians had reached Yokohama and had sailed on the Empress of Japan for Victoria.

DEPUTATION OF PUBLISHERS.

Interview the Minister of Justice on the Copyright Law.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—D. A. Rose, J. Ross Robertson, A. S. Irving and E. H. Suckling of Toronto, had an interview with Sir John Thompson Saturday in reference to Copyright. It is understood that the object of the interview was to discuss amendments to the Canadian Copyright Act of 1889, suggested by Imperial Government, which it was stated in this morning's World had been submitted to the Dominion Government. The nature of these amendments are confidential at present and the result of the conference between the Minister of Justice and the Toronto deputation could not be learned. The deputation lunched with Sir John at the Rideau Club and returned to Toronto to-night.

The Official Announcement.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—The Canada Gazette Saturday contains the announcement of the appointment of Sir Alexander Lacoste and T. M. Daly as Privy Councillors, Mr. Daly's appointment as Minister of the Interior, and Mr. Dewdney's appointment as Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

FIRE IN QUEBEC.

The Y.M.C.A. Building Damaged to the Extent of $10,000.

QUEBEC, Oct. 24.—About 6 o'clock last evening fire broke out in the Young Men's Christian Association Building, situate in St. John-street, immediately outside the St. John's Gate. It seems that the janitor and his family had left the building a short time before that, leaving a lamp burning in the kitchen of their quarters, which is situated in the west end of the top story. It is supposed the lamp exploded and started the fire, which spread rapidly.

The west end of the top story is badly damaged by fire and the whole building completely flooded by water, the hose having burst in several places. There are four stores in the basement of the building, occupied respectively by the Singer Manufacturing Company, T. J. Moore, stationer; David Watters, grocer, and P. Rinfret, druggist.

The loss to the Y.M.C.A. will be between $8000 and $10,000, insured as follows: Queen's $7500, Royal $7500, Phœnix of London $2500, Quebec $2500, Scottish Union $1000.

The other insurances are: T. J. Moore, Guardian $1000, Western $2000; Rinfret, druggist, Western $3000, and D. Watters, London and Lancashire $1000. The Singer Sewing Machine Co. report about 10 machines damaged by water, insured in their own company. The janitor is said to have small insurance on his furniture.

TWO WEEKS TILL DEATH

NEILL WILL PROBABLY BE HANGED ON NOV. 8.

Now That He Has Been Convicted Many Stories About the Criminal Are Current in Quebec—What the Police Are Said to Have Found Among the Dead Girls' Effects.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Thomas Neill, who was Saturday convicted of the murder of Matilda Clover, will probably be executed Nov. 8.

Found Among the Girls' Effects.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Star states that the police have found among the effects of the girls who were murdered by Thomas Neill Cream, letters from many well-known persons, including one member of Parliament and several holding prominent position.s

Report that Neill Has Confessed.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The News of the World declares that it is in a position to state that Neill, the doomed woman poisoner, in an interview in jail, confessed that he poisoned Matilda Clover, Emma Shrivell and Alice Marsh, but declared that he had not poisoned Ellen Donworth, and said that up to the last moment he had a feeling that he would be acquitted.

Since he was sentenced Neill has been as impassive and as cool as before. When he was taken to Wandsworth Jail on Friday night he said: "Thank heaven, it is all over. The judge was dead against me, but perhaps that was his duty."

On Saturday Neill asked to be allowed before the day set for his execution to see Laura Sabbatini, to whom he was engaged to be married.

Neill's Doings in Quebec.

QUEBEC, Oct. 24.—Now that sentence of death has been pronounced upon their unfortunate fellow-citizen Cream, alias "Dr. Thomas Neill," Quebecers who were afraid to say all they knew of his antecedents for being called as witnesses are talking freely.

As instances of his early licentiousness, stories are told of women kept by him here when he was less than 20 years of age and of the unsuccessful effort of one to shoot him. Two of the servant girls in Banchard's Hotel here to whom he gave medicine last winter were suddenly taken ill with spasms and vomiting, but subsequently recovered.

His brothers and mother-in-law died under most suspicious circumstances a year or two ago while under his care. He gave some chewing gum to one of her daughters, who, instead of eating it herself, gave it to her mother, who at once became ill. She took a dislike to Neill and begged to have another doctor sent for, but on his arrival at the house Neill met and told him a long story about her case and what he was doing for her and the doctor left after assuring the lady that Neill was doing all that was possible for her and telling her to take his medicine. She did so and death soon ended her sufferings.

Neill's remaining relatives here, with whom the utmost sympathy is felt and expressed, believe him insane, and will endeavor to have this view of the case pressed upon imperial authorities.

The Mercury some time ago suggested that the remains of one of his supposed Quebec victims be exhumed and analyzed.

MUST PROTECT THEMSELVES.

Imperial Troops Will be Withdrawn from The Colonies.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Considerable surprise was caused in political circles, and especially in colonial circles, Saturday by a report that Mr. Gladstone proposed to withdraw British troops entirely from the North American colonies and require that Canadians and Newfoundlanders maintain their own means of defence. It is known that the question has been seriously discussed among members of the Cabinet, and that Mr. Gladstone is decidedly favorable to throwing the colonists in all parts of the world as much as possible on their own resources. He has no idea of abandoning territories that are directly under Imperial jurisdiction, but believes in training the self-governing colonies to be able to rely upon their own resources, both military and naval.

It is not improbable that before another 12 months has elapsed the Canadians will be called upon to occupy the forts now garrisoned by Imperial troops, and that the Cape Government will also be required to undertake similar responsibility. It is said that Mr. Gladstone has expressed the opinion that if the colonists should learn something by experience as to the cost of military strength and display they will be less likely to involve themselves and the Empire in costly and unprofitable wars.

Meantime, however, it seems certain that the British Government will not abandon Uganda. Lord Rosebery has intimated as much, and public sentiment, without regard to party, is in favor of retaining that African possession. There is a general impression that, as Lord Rosebery says, Uganda may prove the key to Central Africa and strengthen British influence both in the Nile region and on the lakes.

Since Lord Rosebery took charge of the Foreign Office there has been no abatement of a vigorous African policy. The essential departure from Lord Salisbury's methods is that what Lord Salisbury did through chartered companies Lord Rosebery proposes to do through and in behalf of the Imperial Government. Uganda will not be abandoned. So much is certain. But it is also certain that the reign of the British East Africa Company in Uganda will come to an end. Uganda will be occupied by British troops for Great Britain.

Coast Guards Captured by Smugglers.

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 22.—The southern part of Spain, from Gibraltar west along the strait and up the coast, is infested with smugglers. Many bloody fights have occurred between them and the guards. An incident that has just occurred in the contest is in some of its aspects ludicrous. A band of 200 armed smugglers made a descent upon one of the carabineer stations between Tarifa and Cape Trafalgar. The eight carabineers detailed at this station had no warning of the approach of the smugglers and surrendered without making any resistance. The smugglers took the guns away from their prisoners, sacked the station and set fire to it. With their eight prisoners they then made for the mountains and have not since been heard from.

Storm in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—Heavy snowstorms have prevailed in the Syzran district, and railway communication is interrupted. The snow lies in heavy drifts along the line, and several trains are stalled. One of these trains is a special, on which the Grand Duke Nicholas is traveling.

A BREAK FOR FREEDOM.

PERRY, THE TRAIN ROBBER, ESCAPES BUT IS TAKEN.

Although a Special Guard Was Stationed in Front of His Cell, Yet He Dug His Way Into the Next Apartment—After Being Eight Hours in Hiding He Is Recaptured and Secured.

AUBURN, Oct. 24.—Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber, has carried into execution the threat made when he entered Auburn Prison, that he would not remain to finish his sentence, and has added another to the long list of desperate deeds which have brought him unenviable fame. His latest exploit was to escape from his guards late Saturday, and so far he has succeeded in eluding their search.

Perry's cell was located in the basement of the north wing. The cells on the other side were occupied by men who work in the shops, and through one of these he made his escape by digging through the brick partition, a distance of 12 inches. At 4.15 Saturday afternoon Keeper Willard, an ex-Assemblyman from St. Lawrence County, who has been only a short time on the prison force, gave Perry his supper. Nothing unusual was noticed at this time by the guard excepting that the prisoner seemed in great good humor and more submissive than at any time since his entrance into the institution.

This was the last seen of the wily bandit. At 5 o'clock when the other convicts were marched from the shops a man named Edmunds, who occupied the cell next to Perry's, reported that there was a hole through the dividing wall. A hasty examination by the officer confirmed the report. A towel had been pinned over the opening in Edmunds' cell to conceal it. A glance into Perry's cell revealed what appeared to be his form stretched on the cot, but closer inspection proved it to be only a dummy.

When Perry escaped from the building or where he went is yet a mystery. Warden Durston maintains that he is hidden inside the walls, but many of the keepers openly express the belief that he is safe outside and beyond their reach. The walls about the institution are patroled by a double guard, as well as the yard inside, while a posse of officials are searching every available hiding-place. What instrument was used by Perry in making the opening in the wall cannot be surmised by the prison keepers, and they have not the slightest idea where he procured it.

Warden Durston is greatly worried over the affair and is making every possible effort to recapture the fugitive. If he has not succeeded in getting outside the walls his discovery is only a question of a few days, as it will be next to impossible for him to elude the double force of guards.

Recaptured and Secured.

AUBURN, Oct. 24.—Oliver Curtis Perry has been recaptured and is now safe within a dungeon cell in Auburn prison. The celebrated train robber who escaped from his cell yesterday afternoon enjoyed his limited freedom for just eight hours, when he was again thrust back into confinement more secure than ever before. Perry was found at 1.30 o'clock hiding in the marble shop. The stowaway at once started in a race for liberty, closely pursued by several prison guards. He ran into the tailor shop, where he was met by one of the watchers, who thrust a bullseye lantern and a revolver in his face. Perry at once withdrew, but in his precipitate retreat he ran directly into the arms of Keeper Smith. The desperado did not surrender immediately, but made an attempt to kill the keeper with a large stone, which he hurled at Smith, striking him on the leg. Smith retaliated by striking Perry on the head with a heavy cane. This ended the scrimmage and the bold express robber was carried to a cell from which it is unlikely he will ever escape. Perry was game to the last and remarked that he would make another attempt to escape as soon as he was able.

SUING THE COMPANIES.

The Owners of the Burned Corinthian After the Insurance Men.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, through their attorneys, Messrs. Girouard and Delorimier, have entered suit for the sum of $20,000 against the following insurance companies: Commercial Union, Liverpool and London and Globe, Norwich Union, Queen, London and Lancashire, Quebec, Fire Insurance Company of Manchester, Northern Insurance Company, North British and Mercantile Union Assurance Society, Phœnix of London, North American, Lancashire, Manchester and Alliance, as well as Messrs. Joseph Samson, Quebec; Franklin B. Polson, Toronto; Robert Logan, Owen Sound and Herbert S. Hunter, Montreal, misen cause. The company claim that the decision of the arbitrators in the case of the burning of the Corinthian was not just. Only two of the arbitrators decided the question, the third retiring in disgust, when they would neither hear the company nor their advocate. Under these circumstances the company sues for the balance of its policy.

Took Poison But Died of Heart Failure

LINDSAY, Ont., Oct. 22.—Mr. James McGill of Burton, in the Township of Manvers, on Saturday last took a dose of Paris green. He had been ailing with kidney trouble for the past five years and so bad had he become that at times he was almost driven out of his mind, and it was whilst in one of these low spirits that he committed the deed. As soon as the discovery was made that he had taken the poison, medical aid was summoned and the poison removed effectually from the stomach, but his constitution and heart were so weak that the latter could not stand the excitement and he died virtually of heart failure.

A Pauper for Over 90 Years.

BANGOR, Oct. 22.—Miss Betsy Trumbell, who died recently at the almshouse in Skowhegan, Me., at the age of 92, was supported by the town from the date of her birth to the date of her death, for, although able to do considerable work both indoors and out, she was of feeble intellect and unable to take care of herself. Ninety-two years on a poor farm is the longest time on record.

The Driver Was a Corpse.

HALIBURTON, Ont., Oct. 22.—Yesterday William Beamish when last seen alive was driving a wagon. Shortly after the horse and wagon were found without a driver, and on search the body of Beamish was found lying in the road. There was a bad bruise on his forehead. It is supposed that he was suddenly seized with heart ailure and fell out of the wagon. He was 3 years of age and was greatly respected.

A RUGBY MATCH.

The Town Defeats the Collegiate Institute by 17 Points to 9.

A Rugby contest which partook partly of the nature of a good practice match, and partly of a scratch match—for the Collegiate Institute boys have had very little acquaintance with the Rugby football—took place on Saturday afternoon on the P. A. A. A. grounds, when a team of nine men from the town met thirteen players from the Institute. The personnel of the sides was as follows:

Peterborough.		Collegiate Institute.
Poussette	back	H Burnham
Parsons, Boucher (Capt), Alexander	halves	A Scott, T Burnham
Carmichael	quarter	V McWilliams
Edwards, Taylor	wings	Heap, Adams, King
Parker, Beers	forwards	Borland, Drope, Anderson

Referee, Ed. Shepherd.

The game, which lasted about fifty minutes, although rather one-sided, was not totally devoid of interest, for it put both teams on their metal, and gave those players who will be pitted against Trinity College School here next Saturday, a sound brushing up.

The Collegiate scored all their points in the game in the first half while the score for the town yet remained zero. Shortly after play began Drope who was doing fine work as forward scored a touch down, another rouge soon after, and another touch-down made by McWilliams completed their score of nine points. For the town Parker secured a touch-down and Taylor whose passing and running were good added eight more points to the list by a couple of touch-downs. The Peterboroughs also got a tackle in goal and compelled their opponents to rouge during the remainder of the game—making 17 points in all. After Heap got the ball and ran up the field and when near the line was tackled and kicked it in, King secured the ball and touched it down. The Collegiate wanted to claim the play but the Peterboroughs maintained that Heap threw the sphere forward instead of kicking it as their opponents alleged. However the referee refused to credit the Institute boys with the play and the game ended 17 points to 9 in favor of the town.

MARKET MEMORANDA.

A Busy Scene on the Square Between Buyers and Sellers.

The Saturday market was fully up to the average to-day and as usual standing room for the numerous vehicles was at a prenium. There is a good demand for hay although there is not much coming on, selling at $7 and $8 per ton. Straw is beginning to move, selling a $3 per load; oats are selling to-day at 28c to 30c, not many coming on; peas differ a long range in prices from 59c to 65c, moving briskly. The other grain quotations as published in yesterday's issue remain the same. The wood market is beginning to "look up," mixed wood going at $2 to $3 per load, while hard wood fetches $3 to $4. The sale of firkin butter commenced to-day at 16c to 18c. per lb. butter, roll, a good supply, sold from 21c to 25c the prevailing price however being 23c to 24c; The meat market, owing to the warm weather, is by no means brisk, beef selling at 5½ and 6 cents rather slowly, pork 7 and 8c., mutton 6 and 7c., lamb 8 and 9c., potatoes in superabundance and apples of superfine quality were offered and sold readily. Apples at 50 to 60 a bag and one man sold Tallman Sweets at 35c. per bag. By the peck St. Lawrence and Snow apples went for 10c. Potatoes sold at 50, 55 and 60c per bag, turnips 25c. per bag, mangolds 15c. per bushel, onions 80c. per bushel, small varieties 25c.; citrons three for 25c., cabbage 40 to 50c. per dozen, squash four for 25c., pumpkins three for 25c., chickens 40 to 50c. per pair, ducks 60 to 70c. per pair, geese 55 to 65 apiece, eggs at 17 and 18c. per dozen sold readily.

Consumptives, Cheer Up!

You are not going to die if you will but exercise a little common sense, and spend a paltry sum. You may be very feeble now, sitting bolstered up in the big arm chair, but you may now throw up your hat or bonnet and shout for joy! Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will save you if you take it according to directions. What you need is good new blood and rebuilt tissues. If you take Miller's Emulsion you will gain from five to ten pounds of flesh with each bottle. There is no use wasting words. A hint should be enough to convince a consumptive of the fact that Miller's preparation of Cod LiverOil SAVES. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all drug stores.

If you are tired taking the old-fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills, and take some comfort. A man can't stand everything. One pill a dose. Try them. dw

PUMPKIN PRIZE MATTER EXPLAINED.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly give me permission through your columns to explain to Mr. Fairbairn how it was that both he and Mr. H. C. Garbutt were awarded the prize on pumpkins, for which Messrs. Grafton & Co. generously donated a suit of clothes. It appears that the gentleman who judged the garden vegetables on the first afternoon of the Exhibition made a few mistakes in taking down entry numbers. Next morning the secretary drew the attention of the directors to the fact, and to use his own words, "could neither make head nor tail of it." A suggestion was then made to remove all the prize tickets and go carefully over that department again, which was done, a new judge appointed, and a director sent with him to see that no mistakes occurred this time, What was our surprise when, ten days later, at the regular board meeting, we were informed by the secretary that the second judge's work on this particular class was more unintelligible than the first, and at the same asking the board to instruct him which of the two lists he should pay the prizes with. A resolution was then passed authorizing the secretary to pay the prizes by the first judge's book, his being the more intelligible of the two. Mr. Garbutt's pumpkins were the choice of the first, and Mr. Fairbairn's the second judge; therefore according to this resolution Mr. Garbutt is entitled to Messrs. Grafton & Co.'s special prize.

Yours sincerely,
A DIRECTOR.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. AN EXCITING BALL GAME

Played on Saturday Afternoon Between the White House and the C. P. R. Hotel Clubs. The Latter Victors by a Score of 12 to 10.

The anxiously looked forward to game of baseball between nines from the C.P.R. Hotel and the White House came off on the P.A.A.A. grounds Saturday afternoon in the presence of a great crowd. The excitement, as expected, ran high, and there was considerable squabbling at times between the teams at one moment and the players on each nine at the next minute so warm did the contest wax. The nines were probably as strong if not stronger than any two local nines which have faced each other on the diamond here during the season. The majority of the Peterboroughs, together with three or four of the Edisons composed the C.P.R. nine, while the White House team was composed solely of Edison men, assisted by Burnon. Only six innings were played, owing to a football match which was to follow, and at the end of the fifth the White House boys were ahead by two runs, and in the sixth they made none, when the C.P.R.'s went to bat and by some heavy stick work assisted by poor fielding on the part of their opponents, they managed to put up four runs and so won the day. The batting on both sides was unusually heavy. Each nine had plenty of friends who cheered lustily the respective good plays of their teams. McCabe for the C.P.R. pitched a good game, striking out 10 men. Landers received in admirable form. Tighe did good base-running, but the batting as well as the base-running of LePage, especially his stealing home in the sixth innings, were the marvel of the day. Pomfret caught and batted well, while Barlow, Sweetlove and pitcher Lomas also shared the honours in the stick work. Hay's fine catch and great throw from left field in the fifth innings is also worthy of notice. Following is the score and summary:

OTONABEE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The many friends of Mr. David Nelson, first deputy reeve of Otonabee, will be pained to learn that he is seriously ill from the consequences of a paralytic attack. He is all the more deserving of sympathy when it is remembered that he has recently been bereft of his daughter, who died from blood poisoning after a short illness. On Sunday, Oct. 9th she attended church; on Saturday she was laid in her grave. She had a tooth extracted, and the resulting wound becoming inflamed, fatal blood poisoning set in.

Mr. D. P. McFarlane will be sure of general sympathy in the affliction that has recently befallen him.

The celebration, by our school, of the quadricentenary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus was a decided success. A most interesting programme of addresses, recitations, choruses, etc., introduced by Mr. Jas. McNeil, who occupied the chair, was rendered in a most pleasing manner. The pupils to the number of about a hundred, were arranged on the platform in tiers, and their choruses and "flag salutes" were highly enjoyed by all. Mr. Heap, M.A., and Rev. Mr Howard gave very interesting and instructive addresses which were much appreciated. The solo of Miss Pengelly was well rendered. Below is the

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because Cures Catarrh the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It Cures SCROFULA makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. AYER'S Sarsaparilla gives elasticity to the step, and imparts to the aged and infirm, renewed health, strength, and vitality.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,300. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds---to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling, Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

The Belleville Ontario remarks:—THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER came to hand Friday last in a new dress, the old type being replaced by a handsome dress of new, which speaks well for its proprietor, Mr. J. Presented to the Collegiate Institute.

Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M. P., has received a bust of Rev. Dr. Grant, principal of Queen's University, to be added to the six other busts of distinguished Canadians which grace the walls of the Institute—enduring monuments of his liberality. The bust of the famous president of Queen's was the work of the noted Canadian sculptor, Hamilton McCarthy, and is remarkable for its excellence as a portrait as well as its artistic treatment.

At the Opera House,

An Accidental Discharge of a Revolver.

This morning Mr. John Kennedy, Homewood Avenue, a young man who is employed at the Lock Works, was out shooting with Norman, son of Dr. Spears, near Mr. Williamson's, in North Monaghan. They had just eaten their dinner when Spears, who had the revolver in his hand, was loading it, and one of the cartridges accidentally discharged, and, striking Kennedy's leg, penetrated to a considerable depth just above the knee joint. The unfortunate young man was brought home and Dr. Yeland sent for. He is probing for the ball this afternoon. Happily Mr. Kennedy's injuries are not serious.

Of her the Hamilton Times says:—"The readings given by the accomplished daughter of the late Chief Johnson, of Brantford, went a long ways towards furnishing a delightful programme for the audience that assembled in Christ Church Cathedral school-room last evening. Miss Johnson's readings were of her own composition, and the various ideas were expressed in graceful language." Go hear this talented elocutionist. 1d

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

Death of a Norwood Young Man.

The Toronto World says:—"Trinity Medical College was closed on Friday, on account of the death of Mr. F. G. Storey, who died on Thursday at Norwood. Mr. Storey studied for two years at Trinity, and was a favorite with his companions. He was only 22 years of age. Six students went to Norwood to act as pallbearers at the funeral." The young man's many friends in this vicinity will very much regret to learn of his early demise and the cutting short of a career so promisingly brilliant as that of Mr. Storey's gave ample evidence of being."

A Saturday Night Runaway.

A rather exciting runaway occurred on George street shortly after seven o'clock on Saturday night. Mr. Geo. Walton, accompanied by Mrs. Walton, was driving down Smith street and when near the quarry his horse shied, throwing Mr. Walton out. The animal ran wildly down the street, Mrs. Walton succeeding, however, in jumping from the vehicle uninjured. The horse and buggy collided with another conveyance on the corner of George and Hunter streets, and a lively scene ensued for a few minutes. A lady and gentleman were seated in the carriage, which was turned around a couple of times. However the vehicles were soon freed without much damage. Mr. Walton's rig had the dash board smashed. None of the parties were injured beyond a severe shaking up.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Mr. Jas. Tubbs addressed a large meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday night.

At St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning, Rev. Father Scollard preached an able and eloquent temperance sermon.

Rev. Mr. Goldsmith announced yesterday in St. Paul's church that he would remain with the congregation until Christmas.

Mr. Ed. Knowles, during the offertory in St. John's church last evening sang with fine finish "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

Rev. E. F. Torrance's condition shows a decided improvement during the last three or four days. It is expected he will be able to sit up in a day or two.

Prof. Monck, formerly organist of the Roman Catholic church, Cornwall, presided at the organ in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday at both mass and vespers.

Most of the delegates from the various churches to the Y.P.S.C.E. Convention at London will give accounts of the gathering at the regular meetings to-night.

Rev. Mr. Symmonds, M.A., rector of St. Luke's, preached two excellent sermons yesterday to unusually large congregations. The singing by the choir was splendid.

Rev. Mr. Trotter, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, yesterday morning gave an interesting account of the Baptist convention at Brantford to which he was a delegate.

The fourth annual effort to reduce the debt of St. John's church will be made next Sunday. It will also be the festival of the dedication of the church. Rev. Mr. Webb, of Cobourne, will conduct the services.

The new Sunday school rooms of St. Andrew's church are about completed. They will be formally dedicated on November 6th. It is expected Rev. R. Johnson, of Lindsay, will deliver the dedicatory sermon.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in St. Paul's church yesterday morning was dispensed by the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith to a large number. The preparatory service was held on Friday evening, when Mr. Goldsmith preached an able sermon.

Four new elders will soon be appointed by the people of St. Andrew's church owing to the increase in the congregation and the consequent extra duties developing upon the present elders. Each elder will then have a special district to look after.

A quartette composed of Messrs. W. H. Manning, first tenor; E. McKee, second tenor; S. F. Hill, first bass; A. Turner, second bass, sang "Though your sins be as scarlet" in the George street church last evening. The rendition was given in excellent voice and with admirable effect.

In the morning there was a good congregation assembled in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Mr. Ross, M.A., of Cannington, occupying the pulpit both morning and evening. He took for his text in the morning Ephesians 6-24: "Grace be with all them that love the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen." In the evening he took his text from Revelations 2-10: "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." Both sermons were eloquent and impressive and listened to with marked attention. In the morning there was a full choir. They sang before the sermon the anthem, "When the Worn Spirit Wants Repose," in fine style. In the evening they sang "Love Divine all Love Excelling" as an anthem, Mr. Tilley taking the solo in fine voice. During the collection "Seeking the Lord" was sung by a quartette composed of Misses Heuback and Carey, Messrs. Tilley and Jones.

A CENTENNARIAN DEAD.

Mrs. Catharine Daly Passes Away at the Ripe age of 97.

Mrs. Catharine Daly, one of the oldest, if not the oldest resident of Peterborough, died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday morning from the infirmities of old age, where she had been confined just a week. The deceased lady was in the 97th year of her age, was born in Tipperary, Ireland, and came to Peterborough, where she has since lived, some sixty years ago. Her husband, the late Michael Daly, died 26 years ago. Mrs. Daly resided with her sons on Reid street. She was a familiar figure on the streets, and was well-known and generally respected. The funeral took place yesterday from the hospital to St. Peter's Cathedral, where requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Desaulniers. The remains were interred in the Roman Catholic Cemetery, the obsequies being attended by a large concourse of people. Mrs. Daly, who is the only survivor of a large family of brothers and sisters, leaves several children to mourn the loss of an affectionate mother. A daughter, Mrs. White, and a son Michael, reside in Pasadena, California. The other sons are Dennis Daly, town, with whom Mrs. Daly resided, and Mr. Cornelius Daly, of Rochester, two adopted sons, Mr. P. Powers, Hastings, and Michael Powers, of Lindsay.

SILVERWARE!
SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. Each Saturday morning CHINA HALL will place on its Bargain Table its weekly snap. This offer to be valid for one week only. Our bargain this week is a Silver Castor at $3.00—the best value for the money ever offered in Peterborough.

THE NEW WATERWORKS DAM

Why it Was Built—One of the Best Structures of its Kind in the Country—A New Pump House—A Practically Unlimited Water Power.

The Peterborough Water Company for the past few years have been devoting their energies very particularly, under the careful supervision of Mr. Superintendent Henderson, to making their system as complete and perfect as possible in every respect. They now have fourteen miles of main laid, with connections and valve system in accordance with the best principles of engineering. But their efforts at improvements were curtailed in one direction by the uncertainty of their tenure at their pumping station—the lease of the dam having expired. They therefore decided and did purchase a new site for dam and pumping station, a mile up stream, excellently adapted for a pumping station, and for securing a good source of water supply. Another powerful reason for the removal was the desire to enlarge their pumping plant and pumping capacity, in order to give a system of waterworks service for fire protection

ABSOLUTELY IMPOSIBLE OF DERANGEMENT.

The present system is as good as any in the country, but the Waterworks Company does not intend to be content with anything that is not practically perfect. The new pump house will be supplied with three sets of pumps, all capaple of being worked jointly or of being worked separately, both as to supply of power and as to pumping into the mains, so that in case it is necessary to repair any of the pumps or wheels, this can be detached entirely from the others, the wheel pit be pumped dry and entered for repairs, and still the others can continue working, and there is no moral possibility of there being a lack of working supply of water in the mains for every possible demand.

As is well known, the work upon the new dam has been going on for some time, and considerable progress towards completion has been made. A representative of the EXAMINER visited the works on Saturday and was much struck with the magnitude of the work and its excellence, both in mode of construction and material, which characterizes it. Not including the the purchase of the site and the expenses incident thereto, nor the cost of the new pump house and new pumping machinery, the cost of the dam itself is $20,000, and an expert seeing the work in construction would say that full value has been received for every cent of expenditure. The dam will give a splendid head of water, a pond of an extent of about 15 acres, and a splendid source of water supply.

The site of the dam is familiar as that of the old Snyder dam, situated at the foot of the bluff-like western bank of the river, which at this point dips down into level ground. The new dam will enclose a large deep basin, with a bottom of solid soil, admirably adapted for the purposes of water supply, owing to the absence of alluvial deposits and freedom from organic matter in the shape of water plants or growths of any description. The width of the basin corresponds of course at the south end with the face of the dam, which stretches from east to west

A DISTANCE OF 700 FEET.

The base of the dam is fifty feet wide, sloping upwards from a depth of 13 feet below water mark to a top width of 25 feet. The surface profile of the dam is broken by several openings. Adjoining the power house, which is situated at the west end of the dam, and which is 40x80 feet in area, with deep solid foundations, is the power-opening, 16 feet 4 inches wide. The power available with the 13 feet head of the contemplated dam, will be several hundred horse power—abundantly ample for all present or future demands. Next is a sluiceway for regulating the water, controlled by stop logs, 24 feet 6-inches wide, and further east another, 28 feet wide. Next comes the timber slide, 32 feet 6 inches in width, and next the overflow space, 220 feet in length and, separated from the eastern end of the overflow by a space of about 37 feet is a thirty-foot power opening, available for any manufacturing purpose and for almost any amount of power for which it may be needed. From the eastern end of this power opening 130 feet of dam reaches the eastern bank of the river.

Between all these openings the crib-work is put down in the most solid and perfect manner of construction possible. Thousands of tons of stone, fortunately easily obtainable in the vicinity, were used for filling purposes. The upstream aspect of the dam is faced with an earth embankment 17 feet in height by a breadth on the bottom of 27 feet.

This dam is constructed with the strictest regard to

and there is not any probability that it will ever experience the fate of other dams built on its site. It is claimed to be one of the best dams in the country. With its foundations deep below slack water at its foot, and its upper portion built with all the strength that timber, stone and piling can give it should certainly be a permanency. It furnishes a magnificent water power not only for the purpose of the Water Company but, at its eastern end, for other purposes. The construction of the dam from plans furnished by Wm. Kennedy, C.E., was begun on the 15th day of August and the work will be completed before the winter. Mr. Ed. Wade who superintended the construction of the Burleigh locks is efficiently looking after this dam, assisted by Mr. Wm. Martin, foreman of the timber department of construction. There are nearly fifty men employed on the works—48, and three teams. The work is not pleasant to many of the workmen, some of whom were seen on Saturday WORKING UP TO THE MIDDLE IN WATER, rushing and cold. This kind of exposure has been going on for months by the workmen, yet only one man has been laid off with illness—sent to the hospital with inflammatory rheumatism. The abnormally high water this season has interfered greatly with the progress, besides adding much to the cost, of the work. Yet no expense has been spared to make the work as solid, substantial and complete as first class materials workmanship, care and engineering skill can effect.

When the new dam is completed and the new pumping station put in, the Peterborough Water Company will have one of the best dams and one of the best pumping stations in the country, and it is safe to say the best and purest source of water supply of any large town or city in Canada.

MORE KIND WORDS.

On Friday of last week the Peterborough EXAMINER appeared in what is called a new dress—that is, it was printed entirely from new type of the very latest and approved faces, the very smallest of it being remarkably easy to read. In an editorial calling attention to the improvement we are told that it involved an outlay of nearly $2,000, including some additions to the jobbing material; and it is to be hoped that a large increase of public patronage will repay the enterprising proprietor, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.PP., for his liberal outlay.—[Fenelon Falls Gazette.

LEGISLATIVE LIBRARIAN.

Mr. W. T. R. Preston Receives the Appointment—Mr. William Houston Will Get a Position in the Education Department.

Mr. W. T. R. Preston, for nine years provincial organizer for the Liberal party in Ontario, has gone out of politics, and is now Legislative Librarian. Mr. William Houston, librarian for several years, retains nominal charge until January 1st, 1893, when, it is understood, he will be appointed to a position in the Education Department. In the meantime he acts as director of teachers' institutes throughout the province, his deep interest in and his experience of teaching being of valuable assistance to him in conducting such work.

Before Mr. Preston became organizer he was a newspaper man, and conducted the Port Hope News, having been previous to that Ottawa correspondent for the London Advertiser and Montreal Herald. From the press gallery of the House of Commons he obtained much of his political knowledge, and gained experience which was valuable to him in the position he has just relinquished. As a stump speaker Mr. Preston had few equals in the province, and he has aroused the enthusiasm of many a political gathering, both by extolling the virtues of the party to which he belonged and denouncing the shortcomings of his opponents. He sedulously strove, at times with little encouragement, financial or otherwise, to advance the interests of his party, and by the active men in the ranks he will be much missed. He has ceased his political disputations, and brings to his new office energy, vigour and enthusiasm. He is a man of method, and ought to be a success as librarian. On Monday he will begin to get the books ready for removal to the new buildings, and was yesterday busy in clearing the way, as it were, for an early start.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

Of Collegiate Institute Hold Their First Season's Meeting.

The first meeting of the season of the re-organized Literary Society of the Collegiate Institute was held in the building on Friday night. There was a numerous attendance. The newly-elected President, W. Craig, occupied the chair and delivered some sound opening remarks. He stated that it was the desire of all to see this season's meetings more successful than in previous years. He asked the co-operation of all the students to assist in doing this, and hoped they would all participate in the programme when asked, and be regular and punctual in their attendance. Misses Eva Wrighton and McFarlane then rendered an instrumental duet in elegant style. Miss Carey recited in a true elocutionary manner, while George Earle favoured with a fine reading. A recitation by Miss Courtney and reading by Miss Wood were both pleasingly delivered. The Glee Club made its first appearance and gave a good glee, which was applauded. The next meeting of the society will be held in two weeks. A course of lectures will be given under its supervision, beginning next month.

DISTRICT NEWS.

Mr. A. T. DeLury, M.A., at one time a resident of Cannington, has been appointed dean of University College Residence, in place of Prof. Alfred Baker, who has resigned the position.

The Cannington Gleaner has the following personals:—Mr. Wm. Eyers, of Peterborough, was in town on Saturday, renewing old acquaintances..... Mr. L. M. Hayes, of the firm of Hall & Hayes, barristers, Peterborough, was in town on business on Saturday.

A meeting for the organization of the Millbrook curling club was held last Friday evening, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, W. T. Wood: Vice-president, J. W. Walsh; sec.-treas, J. A. Vance; committee, S. W. Clarke, L. F. Clarry, and H. B. Allen.

On Tuesday night, about ten o'clock, Mr. James Falls, says the Bobcaygeon Independent, crossed the road in the darkness for the Swing bridge. He felt the large stone at the side and then the railing, but it unfortunately was the wrong side of the bridge, and instead of stepping on the sidewalk, he stepped into the pit in which the bridge turns. He received a bad cut on the forehead, and a severe shaking up.

Miss Maggie Lane, Bobcaygeon, has passed her examinations at the Peterborough Business College, and obtained her diploma.

The Orangemen of Cannington and district are making great preparations for their annual supper, which is to be held at the Queen's Hotel on Friday evening, Nov. 4th.

The Port Hope Guide says: Robt. Storey, a retired farmer, a man about 40 years of age, was killed on the G.T.R. track on Thursday forenoon, near Gage's creek, about two miles east of the station. He was a boarder at the Royal Hotel and went out after breakfast for his usual walk. It seems he had taken the railway track for it. He had noticed a freight train coming west and stepped on the other track, when the express going east struck him. The train was stopped and the body taken to Cobourg. Mr. Walker the undertaker, brought up the body on Friday afternoon, and telegraphed the friends, who live near Baillieboro.

A LADY AT THE BAY OF QUINTE FAIR.

She Makes an Important Confession.

A lady who was visiting the Bay of Quinte Fair in Belleville, Ont., on September 29th, assured the writer that Harvard Bronchial Syrup was the means of curing a troublesome cough and bronchial troubles, from which she had suffered severely during the first week of September.

She said; "My condition was becoming serious; the painful cough kept me awake night after night, and my chest was very sore. I tried several remedies without good results; I then consulted my doctor who advised me to give the Harvard Bronchial Syrup a trial. The first dose seemed to have a soothing effect. After using it for twelve hours the cough was almost banished and I slept comfortable and well. I continued the use of the wonderful Syrup for four days and it cured me perfectly."

This justly popular cough remedy is doing just such work every day. There are no failures where it is used. It is instant in action, pure in composition, and pleasant to the taste. Once used it becomes the favourite. Ask your druggist for Harvard Bronchial Syrup and take no other if you desire a quick cure.

William J. Witter, Franklin, Man., writes: My sister had very poor health for six or seven years, and looked as though she was going to the grave. I got some of your Dr. William's Pink Pills for her, and they completely restored her to health. I regard them as a wonderful medicine. Shun all substitutes, and beware of imitations. May be had from dealers, or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. William's Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this. dw

THE SEIZED SEALERS.

Russia's Version of the Capture of British Vessels.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—The Official Messenger publishes the first authoritative version of the Russian capture of sealing vessels in the Pacific Ocean. The paper declares that six vessels were seized at points distant 18 to 20 miles from the Russian coast, not from 30 to 40 miles, as has been asserted. The captures were nearly all made outside the territorial water boundary. This is explained by the fact that the sealers, seeing the Russian cruisers approaching, fled and the cruisers chased them sometimes for an hour and a half. Only the vessels' logs, charts, etc., which proved that they had been sealing in Russian waters were seized.

Three of the vessels captured were released with a warning. The conduct of the Russian officers was blameless. The British flag was not insulted. It was only hauled down and replaced by the Russian colors after the vessels had been seized. The crews of the captured vessels were well treated, but when they became quarrelsome and insulted the Russian officers order had to be restored by force of arms.

The Official Messenger claims the poor catch of seals on Copper Island is due to the fact that the rookeries have been destroyed by sealers, especially the English.

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar coating makes them easy, and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no calomel or other injurious drugs, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

Asthma.

"I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine, Gentle, Refreshing Sleep.

Boschee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. AN ETCHING GOLDWIN SMITH.

Caique Remarks on His Personality, His Habits and His Private Life.

I once heard one of Toronto's political seers say he "pitied" Goldwin Smith. Now as a rule pity is not a complimentary or desirable emotion to have poured out on one, and if Goldwin Smith had heard the remark he would no doubt have considered the speaker a very impudent person. The seer "pitied" the great writer because he has not made political speculation very remunerative, and because he was egotistical enough to think that his pity bespoke great generosity on his part. For my part I think that the Professor is the least pitiable of all Toronto's citizens.

I am not going to say anything about politics at all in this article. Nearly two years ago the Professor washed his hands of them and a consideration of the present-day Goldwin should be almost entirely oblivious of them. Though he does occasionally break away to infuse some snap and vitality into the editorial columns of The Mail, he, as a rule, maintains the position of a quiet and cultured onlooker of the world's events.

The Goldwin Smith we know now is the author of "A Trip to England," and the translator of the smooth verses of the urbane gentlemen of the Roman Empire. As did Horace, as did Will Shakespeare, as did Goethe, he has decided to live his last days in quiet. No doubt he loves the old fifteenth century song:

My minde to me a kingdom is;
Such perfect joy therein I finde,
As farre exceeds all earthly blisse,
That God or nature hath assignde,
Tho' much I lack, that most woulde have,
Yet still my minde forbids to crave.

There is a Goldwin Smith who once in a great while goes to garden parties and looks profoundly bored; who strides about with his hands locked beneath his coat tails, and is a sphinx-like person to the greater number of his acquaintances. Young society girls see him, and realize that he is something very great, and something very lofty, but not something to warm the heart. Once and awhile a saucy girl will suggest to her companions that he is "posing." Luckily the professor but rarely exposes himself to such criticisms.

Goldwin Smith doesn't pose, any more than any man who has won fame for his name, is entitled to. Of course any man who writes anything which he thinks is good, feels himself a superior person and betrays it to everyone although in some cases people labor under the misapprehension that he is vain of his forehead or of the crease of his trousers. Goldwin Smith's saturnine manner to the mob is a natural misfortune.

There is a side of him however, that is quite unknown to the general public. Prithee, gentle reader do not say: "This idler is a most egregious falsifier," when I say that he can laugh very heartily. He does not do it very often, but an unusually witty story will sometimes affect him so.

Furthermore the great Oxonian is probably the best table-talker in Canada. Those who have read "A Trip to England," have had a glimpse of the most humanizing side of his personality. He is of all men best equipped for a good table-talker.

He is not an egoists who monopolizes conversation.

He has wit.
He has culture.
He is modern in his view of matters.
He has self-confidence.
His powers of expression are unequalled.
He is not discursive.

As a host he is genial and courteous. He likes a game of billiards, and though he does not smoke himself, he gives his friends good cigars. I don't know who has the honor of selecting these cigars at present. At any rate he does not rely on his own judgment in purchasing cigars, but they are generally good.

Of course everyone respects Goldwin Smith. He is the public man in Canada, whom none has dared to charge with dishonesty. His circle of friends is not great, but he is undoubtedly popular with them, no matter how they may differ with him on public matters, and the little vanity he possesses is wholesome and just.

Awhile back I quoted an old song, and that very song happens to be ridiculed by one of Ben Jonson's characters. Says he:

"I am no such pil'd cynic to believe
That beggary is the only happiness,
Or, with a number of those patient fools,
To sing 'My mind to me a kingdom is,'
When the lank, hungry belly barks for food."

It was with some similar thought in his mind that the seer said he pitied Goldwin Smith, though luckily the latter never goes hungry. Still I believe that Goldwin Smith is happy enough, even though he has not enjoyed the hollow shouts of the mob.—Toronto Sunday World.

NEILL WILL BE HANGED.

THE LONDON POISONER CONVICTED YESTERDAY.

The Record of His Crimes Shows Him to Be a Remarkable Criminal—The Judge in Sentencing Him Denounced His Deeds as Too Diabolical to Dwell Upon.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The jury in the Neill case have returned a verdict of guilty. They were out only five minutes. Justice Hawkins at once sentenced Neill to be hanged.

After the verdict was announced Neill was asked if he had anything to say why sentence of death should not be pronounced against him. He shook his head in the negative, but did not open his lips. In sentencing the prisoner Justice Hawkins said the murder of which Neill stood convicted was one of diabolical and unparalleled atrocity. He did not dare to trust himself to speak regarding the details of the crime. The law knew but one penalty and that was death.

The Crimes.

On the night of April 11 last two girls named Alice Marsh and Emma Shrivell, aged respectively 21 and 18 years, received a man in their apartments at No. 113 Stanford-street, Lambeth. The man remained with the girls until 2 o'clock the next morning. Shortly after he left the house the two girls were found in agony on the floor by the landlady of the premises, a Mrs Voght. The girls belonged to the unfortunate class, and an officer was notified and they were removed to St. Thomas' Hospital. The Marsh girl died on the way to the hospital and the Shrivell girl died three hours after she was admitted. It was thought at first that the girls had been poisoned by tinned salmon, of which they had partaken, but it was subsequently learned that they had been poisoned with strychnine. On examining the rooms occupied by the girls a letter was found, dated April 10, accepting an invitation to take tea with them the next night. This letter was signed George Clifton, but it afterward transpired that the writer was known to the girls as Fred. No trace of the author of the letter could be found, and for a time the case was referred to as the "Lambeth mystery."

When the matter of the death of the two girls came before the coroner for investigation that official received a letter, which was proved to have been in the handwriting of a woman named Sebastiani, whom Neill was at one time engaged to marry. In this letter the writer said she was in a position to give valuable information, which would show that the two girls had been poisoned by a young man named Harper.

The Female Letter.

The letter was placed in the hands of the police, and from inquiries that were instituted they discovered that about the same time the coroner had received the letter Dr. Harper of Barnstaple had also received a letter alleged to have been sent by Neill, in which he demanded the sum of $1500, and intimating that unless the sum was paid the writer would give information showing that Dr. Harper's son had poisoned the Marsh and Shrivell girls. Young Harper was at that time a student at St. Thomas Hospital and lodged in the same house as Neill in Lambeth.

On a charge of attempted blackmail preferred against him by Dr. Harper Neill was arrested, and then followed the unravelling of the mystery. It was learned that he had written letters to Dr. Broadbent, a well-known London practitioner; to the Hon. W. F. D. Smith, son of the late Right Hon. W. H. Smith, and to Countess Russell, who, during the trial of her suit for a judicial separation from her husband, Earl Russell, in December, 1891, had received a letter, alleged to have been written by Neill, accusing the Earl of having poisoned the Clover girl.

Neill, though he is described as an American, which is in England held to be synonymous with a native of the United States, is really a Canadian. There is a Canadian and an American side to his career, which places him in a most unenviable light—that of a libertine and performer of criminal operations on women. In the course of his life he has been in close contact with the police of various cities in the United States and Canada.

Known in Canada.

In Canada Neill, or as he is known here "Dr. Thomas Cream," has an unenviable reputation. He studied medicine at McGill College, Montreal, and was graduated in 1876. He took up practice in Kingston, and had been there only a short time before he was suspected of illegal practices. The body of a young woman was found in a shed back of Neill's office and a post-mortem examination showed that she had died from the effects of a criminal operation.

Though the people were morally certain Neill had performed the operation there was not legal evidence enough to warrant his arrest. Public opinion, however, forced him to leave Kingston and he went to Hamilton. Here he was shortly afterward arrested on a charge of killing a woman by performing an illegal operation on her, but the charge could not be proved against him. Again he changed his residence, this time going to Chicago. This was about 1878. He had only been in that city a short time when he was again arrested on the charge of causing a woman's death by malpractice. The crime was proved against him and he was sentenced to imprisonment for life. He served 13 years of this sentence and was then released on account of ill-health.

In the meantime his father had died leaving him $16,000, and he went to England a short time after his release. It is said that while Neill was in Ontario he was forced to marry a girl he had wronged. Neill sought to escape marriage by flight, but relatives of the girl caught him just as he was boarding a train and he was marched to the altar at the point of a pistol.

His family is well known in Quebec and highly respected.

OCCUPATION OF UGANDA.

Lord Rosebery Will Not Abandon the Country.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Lord Rosebery certainly does not share the uncompromising view entertained by his colleagues in the Cabinet against the occupation of Uganda. It was in deference to his views that, as a result of the Cabinet Council held earlier in the month, the compromise was arrived at providing for an extension of the stay of the agents of the British East Africa Company by a period of three months. The Times seizes the opportunity to incite the jingo party to bring every influence to bear upon the Government to induce them to take this leap into the dark of Equatorial Africa. It is not likely that the Cabinet, otherwise unanimous, will be induced to depart from the attitude assumed, and take charge of the white elephant which Punch this week aptly represents the British East Africa Company proffering to dubious John Bull. The impression in some quarters is that the prolongation of the term of occupation by the East Africa Company will suffice to bring the matter within the purview of the House of Commons when it meets next session. That would, however, be too late, as so remote is the district and so arduous the route that fully three months would be required between the issue of an order, whether for withdrawal or occupation, and its accomplishment. The final decision of the Cabinet will have to be taken before the end of December, and may possibly be reached at one of the Cabinet councils to be held within the next fortnight.

THE FEAT OF A WOMAM.

An English Woman Rides 220 Miles in 67 Hours.

VIENNA, Oct. 24.—A remarkable feat of horsemanship, requiring great endurance and a wonderful amount of determination and persistence in its wonderful accomplishment, has just been performed by a woman. This is a long distance ride on horseback, which, considering the many difficulties encountered in the route traversed and the rugged and mountainous nature of the country, was made in very good time. The equestrienne is Miss Tomasson, a young English woman.

The start was made from Innsbruck, the capital city of the Tyrol, at the entrance of the Sill into the Inn, 84 miles from Trent. From Innsbruck she rode to the town of Botzen, at the confluence of the Talfer and the Eisach, 33 miles from Trent. Passing through Botzen she proceeded to St. Valentin and thence to Landeck, a town of Prussian Silesia, on the Biala, at which point half her journey was accomplished.

Miss Tomasson then retraced her route, returning to Innsbruck by the same road which she followed on the first half of her long and wearying ride.

She reached the goal in comparatively good condition, and her arrival was greeted by a large crowd of admirers, who enthusiastically showered her with praise for her plucky and notable work in the saddle.

The entire distance ridden over by Miss Tomasson was 220 miles, and was covered in the surprisingly short time of 67½ hours. She rode the same horse throughout the journey.

The task was made more noteworthy by the fact that Miss Tomasson had not previously undergone any training and that the route included the celebrated Brenner Pass and the monotonous Malser Haide.

CARNEGIE THE KIND.

He Expresses Admiration for Mr. Frick of Homestead.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie and Mrs. Carnegie are stopping at the Hotel Bristol in this city, the hotel at which the Prince of Wales always stays when in Paris. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie dined with the Hon. T. Jefferson Coolidge, the American Minister.

In an interview to-day with a reporter of the Associated Press, Mr. Carnegie said he was delighted at the return of Mr. Schwab to the management of the Homestead works, which were most difficult to manage since the company undertook the making of armor. He expressed great pleasure at the promotions of Messrs. Gayley, Kerr and Potter, and declared that all these appointments proved that Mr. Frick was one of the foremost managers of men.

Mr. Carnegie added: "If any words from me retain influence with the men at Homestead I wish to say to them as friends, all of you for whom Mr. Schwab provides places, take them promptly, for never will you work for a kinder and abler master."

DROWNED AT NORWAY HOUSE.

Chief Factor Belanger and His Secretary Lose Their Lives.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 24.—Winnipeg was shocked Saturday by news brought in by an Indian of the death by drowning of Chief Factor Belanger of the Hudson Bay Company, and his secretary, Stanley Simpson, also a well-known company officer. The accident occurred at Norway House, the canoe in which were the Chief Factor and Simpson being capsized by a sudden squall. Belanger was one of the best known men in the Canadian Northwest. He was 53 years old and was born at Rimouski, Que. He was a half-brother of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Letellier of Quebec and had been in the Hudson's Bay service 40 years.

A TRAGEDY OF THE SEA.

Particulars of the Murder of Capt. Buckley and His Wife.

CAPETOWN, Oct. 24.—The mate of the American bark William Hales, the master of which, Capt. Buckley, and his wife were murdered at sea by the Chinese cook while the vessel was on a voyage from New York to Capetown, has made a further statement. He says the captain frequently remonstrated with the cook for his incompetency, but that nothing serious occurred until Aug. 18, when the cook was scolded by the captain for some bungling act, after which the cook seemed to be meditating revenge. The mate noticed this and warned the Captain of his danger, but the warning was not heeded.

On the morning of August 18 the mate was startled by hearing the captain's wife screaming for help. He instantly rushed to the cabin. As he hurriedly descended the hatchway the cook rushed up on deck. When the mate entered the cabin a horrible sight met his gaze. He found the mutilated bodies of the captain and his wife lying in a pool of blood, the cook having slashed and hacked their bodies.

The mate at once summoned the crew to assist him in capturing the murderer, who hid himself after leaving the cabin. The men proceeded cautiously, as they feared the fiend would offer a desperate resistance. At length the cook was discovered crouching in a corner, and the crew prepared to seize and overpower him. But the Chinaman suddenly jumped from his hiding place, and with a wild cry rushed to the vessel's rail and flung himself headlong into the sea. Efforts were made to save him, but he made no attempt to catch hold of the articles thrown into the water and soon drowned.

A $500,000 Fire in Hamburg.

HAMBURG, Oct. 24.—A fire broke out early Saturday in the Hamburg-American Packet Company's warehouse in the Kleine Grasbrook quarter of the city. Firemen were promptly at the scene, but despite their efforts the building, which contained a great quantity of inflammable material, was burned out. After the fire had been raging for some time one of the walls of the warehouse was seen to be tottering, and almost immediately afterward it fell upon an adjoining boilerhouse, smashing it and destroying a large and costly boiler. The chemical works of the St. Hemermeack Company, which stood close to the warehouse, were also badly damaged by the falling wall. Several firemen were struck and injured by flying bricks. The loss is placed at 2,000,000 marks (500,000).

A Clergyman's Crime and Sentence.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Rev. Robert Baynes, 58 years old, of Twickenham, who was arrested in August on a charge of attacking a little girl named Miriam Louisa Cogswell, was found guilty and was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment. Baynes is an honorary canon of the Church of England.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemps Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRISON

AFTER A LONG ILLNESS SHE PASSES QUIETLY AWAY.

Last Winter Mrs. Harrison Was Seized by the Prevailing Influenza or Grip, from the Effects of Which She Never Recovered—Her Ailment Was Painless and Her End Was Peaceful.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—In response to an inquiry at this hour Dr. Garden sent out word from the sick chamber that Mrs. Harrison's respiration was then 16, and that he did not look for the end until it fell to 10, of which there were no immediate prospects at that time. On hearing this Private Secretary Halford expressed the opinion that Mrs. Harrison would hold out until the morning. 12.25 a.m.—Midnight was passed in safety by Mrs. Harrison. She is weaker than she was at 6 o'clock, but the decline has been almost imperceptible from hour to hour except as noted in diminished respiration.

Death Comes at Last.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25, 1.40 a.m.—Mrs. Harrison is dead.

AMERICANS MUST NOT SHOOT DEER.

The Provincial Secretary Will Not Issue Permits to Them.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Every season the northern lakes and woods are overrun with American sportsmen, a large percentage of whom kill great quantities of Canadian game and fish and pay nothing whatever for the privilege. This season no permits will be granted for deer shooting to residents of the United States. The Provincial Secretary has wisely decided not to grant any owing to the fact that the demands for permits have this year been beyond all reasonable numbers. It is probable that a great many Americans will go shooting without permits, however, and save the $25, which is the price of a shooting permit.

Violating the Fish Law.

Enquiry at the Crown Lands Department yesterday showed that for the Nepigon waters, which are very popular indeed with American fishermen, $345 has been received for fishing permits. As the privilege in these waters costs $5 this sum represents 71 fishermen—at a generous estimate 25 per cent. of the foreigners who fished in those waters.

In other parts of Ontario, Muskoka, Lakefield and Victoria County the privilege costs $1, and the officials of the Crown Lands Department admit that very few of the hundreds of Americans who every year fish in Ontario pay for permits. At Lakefield 17 permits were granted, at Garden River 4 and at Peterboro about 20. It is a pity that so much of Canada's game should be killed by such a pirate nation, and the greater precautions which have this year been adopted in Muskoka under instructions of the Provincial Secretary are to be commended.

After the Clubs.

Sportsmen claim that the local clubs in supplying their guests with quail and other birds prohibited by the game laws from being exposed for sale are guilty of a contravention of the act, and a test case will be brought before the magistrate.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE G.T.R.

Not Altogether Satisfactory, But the Prospects Are Good.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Grand Trunk report issued yesterday afternoon sympathizes with the stockholders on the inadequate return for the enormous traffic carried. Despite the greatest care in the selection of the traffic and to secure economy the average rate for freight has been at most the lowest on record. But the prospects are improving consequent upon good harvests and the World's Fair during the coming year. This prospect brings hopes of betterment.

Regarding capital expenses the directors are strongly convinced no further extension of the system should be made, no fresh responsibilities incurred on capital account, as regards new lines. But the system must be kept in a state of efficiency.

Power will be now obtained for issue of $600,000 in four per cent. debentures.

The president's trip to Canada has shown need for further economics and consolidation into one system of fourteen allied lines, and to this end, as an example to the employes, the directors themselves reduce their fees by one-third, or to $1900 per annum, until a dividend is paid on second preference.

The Waldstein Will Case.

PRAGUE, Oct. 25.—The trial of the celebrated Count Waldstein will case terminated in the acquittal of the defendants, Wecnelt and Kleiderfer, who had been accused of having unduly influenced Count Waldstein when he made his will.

In the Descending Scale.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The French press has contained many obituaries and estimates of Tennyson. The Temps in considering what the future of English poetry will be asks: "Whether the 20th century will see it born again with the golden lyre of a new Tennyson or with an instrument which is ruder, more barbarous, but as powerful and as rich in echo as that of Walt Whitman."

Cold Weather in England.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The cold weather continues and is causing much suffering among the poor. Snowstorms prevailed in the Midland Counties of England yesterday, and in Wales the mountains for many miles look as though it was midwinter.

Death of Franz, the Composer.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Robert Franz, the well-known composer, died yesterday.

TO BE DEPUTY MINISTER.

COLLINGWOOD SCHREBER TO BE PROMOTED.

Mr. Trudeau to Be Superannuated and the Chief Engineer to Be Appointed to His Position—The Supervision of Railways and Canals to Be His Duty.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—It is understood that Mr. Trudeau, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals and Chief Engineer of Canals, will be superannuated on Nov. 1, and that Collingwood Schreiber, Chief Engineer of Railways, will be appointed Deputy Minister, combining the two offices at the same salary. No Chief Engineer of Canals will be appointed. It is also understood that J. P. Balderson, private secretary of the minister, will be appointed secretary of the department in place of Mr. Bradley. The rumor is revived that Mr. Bradley will be placed on the superannuated list, but this lacks confirmation.

With reference to the reported case of pleuro-pneumonia amongst Canadian cattle in England, the Deputy Minister of Agriculture says the High Commissioner is looking into the case, and believes a wrong diagnosis was made, as no pleuro-pneumonia exists in Canada.

THE REPORT WAS CORRECT.

Mr. Chapleau Holds to His Views on the Manitoba School Question.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—HON. J. A. Chapleau was interviewed by a correspondent yesterday as to his speech at Hochelaga. He said that he was accurately reported in the press as to his views on the Manitoba question. These were his opinions and he would remain by them. In this connection it might be said that Mr. Chapleau is one of the committee of the Cabinet to which the case is referred, Sir John Thompson is the other, and Mr. Dewdney, who was the third, has resigned. Mr. Daly will likely take his place, so that Sir John Thompson and Mr. Chapleau will virtually decide the matter.

As to his early retirement from the Cabinet Mr. Chapleau said that owing to ill-health he might have to retire soon, or it might be that a little rest would recuperate him, and so make his absence only temporary. It is likely that he will have to go to Paris, France, to see his physician there.

SEVEN PASSENGERS KILLED.

A Crowded Passenger Train Collides With a Coaler.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 25.—A terrible wreck occurred yesterday about 9.30 o'clock. The scene of the accident is at West Manayunk, a suburb of this city, about 10 miles distant. It seems that the Shamokin express on the Reading road, due here at 9.30 and carrying a large number of passengers, was the ill-fated train. This train usually leaves the upper coal regions on Monday morning loaded with the workmen and laborers who are employed along the line and who take advantage of their Sunday's rest to go home on Saturday nights and spend the holiday with their families.

At 1 o'clock information was received by President McLeod of the Reading Railroad that but five passengers were killed.

FACTION WAR IN KENTUCKY.

The Tolliver and Howards Have Another Shooting Scrape.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—The Tolliver-Howard feud has broken out again in Western Kentucky. A general fight occurred at Hogstown, Rowan County, last night between the two factions. Col. Tolliver was shot and killed instantly. Wylie Tolliver was shot in the bowels and Sam Howard received four rifle balls in the body. Both will die. Another battle is expected. This feud has already resulted in more than 50 deaths.

Found Butchered in the Street.

SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 25.—The butchered body of Johanna Schollman, a servant girl, was found here yesterday. There were evidences of a hard struggle, as the girl's hand was badly cut by grasping the assassin's knife and the ground in the vicinity, which is a lonely spot on the corner of Seventeenth and Kentucky-street, was trampled and bloodly, showing that the girl had fought desperately. A bloody knife was found near the body. Several clues are being worked.

Bank Bills Not Money.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 25.—The petition of the Opposition to void Mr. Prendergast's election to the Manitoba Legislature was dismissed by the chief justice yesterday. The principal ground for dismissal was that no security had been given. Bank notes had been put up as security and the chief justice held that bank notes were not money. This fatal objection will apply to all petitions brought by the Opposition agents. Government supporters, of course, must now share the same fate.

Fighting in the Argentine Republic.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 25.—Fighting of a desultory character continues in the Province of Santiago Del Estero. Another revolt involving three districts in the Province of Corrientes has broken out, and the Government is sending forces thither to quell the insurrection. Congress has passed a resolution in favor of the Government reinstating Rojas as governor of Santiago Del Estero.

Fire at St. Anne de Beaupre.

QUEBEC, Oct. 25.—A large portion of the village of St. Anne de Beaupre was destroyed by fire last night. The fire extended from the church to the wharf, and in a very short time 15 houses were reduced to ashes, the church and large new hotel being the only buildings left standing on the low lands of the village.

Overland from Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 25.—A special train conveying over 300 time-expired men off H. M. S. Hyacinthe, Daphne and Nymph left at 8 o'clock yesterday morning for Halifax.

Assistant Manager Wainwright of the Grand Trunk arrived yesterday.

The Maniwaki Hotel Burned.

MANIWAKI, Que., Oct. 25.—The biggest blaze ever witnessed here occurred last night when the Maniwaki Hotel and a portion of the outbuildings were completely destroyed by fire.

To Avoid a Crisis.

THE CHOLERA NOT ABATED.

The Record of the Disease Shows Great Mortality in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—Since the outbreak of the cholera in the Russian dominions there have been in the lieutenancy of the Caucasus 12,000 cases of the disease and 65,000 deaths. In Saratoff there have been 31,000 cases and 11,000 deaths and in St. Petersburg 3300 cases and 1150 deaths, making in these three districts alone a total of 159,300 cases and 77,000 deaths. Three weeks ago the disease broke out in Warsaw and since that time 20 deaths have occurred in that city.

Cholera at Calais.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The town of Calais has been officially declared to be infected with cholera. Three cases of the disease and one death have occurred there since Friday. Five cases and three deaths have occurred in the adjacent village of Barrats.

Five persons died in Marseilles yesterday from what is supposed to have been cholera.

Death in a Drink of Water.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—A coachman residing at Floriadorf, a suburb of this city, took a drink of water on Friday. Yesterday he died from what the physicians say was genuine Asiatic cholera.

A Death Near Vienna.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—A girl who lived on the bank of the Danube, just without the limits of this city, died yesterday of cholera. There are three cases of the disease in the hospital.

The Week's Record in Holland.

Cholera in Hungary.

BUDA PEST, Oct. 25.—Five cases of Asiatic cholera have occurred in Semlin. Two proved fatal.

NIAGARA CENTRAL RAILWAY

Capt. Neelon Denies That He Has Sold His Interest to the C.P.R.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 25.—On Saturday evening a rumor was started to the effect that Captain Neelon had disposed of his stock in the Niagara Central Railway, amounting to $270,000, to some person or persons unknown, presumably the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the sum of $200,000. The rumor started no one knew where and was repeated by business men with every assurance and as though the event had really occurred and yesterday morning it was spoken of as a positive fact. A Standard reporter called on Captain Neelon at his office this morning, and in answer to questions was told that "there is no truth whatever in the rumor, that nothing of such a nature has been contemplated by me, and I cannot understand who could have started the rumor."

So firm a hold, however, has the news taken that it will be hard to convince the public that there is not some ground for the rumor.

ALLEGED SHOPLIFTERS.

Three Hamilton Women in Custody on Suspicion of Theft.

HAMILTON, Oct. 25.—Yesterday Mrs. Frewing and her two daughters, who live at the corner of Ashley and King William-streets, were arrested on suspicion of shoplifting by Detectives Read and Campbell.

Last week Detectives Campbell and Doyle recovered a quantity of drygoods, etc., which had been pawned by the women. The goods were new and looked as if they just came out of a store. The detectives suspected that the articles were stolen. They were going to arrest the women, but they decided to give them more rope and await further developments.

This morning the women brought another bundle of goods to the pawn-shop, and the pawnbroker telephoned to the police. The detectives went to the pawnshop and arrested the women.

HE WAS AN EMBEZZLER.

Accountant Pyke Was Guilty of Pilfering the Bank's Funds.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Subsequent investigation into the accounts of Mr. George Pyke, accountant of the Imperial Bank, who recently absconded, leads to a less favorable opinion of his conduct than was at first anticipated. His position in the bank did not afford him opportunities of appropriating securities, but it is found that he recently used the contents of certain registered letters which passed through his hands.

It is understood that the bank will not suffer any loss whatsoever, as the total amount of Mr. Pyke's pilferings will be more than covered by the securities the bank holds.

Sudden Death in Guelph Township.

GUELPH, Oct. 25.—A terribly sudden death occurred near the city on Sunday night, the victim being Mr. Martin Stiffler, aged about 30 years. Mr. Stiffler resides on the line between Puslinch and Guelph Townships, about 2½ miles from the city, where he and his brother William run the farm together. Deceased was in to church in the morning and appeared in his usual health. In the afternoon he drove into town and took some friends out to spend the evening. After supper he went out and attended to the usual work about the stables, and on returning to the house sat down and filled his pipe. He lit the match and was in the act of lighting it when he fell forward on his face and expired instantly.

Death of a Prominent Sherbrooke Man.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Oct. 25.—Mr. Andrew Paton of the Paton Manufacturing Company of this city and formerly of Galt and Waterloo died suddenly yesterday Mr. Paton arose at 6 o'clock with a slight bilious attack. He took the usual simple remedy for it and went back to bed, arose again about 8 o'clock and went to the bath room, where he was shortly after noticed to have fallen to the floor. He died before anyone could render any assistance.

TUESDAY OCTOBER, 25, 1892.

THE PREMIER'S POLITICAL BIRTHDAY.

LAST Friday was the twentieth anniversary of the assumption of the position of premier of Ontario by Sir Oliver Mowat. He entered upon his duties on October 21st, 1872 and has the distinguished honour, enjoyed by no other premier, of having held that position continuously since that time, without a break either in continuity or in the degree of confidence the people of the province reposed in him. He has in that time made six appeals to the people and each appeal has been responded to by a renewed lease of power and a renewal of their confidence and of their appreciation of his magnificent administration. The two distinguishing features that mark the administration of this distinguished statesman are the splendid ability he has brought to the management of the affairs of the province and the unwavering and unassailable uprightness with which he has discharged his great trust. As a result of the former, the province of Ontario has a code of laws whose completness and perfection are such as no other state or nation can, even approximately, lay claim to. Our municipal system was pronounced years ago by that great jurist Chief Justice Harrison, who had special knowledge whereof he spoke, as the "most complete code of the kind that he knew of in any country in the world," and since that time it has been greatly improved, Our judicial system, developed in the past two decades, is a model for any civilized country, and our educational system unsurpassed anywhere. The financial administration, which is the weak point of all other representative administrations, is a strong point of the Ontario Government. During the past fifth of a century millions have been disbursed and every cent has been used to the best advantage and not one dollar has been corruptly expended. A great part of this expenditure has been a return to the people in the form of grants for education, for municipal purposes and for the establishment and maintenance of institutions, with a result of directly reducing the burden of municipal taxation. Every claim of the destitute, the unfortunate, the afflicted, has been met in a manner that has resulted in the establishment of charitable and similar institutions on a scale of comprrehensive efficiency, which is a surprise to nations with far greater financial resources. As a constitutional lawyer Sir Oliver Mowat's record is a series of triumphs in a long series of struggles for the maintenance of the rights of this province. His administration for the past twenty years has been conspiciously free from wrong doing and not only has he personally, as a politician, worn "the white flower of a blameless life," but to those whom he has with intuitive acumen associated with himself as colleagues, attaches not a single scandal. Hon. Mowat is still at the helm and when he has completed the many more years of service which we trust, and which appearances indicate he will still devote to the country, we hope he will enjoy that serene and honoured old age which his long period of energetic service and unimpeachable probity entitle him to in a degree beyond that of any other statesman whom the century has produced.

Consumptives, Cheer Up!

If you take Miller's Emulsion you will gain from five to ten pounds of flesh with each bottle. There is no use wasting words. A hint should be enough to convince a consumptive of the fact that Miller's preparation of Cod LiverOil SAVES. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all drug stores.

PERSONAL—Miss A. V. Robertson, of Peterborough, was visiting friends here last week.

Mr. Frost and his son, Mr. Geo. Frost, have returned from the lumbering district, as they did not find the work there congenial.

PROSPEROUS—On every hand where e'er we look evidences of enterprise and activity meet the eye. And not least of these are the immense kilns of brick occupying the central portion of this neighborhood. We are only sorry to notice that in not making sacrifice on the altar of Hymen do our people fail to make use of a most important element of success.

ATTRACTIVE—Now that "each glittering tree of the forest" stands "arrayed in its robes of russet, and scarlet and yellow" and the river converted by the mellow light of a golden sunset appears like a smooth belt of polished gold, we feel when surrounded by the dreamy and magical stillness of an autumn evening, that there is nothing wanting in nature to lend enchantment to the view.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away. Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival.

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

Those unhappy people who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia, should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price, 25 cents. dw

The Largest Chimney in the World.

The largest chimney in the world is now in course of construction by the Grant Smelting Company of Colorado at their works in Elyria, and its symmetrical proportions, to half of its ultimate height, already tower toward the sky. Although it will be the largest structure of its kind in the world, requiring more material than any other, its height will not be the greatest, lacking, however, but a few feet. The height of the structure above the ground will be, when completed, 350 feet, and it rests on a brick foundation with depth of eighteen feet.

The structure is of brick, carefully selected, and is built in two sections, one surrounding the other, with an air chamber between. To allow for the expansion and contraction of this huge pile of masonry an original mechanical device, consisting of rollers set into the brick work and sliding against the inner wall, is provided. This allows each section to adjust itself to the other when undergoing different degrees of heat.

The inner chamber of the shaft is sixteen feet clear from base to top. The base is thirty-three feet, and at the top twenty feet. The thickness of the outer wall at the base is forty-eight inches, and at the throat thirteen inches. Thickness of the inner wall at the base is twenty-six inches, and at the top nine inches. The base is square, but the corners break after reaching a height of about thirty feet, and the structure tapers in graceful proportions to the capping, in the form of an octagon. Two million and a half of bricks will be used in the construction.—Colorado Sun.

To Reclaim 12,000 Acres.

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 19.—One of the most gigantic systems of drainage ever undertaken in Ontario has just been decided upon by the municipal council of Pelee Island. It is proposed to drain by a process of pumping and dyking about 12,000 acres of land, largely owned by Dr. J. M. Scudder of Cincinnati and Lemuel Brown of Pelee. The engineer, Mr. Newman of Windsor, estimates the cost at $22,500.

OUR GROWTH!
WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds---to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,
A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.
will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.
Yours respectfully,
J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION
Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.
Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:
1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?
Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Hear the Indian Poet-Reciter.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the renowned Indian poet-reciter, will appear at the George street church, on Monday evening, Oct. 31st under the auspices of the Ladies Aid and Epworth League Societies. She has received the most flattering encomiums from the press wherever she has appeared. The Toronto East-Ender says of her:—"Miss E. Pauline Johnson gave a very enjoyable programme of recitals in the Woodgreen Methodist church last week, Miss Johnson's selections were all from her own pen, and were rendered in a style peculiar to herself, but well calculated to portray to others many of the strong characteristics of her race."

Cruiskeen Lawn.

The "Cruiskeen Lawn" Company under the management of Mr. W. A. Edwards, produced that picturesque Irish comedy drama "Cruiskeen Lawn" at the opera house last night. A large house greeted the rendition of the play which possesses many amusing incidents, abounds in comical situations and is replete with songs and dances. The bagpipe native melodies discoursed by Chas. McNurney, "Paddy Miles," elicited loud approval, while the beautiful transformation scenes, illustrating in a remarkably natural manner the myriads of scenes such as chapel house hill and dale, natural wonders, etc., of the Emerald Isle were perhaps the finest views ever exhibited here. Miss Grace Hamilton in "Kate Carney" is pretty, graceful and effective. Miss Lois Ripley in "Nora Maguire" is an honest little maiden, a faithful friend, and exhibits in her parts the truest instincts of an "honest Irish heart." The plot is rather intricate, but is successfuly worked out by several thrilling scenes and startling events. Thos. J. Smith as "Dublin Dan" is the leading male character. His songs were catchy while is acting was faithful, and his whole course an utter abandon for his native home and land. Leonard Rowe as "Silas Stone" is a sneaking viper whose villainous tactics nearly spill innocent blood, but in the end he and his unscrupulous confederate, "Gil Riley" (R. F. Sullivan) whose machinations glow with all the fires of diabolical fury, are led mean, miserable and despised away to await the hangman's rope.

Enlarged Photographs.

Messrs. J. Slade and J. Carson, representing the Ontario Portrait Company, Toronto, (183 Queen street east) are in town and will remain about a fortnight. The speciality of this company is the enlarging of photographic portraits in crayon or oil, and from samples of their work in this line we have seen, it is of the highest artistic quality and the prices are very low. Our citizens will do well to closely examine the claims of this firm to patronage. 1d

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

Respecting Pool and Billiards.

Chief of Police Roszel for the information of those who are unacquainted with the bylaw respecting the hours of running billiard and bagatelle tables, desires the EXAMINER to publish the following clause from Bylaw No. 607 passed 14th Feb., 1890, respecting certain municipal licenses of the town of Peterborough:

No person shall allow any room in which any billiard or bagatelle table in respect of which a license is required under this by-law, to remain open or allow any person other than the members of his family or his servants to be in said room or use or allow any such table to be used between the hours of eleven o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning of the following day or between the hours of eleven o'clock in the evening on Saturday and the hour of six o'clock on the following Monday morning.

An Early Morning Wedding.

At an early hour this morning Mr. John Condon was wedded at St. Peter's Cathedral to Miss Ellen Hanrahan, 245 Stewart street. Rev. Father Scollard performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Hannah Condon, sister of the groom, while Mr. John Hanrahan, brother of the bride acted the part of best man. The ceremony was performed in the presence of several friends. The presents were many and useful. The happy couple partook of a fine wedding breakfast at the home of the bride, Stewart street, after the nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Condon will reside in town. Their friends will wish them happiness and prosperity.

A Month in Gaol for Burglary.

Ernest Stoneberg, a young man who is an orphan, was lodged in gaol last week on two charges of house breaking, was brought up before Judge Weller, yesterday for trial. County Crown Attorney Wood was present for the Crown. The prisoner had engaged no defence. He pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking into the house of James Reid, Smith township, when the family were at church, on September 25th last, and sterling therefrom a watch, brooch, knife, key of the front door, and other small articles. His Honour sentenced the prisoner to a month in gaol at hard labour. The second charge of burglary preferred against him was that he did on the 2nd of September enter the house of David Darling, Smith, and that he purloined therefrom a knife and some money. Several witnesses were examined in this case, but the charge was not proven and the judge dismissed the case.

A Rare Musical Treat.

From the programme (printed in this issue) to be given at Mrs. Morrow's concert in the Opera House to-night, lovers of good music will see what a delightful treat is in store for them. Mrs. Morrow's ability as an exceptionally brilliant pianiste, will, in Schuloff's valse brilliante, and Liszt's setting of Tannhauser grand march, give new pleasure to those who have so often heard her with delight. Mr. Boscovitz the greatest living interpreter of Chopin, will give two of his works, and Beethoven's celebrated "Moonlight" sonata. The instrumental duet, with Mrs. Morrow—a selection from Mozart's "Don Juan" will be something grand. Miss Hollingshead, the great Montreal soprano, will give two numbers and sing in duo with Mr. T. Dunn, Peterborough's favorite baritone, who will also sing two of his sterling solos. Altogether the musical menu for to-night is a strong one, and there will doubtless be a good house, as and Mrs. Morrow's services to the public deserve.

AMONG BUYERS AND SELLERS.

To-day's meeting was the last one of the Board this season. The best of good humor prevailed among the buyers and sellers, and several witty sallies were made.

The President stated that several factories on the Board had not paid their dues. He hoped they would so at once.

The following resolution was unanimously carried, and the secretary ordered to forward a copy of it to the town council:—

Mr. John Riddell moved, seconded by Mr. John Moloney, that the thanks of this Board be and are hereby tendered to the Mayor and town council of Peterborough for their kindness in granting the use of their council chamber for the meetings of the cheese board.

Most of the factories will close down for the season during the first week in November. None of the Lindsay factories boarded to-day, their makes for September and October having been contracted for at the last meeting.

To Operate the Copper Mine.

Mr. Geo. S. Ross, of Rochester, was in town last week and left Saturday night for the Dunmer copper mines. He is having pumps, engines, boilers, etc., to work the mine, removed to-day. He has purchased lumber from Lakefield and will erect all the necessary buildings at once for working the mines. Mr. Ross has purchased an interest in them.

MOVED AGAIN.

We are always on the move! We never let our goods stay long enough on the shelf to gather dust. Out they must go! For the present our headquarters for the great bankrupt stock of dry goods etc., will be just across the Arcade and opposite Garvey's. We are bound to make the goods move out faster than ever, if low prices will do it. Come early and get bargains.

Uncle Hiram.

Aaron H. Woodhull in Uncle Hiram, the play that has amused thousands in every city in the union, is the next attraction to be presented at the Opera House. He has added two tons of special scenery, the special effects being a sawmill and a railroad train crossing the stage at full speed. Both effects are received with the wildest enthusiam by the audience. One of the acts represents a sawmill in the Vermont mountains, and the other scenes are laid in New York city. The company carries every inch of scenery used, and claim that they can show on any stage, however small. The company comprises several well known artists, while Woodhull, as a funny man, is second to none in the profession. His performance of Uncle Hiram is a combination of humor and pathos, laughter and tears. There are said to be by actual count 259 laughs in a hundred and fifty minutes. 1d

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammations of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. NEWS NUGGETS.

The Sons of Canada will hold a regular meeting to-morrow night.

—Otonabee Lodge I.O.O.F. met last night and put three candidates through the third degree.

—Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son to-day filled a large order of several water proof horse covers to be shipped to Belleville.

—At a regular meeting of Court Stanley No. 7680, A. O. F., held last night four candidates were initated and three propositions received.

—Peterborough Lodge of Oddfellows sent their degree team down to Hastings this afternoon to put on the mock initiation at an Oddfellows' concert to take place in that village this evening.

—The meeting called to form a checker club at the C.P.R. Hotel last night was postponed until Monday evening next when another meeting will be held by the club and elect officers for the season.

—Residents on Weller street, in the west end of the town have had their woodpiles visited in the night and the quantity thereof somewhat lessened. The culprits are known and would do well to be careful.

—Several large boilers and heavy machinery were removed to-day by Mr. T. A. Rehill and assistants to the Dummer Copper Mines. Part of the machinery was from the Edison Works and part from Rochester.

—The turnout at Rugby practice yesterday afternoon was very small, only three or four players putting in an appearance. This is a poor way for the boys to get into shape to meet Trinity College school here next Saturday.

—The Cobourg Saturday Post says: The PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER has appeared in an entirely new dress, which adds much to improve this well and ably conducted paper. THE EXAMINER is one of the best dailies in the province. It is well gotten up, neatly printed and a credit to such a town as Peterborough. We wish it every success.

The Epworth League in connection with the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, held their regular meeting last night. There was a good turnout of the young people and members of the congregation. GUN CLUB MATCHES.

Were Held Yesterday—The Scores Made and the Prizes.

The first annual matches of the Peterborough Gun Club were shot yesterday afternoon on the Riverside Park. All the events were interesting and at times excitement ran high. The number of marksmen in all the events was large and a great many witnessed the sport. The success and pleasure of the matches were to a great extent hamp red and marred by the chilly day, the strong wind and the bright sun interfering very materially with high scores being made. A strong western wind was blowing across the field, making the birds fly in all directions, here and there and everywhere out of their regular course. Then the sun was so bright that at times the right hand bird was hid almost out of sight. Then the day was raw and some of the shooters were so chilled through that their nerves were completely unstrung rendering their aim unsteady. The first match was the team match. It was shot for with ten on each side. The prize to the winning team was 500 rounds of loaded ammunition. The teams were captained by Capt. R. Tivey, and Vice-President J. D. Collins. The former team won by 3 points after an exciting struggle, the score being 42 to 39.

The next match was the first Individual Prize match. Although the scores were, generally speaking, low, still the interest in the event was live, nineteen competitors being in the field. The following are the prize winners in each of the events, together with the individual scores. The names of the winners appear in order; where there were ties for a certain prize the tie was shot off:

The third match was another individual prize match. Seventeen members of the club popped in this event and E. J. Hartley beat the seasons record, killing fifteen birds straight out of a possible fifteen. This is an excellent showing. It was near six o'clock when the match was over and darkness interfered with the last six rounds as the score will show:

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.

Staff-Captain McIntyre Delivers an Address on "Life in Newfoundland," at the Salvation Army Barracks.

The Salvation Army have been having a three days' "big go," owing to the visit of Staff-Capt. McIntyre, of Toronto, here on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Owing to the celebrated visitor's advent to Peterborough, to conduct meetings, the local corps had made preparations for the Staff-Captain's visit. Last night the march out, headed by the band, was a large and enthusiastic one. The musicians under Mr. Payton, rendered a number of fine selections on the parade. At the barracks a large number of the outside public had already assembled. After the singing of a lively hymn and prayer Lieut. Bird of the Divisional Corps, Kingston, who recently was removed to Peterborough to assist Adjt. Michiel in the command of the local detachment, delivered a short earnest address telling his auditors of his experience and imploring all to accept Christ as their Saviour. He expressed his pleasure in coming here and hoped his stay might prove of much spiritual profit both to himself and others.

A dedication service was then performed by Staff-Capt. McIntyre, assisted by Adjt. Michiel, upon two small baby boys of Mr. Joseph Cunningham. The ordination was a solemn and impressive one and all present were deeply interested Staff-Capt. McIntyre then delivered his lecture on "Life in Newfoundland," which was interesting, and told in a happy manner. The Staff-Capt. is a fluent speaker, and holds the rapt attention of his hearers. He narrated the work of the Army in that distant isle since their first corps was stationed there some six years ago, the difficulties and burdens that faced them on every side and their final triumph and rapidly increasing numbers and stations in all parts of the island. He spoke of the general ignorance of the Newfoundlanders, who are poor and plain in customs and manners, live in substantial houses and subsist wholly by fishing. Many of their characteristics and peculiarities were graphically described and pleasingly illustrated by a number of mirthful anecdotes. When the army first settled on the island they were not allowed to bury their dead in any of the public burying grounds. They also could not be lawfully joined in marriage, either among themselves, or marry an ousider. No clergyman was permitted to perform the solemn matrimonial rite. Last year, however, the stringent law in this respect towards Salvationists was amended by the government, and now the soldiers and officers were free and happy, and doing a good work for God and the elevation of humanity. Staff-Captain McIntyre's address lasted nearly an hour, and all were sorry when he had finished. The captain also told of his years work on the Island. His headquarters were at St. Johns. At the cose a short prayer meeting was held, after which the meeting dispersed.

WEDDING BELLS.

Rutherford—Nevin.

A very pleasing event took place this morning (Tuesday) at St. Peter's cathedral. Although the hour was somewhat early, 5.30, there was a "fair" number (principally ladies) present to witness the nuptials of Mr. Christopher Rutherford and Miss Kate Nevin, daughter of Mr. James Nevin. Rev. Father Collins performed the binding ceremony accompanied by the holy sacrifice of the wedding mass, also pronouncing the choicest blessings on the young couple and giving them some good sound advice as to the sphere of life on which they were entering. Miss Sarah McFadden performed the delicate duties of bridesmaid, while Mr. B. Nevin, brother of the bride, acted as groomsman. The bride received many valuable and beautiful presents from her many friends and acquaintances expressive of the high and universal esteem in which she is held. The members of the fire brigade of which Mr. Rutherford has been an active member for many years, sent their best wishes together with a handsome china tea set. After the ceremony a few intimate friends proceeded to the residence of Miss M. A. Navin, sister of the bride, where the wedding breakfast was partaken of. After receiving congratulations the happy couple left on the 7 o'clock train for Rochester, Buffalo and the east, amid the customary shower of rice and best wishes of friends.

Back to Health and Strength.

William J. Witter, Franklin, Man., writes: My sister had very poor health for six or seven years, and looked as though she was going to the grave. I got some of your Dr. William's Pink Pills for her, and they completely restored her to health. I regard them as a wonderful medicine. Shun all substitutes, and beware of imitations. May be had from dealers, or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. William's Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this. dw

LONDON, Oct. 22.—A portentous fact in connection with the illness of the King of Spain is the revival of activity in the Carlist centres in Loudon and Paris. Signs are not wanting that preparations are being made by the Carlists to strike a blow ere long for the possession of the Spanish throne.

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar coating makes them easy, and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no calomel or other injurious drugs, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

"August Flower"

Mr. Lorenzo F. Sleeper is very well known to the citizens of Appleton, Me., and neighborhood. He says: "Eight years ago I was taken "sick, and suffered as no one but a "dyspeptic can. I then began tak- "ing August Flower. At that time "I was a great sufferer. Every- "thing I ate distressed me so that I "had to throw it up. Then in a "few moments that horrid distress "would come on and I would have "to eat and suffer "again. I took a "little of your med- "icine, and felt much "better, and after "taking a little more "August Flower my "Dyspepsia disap- "peared, and since that time I "have never had the first sign of it. "I can eat anything without the "least fear of distress. I wish all "that are afflicted with that terrible "disease or the troubles caused by "it would try August Flower, as I "am satisfied there is no medicine "equal to it."

WINTERY SCENES IN EUROPE.

Snow Prevailed Along the Tyne and in Norfolk County.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The weather in Northern England is cold and stormy. Along the Tyne a heavy storm of hail and snow is prevailing, and many vessels are returning in search of shelter. They report heavy weather outside. In Norfolk the ground is white with snow, and the whole country presents a wintry appearance.

A Mount Bridges Man Fatally Hurt.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 24.—James Sutherland, lumber dealer of Mount Bridges, met with a shocking and probably fatal accident at the C.P.R. station here yesterday. He was on his way home and in attempting to board the express as it was moving out fell under the wheels, with the result that both his legs were amputated above the knees. He was quickly removed to the City Hospital. It is not thought likely that he will survive his injuries.

Tore His Arm Off

LONGFORD MILLS, Oct. 24.—William McRae, filer in the Longford Lumber Co.'s mills, was in the act of adjusting a belt to start his filing machine when his shirt-sleeve became caught in the belting and his arm was drawn round the shaft and broken off at the elbow. The cords and nerves of the arm were pulled out of the fleshy parts. Dr. A. E. Ardagh of Orillia amputated the arm close to the elbow.

SLAVIN CALLOUS.

The Cornwall Murderer Sleeps Well and Eats Well.

CORNWALL, Oct. 24.—James Slavin, who is to pay the awful penalty of his crime in a few weeks, still maintains an appearance of perfect indifference as to his fate. He refers to his approaching execution without a sign of fear and firmly adheres to his determination to refuse the ministrations and counsel of the clergy. He talks very much with his guards of his past career, but expresses little or no regret for his misdeeds. He is closely guarded day and night but is allowed to spend the day in the general room. He is so closely watched that it would be impossible for him to make another attempt to escape, a guard being always with him. The prisoner sleeps well and eats heartily. He has been provided with a few books to read and has asked for writing material which will probably be given to him.

Mrs. Harrison Cannot Live.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Harrison is approaching the end. How long it will be before it supervenes cannot be told at this writing. It may be only a few hours or it possibly may be a day or more, but that she cannot last much longer is certain.

Why She Didn't Marry.

"Would I marry?" laughed a lovely young lady of five-and-twenty, dependent on her own income as teacher for support. "Well, no. When I consider the lot of my married friends, I am thankful for common-sense enough to remain single. I thoroughly enjoy my free, unfettered life. To be sure, I go to my work in the school-room each day, but my married friends have household cares as imperative as mine, with far greater chances of failing to give satisfaction. I have no husband to find fault with the coffee or the state of my wardrobe, no children to worry my peaceful hours, no servants to cater to. I have not to plan for three times three hundred and sixty-five meals each year, and no hungry family comes in to devour in one brief hour the results of my hard morning's toil in the kitchen. No stern tyrant of a husband deals out with grudging hand small bank-bills to supply my needs and those of his children. If I am engulfed in a whirlpool of extravagance, and purchase a lovely gown, a pair of delectable evening boots, or a morsel of a French bonnet, I can endure the reproaches of my own conscience with some equanimity, but the scowls of an angry spouse would wither my very soul. When this blessed summer vacation comes around, there is a whole continent at my disposal, and according as I have been economical or luxurious I may choose my summer outing. Old age? Yes, it may come to me. It will come to my married friends, and may find them widows with a half-dozen children to work for. But if the worst comes, and I cannot work or find a snug corner in an old ladies' home, I fancy I could win some gray-haired lover who would offer me a home. There is generally some one around, you know." And the cold-hearted little beauty whisked off around the corner, leaving her married friend to reflect that perhaps all the advantages were not with the matrimonial state, as she had been taught to believe.—Harper's Bazar.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

STAND BY YOUR SEX.

AN UNREASONABLE MOTTO. THINKS ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

Man is the Weaker Sex When Tempted by Enlightened Eve—How Some Reckless Women Bring Scandal Upon Themselves—Queer Ideas of Right and Wrong.

WHEN there is a scandal about some woman I will always stand by her and blame the man," said a most estimable lady to me recently. "My sympathies always rest with her."

Not long ago a worthy woman expressed a similar sentiment to a representative of the press.

"I always stand by my own sex," she said.

This is all very noble in a way, no doubt, but none of us ought to stand by the woman who feeds her husband on ground glass or murders him in his sleep, it seems to me.

The unmarried girl who first brings scandal upon herself is the one who invariably needs our sympathy rather than the man in the case. Whatever her boldness or folly, his superior knowledge of human nature and the world should constitute him her protector. The father, brother or male friend who shoots the misleader of a single woman and lets her go free to reform her ways shows a commendable discrimination.

But the married society woman who forgets herself is quite another being.

In this age of woman's progress man is the weaker sex when tempted by the enlightened Eve.

The married society belle knows exactly what she is about when she tempts and teases his emotions. She knows where safe and respectful admiration ceases and the desire for possession begins. If the love of conquest and excitement urges her on to play with fire until she is burned, it does not seem to me that she merits our profound sympathy. It is better bestowed upon the husband whose name is dragged in the mire and upon the defenceless children, who were forgotten in their mother's love of conquest.

I have a theory that a really strong man is never cursed by a faithless wife.

A young husband who killed his wife's lover wired home to her parents, "Bessie is vindicated." The tragedy becomes a farce when the man whom a vain, selfish wife has forced to become a murderer talks about "vindicating her."

No wife is obliged to receive compromising attentions. It is difficult to understand why she is not quite as capable as the lover in the case when she encourages these attentions until they bring disaster.

But it is the cause which leads to this sort of crime which needs attacking rather than the people who become its victims.

The beautiful daughter of wealth who is allowed to do everything she wants to do, to have everything her fancy craves, to never know a wish ungratified, and whose parents and friends pride themselves on the fact that she is care free and possessed of every blessing life can offer—this sort of a girl is just the one who as a wife will think herself entitled to the admiration she craves, no matter what people say about it. Never having been taught the beauty of self denial in any way, how can her parents expect her to deny herself this most fascinating amusement? Never having taught her to use will power or self control, how can they expect her to develop it after marriage? Having been allowed a constant change of pleasures all her life, how can they expect her to be satisfied without a variety of lovers and admirers?

Quite different is the case of the romantic, admired girl, who finds herself transformed into the neglected wife of an indifferent husband. He is engrossed in business and club life, and the brief time he passes at home is spent in sleep or fault finding.

He is considered a "good fellow" among men, but he is niggardly in money matters with his wife, and entirely omits the small attentions and courtesies so dear to a refined woman.

After years of this heart famine a thoughtful, sympathetic friend comes into her life. His delicate compliments sound like the lost chord to her woman's heart. She had thought there was no use in trying to look pretty since no one noticed her appearance any more. There was no use in keeping up her music since no one cared to hear her play. But she looks in the mirror with a flush of pleasure now, because her husband's friend has said her eyes are just the color of English violets, and she turns to her music with delight because he said her voice soothed and rested him.

It is all so easy to drift down stream after that with no thought of evil until caught by the fatal maelstrom of human emotion.

Oh, the pity of it all! Let us save our sympathy which would be poorly bestowed upon the selfish daughter of wealth and fashion, who seeks a new diversion in flirtation, and give it to the tried and sorely tempted, lonely wife of the faithless or indifferent husband who forgot his marriage vows with the waning of the honeymoon and left his wife to find diversion as she might. Such as she needs the pity of men, women and angels.—ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane,

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejuiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

Hood's Pills cure Liver Ills.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

MR. PRESTON'S NEW OFFICE.

The Library Will Be Arranged in Its New Quarters By January 1st.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Mr. W. T. R. Preston, the newly appointed Provincial Librarian, will not assume full charge until January 1st. At present he is assisting Prof. Houston, the late librarian, in arranging the books for removal to the new quarters at the Queen's Park. It is expected that the library will be completely removed and arranged by January 1, when Prof. Houston will assume his new duties as Inspector of Teachers' Institutes.

Who Will Be Organizer?

Librarian Preston was yesterday asked as to who was likely to succeed him as organizer for the Reform party. He said that as there were no bye-elections or any important political event imminent, it was probable that the matter would not be decided for some time. He said that at present he knew of no one who was at all anxious to assume the responsibilities of the position. Mr. Preston remarked that he sent in his resignation last spring after the East York bye-election.

On the streets the name most mentioned is that of Mr. Frank Yeigh, ex-president of the Young Liberals. Mr. Yeigh would certainly fill the organizer's shoes in a capable manner.

Removing the Departments.

The work of removing the various departments to the new Parliament buildings will not be completed before the new year. The Registrar-General's office was removed yesterday, and Treasurer Harcourt will commence removing his department to-morrow. As a two months' supply of coal has been ordered for the Attorney-General's office, it is not probable this department will be removed until December.

BOSTONS THE CHAMPIONS.

Cleveland Outplayed by the Eastern Club.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—The sixth game of the World's Championship Series was played yesterday and proved Boston's fifth successive victory. Both pitchers were hit hard, Cleveland banging Nichols for three singles and a double in the third. The score:

Boston	0 0 3 2 1 1 1 1 x	9	11	0
Cleveland	0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0	3	10	4

Nichols-Bennett; Young-Zimmer. McQuade-Gaffney.

The world's championship series between Boston, the winner of the first National League series and Cleveland, the winner in the second, is over and the honors go to the Beaneaters. Three games were played in Cleveland Oct. 17, 18 and 19, then the teams went to Boston for three more games, Oct. 22, 23, 24. The balance of the games, if required, were set down to be played in New York, but as Cleveland's best effort even at home only ended in a draw, the Gotham games are unnecessary. Subjoined is a summary of the games, showing Boston to have scored twice as many runs, about 20 per cent. more hits and the same number of errors:

Fatally Beaten by Chinamen.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Oct. 25.—A traveling man named Lee was fatally beaten yesterday by two Chinese laundrymen with whom he quarreled over a bundle of laundry. The arrival of a posse of police prevented a mob, which had gathered, from wreaking vengeance on the Celestials.

RECEIVED THE LORD MAYOR.

The Lord Chancellor Dilates on Religious Liberty.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Accompanied by Sheriff Renalls, Sheriff Wilkins and other city officials, Lord Mayor-elect Stuart Knill was received by Baron Herschell, Lord Chancellor, in the House of Lords yesterday. The Lord Chancellor commented upon the fact that the election of Mr. Knill had been received with determined hostility in certain quarters owing to the creed in which he believed. The Lord Chancellor said undoubtedly the times were past when it was impossible for a Catholic to hold office without paltering with his religion. Happily the battle of religious liberty had been fought and won and the creed in which a man believed was no barrier to privileges, rights and honors.

Fenian Convicts to Be Released.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Fenians Mullen and Dowling, who are serving sentences in the Marlborough jail, are about to be released. Mullen was convicted of complicity in the murders of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke, under-secretary, in Dublin, May 6, 1882. Dowling was convicted of killing a policeman.

Labor War in the Couer D'Alene Mines.

MARSALUA, Mont., Oct. 25.—In the Couer D'Alene mines, though the leader of the Miners Union has been imprisoned, there is prospect of desperate guerrilla warfare. George Thompson, a non-union leader of the Gem mine said to-day: "It looks worse than it did before the last outbreak. All that is needed to make war is some act on either side toward hostilities."

BEER HIS ONLY REQUEST.

NEILL, THE MURDERER, TAKES THINGS EASILY.

But Since the Trial He Has Grown Irritable—The Report in The News of The World, That He Had Made a Confession of Killing Three of the Girls, Denied.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The alleged confession of Neill, the poisoner, is said to have been made in confidence before he was sentenced. He has seen no one but the jail officials since sentence was passed. Neill's counsel are hopeful of getting from America affidavits which will justify Home Secretary Asquith in reprieving the prisoner on the grounds of insanity from the use of narcotics. Such evidence is likely to be counteracted, however, by the results of medical observation made since Neill was first imprisoned. It has been learned that Neill was exceedingly popular among women of light reputation on account of his generosity. Neill gives no trouble now about his diet. He only stipulates that he shall have the full allowance of beer. He eats sparingly and has become restless, sullen and irritable.

English and American showmen are clamoring for an opportunity to purchase the belongings and relics of the prisoner.

Denied That He Confessed.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The statement that Neill has confessed that he murdered the Clover, Marsh and Shrvell girls is denied by the lawyers who defended him.

WAS IT CATTLE DISEASE.

Judging From the Action of the Board of Agriculture It Was Not.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Canadian experts doubt the Canadian origin of the cow that was slaughtered in Fifeshire on account of pleuro-pneumonia.

Even The Standard suggests, seeing that Canada is free from the disease and has so been for years, that the beast probably came from the United States.

The Live Stock Journal notes the improved Canadian quarantine in the North-west against the United States. It suggests that previous laxity, perhaps, brought disease among Canadian herds. The cow was landed nearly a fortnight at Dundee before the pleuro-pneumonia was discovered. When the lungs were sent to the Royal Veterinary College, all the animals on the two farms, 150 in number, were ordered to be slaughtered, but the Board of Agriculture has now suspended the order, doubting the reality of the disease.

The whole incident is being used by the opponents of imports of live stock. They ask why Canada does not develop the dead meat trade, which brings no such risk to British herds.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. ALARMING SPREAD OF DIPHTHERIA IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Nearly 200 Cases in a Month—The Deaths From the Disease Average One Daily—Four Schools To Be Closed—The Suicide Wave.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—A sort of meeting extraordinary of medical men was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Medical Health Officer Allen. It was called to consider the present diphtheria epidemic. Ald. Lamb, acting chairman of the Board of Health, presided.

Dr. Bryce, secretary Provincial Board of Health, averred that the primary cause of the epidemic was personal contact. Privy pits was another fruitful cause, and these he would have removed.

Mr. James L. Hughes, Inspector of Public Schools, presented a statement showing the number of cases that have occurred in the public schools this term:

Jesse Ketchum	19
Borden-street	28
Huron	19
Cottingham	17

The majority of cases are among pupils below the third book and none, at all have developed in the fifth book.

Medical Health Officer Allen said that the average number of cases of diphtheria per month last year was from 7 to 15. In July of this year they had got the number of cases down to seven, but from the way cases were coming in now there would be over 200 this month. So far this month there had been 23 deaths. Last month the deaths were nine. He said that in the eastern and western parts of the city there was scarcely a case of diphtheria. They were centralized in the north central portion.

Dr. Bryce moved a resolution, to be printed and publicly circulated, embodying these suggestions:

Inspection of the plumbing and surroundings of schools;

The daily medical inspection of throats of school children during the present outbreak;

The daily visitation of houses from which children affected with the disease have come, or from which pupils are absent;

Closing of all affected school-rooms and having the same weekly disinfected;

Notifying Sunday-school superintendents of families in which diphtheria has been found;

Invariable isolation of patients under closest scrutiny;

Affected patients, or children in the home in which the disease has appeared, to be kept from school for 40 days from the appearance of the disease;

The closing of kindergarten and all rooms up to third book in the Jesse Ketchum, Borden, Huron, Cottingham schools until the epidemic has been suppressed;

The registry with the Medical Health Officer of all houses in which the disease has appeared;

The abolition of privy pits as rapidly as possible;

That a circular be distributed jointly by the Board of Health and the Public School Board to householders in the city containing directions as to sanitary precautions, etc.

TO PROTECT THE GAME.

The Ontario Government Taking Vigorous Action This Year.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—It was announced that owing to the large number of applications for permits to shoot deer received this year from residents of the United States no permits would be issued by the Provincial Secretary this year. Notwithstanding this prohibition it has been learned that a number of Americans are already on the ground ready to commence operations next week, despite this clause:

16. No person not a resident and domiciled in the Provinces of Ontario or Quebec shall be entitled to hunt deer without having first obtained a license in that behalf.

To-day Provincial Detective Greer will leave for Muskoka and will remain until the season closes on Nov. 15. Assistant wardens have been stationed at various points in Muskoka, and every violator of the law will be prosecuted. The hunting season is limited this year to 15 days. Other provisions of the act are:

No one person shall kill more than two deer.

Hunting or killing deer by what is known as "crusting," or while they are "yarding," prohibited.

No fawn shall be hunted or killed.

The penalty for offending against the provisions of the act is a fine not less than $30 and costs.

A LIGHT PENALTY.

The Man Who Duped School Teachers Sentenced to Three Months.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—J. A. Chrysler, the Teeterville school teacher who was convicted of swindling school teachers by means of a bogus advertisement offering to engage a tutor for the children of an English lady and then collecting $10 from the applicants, was taken from Toronto jail to Simcoe by Detective Murray a day or two ago to receive his sentence. Chrysler's punishment was suspended pending his testimony against Barrister Kelly of Simcoe and Hotelkeeper Vanderberg of Teeterville, whom he claimed were his accomplices, but whom the jury at the York sessions acquitted.

Chrysler was yesterday sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor.

IT FITTED THE CRIME.

IN LIFE THEY WERE BRUTAL AND THEY CAME TO A BARBAROUS END.

Two Piratical Brothers and a Native Cook Have Their Heads Chopped Off in Manilla—Details of Their Crime and Their Barbarity to Their Victims.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Mrs. L. J. Wyckoff, a medical missionary, brings news from the South Seas that completes as sensational and blood-curdling a romance of piracy and murder as has ever been printed. It is the first account received of the beheading at Manila by the Spanish colonial authorities of the Rodique brothers, the noted pirates, together with Maloi, a native cook, who gave the information that led to their capture.

The decapitation took place in the last days of August and news of it reached Singapore just before Miss Wyckoff left for this country. The Rodique brothers had been given full trial for their offence with which they were charged, the revolting murder of the entire crew of a vessel which they had seized. They were sentenced to death upon the testimony of the revengeful cook, Maloi. In his anxiety to secure the punishment of his masters the cook so enmeshed himself that he, too, was found guilty as an accessory and was sentenced to the same fate.

The three pirates were led from the jail on the morning of the execution into the public square of Manila, where stood the executioner, sword in hand. The cook was the first to die. Bound hand and foot he was forced to kneel before the executioner. He begged and cried for mercy, but there was no one to intercede for him. The Rodiques looked on stoically. Soldiers in double lines formed a hollow square to keep back the crowd attracted by the spectacle.

With one long sweep the executioner severed Maloi's neck, and his head rolled several feet away. The Rodiques, both brawny, powerful men, were led to the spot. They knelt together, two men holding each pirate with his head bent forward. Each neck was marked and the signal was given. The report of the execution says that but one blow was given in each case.

The Rodiques were convicts, but were highly educated and of polished address, having at one time, judging from their manner, moved in refined society. The story of their last and worst crime was told by Maloi, the Tahitian cook, to the Manila authorities. They leased a schooner yacht, the Minaloaiti, belonging to the native king of Tahiti, giving out that they were going on a trading voyage among the islands. The vessel was formerly the Dolly, and once belonged to Captain Matthew Turner of San Francisco. The Rodiques engaged a man named Contello, as captain, and William G. Hall as supercargo. Several Tahiti business men were induced to share in the enterprise.

A week out of Papeete one of the Rodiques gave the cook, Maloi, a bottle filled with white powder and ordered him to put it in the food of the captain and supercargo and the seven native sailors. He objected, but yielded when he was offered a share in the profits of the pirates cruise. The captain and supercargo ate with the pirates. In a few minutes they were seized with spasms. The cook saw at this moment that the sailors were writhing in agony on the decks. The pirates drew their pistols and shot the captain and supercargo dead. Ordering the cook to throw the bodies overboard the two brothers went on deck to watch the sailors die. Now and then, when a victim would roll over on his face, the pirates would turn him over with their feet to enjoy the terrible agony depicted on the dying man's face. A school of sharks was following the vessel, and the cook, at the order of the pirates, took a dying sailor and tossed him overboard, and with yells and laughter the pirates watched the helpless man torn to pieces.

All the victims were served likewise. The brothers then finished their evening meal. Proceeding to one of the Pomoto Islands they took on six natives and began life as traders and pirates, living riotously on the profits. It was decided to run to Manila for a carouse. The cook demanded a share of the profits, but was refused. He was not allowed to leave the schooner. The vessel reached Manila during the progress of a big fair.

There was a Spanish colonial revenue cutter in the harbor. The cook slipped away, rowed to the cutter and told his terrible story. Six marines were sent to look for the pirates and found them in a drinking booth. The pirates were so surprised that they made little resistance. They were put in jail with the cook, and were heavily guarded until their execution, which followed immediately upon the brief trial. Their vessel has been confiscated by the authorities at Manila.

Death Came as She Slept.

HAMILTON, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Addison, widow of the late John Addison, was found dead in her bed yesterday at her residence, 150 Rebecca-street. The deceased had not been very well since Sunday, and last night her daughter sat up with her part of the time. She dozed off towards morning and on awakening found that her mother had passed away. Death must have come as she slept, for her face was calm and peaceful.

AN AMARANTH TALE.

The Enoch Arden Was a Scamp, But the Result Is the Same.

GRAND VALLEY, Ont., Oct. 26.—About six years ago Robert Harper, who worked a farm about one mile from this village, and who was known to be rather a worthless character, left for parts unknown, and his friends were under the impression that he was dead. Such was not the case, however. About a year ago his wife, who never expected to see him again, married a well-to-do farmer named McDonald, who owns a farm in Amaranth, and they have been living happily together ever since. On Friday last Harper made his appearance in Grand Valley again, looking as fresh as a daisy, and there will likely be an interesting time out in Amaranth for a few weeks.

Sarah Burr Killed in an Elevator at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—A shocking accident took place yesterday at the Russell House, by which Miss Sarah Burr, chambermaid, lost her life. It is the custom for the servants to use the baggage elevator going up and down to save climbing the stairs, and deceased used it at least half a dozen times each day.

This morning she was in the basement, and wishing to go up pulled the rope to let on the power, but neglected to step on the car herself. Her head was caught between the brick wall and the floor of the car and her life crushed out.

FROM ACROSS THE OCEAN.

COMMERCIAL TREATY FOR CANADA AND FRANCE.

Plenipotentiaries Appointed By Great Britain—Opening Up Another Market For Our Forest Products—To Let Our Lumber Into France On Equal Terms With Norway's.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A crowd of "fast" men gathered yesterday in the Queen's Bench Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice to listen to the proceedings brought by the London & Universal Bank against H. J. Baring. The case was familiarly known as the baccarat case. The action was to recover the sum of $1,440,000, which the bank has paid on a bill that had been discounted for Baring with Graham & McMahon. It was shown that Baring had been fleeced out of the money while drunk, and judgment was given in his favor.

BETWEEN FRANCE AND CANADA.

Plenipotentiaries Appointed by Great Britain to Arrange a Commercial Treaty.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Sir Charles Tupper has been appointed a British plenipotentiary with Lord Dufferin, the British Minister at Paris, to negotiate a commercial treaty between France and Canada. The French Government has expressed its readiness to consider the question immediately. Canadian goods are now admitted into France on the maximum tariff, while the goods of other countries, such as Norwegian and Swedish lumber, competing with the products of Canada's forests, enjoy the minimum tariff. Canada desires the minimum tariff, too.

POLLUTED SEINE WATER.

Paris Will Filter Its Drinking Water to Aid Purification.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—The Chamber of Deputies, after a two days' debate on the question of the purification of the water of the Seine, adopted a motion sanctioned by Premier Loubet calling upon the Government to execute the works already begun for filtering the drinking water of Paris and its suburbs.

The Poor Semitic.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 25.—The Russian Government has recently demanded that the Belgian authorities in issuing passports to persons intending to visit Russia shall state therein the religion of the bearer. Heretofore no such mention has been made, and it is not known what action Belgium will take. If she complies Belgian Jews will be treated to many indignities if they visit Russia. The Russian demand is aimed solely at Hebrews.

Liverpool a Back Number.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Inman line will inaugurate their new service between Southampton and New York on March 3 next. The first vessel to be despatched from Southampton will be the City of Paris, and thereafter all the steamers of the line will be despatched from and arrive at Southampton, instead of Liverpool.

The Queen and Her Grandson.

How Emperor William Got Even.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Truth announces that the German Emperor, because he was angry at some sentinels stationed at the new palace in Potsdam for failing to recognize the Empress, has ordered that her portrait be hung in every barrack room in Germany.

KILLED BY AN ELK.

A Philadelphia Zoo-Keeper Killed by an Infuriated Animal.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—One of the big elks at the Zoo became ugly at the feeding hour last night and so ferociously attacked its keeper, John Ford of 38th and Poplar-streets, that he died in the German Hospital late at night. With two broken ribs and thirty wounds on his head and body, his sufferings were intense. At 6 o'clock last night Ford, according to his daily custom, entered the elks' enclosure to feed the animals. "Tom," the largest of them, had frequently shown a vicious temper, but had never previously attempted to attack his keeper. The beast was particularly fierce yesterday, however, and sprang at once at Ford as soon as he entered the gate.

Several minutes later another keeper passing near the inclosure heard Ford crying for help and rushed to his assistance, having been reinforced meanwhile by several other attaches of the garden.

The rescuing party found Ford lying in a trough in one corner of the inclosure with the infuriated elk standing over him attacking him with horn and hoof. With great difficulty they finally succeeded in driving the maddened animal away and rescued Ford from his perilous position. He was unconscious and bleeding from 30 wounds in the head and about the body.

An Aged Pensioner's Suicide.

MOUNT FOREST, Oct. 26.—On Saturday night last Thomas Larrey, a pensioner, committed suicide at Coyne's Hotel by taking Paris green while suffering from the results of a debauch.

This Man Drowned Himself.

OSHAWA, Oct. 26.—Charles Wadley suicided by drowning in W. E. Ellis & Co.'s millrace. Wadley has been in a despondent frame of mind for a long time. He was about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and some property, but no children. The dead was committed only a few rods from his own door.

His Sixty-first Child.

SOLDIER, Ky., Oct. 26.—John Milton Kingsley of Lost Creek is 72 years of age. Just one year ago he was married to Mrs. Winnie Belts as his sixth wife. His first marriage occurred in Bath County 50 years ago. Five of his wives lie buried in different parts of the state. He is the father of 31 children, all alive but 10. His last wife's child is a healthy babe of three weeks.

OTONABEE.

COUNCIL MEETING.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Meeting of Otonabee council Oct. 17th, all the members present except David Nelson, first deputy-reeve, who was absent through sickness. The council expressed regret at his absence hoping he will soon be restored to health so he can resume his public duties, as he is a very careful, hard-working councillor. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Dyell, that Robt. Borland be paid $1.00 for removing stumps off the road allowance. Moved by Mr. Lancaster, seconded by Mr. Johnston that road division No. 71 be allowed to perform this fall their 1893 statute labour in improving the road across McIntyre's swamp on the 8th con. line opposite lots 15 and 16. Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Lancaster, that Geo. Hunter be instructed to have the bush cut 10 feet on each side of the travelled road at Thompson's swamp on the 8th con. line opposite lot 8. The following accounts were passed: Richard Matchett, eight days employed as sanitary inspector, $16.00; Creighton Matchett, $10.50 for repairing road at gravel pit on 15th con. line; John Anderson, $1.20 for gravel; E. O'Brien, $7.00 for picking stone and cleaning out ditches on North Peterborough road, from 6th line to Ashburnham; Mrs. McCarthy, gravel, $3.00; David Knox, gravel, $9.05; Robt. English, clothing for O. McGowan, $3.10; Geo. Brown, $2.00 for two days picking stone at St. Margaret's Hill; C. Edwards, cedar, $2.40; Samuel Armstrong, gravel, $3.00; Wm. Carter, gravel, $3.75; Wm. Manly, damages drawing gravel, $2.00. Council adjourned to 21st Nov.

NELLIE'S MOTHER KNEW WHAT TO DO.

Little Nellie came home from school and told her mother that she had a very sore throat. Indeed, Nellie had caught a bad cold; she was hoarse, and when she spoke her voice was scarcely heard. Nellie's dear mother knew exactly what to do; she was prepared for dangers resulting from colds. She had three other little ones, and therefore had acquired a goodly amount of experience with children,

The good mother at once proceeded to doctor her daughter with that never failing remedy, Harvard Bronchial Syrup, which was always kept in the house,

When Nellie awoke next morning the sore throat and hoarseness were banished, and she was quite well enough to go to school.

The above facts are worthy the attention of every mother who has the management and care of young children. An expenditure of twenty-five cents for a bottle of Harvard Bronchial Syrup will often save hours and days of suffering and sickness. No other cough remedy gives such satisfaction in the home; no other can give such instant relief. Your druggist should keep it in stock; ask for it.

Arrival of Barnardo Home Girls.

Yesterday there arrived safely at Hazel Brae, Peterborough, from Dr. Barnardo's Homes in England, a party of 127 girls ranging in age from five to seventeen years. They came over by the steamer Sardinian, after a very pleasant passage. They were in charge of two ladies who did everything possible for their comfort. Several of these girls have already been placed in situations.

GREAT SUCCESS.

Great success has followed the use of Lactated Food in a wide variety of cases. It has proved to far surpass all other artificial foods, both in cases of infants deprived of the natural nutriment, and in a large number of cases of enfeebled digestion in adults—whether chronic or caused by acute disease. The reason of this superiority can be easily understood. The composition of Lactated Food is such that it yields a large amount of the most easily assimilated nutrients, and at the same time assists the feeble stomach in the digestive process.

We wish to convince mothers that Lactated Food is the best food in the world for infants. We request mothers to give it a trial; one tin will prove its worth and value. It may be the means of saving some little one from death.

If you have a baby, send your address to the Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, and they will send you a full sized tin, free of cost.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS INSPECTORSHIP.

Mr. Law Replies to Mr. Dumble.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I have read Mr. Dumble's letter in your issue of the 15th inst. with great care, but I cannot see that he puts forth any argument to prove to the public that the minority in the contest over the question of school inspector, are in the right, further than what he claims the law gives them. Mr. Dumble says that he has served on the school board longer than any other member, except Mr. Stevenson. Granting that he has, are the members who have recently joined the board to be restrained from introducing new measures on that account, and to be charged with selfish and improper motives by the older members of the board, because they do not wish to run in the old ruts? Do the minority think they can make the public believe they are the only members of the board who have any common sense, and that the majority of the members are not fit to be trusted to discuss the important question as to the best method of conducting our schools?

I am under the impression that the public does not approve of the action of the minority in this contest at the last meeting of the school board. Mr. Dumble says that a slight increase was made in Dr. Tilley's salary with the understanding that he give more attention and time to

THE INSPECTION OF THE SCHOOLS.

I understand the salary was raised from $300 to $350 per annum, an increase of 75%. This is what Mr. Dumble calls a slight increase! I wonder what any firm of merchants or bankers would say if the directors increased the expenses of any branch of the business 75% without getting an equivalent in the increase of business or otherwise. Did our schools get a fair return for this "slight increase" (75%) in the salary of the school inspector? Every person I have questioned on the subject says "No."

Mr. Dumble says "During Dr. Tilley's inspectorship the schools have not only increased in numbers but efficiency," etc. In what way is Dr. Tilley to be credited with the increased number of schools?—and does not much of the credit for efficiency belong to the teachers? I fail to see that an inspection of a few hours in each school, at intervals of four to six months, would be of much benefit to the teachers or pupils. Further, I think the town is paying too high a price for the services rendered, amounting to about $40 to $60 per day. This is what Mr. Dumble calls economy.

The majority of the members of the board propose a change. They propose to engage an inspector to the schools, at a salary of say $1200 per annum, or at the rate of $4 per day for 300 days per year. By the old way we get a poor service for 40 to 60 dollars per day. By the new way we would get an efficient service for four dollars per day. Is not this a strong reason for a change of school management? It sounds somewhat of the "workshop" but it is a sound business principle—"get 100 cents worth for your dollar."

WHO WILL GIVE ALL HIS TIME

Mr. Dumble admits that our schools can be improved, but says the majority in the discussion have not demonstrated that their system of inspectorship would improve them. The most sure way to prove the principle to be correct is to put it into practice. This the minority prevent by taking advantage of a technicality in the school laws.

There is one statement of Mr. Dumble's I wish to correct. He says:—"Again they say some of our teachers are weak, &c.". Mr. Dumble read the report of the inspector at the last meeting of "the Committee of Appointments" wherein the Inspector reported some of the teachers weak, and in the discussion that took place afterwards, the writer made use of this part of the report to illustrate the advantage of having a regular inspector, and stated that in a case of the kind it would be a to have the Inspector to consult. I have no recollection of hearing any other person mention anything about the teacher's qualifications. Mr. Dumble in referring to the school inspection says: "Just examine the facts. The pupils of each room are under their teachers, the teachers are under the head masters of the several schools, all the teachers under the Inspector. Surely this is pretty good inspection." The above would be more complete if we add.: The Inspector is too much under the influence of Mr. Dumble. But the system is not satisfactory to the majority of the Board and they are of the opinion that it is not to the satisfaction of the majority of the ratepayers.

Mr. Dumble says: "We want more schools and more teachers, the $1000 which it is desired to throw away, would pay 'our new teachers at $250 per annum." But he does not mention the item saved by dispensing with the music teacher; this latter was one of Mr. Dumble's economical measures. The majority consider the $800 will be better spent by applying it towards paying the salary of a permanent inspector, when be their parents rich or poor. The majority also believe that the school system can be so improved that there will not be such need for more schools, and more teachers for the present.

Before concluding this letter I would ask permission to make a few remarks about Mr. Dumble's sneer at the workshop and walking beam. Mr. Dumble belongs to one of the learned professions, and in matters of law, etc. is well read, but he must not forget that there are other professions, and on that ranks equally high if not higher, than the profession of law and members are not ashamed to say that they graduated from the workshop. There are but few practical, eminent engineers in the nineteenth century but graduated from the workshops and under the direction of one who Mr. Dumble calls a "walking beam." The three to four years they spent in the workshop have been considered of the most vital importance in their professional practice. You will never hear of these gentlemen speak sneeringly of the workshop, or of the men they had the pleasure of mingling with during the time of their apprenticeship. These professional gentlemen you will find have done more towards the

and its people than all the other professions combined, and the greatest majority graduated from the workshop. These gentlemen have built monuments of their perseverance and skill in all parts of the world, some stationary and some movable. I refer to the great masses of hydraulic works, railways, highways and canals, steamships, architectural works, telegraphs and cables under the sea and land, and last, but not least, the electrical engineering work executed during the last fifteen years. These and other workstoo numerous to mention have been accomplished by men who have graduated from the workshop.

The workshop has turned outits f all complement of eminent men, men who have done their full share in the advancement of civilization through the world. Can any other profession point to an equal record for integrity, skill, business ability, and perseverance under any and every difficulty, as the engineering profession most of them graduates from the work shop, and who are not to be sneered at by any profession?

Another point I would like to call to the attention of the minority. Peterborough is becoming a large manufacturing town, therefore the workshop is greatly interested in the children will get in the public schools. Most of the future mechanics of our town will get but a common school education, therefore it should be the best that can be had for the money. The boy will become the man who will have to pay the future taxes; the better he is educated for his business the more he can earn towards the demands upon his purse.

If Peterborough is to become a leading manufacturing town mechanics in our workshops must be the best to be had. In fact let it be the aim of all to have it said of a first class piece of work of any kind, seen in any part of the world, "it came from Peterborough," and when a first class mechanic is to be found any where let it be proverbial, "he is a Peterborough man." To accomplish this we must commence in our schools. I recollect an incident that happened a few years ago in India. I required several good native mechanics, and a large number came to my office to apply for the positions; among them one man attracted my attention several times to allow some other applicant to tell his story before him. When his turn came I had engaged all I required, but before dismissing him, I called my interpreter and asked him who the man was. He said he was a very good mechanic in wood or iron. I asked him how he knew he was a good mechanic. His reply I have never forgotten: "He is a Sikh, Sahib." The interpreter considered the fact of him being a "Sikh" a sufficient recommendation. I put him to work on that recommendation and he proved to be worthy of the confidence.

BY STEPPING TO ONE SIDE

Let the words he is a Peterborough boy be a recommendation wherever one may be found, is the wish of the writer.

Thanking you for space occupied, I am,
Yours truly,
WM. H. LAW.

P. S.—Since writing the above I notice the announcement in an English engineering journal of the death of an eminent engineer, one who has done more towards the development of the triple compound engine than any other man; and by his improvements in the ocean greyhounds, the trip across the Atlantic has been reduced to a little over five days. I refer to

of the firm of R. Napier & Son, Govan, Scotland, who died suddenly at his home, Kelvinside, Glasgow, early in the present month. He was educated at Arbroath and Edinburgh University, and afterwards apprenticed to Mr. Robert Napier, the renowned ship builder and engineer. The manager of the works under which young Kirk began his term of apprenticeship was David Elder, an engineer of remarkable talent. Mr. Kirk related that when he went to Mr. Elder and sought engagement as apprentice he was told to "go and work for two years as a joiner," and then to come back and begin engineering. Two years were accordingly devoted to joiner work by young Kirk, and he never, as he himself acknowledged, had occasion to regret the time he spent in the work shop. Another graduate from the workshop! Not only on the Clyde, but everywhere where engines and ships have found their way, the name of Dr. Kirk has been respected as one of the cleverest, shrewdest and most honourable of marine engineers. A few years ago the University of Glasgow conferred upon him the degree of LL.D. as a recognition of the valuable services he had rendered to the world and to engineering science.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling, Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Hastings Oddfellow's Entertainment.

The work degree team of Peterborough Lodge, No. 11, I.O.O.F., went down to Hastings last night, thirty strong, to assist the Hastings Oddfellows in their annual entertainment, which was held in the town hall, and proved a great success. The attendance was large, and the programme rendered high class and refined. Prof. Risch, Toronto, a well-known comic singer and caricaturist, gave several selections. The recitations of Miss Cooper were splendidly given. The grand Oriental parade of the Peterborough brethren at the epening, and the mock initation degree, both the same as produced at the Opera House here some time ago, took well, and immensely pleased the large audience. The local Oddfellows arrived home at 12.30 last night by a special, a coach being attached to a freight train.

Serenading one of their Number.

Last evening the 57th Battalion band serenaded Mr. W. H. Crowe, corner of Stewart and Sophia streets, Ashburnham, in recognition of his recent marriage. Several of Mr. Crowe's fellow-employees in Mr. Belleghem's furniture factory were present also. The proceedings, which portook of a farewell nature, were very happy, and a good time was spent at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, but a feeling of sadness nevertheless prevailed, as Mr. Crowe leaves on Tuesday next for Western Ontario, where he has accepted a position as foreman in a large furniture manufactory. He has been a popular foreman in Mr. Belleghem's furniture factory for some time past, and also an enthusiastic member and expert player in the 57th Battalion band. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Crowe will regret their departure. Last night several speeches were made by the bandsmen and others expressing great regret at their leaving Peterborough.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—There was no session at the police court this morning. The cells were tenantless last night.

—Mr. John McCarthy, of Hastings, left the Peterborough House with a gang of men for Apsley yesterday. They will work this winter in the lumber shanties.

—Invitations are being issued for the reception to be tendered Mr. Chapman, of Brantford, the Y.M.C.A. Secretary, here on Friday night, Nov. 4th. A fine programme has been prepared.

—Mr. John Haggart sold the stock of Mr. P. J. Murphy, Lot 3, 5th concession of Ennismore, yesterday. A large crowd was present at the sale and good prices were the order of the day.

—Norman Spears, son of Dr. Spears, while firing off a gun in Crawford's Grove on Monday afternoon, was badly shaken up by the gun kicking heavily. His nose was split by the fire-arm recoiling.

—Will the person who took the umbrella from the Royal Templars of Temperance hall last night by mistake, kindly leave it at the EXAMINER office. The owners name is stamped on the handle.

—Staff-Capt. Boulton, of Kingston, formerly commander of the local detachment of the Salvation Army, will visit Peterborough on Nov. 5th and 6th. The Captain has many warm friends here.

—The football game between Warsaw and Fenelon Falls, announced to take place here on Friday, will not come off. The Warsaws want to play Peterborough if the latter can offer sufficient inducements.

—Judge Weller will to-morrow hold the final hearing or the appeals against the assessment rolls for 1892. There are only three appeals to be heard and they are entered on the ground of under-valuation of property assessed.

—Mr. Charles Calder, of Warsaw, who is a scientific gardener, this morning presented Mr. T. LePlante with two fine heads of cabbage, the largest ever exhibited in Peterborough. One head weighed 17 lbs. and the other 8½ lbs.

—There was a very small market this morning, not more than half a dozen vehicles dotting the square, owing to the inclement weather. Grain is moving at the same price as on Saturday. Much buckwheat and oats are being offered.

—Mr. F. Dover has returned from a hunting sojourn to Haliburton county. He shot about fifty partridge. Mr. H. Cluxton and his brother-in-law Mr. Ambrose of Port Hope, who were in Haliburton shooting for a couple of days, have also returned.

—Many complaints were heard of crossings to-day being left in such a muddy and disagreeable condition when a couple of dollars would have cleaned them all off. The Street Inspector is usually very careful in keeping things clean but the matter seems to have escaped his attention to-day.

—There are excellent prospects of having the great running race of seven famous runners, which took place on the track at Cobourg yesterday, run in the Driving Park here on Nov. 10th, Thanksgiving Day. A number of local sports attended the races at Cobourg yesterday and voted them A 1 in all the classes.

—Two fine dogs from the south end of the town have recently been picked up and taken away by hunters on their expeditions to the north without the consent or knowledge of the animal's owners. This practice is a mean one and the perpetrators who induced the hounds to accompany them had better take fair warning.

—The delegates now in attendance at the Provincial Sabbath School Convention at Guelph from this vicinity are: Dr. Harrison, Keene; Rev. Mr. Thompson, Hastings; Rev. J. McEwen, Lakefield, county secretary; and Misses Fannie Dickson and Crummy, of St. Paul's church Sunday school. They will return on Friday.

—Mr. B. Crowly, who has returned from a trip to the Northwest and was well pleased with the country. He presented Mr. J. Clancy, proprietor of the Peterborough House, with a fine polished pair of horns, mounted in an artistic manner. They were taken from the head of a large Egyptian cow.

—Frequent complaint is made of the rude actions of youthful toughs who loaf about the streets of Ashburnham, between the Hunter street bridge and the town hall. Girls passing home from their employment in town are rudely accosted by these young scamps by insulting and indecent remarks. The authorities should see that our girls are protected from the insults of these unjailed scamps.

—Mr. W. C. Mudge, who has been on a few days fishing expedition to Rice Lake returned home last night. He had exhilarating sport and rare good luck. As a result of his onslaught on the finny tribe five large masko yielded to his acknowledged fishing abilities. The smallest one tipped the beam at 11 lbs, while the biggest which was a magnificent specimen of his kind, weighed no less than 19 lbs.

MRS. MORROW'S PIANOFORTE RECITAL.

An Excellent and Successful Musical Entertainment.

There was, in spite of the disagreeable weather a large attendance last night at the grand pianoforte recital and concert given by and under the direction of Mrs. Morrow. It was to be noticed that the audience included the highest musical culture of the town, and the programme furnished and the manner of its presentation fully realized the high expectations formed. It is to be regretted, however, that, with such an excellent programme, circumstances should have prevented its fullest enjoyment. The chilliness resulting from the absence of fire, amounted to positive discomfort, which created a mental distraction, making a proper appreciation of the beautiful music given, an impossibility. The front of the stage was beautifully ornamented with flowers, and a Steinway grand and a Nordheimer pianoforte gave promise of the musical treat that followed. Mrs. Morrow opened the programme with a brilliant exposition of Liszt's arrangement of the "Tannhauser" Grand March. Her execution was brilliant and finished, while full expression was given to the Wagnerian characteristics of the selection. She was equally happy in her second number Schulhoff's "Valse Brilliante" (the second) which whose sparkling dash was shown to the most charming advantage by the talented performer. But perhaps her range of musical knowledge and versatility of technique were exhibited most fully in the pianoforte duet which she performed with Mr. Boscovitz, who took the second piano part of the score. The selection was Mozart's "Don Juan" and it received artistically excellent treatment. It is greatly to Mrs. Morrow's credit that she so successfully maintained her place in the company of a pianist of the lengthened experience and artistic standing of Mr. Boscovitz. It was indeed a crucial test and Mrs. Morrow passed it with great success. Mr. Boscovitz is so well known that detailed reference to his work is unnecessary. It was characterized by the old time roundness of tone, combination of crisp vigour and charming daintiness of touch and richness of expression. His numbers included several selections which he gave us on his previous visit, but they were heard with the same delight. Miss Hollingshead, of Montreal, a soprano of fine personal presence and a modesty of bearing that suggested an ability, which her performance justified, sang Tito Mattei's "Dear Heart" with fine artistic finish. She has a pure rich voice, full-toned and mellow, and her method is devoid of all trickery—her good, honest, straight-forward vocalization and distinct enunciation endow her, performance with a charm that is sure to please. She was recalled and sang "Lock Ahoy!" with fine voice and feeling. She also sang well in her second number, "Calm is the Night." Her singing, in duet with Mr. Dunn, of Wallace's pathetic, "Holy Mother Guide His Footsteps," was fine. Their voices blended beautifully and the effect was exceedingly pleasing. Mr. T. Dunn our own baritone was at his best last night, both in voice and spirit. He sang the "Torreador," song from "Carmen," with the just appreciation its classical character demanded. It was a great success and he was compelled to respond to an insistent recall. His second selection "Alone in the Desert," though an old song, was sung so well that it was heard with new delight. Altogether the programme furnished a high rate musical entertainment for which Mrs. Morrow deserved the thanks of the audience. That her efforts were appreciated, was denoted by her being presented with a beautiful bouquet and a basket of flowers. Mr J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., in returning on her behalf, her thanks for the patronage received, paid a graceful tribute to her exceptional ability as a pianiste, and to the important services she had rendered in promoting the interests of pianoforte music, especially in Peterborough.

New Wools.—Baldwins in all colours and grades, Fingering, Merino, Saxony, Andalusian, Lady Betty; also Berlin and Zephyr. MISS JENKINS, 428 George street.

A Snap for the Public.

For the past week Gough Bros. have been sleeping with one eye open, waiting for a fresh bankrupt stock. They have got it too, having taken in the $50,000 stock of McCrimmon, Lindsay, at 60c. on the dollar. Bargains will be flying thicker than autumn leaves the next two or three months.

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

A Splendid Prodution.

The Kingston Whig of yesterday says of Uncle Hiram which will appear at Bradburn's Opera House, on Oct. 31st, Monday night:—"Uncle Hiram" played to a packed house last night and those who attended were not disappointed. The jokes of Aaron Woodhull as "Hiram Homespun" were, to a large degree, original, and the songs of Miss Trolja Griswold, as "Katarina Johanna Von Blumenburger" and "Willie Dot," a young man of the period, and "Bella" were very catchy. J. J. Swartwood, as "Senator Joseph King," a busted speculator, was good. Taken altogether the show was one of the best comedies that has visited Kingston for some time. fd

MOVED AGAIN.

We are always on the move! We never let our goods stay long enough on the shelf to gather dust. Out they must go! For the present our headquarters for the great bankrupt stock of dry goods etc., will be just across the Arcade and opposite Garvey's. We are bound to make the goods move out faster than ever, if low prices will do it. Come early and get bargains.

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by and am now a well woman. I weigh 128 lbs., eat well and do the work for a large family. My case seems a wonderful recovery and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. AFTER THE DEER AND DUCK.

Hunting Parties Preparing to Leave for the Northern Haunts.

The season for deer shooting opens on Tuesday next and the local sports are taking down their rifles and making gigantic preparations to commit an awful onslaught on those fleet-footed, large-eyed, horned denizens of the wild forest. The first to go and the last to return is probaby the members of the Peterborough Hunt Club who will leave to-morrow morning, almost in a body, for Jacks Lake near Apsley. They will leave to-morrow morning riving all the way and will return sometime about the middle of November. The party which is composed of Messrs. H. C. Winch, R. A. Morrow, R. E. Wood, H. LeBrun, C. Winch, Montreal, Alex Patterson, Thos Dunn, Ed. Brown, A. Stevenson and T. E. Bradburn, are looking forward with keen interest to their excursion to the north and their incursion upon the abodes of the roes and bucks. Some of the party will not leave until next week. Another hunting party successful in past years consists of Messrs. Geo. Fitzgerald, T. Rutherford, S. Ray, S. Clegg, A. Blade, J. W. Fitzgerald, Smithtown, Wm. Snowden and L. Stett. Their destination is Eagle Lake, Anstruther township and their period of hunting will terminate in two weeks time. The party will devote a couple of days to duck shooting. They will drive all the way and doubtless on their return will have some great forest and stream incidents to narrate.

Mr. John Clancy will leave on Friday for Copper Lake, on a hunting and fishing trip. Mr. R. J. Winch has returned from Lake Ketchecum. As a disciple of Izak Walton, Mr. Winch says he did not meet with great success.

PETERBOROUGH PROTESTANT HOME.

Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—Reports Received and Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Protestant Home was held yesterday afternoon at the Home. There was a fair attendance of the officers, Mrs. Vernon, the President, presiding. All showed a deep interest in the good work that is being done at the Home. Miss Roper, Secretary, presented the report of the committee of management as follows:

The committee of management of the Peterborough Protestant Home feel deeply grateful that they have been enabled, through the providence of God and liberality of the people of Peterborough to carry on the work of the Home for another year.

In September the Government inspector, Dr. Chamberlain, visited the the home and found everything perfectly satisfactory, but as the present building was not intended originally for a Home, there are not many of the conveniences there should be in such a place.

Many of the inmates have been seriously ill during the year and were sent to the hospital to receive medical attendance, but happily all recovered with the exception of one, Mrs. Jessie Waddel, who was a former matron of the Home some years ago.

The committee tender their heartfelt thanks to all those who have aided them by donations of food and money, clothing, etc., to the clergymen who have come week by week to meet with these old people, who cannot attend the Sabbath services, and especially to the physicians who attend the inmates gratuitously, and who this year have had so many extra calls upon their kindness. They would thank also the editors of the Review and EXAMINER for inserting notices, etc., and for supplying copies of the papers daily free of charge and the auditors for their examinations of the accounts.

On Oct. 13th the matron, Mrs. Dillon, passed away after a lingering illness of over two months. For the last ten years she faithfully took care of the old people and patiently nursed them through their illness. Hers was a trying position as there are so many different temperaments to consider, but all went on peacefully and orderly during Mrs. Dillon's illness and just now the work has been and is efficiently carried on by her neice, Miss Eliza Londerville.

M. C. ROPER,
Secretary.

The report of Miss Roger, treasurer, was also read as follows:—

Receipts and expenditures of the Peterborough Protestant Home for the year ending 30th September:

RECEIPTS.

Balance on hand 1st Oct, 1891	$ 106 14
Received from Ontario Government	230 01
Received from inmates and others for board	372 11
Subscriptions, donations and bequests of private persons	995 54
Received from all sources not above mentioned	71 97
	$1874 77

EXPENDITURES.

Salaries and wages	$ 343 80
Maintenance and outdoor relief	1367 22
Repairs and furniture	49 71
Balance and cash in hand	112 04
	$1874 77

I certify that having examined the books and accounts of the treasurer of the Peterborough Protestant Home for the year ending 30th Sept, 1892, I find the same to agee with the vouchers and the above statement to be a correct abstract of the receipts and payments.

F. E. BELL,
Auditor.

Peterborough, 25th Oct. 1892.

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Mrs. Vernon.
1st Vice-President—Mrs Ferguson.
2nd Vice-President—Miss Nicholls.
Treasurer—Miss Roger.
Secretary—Miss Roper.
The meeting then adjourned.

THE CURLING CLUB.

The Proposed Thistle and Granite Departure.

An important move is being made, which will be of interest to curlers. Yesterday a meeting was held of the special committee appointed at the annual meeting, and a report was prepared for presentation to the club. This report recommends for the coming winter as an experiment the formation of two divisions of the club to be known as the "Peterborough Granites" and "Peterborough Thistles," to consist of thirty members each. The "Thistles" division will have the exclusive use of the ice on the evenings of Monday, Wendesday and Friday of each week, while the "Granites" will have the other evenings, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. During the day the ice will be open to all alike. Provision is made for reserving the ice for foreign matches, carnivals and other special occasions and also for an interchange of play between the divisions on two nights of the week. For tankard matches and the special foreign matches the club will continue to play as a whole, the players being chosen from each division. Otherwise they will be practically independent, each division having its own chairman, secretary and executive committee. Each member on joining may elect to which division he will belong. The club having at the last meeting fixed the annual fee at $7.50, it it proposed that provided the membership of the division which a member wishes to join does not exceed 30, the fee shall be $6, if paid before the 15th November. This change promises to be a popular one. Already a large number of new and old members have paid their fees, and with the list already in hand it is probable that the limit of membership will soon be reached.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The Fine Hennery of Mr. Richard Waram Burned to the Ground—A Shed of Mrs. Baillie Also Suffers.

An alarm of fire, sounded shortly aftter three o'clock this morning, called out the brigade who made a marvellously quick run. When they arrived on the scene, on Bethune street, near the corner of Sherbrooke street, it was found that a fine shed belonging to Mrs. Baillie and the hennery of Mr Richard Waram were all d veloped in flames. The blaze, which no doubt had an incendiary origin, as this morning coal oil was discovered on the outside of Mrs. Baillie's buildings and there was a pungent smell of kerosene arising from the ruins, was soon conquered by the firemen and extinguished in a few minutes, the flames being confined to the two buildings, Mrs. Baillie's and Mr. Waram's, which abutted each other. Mrs. Baillie's loss is about $150 on the buildings and contents, totally uninsured. The structure was in splendid repair and well built. Mr. Waram, who has long been known as a breeder and importer of fancy bred poultry, not only loses his well-appointed hen house, but his stock of some thirty valuable birds, nearly all of which were cremated, very few escaping alive. His loss is heavy and will probably amount to $250 or more. He had no insurance.

OPINION OF SIR GAVAN DUFFY.

The Great Ex-Agitator Thinks That Ulster is All Right.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Sir Charles Gavan Duffy, interviewed on the details of the Irish question yesterday, said he thought that the present Home Rule program was a wide one and had general approval.

There was only one thing to be added to it, that was to give every tenant the right to purchase, at fair rates and on easy payment.

He was asked: "Is there any widespread feeling in Ireland in favor of separation?"

"I think not. I believe it has died out, or lingers only in a few isolated minds."

"Would you agree to Ulster being excluded from the jurisdiction of the Dublin Parliament?"

"No; I would rather have no Parliament on College Green than consent to any such exclusion."

"You do not think Ulster would be unjustly treated by the Catholic majority?"

"Certainly not. How could they? Unequal taxation is absurd; religious persecution there is no fear of. Besides, the interests and feelings of Ulster might be safeguarded by the local authority. It would not be well that the Legislature should stand alone Local government is the necessary complement of a central government.

"Then the constitution might and should remove certain questions from controversy. Thus it might be made unlawful to submit to either House any proposal giving any church any concession not given to other churches."

"Would you endow the Catholic clergy?"

"No, we have got rid of one endowed church, and I would not create another. The voluntary principle works well."

"And the Lord-Lieutenant, would you have one?"

"Yes, of course. The Crown must be represented. His functions should be identical with those of the Governor of a great colony."

THE IRISH FUND IN PARIS.

Serious Difficulties Have Arisen Over Its Release.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—An unforeseen difficulty has arisen in connection with the release of the Paris fund, even assuming that the two Irish sections can agree upon the terms.

At the instance of Treasurer Healy inquiries were addressed to Monroe & Co., Paris bankers, to ascertain whether they would give up the fund in the event of a joint application being made to them by all the Irish members.

Under the advice of their lawyers Monroe & Co. replied that they did not think they could surrender the fund until a decision had been reached in the French courts determining who was entitled to them.

This is not a final answer, but there is little hope that it will be changed.

The bankers are under serious liabilities in regard to the fund, as the question of trusteeship is involved, and the French law is very strict on that point.

At the same time the agreement for the release of the fund seems more remote this week than last. Redmond has refused to agree to McCarthy's proposal to limit the admitted claims on the fund to £8000 and the controversy continues to be waged in the bitterest spirit.

The McCarthyites have held a series of county conventions during the week and have started county funds exclusively for the tenants.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."

THE PRINCE MAY SEE THE SHOW.

But It Will Have to Remain Open Another Year If He Does.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—While the Prince of Wales was staying at Newmarket last week the question of the World's Fair came up at a dinner party at which he was present.

Somebody having enquired whether there was any truth in the report that he proposed to visit Chicago next year the Prince replied that he should greatly like to see the exhibition, which was evidently going to be the biggest thing of the kind ever accomplished, but he doubted whether he could get away next year at a suitable time.

It was then suggested that the great expense involved would probably induce the committee to keep the Exhibition open for a second season.

The Prince thereupon said he hoped they would, as he then might be able to arrange a visit.

Such a visit would be strictly incognito. The Prince could take part in no public function, but he could accept the hospitality of his American friends.

An English mint possesses an electrically operated machine for counting coins.

A Vienna omnibus company employs incandescent electric lamps upon its vehicles.

There is a tree in Jamaica known as the life tree on account of its leaves growing even after being severed from the plant; only by fire can it be entirely destroyed.

The Russian physician who proposes to cure neuralgic pains by throwing a beam of electric light from an arc lamp on the part affected is entitled to a respectful hearing. It will be a long time before we exhaust the uses of this mystic agent.

A French manufacturer makes minute electric lamps about the size of a pea for the use of photographers in the dark room. They are intended to be mounted in the middle of a pair of spectacles or on the frame without the glasses, the lamp being shielded by a reflector. The battery is made up of accumulator cells.

A German chemist has patented a method for the isolation of the fibres of wood so that they can be spun and made into yarns capable of being woven. The wood is first cut into thin strips, which are repeatedly passed between roughened rollers, so that they are bent and cracked in many places. After thorough treatment in this manner the mass is finally changed into a fibrous substance, the fibres being very delicate and soft and yet strong. It is said that the material can be spun like cotton, and takes colors very well.

A German has patented a process for making barrels without staves. The trunk of a tree is sawed into lengths to the size of the barrel required, and the chunks are placed in a boiler and boiled for a few hours. It is believed that if a current of electricity be passed through the boiler a chemical action is generated that softens the wood for working. After the boiling the bark is stripped from the chunks. In front of a cutting tool the chunks are held by forks in a manner similar to that in which a piece of wood is held in a lathe. The chunk revolves rapidly against the edges of a fixed broad blade that cuts a continuous sheet of soft wood of any desired thickness. The strip passes to a flat table, where it is cut transversely into lengths of the required size. One machine cuts grooves for the head and bottom, and another cuts V-shaped slots out of the edges. Then the pieces are bent into cylinders and hooped. Moisture is extracted by a drying process.

A long tunnel near Paris has been lighted in a novel way. Reflectors throw the light from many electric lamps sixteen feet above the rails to the sides of the tunnel, where it is again reflected by burnished tin, covered with glass, into the coaches, making a soft and agreeable light. The trains automatically turn the current on and off in entering and leaving the tunnel.

A story was told the other day of a little girl who discovered a cobweb and then, seeing a spider emerge from it, called out: "See the cob run! How fast the cob runs!" As a matter of fact she builded better than she knew, for cob or cop is, according to the dictionaries, the name sometimes given to a spider; whence the word cobweb, which is, strictly speaking, copweb. Cop in this sense is probably an abbreviation of the Anglo-Saxon attercoppe, a spider.

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1890.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

EXPERIMENTS WITH SMALL FRUITS.

Results Gathered by the Horticulturist at the Dominion Experimental Farms.

STRAWBERRIES.—The spring of 1891 was most unfavorable to fall-set plants, of which the new plantation is composed. Cold weather and high winds, coupled with the somewhat sandy nature of the soil, wrought much damage to a "stand" which the previous autumn was almost perfect. On this account reliable comparisons between varieties could not be made.

METHODS OF PLANTING.

In setting out the new plantation in the fall of 1890 two methods of planting were adopted. Half of each variety was planted in the ordinary way, by (1) making a hole deep enough to admit the roots without doubling them up, then spreading them carefully in all directions as much as possible, filling in the soil by hand, and taking care to compact it firmly; (2) The remaining half was planted by striking a spade across the line of the row. Into this cleft the fan-shaped roots were inserted and spread as much as the opening would admit, and the earth then packed well about them. This method requires a man and boy—the former to operate the spade, the latter to set the plants—and is much more rapid than the old style.

Results reached are:

1. A perfect stand of plants was obtained from both methods.

2. No difference in the health and vigor of the plants comprising the two sets was noticed.

3. The spake method being more rapid, cheaper, and equally satisfactory, is therefore recommended.

RENEWING OLD BEDS.

When old beds have become run out and lacking in vigor, it is occasionally found convenient to renew them without losing a crop. This may be accomplished by the following plan: As soon as the crop of berries has been picked, remove the mulch from between the rows, dress these interspaces with rotted manure, wood ashes or some commercial fertilizer, which should be well worked in with a small plough or cultivator; then train the runners into these spaces. By the middle of September the young plants will have become firmly rooted, when a line is stretched on either side of the old rows, and the young plants separated rapidly from the old with an edging knife, or sharp spade. In small plantations it will be found more convenient to use a spade than a plough in turning under the old plants; where larger, a plough will be found to be more economical.

RASPBERRIES (Propogated from the Suckers).—With a view to test the advantage as well as cost of protecting during the winter by laying down and covering with sufficient earth to hold them in position, half of the plants of each variety were pruned and trained in this manner. The relative returns from the two sections will be carefully noted next year.

Results reached are:

1. The first effect was to hasten the ripening of varieties so treated from five to eight days.

2. With such hardy varieties as Turner and Hansel, the increased product and earliness did not more than repay the cost of such pretection.

3. With varieties of the grade of hardiness of Cuthbert, Marlboro', Herstine, Heebner and Golden Queen, productiveness was increased 16 to 22 per cent. This, with the advantage of increased earliness, much more than repaid the cost of protecting.

4. It is fair to conclude that in this and similar latitudes, suckering raspberries of nearly all varieties are left unprotected at an actual loss to the owner.

YIELD OF VARIETIES.

Standard Red sorts yielded in the following order: Cuthbert, Hansel, Turner, Marlboro', Heebner, Reider, Clark, Hudson River Antwerp, Ranoocas.

Black Caps—rooting from the tips—Shaffer, Hillborn, Gregg, Mammoth Cluster, Souhegan, were productive in the order named and may be considered valuable in the same order.

Yellow.—Golden Queen—it is the best yellow berry for market and home use.

Brinckle's Orange, on account of its exceptionally fine quality, should be grown in a limited way for home consumption.

Admiration for Cleveland.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Daily Telegraph, referring to Mr. Cleveland's action in refraining from attending the ceremonies in Chicago on account of Mrs. Harrison's illness, says: "Mr. Cleveland's chivalry is warmly appreciated in England, where sincere sympathy is felt with President Harrison, and an earnest wish is entertained that the bitter cup may yet pass from his lips."

Do the Shamrocks Deserve This?

WINNIPEG, Oct. 25.—The Winnipeg lacrosse players contend that the Shamrocks of Montreal have no right to the title of Champions of the World. Winnipeg's team is very anxious to play for the title and has made every effort to bring the Shamrocks here, offering to pay all expenses of the trip.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

Gigantic Strike of Switchmen Arranged for 1893.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Oct. 26.—The switchmen of the country are preparing for a monster strike next May, expecting to cripple the World's Fair business of the railroads and force them to concede the demands of employes.

"The Buffalo strike and the lesser ones which have occurred this year," said Secretary Joseph Heimerle of the Switchmen's Union, "are but preludes to the great strike of 1893. It will be a strike the like of which has never been seen and will extend all over the country. The railroads will be making enormous profits. The people would not want the World's Fair injured, and a clamor would arise which would force the roads to a settlement.

"The plans are all made for a giant uprising and the demands this fall are to test the attitude of the railroads towards us. The Buffalo switchmen are biding their time until next spring, when they will take part in a strike which will extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the great lakes to the Gulf. The uprising will be national."

TORONTO, Oct. 26.— General Superintendent Carman was the genial chairman at the opening ceremonies of the new Victoria University buildings in Queen's Park yesterday afternoon. There was a crowd of male and female Methodists from a very wide circuit.

An address couched in superlative terms was presented to the Lieut.-Governor. Modestly he bowed and appropriately responded. The boys gave him three cheers and one more for his excellent lady. This was the gist of his speech: Victoria had the honor of sending forth the first graduate in arts in Upper Canada. She—that is the university—showed more precocity than her sisters, in fact, cut her teeth sooner. Like a coy maiden she hesitated to accept an offer of union; ultimately she accepted, and handsome wedding presents followed.

"To-day we welcome the blushing bride in her new home, and we wish her every happiness, prosperity and usefulness."

Then came a tribute to the late Egerton Ryerson, Victoria's first president, and the Lieutenant-Governor did as most of the parsons do—finished with a verse of poetry.

Mr. William Mulock, M.P., made a happy speech. He perceived more than human agency in the leading of the Methodists and trusted that the same kindly light might still lead them on. Christian charity should be an amulet against every species of bigotry. He praised "Victoria's patriotic action in taking her share in liberalizing university work."

Next came President Loudon, introduced as a Canadian youth, nurtured by Canadian influences till he had become a noble Canadian. He joined in the chorus of felicitations and pointed out the blessings of federation. From a monetary point of view the sum saved by Victoria was one which Dr. Potts would not care to be responsible for, even should all his good ships come home and all his golden dreams be true.

The chairman made Mr. Goldwin Smith smile, if not blush, by the enumeration of his virtues, leaving the questions of politics out.

The Professor made a model speech. For 20 years he had advocated federation. He showed how in this troubled age of theological strife faith could not be guarded by the cloister. Scientific truth all comes from the Source of Truth, and whatever discrepancies there may be with revelation all will finally be harmonized. [Applause.]

Then the Professor confessed that he heartily dreaded the influence of politics in the University. He wished that of Toronto were as free in this respect as those of Oxford and Cambridge, but it was not. Political influences should be kept as far as possible from academic education.

President Mills of the Guelph Agricultural College next sang the praises of his alma mater. His concluding aspiration was: "May Victoria be noted for freedom from cant, for honest learning and sound common-sense."

Dr. Potts threw a bombshell into the camp by producing a type-written letter from H. A. Massey, stating that he enclosed a check for $40,000 to endow a chair in theology in Victoria College.

Then the students cheered again and again.

AN AWFUL DEATH.

Many Men Killed and Many Injured on the Great Northern.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 26.—An appalling accident occurred on the construction line of the Great Northern Railway yesterday, resulting in the death of seven men, the fatal injury of five and the serious injury of six others.

The track-laying crew had finished work up to Wenatcha River, and yesterday started to lay rails across that stream. The east approach and first span were crossed safely, but when the second span was reached, in the middle, the false work under the bridge collapsed and the track machine, with two carloads of ties and three cars loaded with rails, fell into the river, 60 feet below. The men were thrown in every direction and some of them buried beneath the ties and rails. Many of the injured cannot live.

Interesting Legal Case.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—An interesting point was decided yesterday by the master in chambers. In the action of Marsh v. Webb an order was made for the delivery out of court of a bond filed by the plaintiff for security of the costs of the action. The plaintiff, who resides out of the jurisdiction, was ordered to give security before proceeding with the action, and did so by filing a bond. At the trial of the action judgment was given for the defendant, but the plaintiff appealed to the Divisional Court, and the judgment was reversed. The defendant then appealed to the Court of Appeal, and the judgment of the Divisional Court was affirmed. The defendant is now appealing to the Supreme Court. The plaintiff moved for delivery out of this bond on the ground that the appeal to the Supreme Court was not a step in the cause, that the bond had served the purpose for which it was given and should be delivered out. The master held this view to be correct and made the order asked. The defendant will appeal from this decision.

Close of the Convention.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26.—The most satisfactory general convention ever held by the Protestant Episcopal Church, because of its results, adjourned last night after a three weeks' session. The last day of the convention was spent in clearing up miscellaneous business.

Polygamy on the Decline.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Arthur L. Thomas, the Governor of Utah, in his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior, says that polygamy in the territory is on the decline. He says he does not believe that any polygamous marriages have taken place during the year with the consent or permission of the Mormon leaders.

Raided a Pay Train.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 26.—At Saria recently a party of bandits who attempted to steal $8000, which was destined for transportation by a coming train, were driven away, but not until they had succeeded in securing a bag containing $1000.

One Man Catches 12,000 Fish in a Day

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Oct. 26—The largest run of mackerel known here for years took place last night. Every net in Cape Cod Bay made hauls, and it is estimated that 75,000 large and medium fish were taken. One man took 12,000 fish.

Zimmy is Willing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The statement that a match has been arranged between Bicyclists Zimmerman of New York and Sanger of Milwaukee for $10,000 a side is denied by Zimmerman. He is willing to meet Sanger, however, if the latter's friends will back him.

Prof. Swinton Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Prof. Swinton, the well-known author of school books, died suddenly last night.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

GREATEST SKIN CURES

Cuticura Cures All Skin Eruptions, Gives a Clear Complexion Free from Pimples.

Too much praise cannot be said of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, as I have used them for the last year and a half or so, and find them to be the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the age. I have used a good many so-called toilet soaps, and I find CUTICURA SOAP is the best I have ever used. I find it far superior to all other toilet or medicinal soaps. It cures all Skin eruptions, and gives a clear complexion. As for shampooing I would use no other, and for the face either, as it is a cure for all pimples, blackheads, eczema and all irritations and roughness of the face. For after using the CUTICURA SOAP awhile, it makes the face smooth and cool, and does not give that burning sensation which so many other toilet soaps do. Try the CUTICURA REMEDIES and you will not regret it that you have ever done so.

GOSSIP OF THE CAPITAL.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND TRADE CONFERENCE.

It Will Be Held in Halifax Early in November—The Writ for St. John, N.B., Issued—A Batch of New Q.C.'s Gazetted.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 27.—Negotiations for a conference between Canada and Newfoundland on the trade questions advanced a stage by the receipt of a telegram from the latter government intimating that the Island delegates would leave on Nov. 2 for Halifax, where the meeting will take place. The names of the Newfoundland delegates are not mentioned, but most probably Sir William Whiteway and Hon. Robert Bond will be two of them. The Canadian delegates named some time ago were Hon. Messrs. Bowell, Chapleau and Tupper, but one, and perhaps two changes will have to be made, as Mr. Tupper sails for England on Nov. 2. Mr. Chapleau's health is again so bad that he was unable to attend council to-day, and he may not be well enough to go to Halifax. It is most likely that Sir John Thompson will go in place of Sir Charles Tupper, and should illness prevent Mr. Chapleau attending the Conference it is thought Mr. Ouimet will be appointed to replace him.

Condolence With Mr. Harrison.

Yesterday, on learning of the death of Mrs. Harrison, the Governor-General telegraphed the Charge d'Affaires of the British Legation, Washington, requesting him to convey to the President the sincere condolence of His Excellency and the Canadian ministers with him in the great bereavement he has suffered, and to assure the President that the same feeling of sympathy with him in his great sorrow prevails throughout Canada.

The St. John Vacancy.

A writ has been issued for an election in St. John, N.B., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Skinner on accepting the Probate judgeship. Nomination Nov. 15, polling a week later.

Can Carry Rat Bags.

His Excellency has been pleased to appoint Nicholas Flood Davin of Regina and John R. Costigan, Calgary, Queen's Counsel.

ABBOTT'S HEALTH.

What the Canadian Delegates are Doing Over the Ocean.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Sir John Abbott and George E. Foster, Canadian Minister of Finance, are now devoting themselves to city matters. The question of Canada's financial agency in London is being discussed fully and with an open mind apparently, though perhaps there is a leaning towards placing the work in the hands of a Canadian house, like the Bank of Montreal, if it is found that important Canadian interests here will in no wise suffer.

Sir John Abbott is greatly improved in health since his arrival here. He is keeping as quiet as possible.

Mr. Foster dined at the Mansion House last night, but did not speak. He says he intends to put a careful statement of Canada's financial position before the British public.

PREMIER BLAIR.

A Seat Provided for the Defeated New Brunswick Premier.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 27.—It is reported that Blair will run for King's County, Flewelling retiring in his favor with the office of auditor-general. The parties now stand: 28 Government, 12 Opposition.

ROYAL'S SUCCESSOR.

Report That MacDowall Will be Lieut.-Governor of the Northwest Territories.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 27.—D. H. McDowall, Member of Parliament for Saskatchewan, is spoken of here as successor of Royal as governor of Northwest Territories.

Count Mercier on Trial.

QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—At 10 yesterday morning the Criminal Court was opened by Judges Bosse and Wurtele. The Mercier and Pacaud case was the first called. The ex-Premier sat beside his lawyer and Mr. Pacaud was not far distant.

WHAT MR. LAURIER SAYS

As to the Present Phase of the Manitoba School Question.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—Mr. Laurier arrived in the city by last night's midnight train and was engaged in the Parliamentary library the greater part of the morning and left for home by this afternoon's train. The Free Press to-night publishes the following as the statement made by him when asked if he had any opinion to express regarding the Manitoba school question:

"I suppose that no matter what I might say, particularly at the present juncture, it would be interpreted or misconstrued as an attempt to make political capital out of the question. It is to the Governor-General-in-Council that the Manitoba minority is appealing for relief, and only in the event of the decision of the executive being disregarded by the province is the matter likely to come before Parliament. The question is a delicate and irritating one, and it may be just as well to let the Government deal with it, as from Sir John Thompson's report they are pledged to do. Mr. Chapleau, a member of the Government, has stated that the Government has a policy on the subject, but his language did not convey what the substance of that policy is to be, and it may be premature at this juncture to express any opinion upon it."

ANOTHER NEW RAILWAY

A BRITISH COLUMBIAN MEMBER'S GREAT SCHEME.

Thirty Million Dollars to Be Expended on a Road From Vancouver to the Yellow Head Pass—What It Is Proposed to Do.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Henry Croft, M.L.A. for Cowichan, British Columbia, is in the city getting Chicago capitalists interested in a scheme to build a new Canadian transcontinental railroad. He has already been remarkably successful, and it is expected that over $5,000,000 will be pledged here to further the enterprise.

Mr. Croft said that he came here to confer with Frank Robinson and others to arrange for the introduction of final subsidy and land grant measures in Parliament in relation to the proposed new road.

It is to be known as the Canada Western and will be 1045 miles long, opening up thousands of square miles of good grazing, timber, agricultural and mining lands.

According to Mr. Croft's statement the construction company will build the railway from Victoria to Seymour Narrows on Vancouver Island, and from Bute Inlet on the mainland through the Chilcootin, Cariboo and Peace River countries up to the Yellowhead Pass.

The cost is estimated at $28,695,000, including the ferry at the narrows, but it is expected that the sale of land will amount to $43,122,500, to which may be added the cash subsidy of the Dominion Government of $3200 per mile, or $3,344,000 in all, making the total assets $46,466,500. Besides the Provincial Government has guaranteed $6,000,000 to $10,000,000 interest on land grant bonds, the city of Victoria guarantees dividends on Treasury stock of $2,000,000 and terminals worth $1,000,000 more, while other benefited towns are anxious to aid the enterprise.

CORBETT FLYING HIGH.

Max Blumenthal Thinks the Champ Wants His Girl—Pugilistic Pranks.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—A special from Chicago was received yesterday saying that Max Blumenthal had left that city heavily armed after a woman who was with Pugilist Corbett and that a bloody encounter between Blumenthal and Corbett was imminent.

The big fighter said that the woman was mashed on him and persisted in following him, and it was not the first time she had caused trouble. He did not want Max's girl. He has a wife and does not care to be mixed up in women scrapes.

Corbett is playing the high roller since his great victory, the same as other successful pugilists have done. On his recent visit to Buffalo the champion put in a pretty lively time, and in that city there was a woman in the case, notwithstanding his protestations as above of fidelity to his wife.

FIGHTING DIPHTHERIA.

The Preventive Measures Which the Medical Health Officer Suggests.

TORONTO, Oct. 27—Medical Health Officer Allen is gradually concentrating his forces for a grand attack on the diphtheria epidemic.

Bright and early yesterday morning he and his staff were in conference with Dr. Bryce and others preparing ways and means for carrying out the recommendations of the meeting of medical men held the previous day.

Later in the day Dr. Allen met a number of teachers whose classes have been sent home with a view to getting them to volunteer to assist in the house visitation part of the program. Those who are willing to co-operate will assemble at the Medical Health Office this morning.

Dr. Allen yesterday afternoon sent letters to Ald. Shaw and Engineer Keating suggesting that the sewers in the northern part of the city where the epidemic is principally located be flushed more frequently and that automatic tanks be placed in all sewers.

Six patients were admitted to the diphtheria hospital yesterday.

NEILL IN KENT.

The London Poisoner Lived For a Time In Ontario.

CHATHAM, Ont., Oct. 27.—It has been learned that Dr. Neill, now under sentence of death at London, England, resided for some time at Belle River, Ont., where he was in hiding to escape prosecution on the poisoning charge at Chicago. While there he went under the name of Ross.

Serious Wreck On the Grand Trunk.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—No. 17 M. C. R. express and a G. T. R. express collided early yesterday morning at International Bridge. The M. C. R. train had been almost stopped before the collision occurred. The pilot of the engine was broken, and two persons on the train injured, and both were standing up. Mr. Thomas Myers, aged 51, traveler for Blachford & Co. of Toronto, was in the act of hanging his hat on the rack when the trains came together. He struck his nose against the side of a seat, breaking it, and causing a wound over the right eye. Mrs. J. Oliver, wife of a Portland physician, who was en route to San Francisco, was knocked down, and had the left eye bruised. Supt. Jordan went down on No. 20 and back on 17.

BEWARE OF THE WIDOWS.

This Man Wishes He Had Taken Old Weller's Advice.

TORONTO, Oct. 27. — Chief Justice Galt listened to an appeal yesterday from the order of the master in chambers in the action of Woodhouse v. Woodhouse. The plaintiff wants to issue a commission to Ireland to examine the husband of the defendant. This the master granted, but on terms which the plaintiff thinks should not have been imposed. The action is to set aside a conveyance of property to Mrs. Woodhouse, whom the plaintiff married, thinking she was a widow, and afterwards discovered he had married a woman who had a husband alive in Ireland.

Found Dead in Bed.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Rutledge, for two years employed at the Club Chambers and the Shakespeare Hotel, was found dead in bed yesterday morning at the Shakespeare. Dr. Young of McCaul-street made an examination and came to the conclusion that apoplexy was the cause of death. Coroner Johnson will hold an inquest to-day. The deceased was about 60 years of age and had no relatives in the city, though it is rumored she had a daughter in Brantford.

AN APPEAL TAKEN.

A Squaw's Lover Has Liquor With Him in the Bush.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 27.—At Brandon yesterday Grignire Arcand was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor for giving liquor to an Indian woman on Beaver's reserve.

The woman became drunk and fell or rolled, it is supposed, into the River Assiniboine, and was found with her head under the water, the lower portion of her body being on the shore.

There is a large hole in her head, and portions of her clothing and shoulder were bloodstained.

TWO OPIUM SMUGGLERS.

Captured at Suspension Bridge With Opium in Their Possession.

NIAGARA FALLS, Oct. 27.—A clever capture of two smugglers was effected last night by Special Agent Charles Litvin of the Custom House at the bridge and about 45 pounds of opium seized. The men arrested gave their names as Albert Johnson of Hamilton, Ont., and P. A. Burdett of St. Paul, Minn. They both disclaim any knowledge of the opium and put the blame on the colored porter. The latter was also arrested and the trio taken to Lockport this morning to appear before United States Commissioner John E. Pound.

Marriage a Failure.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—A motion will be made to the master in chambers yesterday in the alimony suit of Martha E. Dit Blondin against her husband, Cleophas S. Dit Blondin, for particulars of the charges made by the plaintiff in her statement of claim. The action is for alimony, the defendant being a well-to-do farmer in the Township of Balfour, Algoma. The parties were married in February, 1888, but soon after their marriage the defendant, so the plaintiff says, began to evince a violent and ungovernable temper, and during the period of their residing together on several occasions assaulted her. In March last affairs reached a crisis and shortly afterwards she was forced to leave him.

Another alimony suit pending before the master is that of Mary Barbara Milligan against William Milligan of the Township of Sheffield, in the County of Lennox. The plaintiff and defendant were married in July, 1872, but in their case marriage was a failure and, as the wife says, not a happy one. Mrs. Milligan says she was forced to leave her husband on account of his bad temper and abuse of her. She left her home in May last and now seeks for alimony.

A Manitoulin Island Village Burned.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Word reached the city yesterday of a destructive fire at Kagawong, Manitoulin Island, the entire business portion of the village, including the Havelock Hotel and the stores of T. J Thompson and Joseph Wilson being destroyed. The total loss is $15,000. J. W. Lang & Co. of Toronto, who owned one of the stores, are heavy losers. Charles Snow, a boarder, lost $900 in cash. The lighthouse was destroyed, and both docks slightly damaged. All the books and records of the Agricultural Society were destroyed, besides $85 in cash. The school section lost $70 in cash, besides all books and papers. This is the second time the fire fiend has visited Kagawong. About a year ago the grist and saw mills were burned, and now the entire business portion of the village is destroyed.

The Ontario Express Company.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—In the action of Max Laniel against C. M. Bowles and Detectives Davis and Verney an order was made by the master in chambers setting aside judgment entered against the defendant Bowles. The action is one for damages for false arrest and Bowles entered an appearance for himself, but thought that was all that was necessary to do till the action went to trial. He has now retained a solicitor and will let him look after his interests in future. The plaintiff was arrested as a man who sold a coat to a second-hand dealer in York-street, but when led before the purchaser of the coat he failed to identify him, and Laniel was set free.

Dr. Capon Gets $800, or $4200 Less Than He Sued For.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—In the Assize Court yesterday the balance of the evidence in the Capon v. Township of York case was taken. The jury, after being in retirement for some time, returned to the court in order to make enquiries regarding two technical questions, namely: "What is contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff?" and "If both are negligent can the plaintiff be awarded damages?" To the first question Judge MacMahon replied that one of the jury's duties was to find out just what could be termed "contributory negligence," and in regard to the second query, if the plaintiff be found guilty of "contributory negligence" the township is not liable, even if it is guilty of negligence, too. By the sounds which came from the jury-room after the second retirement it was very evident that discussion was running high among the chosen twelve. A verdict of $800 for the plaintiff was finally brought in.

2,000,000 Barrels of Beer Yearly.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 27.—One of the biggest brewery combinations ever effected in the country was consummated by the consolidation of the Pabst Brewing Co. and the Falk Jung and Borchert Brewing Co. of Milwaukee. The latter is practically merged in the former, the capital stock being increased to $10,000,000. The concern will have a capacity of 2,000,000 barrels per year, the largest brewery in the world.

Died in Her Chair.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jane Crocker, wife of John Crocker, Ann-street, got up yesterday as usual and had breakfast. Shortly afterwards, about 8.40, she was seated in a chair and suddenly fell forward dead. The deceased lady was 74 years of age.

Jay Gould's Son Married.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The marriage of Miss Sarah C. Shrady, the stepdaughter of Dr. George F. Shrady, to Mr. Edwin Gould, second son of Jay Gould, took place at 8 o'clock last night. The wedding was very quietly celebrated.

Lock-out of Printers.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—The compositors employed on The Evening News were locked out last night. The News introduced sigat type-setting machines, and the lock-out arises out of the refusal of the management to pay the rate of wages for operating the machines demanded by the Union.

THE MUTUAL AID, OR CANADIAN LIFE ASSOCIATION.

"An Observer" writes to THE EXAMINER a long letter relating to the suspension of the Mutual Aid or Canadian Mutual Life Association, but the letter is too long for publication in extenso. The letter deplores the handing over of "its victims," "bound hand and foot," to an American company. It further asserts that the company was got up not for the benefit of the insured, but "to make money out of it"—"for the trustees who got up and managed the company." The self-appointed trustees are condemned, who were in such a majority that they had the power of carrying what they liked. The insured, according to the bylaws, had "no voice in the management of the business," and the accounts of the company were not subject to audit till the neglect was exposed, and then the provision made for an audit was "a farce," the auditors being "the choice of the trustees to a very great extent," for though the insured could "vote in person or by letter proxy votes were not allowed." The unfair nature of the matter was emphasized by the "worthless document purporting to be a $60,000 security bond," placed with the Provincial government as though it were a deposit of $60,000. The report of 1890 refers to an application to government to place a deposit of $50,000. The deposit was not made, and the report of 1891 contained this excuse—that the money "would bring more interest on its investments." "Observer" gives the real cause—that "the Government would not grant the privilege, because the money was taken from the reserve funds and was not the personal funds of the trustees." He also asks why if the company was in so flourishing a condition as claimed in the report of '91, it was not carried on, and not handed over to another company. The letter deals with the flimsiness of the excuse, and then proceeds to point out as follows:

But how do this agree with their report of last year where they compare with six other company's, doing business in Canada? After giving the aggregate membership of these companies in 1890 the amount of insurance, the new business done in that year, death losses paid by these companies, &c., &c. The trustees claim that the Canadian Mutual Life makes over one quarter of the whole, and with pride they review their success in the past, and have no hesitation in saying that now they give insurance in its fullest meaning. Reliable, and at the same time within reach of all. This is very encouraging indeed, and with a membership of 4,462 members, and assets of $94,247.23, in excess of their of their liabilities. I cannot see why they should amalgamate with any company; surely it is not for want of funds, for had they a membership of 6,000 which they would have in another year no doubt, and a death rate of eight to the thousand, which they claim is about the average, this would be 48 deaths in one year and assessment of $1 each on 6,000 members would give them $288,000.00, and suppose that the 48 who died during the year were insured for $3,000 each which is above the average, the death claim of these 48 who died would be $144,000. This gives them a surplus of $144,000 cash in hand. Perhaps they are afraid of the temptations as they are not amenable to any law, but that of conscience for the lawful expenditure of this sum. True it is a strain on a man's honesty that few men could stand, and if this is not the reason why they do not go on with the company we cannot tell why, for surely it cannot be for want of funds.

This hardship to old men who have paid hundreds of dollars, and expected they had provided for their families, is pointed out—they are too old to join another company, but must go on with the new company or lose what they have paid. A meeting is suggested to consult as to the best course to take to find out if the $94,000 assets of the old company has been handed over to the new company, and what was done with the $44,000 remaining after the $50,000 had been deposited as required by law, by the new company. It seems the whole thing looks more like a sale than an amalgamation. The wisdom of finding out the standing of the Yankee company by getting a copy of the by-laws is suggested, and if they are on the same principles as the old company, "have nothing to do with it." The insured should not support a lot of drones such as the advisory board in Canada seems to be. "Observer" concludes by advising the insured to have things thoroughly examined and not get into a trap worse perhaps than the first.

Consumptives, Cheer Up!

If you take Miller's Emulsion you will gain from five to ten pounds of flesh with each bottle. There is no use wasting words. From Our Own Correspondent.

The beautiful weather for the past few weeks has caused the farmers to rejoice at getting their root crop in in such a fine condition. Rot is reported among some potato fields.

Mr. Miller, merchant tailor, who recently moved to Peterborough, has been succeeded by Mr. T. L. Anderson, formerly of the Mercer staff of tailors, Peterborough. He is going to keep abreast of the times; but Omemee's loss will be Peterborough's gain financially. Mr. Miller is possessed of large means, and Peterborough charitable institutions only need call on him to be supported liberally.

Mr. Donel, contractor for the new hotel which is nearly finished, has been in town for the last few days. He has the credit of completing a job as good as anything ever erected here.

Our high and public school board have decided to advertise for a new staff of teachers.

The anniversary services in connection with the Presbyterian church here came up to the most sanguine expectations. The weather which was threatening on Saturday night turned out on Sabbath all that could be desired. The Rev. Mr. Mutch of Chalmers church, Toronto, conducted the services morning and evening. His sermons were calculated to arouse the most thoughtless, being so impressive. If Mr. Mutch ever should return he will be greeted with overflowing congregations. The Rev. Mr. Thompson of the Methodist church preached an eloquent sermon in the forenoon to an appreciative gathering. The festival on Monday was a grand success. Addresses were given by Rev. Messrs. McCann, Bloodworth, Mutch, Thompson and Chairman Ewing. The choir rendered choice music, delighting all. The proceeds of both services amounted to nearly $155.00.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away. Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival, A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

Catarrh in the Head

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood, and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. It gives an appetite and builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Minard's Liniment cures La Grippe.

"I WISH I HAD KNOWN THAT!"

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—This regret is far too common, and your valuable paper is the medium for its prevention. Deer hunting begins next week, and you will favor many of your readers by the following precautions:

If you intend to get a deer's head stuffed, do not cut it up the front of the neck, but up the back, as far as the antlers if you choose; it can be fixed all right if done, but don't do it. Wipe off blood and moisture and put salt where you can.

If you kill a young buck and have a fine set of antlers, from a dear previously shot, the skin of one skin of one will cover the antlers of the other, and make as fine a job as if there had been no change. A gentleman on London street had a three horned set mounted this way last year and was glad of the knowledge and delighted with the work, and all he had was the small piece of skull the antlers were attached too.

With birds, open their mouths put in a little salt, and hang up by the beak as moisture and blood gather in the head and rot the feathers around the beak when hung by the feet.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space, I remain,

Yours truly,
E. ELOOME.
Taxidermist.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The newly erected pier belonging to the Dominion Government was inspected by Mr. R. B. Rogers and two other engineers from Ottawa last Monday. They complimented Mr. John Dinwoodie, of Lakefield, who superintended its construction, very highly for completing a job so first-class in every way.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. They increase the appetite and promote a healthy performance of all the functions of the body. A thoroughly scientific preparation, they never fail to effect a cure if directions are faithfully carried out. Nothing harmful in their composition. The most delicate system will be benefitted. Ask for Dr. Butler's Golden Pills and take no others.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885 we commenced business in the small premises at 425 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION
Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:
1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

A Milk Case.

On Saturday afternoon last, a farmer of Brighton township was summoned before Reeve C. L. Owen, Campbellford, on a charge preferred by Inspector A. E. Bailey, of having watered the milk he sent to the cheese factory. The accused admitted that water was in the milk, but stated that it got there accidentally. This statement seemed to have been correct, as the evidence was insufficient to prove that it was intentionally done, and the case was dismissed with costs, each party having to pay his own share of same.—Herald.

The Threatened Action Settled.

Mr. E. A. Peck, solicitor at the instance of Mrs. Thos. Begley, Douro street, Ashburnham, who it will be remembered fell on the sidewalk on Driscoll Terrace a few months ago by stepping in an opening caused by a broken plank and sustained severe injuries to her limb, served the corporation of Ashburnham with a writ notifying them that a suit had been entered seeking—$1000 damages. The council had previous to this made an offer to Mrs. Begley, which was not accepted. However, this week the difficulty was satisfactorily settled, the corporation granting the sum of $200 to her.

The Horse Case Disposed of.

The enlarged case of Wm. Guy and John Elliott who were charged with taking a horse and buggy from the sheds of the Cavanagh House on Saturday week last belonging to Chas. T. Lane, town, came up before the magistrate at the police court this morning. Guy filed an appearance but Elliott was missing. He was let out on bail on Tuesday week, his father going his security. As he did not appear a warrant was issued for his arrest. Chief Roszel at once executed the warrant and before noon had the prisoner in the cells. A court was summarily called. Guy and Elliott both pleaded guilty, no evidence being taken at all. The magistrate then imposed a fine upon both of them conjointly for the sum of $5 and costs, ($20.10 in all) or in default of payment 20 days in gaol. They paid the fine.

MOVED AGAIN.

We are always on the move! We never let our goods stay long enough on the shelf to gather dust. Out they must go! For the present our headquarters for the great bankrupt stock of dry goods etc., will be just across the Arcade and opposite Garvey's. We are bound to make the goods move out faster than ever, if low prices will do it. Come early and get bargains.

A Prosperous Church.

Rev. A. McWilliams, B.A., pastor of St. Andrew's church, preached the anniversary sermons of St. Andrew's church, Cannington, on Sunday last. Large congregations were assembled, especially in the evening. The church is a neat and unique structure. The congregation until recently have been in low water, but the people have put their shoulder to the wheel with a vim and have succeeded in reducing a floating debt of $3,000, which hung over the edifice for a whole decade, to $1,000 by persistent canvassing for subscriptions and there is every prospect of this amount being entirely liquidated in a few months. Rev. J. Y. Ross, M.A., is the new pastor being inducted a few months ago, succeeding Rev. Chas. Cameron, M.A., called to Brockville.

Another Officer "Clocked"

Last evening the officers of the 57th Battalion in a body visited the residence of Lieut. G. A. Schofield, 546 Aylmer street, and their mission was by no means an unpleasant one either to the officers themselves or Lieut. Schofield. In recognition of his recent marriage, Major E. B. Edwards, on behalf of his officers, presented Lieut. Schofield with a handsome and costly onyx gold mounted French clock. On a pendant silver plate attached were inscribed the words, "Presented by the officers of the 57th Battalion, Peterborough Rangers.". The presentation was made in felicitous terms and couched in true Queen's English. Lieut. Schofield who is one of the most respected and enthusiastic officers of the gallant 57th, staff made a grateful reply, thanking the visitors for their time-ly kindness. Afterwards a pleasant time was spent at the hospitable residence, Lieut. and Mrs. Schofield, proving themselves a genial host and hostess. Toothsome refreshments were served and amid songs and joke did a happy evening pass quickly by. The musical features of the evening were enhanced by choice songs by Capts. Brennan and Lech.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THE BRANTFORD CONVENTION

Mrs. Kendry gives an Account of the Convention of the General Board of Managers W. M. S. of the Methodist Church of Canada.

Last evening at the regular weekly prayer meeting service held in the George street Methodist church, Mrs. James Kendry gave an interesting account concerning the meeting of the General Board of Managers of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held last week in Brantford. Mrs. Kendry was one of the nine delegates selected by the Central Branch of the Women's Missionary Society, which held its convention recently. At Brantford 36 representative delegates from British Columbia in the west to Nova Scotia in the east were present. The convention lasted four days and was of a very impressive character. The secretary's report showed that the increase in annual members of the W.M. S. was 2,040. During the year 69 new auxiliaries, and 30 mission bands were established. The total present membership was 17,550. The money collected during the year from all sources was $35,789. There was $4,000 insurance from the Chilliwhack Indian Home for boys and women in British Columbia, making the total revenue $39,789.80. The society had two bequests left them, $1,925 and $300 respectively. The total increase of revenus was $4,650. Mrs. James Gooderham, Toronto, president, presided at the convention. She and Mrs. Strachan, general corresponding secretary, at their own expense circumnavigated the globe and visited all the training schools in Japan and on their return to town visited the two Indian Homes, and Chinese Missions in British Columbia. The bequest of $300 annually of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle, Peterborough, had been devoted this year to establishing a training school at Kanazawa, Japan, which was doing excellent work. The president spoke highly of the good work being done by Miss Munro, formerly of Peterborough, principal of the Tokio school for girls. Her efforts were especially commended by the ladies in their reports to the convention of their six weeks trip. Mrs. Kendry's address was listened to with attention from start to close by the large number present.

Wedded at the Manse.

A pleasant matrimonial event took place at St. Andrew's church manse on Tuesday evening, when Mr. Andrew Fausitt, of Harvey township, was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Pendergrass, daughter of Mr. John Pendergrass, Harvey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. McWilliams. The parties will reside in Harvey.

Desires to Thank Them All.

Mrs. Baillie, corner of Sherbrooke and Bethune streets, whose sheds were destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning last desires to publicly thank, through the columns of the EXAMINER, the firemen and the citizens for the assistance rendered and the good work done in putting out the fire and keeping the flames confined to the one structure. Their kindness will not soon be forgotten.

The Appeals Allowed.

The final hearing of the appeals against the assessment roll of the town for 1892 came up before His Honour Judge Weller in Chambers this morning. There were only four appeals and these were made by parties who had acquired property since the assessors handed in their returns, and they were desirous of having their names placed upon the assessment rolls. All the requests were granted.

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. It is no exaggeration to say that these pianos have no equal in Canada, and all interested should keep these facts in mind and make an engagement to see them and hear them at once at Crosby's.

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the

they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I Work all the Time.

Before, I could do no work. I know not what to say strong enough to express gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla for my cure." GEORGE W. TURNER, Farmer, Galway, Saratoga county, N. Y.

SILVERWARE! SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. Each Saturday morning CHINA HALL will place on its Bargain Table its weekly snap. This offer to be valid for one week only. Our bargain this week is a Silver Castor at $3.00—the best value for the money ever offered in Peterborough.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The annual anniversary dinner of the Havelock Presbyterian church was held in the church on the 24th inst. Dinner was served in the basement from 6 to 8 o'clock. There was a splendid and abundant spread. An adjournment was made to the body of the church where a fine programme was presented, A. R. Anderson, chairman, consisting of speeches by Rev. Jas. Carmichael, of Norwood, Rev. H. Brown, Havelock, and Rev. J. McColl, Havelock; excellent singing was given by the Havelock Presbyterian choir, Miss Ida Weir, organist. The anniversary entertainment yielded the handsome some of $100. After the usual votes of thanks to the chairman and ministers and choir, the meeting was closed with benediction by Rev. J. McColl, and all departed home well satisfied that the Presbyterian interests in Havelock were flourishing and would continue to flourish.

Tuesday, the 25th October, was the joyous occasion of the happy union of Mr. Joseph H. Graham and Miss Laura E. Campbell, daughter of Mr. James H. Campbell, all of Havelock. After the ceremony of marriage had been performed by Rev. H. Brown, at 5.30 p.m., there was the presentation of many very valuable and beautiful gifts to the bride. The happy couple left on the early morning train for Montreal to spend their honeymoon of two weeks duration, after which they will return to Havelock.

The Methodist concert held in the hall here was a success, Mrs. C. Curts got the marvellous bed quilt, which was very handsome indeed. The concert consisted of singing, recitations, and new broom drill by the ladies. Proceeds of concert, $60. After singing the national anthem the audience was dismissed.

LAKEFIELD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Clementi Lodge, No. 212, A. F. and A.M. meets next Tuesday evening.

First snow storm of the season on Tuesday morning.

Two Peterborough sports had their horse taken from them on Wednesday evening by Constable Doidge, as they were unable to care for it.

Word has been received from Mr. R. C. Strickland, who so far has not improved, but at Chicago was worse, so that Dr. Fraser, formerly of this village, had to accompany him on the rest of the journey.

Mrs. Coates, an old and esteemed resident of the village, was removed to the Toronto asylum on Thursday by her son. For some time past she imagined everyone was trying to poison her, so kept the house all nailed up and was in danger of starvation.

Numerous parties are being made up in the village and vicinity to go back deer hunting. A couple of gentlemen in the village were back last week for a duck hunt to the ponds and creeks. They returned after five days absence disgusted, having only seen six or eight duck, three or four partridge and one deer (track), where formerly they obtained all the duck and partridge they required.

Mr. Doidge has been engaged for the past week in putting down new cedar block crossings in different parts of the village. They are an improvement, are cheaper than the old timber crossing, and will last twice as long.

ASHLAND, Ky., Oct. 26.—A wedding ceremony took place here yesterday under peculiar circumstances. Miss Zula Devore of No. 43 North Third-street was married at the grave of her sister, who died last week, to J. Offered.

The deceased sister was to have been married at the same time to A. G. Tomlin of New York City, and it was her dying request that her sister should be married at her grave.

Rugs were spread in the cemetery for the wedding party, and the same preacher who conducted the funeral rites officiated at the marriage ceremony.

A Blockade of Grain.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—East bound grain shipments are taxing the railroads to their utmost capacity and the lake and rail lines are still more embarrassed. Advices from New York state that the storage capacity in that city is nearly filled up, with slight export demand to relieve the glut. The blockade has gradually increased until it has reached the transhipping points on Lake Erie. The Anchor line of steamers has given notice that it will receive no more grain at Erie for the present. At Buffalo the railroads and Erie boatmen are running a race in advancing their rates to New York. The transportation companies controlled by the trunk lines are only taking enough grain to fill out the cargoes of their own steamers. The wild boats are no longer cared for and their agents find it extremely difficult to charter them at all.

Caused by a Runaway Car.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.— At 8.30 last night a Grand Trund freight car loaded with steel rails started toward the city out of Carlton station of its own accord. A brakeman noticed it start and climbed aboard. He did his best to stop it, but the grade is so heavy between Carlton and Parkdale that he was obliged to jump after he had ridden about a mile. The speed of the car increased at every rod, and by the time it reached Parkdale it was going about 60 miles an hour. There a freight train was just ready to pull out for the west. Fireman Thomas W. Hamilton noticed the car coming and shouted to his mate to jump. Both men had cleared the locomotive when the crash came. The engineer escaped without a scratch, but the fireman as he ran was overtaken by a couple of pieces of iron, which struck him, one on the left knee, the other on the right thigh. The injured man was attended by a surgeon who happened to be on hand and was sent to his home in Stratford.

Emma Healey Was Frozen to Death.

DUNKIRK, N.Y., Oct. 26.—Emma Healey, 18 years old, disappeared from her home in Fredonia Jan. 1 last. Yesterday her body was found in a hollow stump two miles south of this city. It is presumed that she crawled into the stump to escape the storm and was frozen to death.

Strangled Himself with a Towel.

HALIFAX, Oct. 26.—Emerson Brown, a son of John J. Brown, blacksmith, was noticed by his mother to leave the sitting-room and go to the kitchen. Not returning his mother went to the kitchen, where she found her son strangled, having wound the wash hand-roller about his head.

Held As a Murderer

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The coroner's inquests in the case of Mrs. Mellor of Oldham, wife of a mill hand of that town, whose body was found in the cellar of her home near Glasgow, resulted in a verdict of murder against her husband, Joseph Mellor.

The Arrangement of the Hair.

I have been asked a number of times what I advised when the hair was beginning to come out. As long as possible, that is, as long as it looks well, wear your own front hair even if you have to put a switch in the back; in choosing this do not let it be too large, for the extreme thickness will suggest that it is not your own, except by right of purchase. If a front piece is an absolute necessity, do not choose a heavy one that has a wiggy look, but instead one that is a little thin and on which the curls will be fluffy, rather than frizzy.

Back to Health and Strength.

William J. Witter, Franklin, Man., writes: My sister had very poor health for six or seven years, and looked as though she was going to the grave. I got some of your Dr. William's Pink Pills for her, and they completely restored her to health. I regard them as a wonderful medicine. Shun all substitutes, and beware of imitations. May be had from dealers, or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. William's Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Terwilliger—They are advertising building lots at fifty cents a week. Do you think they are intended for women investors? Terwilliger—No, my dear. If they were you'd see them marked at forty-nine cents.

Penelope—I don't like to see you dangling around with mere boys all the time. What do you find that's so interesting in that smooth-faced young Faris? Perdita—Why, Pen, his face isn't so smooth as it looks.

Henry—I meant to call on you last evening, Mary, but really, I—I—fact is, I don't know what to offer as an excuse. Mary—Oh, don't feel annoyed, Henry. Any excuse you care to offer will be amply sufficient.

Wanted to See Him.—Clara—I got a note from a drummer the other day who said he would give the world to kiss me. Maude—What did you reply? Clara—I told him to call on me with a full line of samples.

"Her father is quite an enthusiast," said young Mr. Park Avenue. "Does he not fire you with zeal?" "Yes," returned young Mr. Charles Street sadly, and with a surreptitious rub of his anatomy. "I must say, when I proposed for his daughter's hand, I was fired with zeal."

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMET OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1883 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

"I have been troubled with what I "call Sick Headache. A pain comes "in the back part of my head first, "and then soon a general headache "until I become sick and vomit. "At times, too, I have a fullness "after eating, a pressure after eating "at the pit of the stomach, and "sourness, when food seemed to rise "up in my throat and mouth. When "I feel this coming on if I take a "little August Flower it relieves "me, and is the best remedy I have "ever taken for it. SIDE TALKS WITH GIRLS.

Good Advice by Ruth Ashmore in the Ladies' Home Journal.

I do not mean the girl who is gentle in heart and thought, though, of course, I want every one of my girls to be that, but I mean the girl who is gentle in her movements and her speech. She is what you want to be. It is true you did not intend to knock over the chair as you entered the room, and it is equally true that you had no idea you were planting your feet down as if you wished to stamp the pattern out of the carpet—you did not intend to do these things, but you did them. You make a nervous woman start, the heavy step awakened a sleeping baby, and your entrance was very ungentle. Then when you began to talk you raised your voice more than was necessary; as you grew interested in the conversation had it reach a shrill tone that was ear piercing. You managed to knock over a book, let your fan fall, and you tipped over a glass of water. None of these things are wrong, but they show a lack of consideration, and suggest that in yourself there must be a strain that does not belong to the gentle girl. Learn to walk quietly; learn to keep your eyes open, so that you may not trip over rugs nor cushions, chairs or tables. You see, I want you to be a gentle woman. It means very much. A sweet, low voice and a quiet manner are more convincing of the power of woman than all the loud talking and blustering imaginable. When I was a little girl I used to have sung to me a song that seemed to describe the finest little lady in the land, and there are two verses of it that I have never forgotten. In telling of the charms of this little lady these words come in, and I wish you would just remember them, and think over what a gentle manner and a low voice mean in a woman. This is the old ditty:

"Nelly Bly hath a voice
Sweet as a turtle dove,
You hear it in the meadow
And you hear it in the grove.
When she walks she lifts her foot
And then she puts it down
And when it lights there's music down
In that part of the town."

Do You Think So?

Do you think you could love the young man who sneers at his mother and sister?

Do you think you could love the young man who does not take the trouble to look his neatest when he comes to see you?

Do you think you could love the young man who forgets to remove his hat when he is talking to you in the hallway or on the verandah?

Do you think you could love the young man who is never thoughtful of your comfort, but only of his own?

Do you think you could love the young man who, while professing love to you, speaks about you in a careless way?

I do not think you could. And between you and me I most sincerely hope not only that you cannot love him, but that you will not.

Just One Small Word.

It is only a short one. But I want to say it for the girl who is downhearted. I want to say it to the one who is unhappy; to the one who is tired; to the one who is an invalid, and to the one to whom none of the good things of life seem to come; it is this: "Hope." If you keep on hoping from day to day and from day to day, you will never be entirely unhappy and, if with the hoping you do some helping you will be quite happy.

I know it is hard—this life we lead; but if we keep on hoping and helping, and hoping and helping, we will come in time to that other life of which we know nothing except that there will be no more weeping, "for God will wipe away all tears." So mark the word on your heart and keep it always before you—that one little word, Hope.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always give rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

Mr. Boustead failed some years ago, but paid his creditors in full.

The creditors of James Foy & Co., the insolvent bankrupt stock merchants of Brighton, met yesterday afternoon in the office of Thomson, Henderson & Bell. The statement is not quite complete, but it is thought the liabilities will run up into the neighborhood of $19,000. The assets are estimated at $14,000. No offer of settlement was made, and Messrs. Paul Campbell, J. D. Ivey and Green were appointed inspectors to act with Assignee Doherty in winding up the estate.

Repenting at Leisure.

TORONTO, Oct. 26. — Mr. Justice Robertson yesterday granted an injunction in the action of G. E Brame against T. J. Ford. The action is brought to set aside an alleged fraudulent contract and to restrain the defendant from using the plaintiff's name in connection with the Ford Pill Co. Brame was a music teacher, but, becoming tired of that occupation and wishing to grow rich more quickly than it was possible to do by teaching, in September last purchased the business of the Ford Pill Co. for $15,000. The business of it is company was to manufacture and sell pills, and advertisements were inserted in various papers containing puzzles, which no one could fail to solve, and offering in response to the correct answer to the puzzle and $3.40 to send a certain number of pills and a watch. There was a profit of $1.65 on each such transaction, and Brame saw wealth ahead. But before he had gone far he found, so he says, that the company was in debt to the extent of $40,000 or $50,000 and that a great number of correct answers and orders for pills had been received, but no watches sent. He alleges that he was induced by fraud to enter into the purchase of the business, and wants to be relieved from his purchase. The defendant denies all allegations of fraud and will defend the action.

Ethel—You remind me of my piano lamp. Stalate—How so? Ethel—No matter how much it is turned down, it doesn't go out.

Always a Woman—Mike O'Rafferty (pulling his wife out of the well)—Be gorra! a woman's at the bottom av everything.

"Doctor, what is a good cholera mixture for this time of year?" "Well, ice cream, watermelon and lager beer will do very well."

A Sudden Flight.—She (anxiously)—How did papa appear when you asked for my hand? He—I didn't have time to see, darling!

"How is Winter getting on?" "Well, when I last saw him he hadn't a shirt to his back." "Poor fellow? Where did you see him? "Bathing."

Fair Soprano (having finished her trial)—Do you think my voice will fill the hall? Grim Manager—I fear it would have just the opposite effect.

For a man who shows so much push in his business, the fellow who trundles a wheelbarrow doesn't seem to get along very well.

Will—Where's your chaperone? Florence—Oh, I took pity on the poor thing. I thought she was being overworked, and gave her a day off.

Bobby—What makes Miss Footlights wear her earrings in the water? Mamma (savagely)—Her sense of propriety compels her to wear something.

"Here is the ring," he cried. "Now will you be
From this time forth engaged to marry me?"
"Wait till papa can see it," said the girl,
"I'm not a judge of diamonds myself."

Boarder—It seems to me that every morning the past week the cakes have grown smaller. Landlady—You probably forget that these are flannel cakes.

"I can't understand why all the rest of my teeth should ache just because one of them happens to be a little sore." "O, the others are on a sympathetic strike, I suppose."

"Why don't you eat your crackers, Jack?" "I don't like crackers." "Why, you ate three a little while ago." "Yes—but that was between meals. I like everything then."

MODERN PRECOCITY.

At seventeen she seeks a way
Her intellect to prove,
She wrote a tale the other day,
"The Universe and Love."

He—I have decided to ask your father's consent by letter, Pauline. Now, what sort of a letter would you advise me to make? She—I think, Horace, that I would make it an anonymous letter.

He—If I were to try to kiss you what would you do? She—Scream. He—Do you mean it? She (impressively)—Indeed I do, so you had better wait until we are out of hearing of the hotel.

"There's one thing I don't understand," said little Harry; "that's why good tasting things like pie make me sick, while bad tasting things like medicine make me well. It ought to be the other way."

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar coating makes them easy, and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no calomel or other injurious drugs, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

SIR JOHN LUBBOCK ON TRADE MATTERS.

Canadian Cattle Said to Be Attacked by Pleuro-Pneumonia at Dundee—Truth Exposes Another Swindle—Lord Salisbury and a Peerage of Sweeps.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—At a meeting of London Chamber of Commerce yesterday the Right Hon. Sir John Lubbock, president of the chamber, occupied the chair. Sir John delivered an address in which he dwelt upon the unsatisfactory state of trade, which, however, he declared had not been affected by the McKinley tariff to the extent that was expected. British trade with America, he said, had declined less than it had with other countries. The greatest sufferers were the Americans, who felt the pinch more acutely than did the British. Canadian exporters, Sir John added, were in a condition of commercial paralysis that could not be indefinitely prolonged. The McKinley Bill constituted a grand opportunity for Canada. This bill had placed American farmers at a disadvantage. If Canada profited by the position and lowered her import duties her merchants would be benefited, because many British products required in the west would inevitably find their way through Canada and across the border without paying the heavy customs dues. Sir John declared that bi-metallism would never be adopted by Great Britain, as it would be impossible to fix a ratio of value.

Cottonopolis and Bi-metallism.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 27.—In compliance with a petition adopted by a meeting of the leading merchants of Manchester the mayor has convoked a meeting of citizens to draw up a memorial urging the Government to co-operate in an international agreement in regard to bi-metallism. The petition, in dilating upon the unsatisfactory state of trade, says that business with the Orient and with Mexico has been seriously affected, and the difficulty is increasing owing to the fluctuations in exchange in silver and gold.

Another Exposure By Truth.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Truth yesterday identifies a man named Wells, a fraudulent patent monger in London, with the Wells who recently gained notoriety through his alleged winnings at Monte Carlo. Truth says: Undeterred by previous exposures Wells' latest coups have been on a larger scale than before. Within a few months, under the pretence that he was about to float patents that would yield enormous wealth to investors, Wells has victimized one lady out of £18,000, another lady out of £5000, and a gentleman out of £10,000, in the meantime sucking dry a number of smaller flies, ranging from workmen with a few years' savings to invest to aristocrats commanding thousands of pounds. All sections of society have been victimized. Wells might have long since retired with an enormous fortune, but he is an inveterate gambler.

COWARDLY, SAYS CHAMBERLAIN.

It Would Be Silly for Britain to Abandon Uganda.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Mr. Chamberlain has written a long letter to the anti-Slavery Association deprecating the abandoning of Uganda by the British Government. He says that it would be cowardly and silly for Great Britain to abandon Uganda to barbarism or to allow another European nation to seize that country. A small expenditure, he asserts, would avert that undesirable result, and would at the same time strike a blow at the Arab slave dealers.

A PEERAGE OF SWEEPS.

A Significant Article From Lord Salisbury Respecting New Peers.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Lord Salisbury has an article in The National Review on the subject of "Constitutional Revision." In answering the contention that the present Government has the right to elevate 500 "sweeps" to the peerage, he holds that the next Tory Government will have the same right and will elevate more sweeps and so swamp the Liberal majority.

"Great Britain," he says, "has given no mandate for such an exceptional proceeding, because if any Home Rule mandate has been given at all it has been given only by a trifling majority. The electors are almost certain to follow the precedent set since 1847, and have reserved their decision for the next appeal to the country. The constant expectation of such a reversal implies a continued struggle scarcely short of civil war."

The Chronicle on the Article.

The Chronicle, referring to Lord Salisbury's article, says this is a great political event, not on account of the weight of Lord Salisbury's arguments, but because it indicates that the gravest national issue is destined to be fought to the bitter end, instead of settled amicably and patriotically on national grounds.

Canadian Cattle Attacked.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Pleuro-pneumonia has been discovered in Canadian cattle landed at Dundee.

No Decision Reached.

MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—An informal conference of prominent Liberals was held yesterday to consider what course the party should take on the Manitoba school question. No definite decision was reached.

An Essex Village Scorched.

ESSEX CENTRE, Ont., Oct. 27.—A fire occurred in this town yesterday in the building known as the Scott Block, the part occupied by Jones & Co. being totally destroyed. Their loss on grocery and bakery $3000; insured for $1500. Damage to adjoining building about $500, fully covered by insurance. W. & R. Millen's loss on building about $500, fully covered by insurance; Sorson Bros.' stock damaged by water and smoke, about $500, fully covered by insurance; Jones & Co.'s stock was a complete loss.

Order of Railway Car Men.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—The Board of Managers and Directors of the Order of Railway Car Men of America was in session secretly all day. The report of the grand secretary showed reports from 144 lodges in the United States and Canada and Mexico and 14,000 members in good connection. The question of federation with the other railway employes' organization was bestowed upon the grand chief and the grand secretary.

AFTER THE SPY.

The O'Kelly Starts Action Against LeCaron for Libel.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—J. J. O'Kelly, Irish Home Ruler, and ex-member of parliament, has sued for libel Dr. LeCaron, the author of "Recollections of a Spy," and Heinemann, the publisher, who laid the book before the public a few days ago. The statements especially offensive to Mr. O'Kelly are to the effect that he was connected with the Clan Na Gael. The trial of this case will be practically the same as reopening the Parnell Commission.

The Irish Are Applying.

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—Irish newspapers are urging the claims of Irishmen to the post laureateship. They suggest that Aubrey Thomas DeVere or Timothy Daniel Sullivan are well qualified to occupy the post. Mr. DeVere is a son of the late Sir Aubrey DeVere of Curragh Chase, Limerick. His poetical works are numerous, and he is well known as a political writer. T. D. Sullivan is the author of several volumes of Irish national poems. He sits in the House of Commons for the West Division of Donegal.

A Female Firebrand.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Miss Cozens, a noted female suffragist, speaking yesterday at a meeting of the Women's Emancipation Union, said women should not go on talking until the crack of doom without getting redress for the injustice they suffer. The time had come for them to do something desperate. Women, she declared, had dynamite at their disposal.

THE AIM OF THE MISSION

THE PAPAL LEGATES HAVE AN OBJECT IN AMERICA.

They Will Establish a Consistory Court to Settle Disputes Between Bishops and Priests—The Court Will Hold Its Sittings at the Catholic University at Washington.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—It is announced that one of the principal reasons for the visit to this country of the Papal legate, Archbishop Satolli, and Mgr. O'Connell, president of the American College at Rome, is the establishment here of a consistory court to try and settle disputes arising between bishops and priests without their appealing to Rome, as is now done in such cases. The legate is vested with ample authority by the Pope as to the manner in which the court shall be established and Monsig. O'Connell is to be its secretary. The consistory, when established, will hold its sittings at the Catholic University at Washington, and it is expected that the first case to come before it will be the matter now under dispute between Bishop Brennan of Texas and a number of the priests of his diocese.

DEATH OF HARRY MILBANK.

The Famous Duellist Has Been Failing for a Long Time Past.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Mr. Harry Vane Milbank, who has been sick for some time, died at Davos-Platz on Monday.

He was addicted to the morphine habit, and through this and other causes his health was badly shattered. His condition was known to be serious a long time ago, and when, several month since, he left England, it was known to his intimate friends that his case was hopeless.

The unenviable notoriety into which he was forced caused him to be cut out of the will of the late Duke of Cleveland. This lost him a fortune of £60,000 a year.

Disappointment at this affair and scathing criticisms of an American paper during his short sojourn in New York had much to do toward undermining his already weakened constitution.

His death will not be a bar to the litigation over the will, which is to be carried on by his father, Sir Frederick Milbank. Mr. Milbank not leaving issue, the father's title will go to the younger brother, Powlett, who is the Conservative candidate for Parliament for Radnor.

SLAUGHTER IN MEXICO.

A Murderous Band Take a Run Through Arizona.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Capt. Johnson, U.S.A., acting Indian agent at San Carlos agency, Arizona Territory, has telegraphed the Indian Office, under date of Oct. 26, as follows: "Kid and several Chiracahua Indians from Mexico have just raided the reservation; on the 22nd they stole a White Mountain Indian girl from camp near Salt River; yesterday they killed a Ionto Indian 15 miles northwest of here. They stole a small San Carlos girl from the same place and are now going south, closely pursued by Indian police, employes, troops and Indians. The latter yesterday afternoon fired on the Cheracahuas, loyally aiding in the efforts to destroy the hostiles."

A copy of this message has been sent to the Secretary of War for his information.

They will be shipped to London for Christmas beef, part of them going to Queen Victoria.

THE TROUBLE IN HAYTI

Three Frenchmen Banished by Hippolyte as Conspirators.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The steamer Orange Nassau, which arrived yesterday from West Indian ports, brings a confirmation of the threatened revolution in the Republic of Hayti. The Orange Nassau left Port au Prince, Oct. 20. Capt. Vandecom brought three Frenchmen, who were ordered out of the country by President Hippolyte, on the charge of inciting insurrection. It was alleged that the men were equipped with money, and had been preaching revolution against Hippolyte in the northern sections, where the people were less loyal to the present president. It was said that the revolutionary agitation had secured a large following, and that Gen. Manigat, another conspirator living at Kingston, Jamaica, was getting ready to cross over to Hayti with a number of supporters as soon as the people had been worked up to a proper pitch.

President Hippolyte is preparing to go north; his friends say, on a visit of pleasure. Others say the object of his visit there is to be on the scene of disturbance and crush it with his soldiers. The three French conspirators left the steamer to-day to go to the French consulate to lodge their complaint against the Haytian Government.

A TRAVELER'S WILES.

A Toronto Tobacconist Alleged to Have Committed Bigamy.

TORONTO, Oct. 28. — Thomas Henry Snider, alias Henry Moore, late of Toronto, is wanted on a charge of bigamy. Snider at one time kept a cigar store in Toronto, but latterly has been traveling for a cigar house. About two years ago Sarah Ceaser, a good-looking young woman, came from Chatsworth to Toronto to live and made the acquaintance of Snider under the name of Henry Moore. The acquaintance ripened into love, and as the young girl didn't know that Moore was Snider and already had a wife and two children living in the city she became his victim and on Monday, Aug. 15, they were married by the Rev. J. W. Churchill at the parsonage in Chatsworth. It is understood they are at present living in or near Marquette.

Mr. Davis, a brother of wife No. 1, was in the city and last week visited the second wife's relatives, where he has freely given all the information in his possession respecting the couple and Snider's arrest is anxiously looked for.

The first day's session was devoted principally to discussing the proposed uniting of all Scottish Rite bodies under one Grand Supreme Council, there now being three in the United States. At the final session John J. Gorman of New York was elected Sovereign Grand Commander.

THAT CATTLE DISEASE CASE.

Was It Pleuro-Pneumonia With Which That Cow Died?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Secretary Rusk says in regard to the alleged discovery of pleuro-pneumonia by the British inspectors among American cattle landed in London that the lungs of one animal had evidently been produced which were affected with some lung disease. The English inspectors claimed that this disease was pleuro-pneumonia, while the American inspector said it was catarrhal pneumonia. The secretary is confident that no pleuro-pneumonia has been found affecting American cattle.

A Badly Provisioned Ship.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Four of the sailors of the Nova Scotian bark H. R. Cann have a complaint to make against her skipper, Capt. Darkee, who brought her into Hampton Roads from Iloilo after a gallant struggle against peril and hunger two weeks ago. They say the bark was leaking when her cargo was stowed at Iloilo and that the skipper did not take enough provisions along to last him during the voyage. He ran short when six weeks out and spoke a British bark to get supplies, but the bark had nothing to spare. He declared, the sailors say, that the men were lazy, when they were sick. They offered the skipper $500 if he would use it to pay for a tow from a passing steamship, but he refused.

Another Gunning Accident.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., Oct. 28.—While at the Eau yesterday morning shooting duck Mr. Freeman Harding, barrister, a popular young man of this place, was accidentally shot through the left wrist. He was in the act of stepping from the boat when his foot slipped and the movement discharged the contents of his gun into the left arm just above the wrist. He was taken to Morpeth, where Dr. Stevens was summoned and amputated his arm between the elbow and the wrist. Mr. Harding's many friends regret to learn of his sad misfortune.

MAKES FULL CONFESSION

NEILL, THE MURDERER, ADMITS HIS CRIME.

He Went Minutely Into Each Crime and Told a Story Which Was Enough to Hang Anyone—The Lawyer Will Not Make His Confession Public Until After the Execution.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—All information as to Thomas Neill Cream's confession comes from Mr. Waters, his solicitor. Mr. Waters says that he probably will not make the details public until after the execution. Cream confessed to him everything criminal in his Canadian career, minutely described the girls murdered, his methods in killing them and his devices to escape detection.

"He fairly made every hair on my head stand on end," said Mr. Waters this evening. "His story was startling beyond anything I have ever before heard." After his confession Cream became angry at Mr. Waters and threatened "to do" him after the trial.

Mr. Haggart with reference to matters in dispute between the Dominion and the Provincial Government in connection with east extension and Western Counties railway.

An order in council has been passed retiring from service H. James, chief architect of the Militia Department, who has been incapacitated from work for some time past on account of mental trouble. As Mr. James has only been a permanent clerk a comparatively short time he was not superannuated, but a special gratuity was made him, as provided by the act. It is understood that Mr. Fred W. White, who has been performing the duties of chief architect for over two years past, and who is a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston, has been appointed chief architect of the department.

A meeting between Premier Davie of British Columbia and the committee of the council to discuss the question of the land in the railway belt and other matters has been fixed for Monday.

Hon. Mr. Dewdney entertained Premier Davie, Sir John Thompson, Hon. Mr. Haggart, Hon. Mr Tupper and Mr. Sedgewick, Deputy Minister of Justice, at luncheon at the Rideau Club to-day.

Canadian Flour in the West Indies.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Mr. Adam Brown arrived in town yesterday from Hamilton on business with the Postoffice Department. Speaking of the beneficial results of the Jamaica Exhibition upon Canada's export trade, Mr. Brown mentioned the fact, as related in a letter recently received from Halifax, that this summer 25,000 barrels of Canadian flour were carried to the West Indies by the Pickford and Black line of steamers alone. Canadian flour was first introduced to the West Indies through Mr. Brown's agency at the Jamaica Exhibition.

THE JAMES CASE.

Col. Hawkins, Lieut.-Col. Streator and Surgeon Grim Indicted.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 28.—The case of the Commonwealth against Col. Hawkins, Lieut.-Col. Streator and Surgeon Grim of the Tenth Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania was called in the criminal court yesterday. Judge Porter presided and Judges McClung and Ewing sat on the bench with him. This is the famous James case. Attorney Sprowls, for the defence, made a motion to quash the indictments, claiming that under the act of April 13, 1887, providing for a tribunal of the National Guard, the court had no jurisdiction.

The court overruled the motion to quash the indictments, with leave to raise the question during the trial, and an adjournment was taken. Of the jury selected three are farmers, one a clerk, one a gentleman and seven workmen.

Fire at Petrolia.

PETROLIA, Ont., Oct. 28.—About 2 o'clock yesterday fire broke out in Bowen & Gordon's carriage works, known as the Dominion Carriage Works. The building is burned to the ground and nothing saved excepting one top-buggy and two or three lumber wagons. Loss $2500, insurance $1600. Cause unknown.

For a U.S. Coaling Station.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Navy Department will soon turn its attention to the purchase of pearl harbor in the Hawaiian Islands. The Hawaiians are willing to dispose of this harbor to this country, and the property, suitable for the establishment of a coaling station, can be had for $25,000.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Since writing my former letter I have been waiting to see what could be said in reply. Messrs. Meldrum and McBain have assumed the task of justifying the appointment of a permanent inspector at a salary of $1,200 or $1,500 a year, and if all they can say is in their letters then I would ask the level-headed readers of your paper if they have succeeded? Mr. Meldrum writes of the great importance of the public schools. Granted; so one realises this more than I do, and no one will question his general and broad claims on their behalf. Then he speaks of crying evils in the school system. Ah! said I, Mr. Meldrum is going at the matter like a sensible man, he is going to point out evils which a $1,200 or $1,500 inspector can remedy, but as I read on I found that his whole complaint was that pupils who failed to pass an examination which would secure their promotion, were kept for twelve months before another examination was held—and so a dreadful injury was done them, and their lives were blighted, etc. In a graded school the children of an entire room are supposed to move up every year, but if any fail whose fault is it? Why have examinations if the unprepared are to be thrust in with the clever or industrious children who have earned their promotion—would it be fair to the teacher or to the class to have the backward ones constantly thrust into their ranks at all times in the terms? A pupil who makes nearly 50 per cent. on his answers passes, though fairly good students usually make about 80 per cent., so that a pupil who is below 80 will not suffer much if he remains another year—he may thus be advanced so far that when next he tries he will make high marks and go into the advanced class strong and fully competent, rather than weak—a hardship to himself and a drag on his class. No greater injury can be done to a pupil than to put him in classes for which he is unprepared and amongst pupils who have got away ahead of him. It would be unfair to the class and to give particular attention to this awkward squad when his whole attention was required for the regular classes. Mr. Meldrum evidently is not aware that the yearly examinations are fixed by the Department of Education and not by the Inspector. Yet, Mr. Editor, if Mr. Meldrum was familiar with our schools he would learn that all but invariably where a pupil has by some mischance barely missed passing from one to another grade in the public schools, but can fairly hold his own if advanced, that advancement is awarded to him, and only those are left behind who the experienced teacher believes will, in the end, be benefitted by being retained in the division which they were yet unfitted to leave. Mr. Meldrum takes me up on my admission that our young and inexperienced teachers constantly improve under their own labors and the guidance of the Inspector, and from this admission he argues that the more frequent visits of a permanent Inspector would yet more effectually develop and improve the young teacher. To some extent this is true, but the Inspector must not unduly interfere with the regular work, nor must he incautiously expose a teacher before her pupils.

The development of the art of teaching takes time. Our teachers all get their certificates—teach for a while, then are compelled by law to go to a training school, and afterwards are under their head masters and the inspector, but no teacher wants

AN INSPECTOR ETERNALLY AT HIS ELBOW,

Mr. Tilley visits most frequently those of the staff who in his judgment require the most help. Occasionally he brings all the teachers of the same grade together and holds a model school session, some of the teachers taking charge of the classes to be taught and the manner and methods are discussed, thus errors of habit and method are eliminated, good modes exhibited, and the teachers by contact, observation and discussion, greatly assisted; this has been Dr. Tilley's method—but enough of this is better than too much, and I take it that intelligent and ambitious teachers will gladly try to perfect themselves and would only resent constant hacking and interference.

A prudent experienced and judicious man knows how far it is wise for him to interfere before the pupils with the teaching of the staff.

That our schools are a success is in itself proof that teachers and inspector combined have done faithful and good work, and I am yet waiting for the proof that we would be justified in spending $1,200 or $1,500 where the necessity has not been shown.

Mr. McBain takes me up and thinks he has established his position by getting a certificate from the head teacher of the Ottawa schools that the public schools of that city are "eminently satisfactory." If any gentleman from Ottawa or any other place wrote to Mr. Smith—aye or to Mr. McBain, asking if the Peterborough schools proved "satisfactory to both ratepayers and teachers as a rule," what answer would they give—would Mr. Smith write down his schools, would write down his schools? Would any head master in Ontario, knowing that his answer was for a purpose and would be printed, would he not "with all due modesty" say that "our public schools are a credit to our city, etc." I do not pretend that Ottawa has not good schools, nor do I say that such a city with 64 teachers cannot profitably employ an Inspector, but I do say that 64 teachers would require 128 visits of an Inspector if only the law was complied with, and each school visited once a term or twice a year; and that as there are only 210 actual teaching days in the year, the Inspector could be fairly employed in such a city, yet I doubt very much if the Ottawa schools actually get much more inspection than ours. But this I do say—and the school returns prove it—that with their $2,000 Inspector, their schools are no better than ours. In proportion to the numbers attending and the number of teachers, Peterborough has made a better record, passed a greater proportion of pupils, and those that did pass took a higher mark.

In large cities the great number of schools take all the time of a permanent inspector, but in such places the schools are probably inspected not more frequently than ours. Public Schools are conducted according to law. The Inspector is a government officer whose duty it is to see that properly qualified teachers only are employed; that the school buildings, grounds and appliances are in making the grants to them, but to expect an inspector to employ his time in teaching, or in developing, as Mr. Meldrum seeks, "more sympathy between teacher and pupil" is unreasonable and not his special duty. In Port Hope and Lindsay the ward teachers are all ladies at low salaries. Our ward teachers are all experienced and skilled men at higher salaries. These men to a large extent govern their respective schools, and themselves require only such assistance from the inspector as they have received. In the centre, the south and the west ward schools are rooms with so many children that the half day system has been obligatory to enable the overwrought teachers to reach the eighty or ninety children on their respective rolls. Now, in face of the eminent position of our schools, and the crying want for more, and for more teachers, I do not feel justified in making a change the result of which I do not know, but which with certainty will add to our school tax enough to pay the salaries of four more primary teachers.

Our board invites inspection of our schools by the public at all times and at all hours. They are all proud of the schools and anxious to improve them; the only question is as to the manner of doing it. I contend that they have under the present system—the regular Government system which prevails in every town in Ontario. They are now excellent, and there is nothing in our circumstances that justifies so radical and expensive a change as is suggested. I am glad this matter of the schools has come before the public, for nothing will do them more good than securing the intelligent interest and sympathy of the people, whose they are.

I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
D. W. DUMBLE.

N.B.—I have just read Mr. Law's strange letter. I am sorry he has been led into making so many statements that are incorrect, for I am certain he would not wilfully make them if he was familiar with the facts. I will briefly notice that part of his letter which relates to the schools, the part relating to mechanical and civil engineering, with which he is evidently so familiar, does not bear upon the school question.

When Mr. Stratton was local inspector he had $200 a year. When Mr. Tilley was employed we had 18 teachers. The law fixes the inspectors minimum salary at $10 a school. The schools were increased to 28, so that the salary if regulated by law would be $280, for two visits a year to each room. The board, in order to get more of Mr. Tilley's time, gave him $350 a year and got more time. When Mr. Law speaks of the "inspection of a few hours in each school, at intervals of from four to six months" he is misled. HE DOES NOT PERSONALLY VISIT THE SCHOOLS with the inspector, and so has got his information from some one as unfamiliar with the facts as he is. Dr. Tilley has averaged eight or nine visits each teaching year of ten months, usually staying three or four days, sometimes a week. Then the preparation of all the examination papers, which he does at his home, is a work that takes several weeks, and to speak of him drawing forty to sixty dollars a day is very reckless, and certainly sufficiently untrue to cause one to ask if Mr. Law has not been imposed upon. Mr. Meldrum and Mr. Law would make capital by insinuating that I spoke disparagingly of labor and the workshop. I did not. When speaking of an inspector who had no division—no pupils—no teaching—I simply said he would be a kind of walking boss at $1,500 a year.

As to the "workshop," Mr. Law said he wanted the schools conducted on the same principle as his shop. I replied that there was no parallel between the schools and his shop—only that and nothing more. This is not a personal matter. I don't wish to say an unkind word about men who are no doubt honest in their convictions, but err through want of familiarty with the matter in hand. I don't for a moment say a resident inspector would be an evil. I do say there is nothing in our circumstances which calls for the great expense of an inspector who would be paid for all his time when a portion of his time for one-fourth the money answers the purpose so admirably.

DOURO HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL

Took Place Yesterday and Was Well Attended.

The Columbus harvest home festival under the auspices of the ladies of St. Joseph's church, Douro, Rev. Father Kelity, parish priest, took place on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. Between five and six hundred persons, including many from Otonabee, Ennismore, Asphodel, Douro and Young's Point were present. Quite a number also drove out from Peterborough. A choice dinner was served in the body of the new church in fine style by the ladies of the parish and duly partaken of by many. The games took place in a large field adjoining the church and also in the school. They afforded much pleasure to those present, and passed off successfully.

The speeches were delivered in the new church, which, it may be mentioned is a handsome stone structure, and externally about completed, some finishing touches to the tower yet remaining to be completed. The inside is of course, not yet finished. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., occupied the chair, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. J. Hampden Burnham, R. R. Hall, Thos. Cahill, J. W. Fitzgerald, Dr. Brennan, the chairman and others. The speeches were all appropriate to the occasion, the celebration being in commemoration of the discovery of America by Columbus, and many references were made to the Genoese discover and the great subsequent events that have taken place in America during the past four centuries. The proceeds of the festival will be devoted towards paying for a new bell which has been bought by the parishioners of St. Joseph, and judging from the large number present, there is but very little doubt that the sum realized in that direction was highly gratifying to the congregation of St. Joseph and Rev. Father Kelity, to whose untiring energies the success of the celebration can be largely attributed. Among the visiting clergy present were Rev. Fathers Rudkins, O'Connell and Scollard, of St. Peter's Cathedral, Rev. Father Brown, V. G. Douro, and Rev. Father Kennedy, lately from Ireland. All appeared to be thoroughly enjoying themselves and expressed themselves well pleased with the occasion, as did the numerous visitors present from all over the adjoining townships and Peterborough.

A SEASON OF DANGER!

Many are Indifferent and Careless!

At the present season, neglected colds sow the seeds of serious and often fatal diseases.

Thousands of people, old and young, treat a slight cold, a sore throat, and sore chest with perfect indifference. We know of many men and women in the last stages of consumption, who can look back and trace their terrible condition to the slight cold on the chest and bronchial tubes.

From the world renowned Harvard University has emanated a prompt, safe and unfailing remedy for coughs, sore throat, irritation of the bronchial tubes and enlargement of the tonsils.

This precious preparation, coming from such a worthy and reliable source, is known as Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and for years has taken the lead in the United States. Since its introduction in Canada, all classes have used it, and testified strongly in its favor. Our best physicians prescribe it, and our most noted analytical chemists pronounce it the purest and safest cough remedy ever compounded.

Consumptives, Cheer Up!

You are not going to die if you will but exercise a little common sense, and spend a paltry sum. You may be very feeble now, sitting bolstered up in the big arm chair, but you may now throw up your hat or bonnet and shout for joy! Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will save you if you take it according to directions. What you need is good new blood and rebuilt tissues. If you take Miller's Emulsion you will gain from five to ten pounds of flesh with each bottle. There is no use wasting words. A hint should be enough to convince a consumptive of the fact that Miller's preparation of Cod LiverOil SAVES. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all drug stores.

If you are tired taking the old-fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills, and take some comfort. A man can't stand everything. One pill a dose. Try them. dw

A LOFTY DESCENT.

A Trap Door Breaks and Causes a Man to Fall Twenty Feet.

Mr. W. C. Barnes, of Toronto, is a young man who is an agent for Mc. Causland's stained glass windows. About two weeks ago he came to Peterborough and has been employed part of the time in repairing the glass of the George street Methodist church tower. He was engaged at this work yesterday afternoon, when he met with what might have proved a fatal accident. As it was his escape from terrible injuries was simply miraculous. Barnes was descending a ladder backwards from which he had been working, and when he reached the foot he unthinkingly stepped on a frail trap door, which covered an opening about four feet square on the second platform of the tower. The door, almost the moment he put his weight upon it, suddenly broke and let the one who made the unlucky step down a distance of some twenty feet to the ground floor of the tower or main entrance of the church vestibule. The young man was shortly after taken to his boarding house, corner of Sheridan and Hunter streets. Dr. Bell on examination found no limbs broken. The only apparent injuries Barnes had received was a severe sprain of the back and a terrible shaking up. He is doing well and will doubtless be around again at his work in a few days.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away. Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival, A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine fortifies the system against attacks of ague, chills, bilious fever, dumb ague and like troubles.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because Cures Catarrh the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It Cures SCROFULA makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. If the Prices Were Low?

THE

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$1,200. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885 we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Port Hope Town Team have written Secretary Drope stating that they will be on hand here on Thanksgiving Day morning to play the Peterboroughs on the forenoon of Nov. 10th.

Victoria University, Toronto, have written asking for a game here under certain conditions. They play Kingston on Nov. 9th, where their glee club gives a concert, ditto Norwood on the 10th, Thanksgiving day, and they want to complete the engagement with Peterborough on the 11th. The home boys will accommodate them with the proviso that arrangements can be made for "Vics'" glee club to give a concert.

Pathos, Beauty and Expression.

If you want to hear all these attributes blending naturally and gracefully make it a point to go and hear Miss E. Pauline Johnson in the George street Methodist church next Monday evening. Miss Johnson, a member of the Mohawk tribe, is as unique and interesting a personality as her father, Owanonsyhan (The Man of the Bay Horse), the well known chief of the Six Nations. As a native poet-reciter she is unequalled, the poems recited being of heroic composition, and as a sublime interpreter of Nature and Nature's beauty, she stands unexcelled. The New Home Journal says: "Miss Johnson has distinguished herself in Canadian journals by her strong and vivacious prose writings and her poetical essays in verse." Monday, at George street Methodist church; go. 1d

A Sudden Death.

Further particulars of the death of the late W. J. Rombough, a former resident of Ashburnham, were gleaned to-day. Mr. Harry Morgan, a nephew of the deceased, arrived in town from Toronto last evening to assist in the preparations for the funeral. Deceased was a member of Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows for several years, and about two years ago removed to Toronto with his wife and family of three grown up children who are now bereft of a kind and upright father. Mr. Rombough died from rheumatism of the heart after only a few hours illness. He was a well known resident and respected by all. He, ran for several years, two large planing mills in Ashburnham. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 11:45 o'clock from the C. P. R. station to the Little Lake cemetery under the auspices of Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows. Rev. A. McWilliams, pastor of St. Andrew's, will conduct the funeral services.

THE EDISON SEWER.

The Work Progressing Apace—A Good Job being Done—A General Write Up of What has been Done, and What there is to do.

The work on the Edison sewer down Rinkstreet is fast being pushed to completion under the experienced knowledge and hustling abilities of Mr, David O'Brien, superintendent of the work. The contractor, Mr. Farley, had eight weeks in which to complete the work, but if nothing unforseen occurs and the present rapid and highly satisfactory state of things continues, five weeks will see the 2,200 feet of sewer pipe laid, filled in and completed according to the letter of the contract. Twenty-two men, all local labourers, are engaged on the work, and although it is only fourteen days since the first pick was wielded or shovelfull of gravel thrown, 1,450 feet of pipe are laid and completed in all particulars, 700 feet remains yet to be laid. The operations of the men are watched by a large number of spectators each day. There are five railroad tracks to go under, and four of these have been crossed. The men have now arrived as far as the last C.P.R. track on Stewart street. The trench, in order to preserve the level, and owing to the elevated surface, is now being dug 11 feet deep in a coarse gravel formation of soil. For quite a distance from the works on Rink street the soil was soft and the trench dug 4 ft. 6 in. for about 400 feet, and for 600 feet more 9 ft. 6 in. Each pipe is 3½ feet long, and each is linked into the other at the joints by gaskett, which forms a solid bed and keeps the pipes tight. Some seven man-holes have been put in so far. Brick nine inches thick is erected around each manhole which is 4x3 ft on the inside. Over the top of this is placed an iron case and also iron grating 21 inches square. The men are at present digging in a sort of a gravelly dish between the C.P.R. and G.T.R., and although the water flows freely still the foreman says that will give them no difficulty. The sides of the trench are boarded up with a heavy timber net work and at the top of the trench is 3 ft. 6 inches wide. The boarding up is necessary to prevent the dirt caving in and burying the men excavating. No stages have yet been required in order to throw out the earth. In undermining thet racks it was necessary to put strong heavy timber under the rail. The town supplies all the pipe, gaskett, etc., and the contractor has merely to do the work satisfactorily under the supervision of Mr. Best (chairman), A. McDougall, engineer, and Mr. Hill, inspector for the town.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the package at 50c. and $1

THEIR NEW HOME.

The Children of St. Andrew's Church Will Soon Enter Sunday School Rooms Remodelled, Enlarged and Renewed.

A congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church held early last spring, was unanimous on one move, and that was to enlarge and renovate their Sunday School rooms in order to find accommodation for the increasing attendance of the school, which under the superintendency, was in a flourishing condition. The Board of Managers soon after met, and after the plans had been agreed upon and the probable cost estimated—about $3,000—tenders were asked for and the contract awarded to Mr. T. Rutherford. Work was forthwith begun on the new structure and at present the building is complete in every particular. It is expected that the opening ceremonies will be held on Sunday, Nov. 6th, when Rev. J. Turnbull, M.A., pastor of the East Presbyterian church, has been invited to preach the dedicatory sermon. The new Sunday school rooms in their enlarged condition, brightened up with fresh paint, delicate tinting of walls, cathedral glass and well appointed class room present an appearance both exteriorally and interiorally that would induce any Sabbath-breaking child to attend school almost against its own will. The building is of white brick and bears an agreeable appearance with its fine architectural beauty, conveniently laid walks and velvet green sward all surrounded by a light airy fence. The new addition, with dimensions 90x30 was erected on the eastern side of the old rooms directly to the rear. The new addition consists of an adding to the main floor the spacious room of 900 square feet 30x20. There are two transepts, one containing the infant class room, and the other the Bible class room and two other rooms. The size of the former is 24x30, while the size of the Bible class room, taught by the pastor, Rev. A. MacWilliams, is 24x30, and the whole flooring space of the transept, 108. feet 46x30. In the way of enlarging there has also been built a fine brick vestibule 10x10, facing Kirk street, making the entrance easily attained. An addition to the shed some 36 feet has also been made. On entering the building from the southern door of the left annex the first room entered after stepping into a small porch, is the pantry, very convenient, and moving to the left is a stairway surrounded by a substantial maple baluster and leading to the ladies' parlour, 30x15 feet, on the second floor. This will be elegantly carpeted and upholstered, and here all the ladies' societies of the church will convene.

The next room on the main floor is the Bible class room separated from the main building by pretty curtains tastefully arranged. These can be drawn aside and the Bible class room size 30x25 feet area made to communicate with the main building. The next is the principal floor of the building, now 90 feet long by 30 feet wide. Its former size was 60x30. Here the intermediate classes will assemble. New chairs will be arranged in semi-circular form for the various classes. At the western end is a cloak room, formerly the infant class room, to the right of the front entrance and to the left is the library which has been fitted up with new shelving and cases in fine style. The northern annex is taken up with the infant class room each seat arranged a stage higher 30x18 feet. This department is separated from the main room by elevating doors, so arranged by weights that a touch of the fingers will raise or lower them. There is a door to the west of the room so that the little ones can be dismissed before the school and make an ezit without disturbing the others. All the adjoining rooms can be opened out in one large building capable of holding 500 people—admirable for lectures, entertainments, etc. There is a cellar 45x45 in which is situated the furnace. The place is well heated by a splendid combination of hot air and water. The building is well lighted by gas. The present membership of the school is 240, with the following officers: Rev. A. McWilliams, Superintendent; Mr. A. Hamilton, Assistant Superintendent; Mr. Wm. White, Sec.-Treas; Messrs. N. B. Scott and McWilliams, Librarians. All have now as fine quarters as could be desired by the best Sunday School in the Province.

Exhibition Pianos.

Two of the handsomest pianofortes ever brought into Peterborough will be on exhibition this week at the piano warerooms of Mr. J. W. Crosby, No. 404 George street. These instruments are from the well known piano factory of the Gerhard Heintzman Company, Toronto, and may be purchased at exceptionally low figures. For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

SILVERWARE!

THE lining from the cloud was dropped at CHINA HALL and has been manufactured into an immense collection of handsome and useful articles, such as Silver Tea Sets, Five O'clock Sets on Salvers, Tilting Jugs, Pudding and Entree Dishes, and dozens of dainty articles admirably adapted for Wedding Presents. We all know how hard it is to choose a suitable present for a man, but at CHINA HALL the difficultly is solved. How would a Blotting Roller do, with handle of Oxodized Silver, a Pack of Cards in a Silver Case, Silver Soap Boxes and Collapsion Cups for travelling, Letter Scales of delicate Filagree Silver, Calendars and Candlesticks for my gentlemen's own room, and quaint little Silver Tubs for matches. The only difficulty is which to choose amid such profusion—prices remarkably low. Our stock never showed such a variety in Bake-Dishes and handsome Side-Dishes, the latter having lock-handles on the lids, by removing the handle, instead of one dish, behold two. Nothing makes a dinner-table look handsomer than bright silver and cut glass—ask to be shown our stock of both and you will be surprised. Come in and look at our Triplicate Mirror in a Mahogany Frame, with Oxodized Silver backs—it would make a handsome present and as it is the only one in town there would be no danger of a duplicate. VERY MANY CASES DOCKETED

FOR THE FALL ASSIZES' WHICH OPEN ON MONDAY AFTERNOON.

The Crown Business Light—The Civil Docket Unusually Large—Fourteen Jury and Two Non-Jury Cases.

The annual fall assizes of Peterborough town and county will open at the court house here on Monday afternoon next at one o'clock before his Lordship the Hon. Mr. Justice Falconbridge. The number of civil cases docketed is the largest on record for years, comprising as it does fourteen actions entered for judgment before juries and two non-jury actions. The criminal calendar is small, consisting of three cases only, but they are of a rather serious nature, such crimes as counterfeiting, forgery and burglary coming up for the court to handle. Mr. D. B. Simpson, of Bowmanville, will be the Crown prosecutor.

In the civil docket there are four cases entered for seduction and one for breach of promise between two parties residing here. The remainder are of an ordinary nature and in the various cases in which actions are entered to recover damages the amounts sought are not very large.

Following is a complete list of the actions entered for trial, the statement of claims in each case, and the counsel engaged:

JURY CASES.

The jury cases comprise the following docket:

Carton vs. Bradburn. — An action brought by Michael Carton against T. Bradburn, to recover the sum of $3,000 damages for assault, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. This is a case which has been postponed from two assizes. At the spring assizes here the jury failed to agree on a verdict. E. B. Edwards, for plaintiff; Hatton & Wood for defendant.

Patiente vs. Cavanagh.—This is a case in which Timothy Patiente enters suit against Timothy Cavanagh to recover the sum of $501.47 for wages due him as bookkeeper and manager. Hatton & Wood, for plaintiff; A. P. Poussette, Q.C., for defendant.

Ennismore vs. John Young.— An action entered by the corporation of Ennismore township to recover possession of original allowance for road between lots 5 and 6 in the 7th concession of Ennismore. Hatton & Wood, for plaintiff; E. B. Edwards, for defendant.

Cavanagh vs. Dewart.—Wm. R. and Agnes Cavanagh, of Dummer, in this case sue John Dewart, of Dummer, to recover the sum of $4,000 for assault and battery committed upon the plaintiff's daughter, on or about 28th of July last. E. B. Stone, for plaintiff; John Burnham, Q.C., for defendant.

Hamilton vs. McKee.—The plaintiff, Adam Hamilton, of Manvers township, sues Thos. W. McKee, of Fenlon Falls, defendant, for $2,000 damages for the seduction of his daughter, alleged to have been committed in the month of June, 1890. J. A. V. Preston, Millbrook, for plaintiff; McIntyre & Stewart, Lindsay, for defendant.

The case of Mrs. Begley vs. Corporation of Ashburnham, was entered for trial but was settled as announced in yesterday's EXAMINER. E. A. Peck, for plaintiff, Stratton & Hall for defendant.

Armstrong vs. Colville—In this case Jas. Armstrong, of Laing, brings suit against Robert Colville, of Otonabee, for the sum of $4,000 for damages in connection with the seduction of the plaintiffs daughter, alleged to have been committed in Oct. 1890. John Burnham, Q.C., for plaintiff, E. B. Stone for defendant.

Wright vs. Lowry—This is an action entered by Miss Ettie Wright, of Peterborough, against Samuel W. Lowry, seeking the sum of $2,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage—made by the defendant in the month of May of the present year. In June the defendant married another woman, hence the action. John Burnham, Q.C., for plaintiff, C. W. Sawers, for defendant.

Switzer vs. Ellis. — Matthew W. Switzer, of Belmont, plaintiff, brings action against Wm. M. Ellis, of Belmont township and Gilmour Co., of Trenton, defendants, for damages (no amount named) for wrongfully entering the plaintiff's lands, cutting down his trees and carrying away timber therefrom, alleged to have been done on 14th Dec. 1891, and other dates. Edmison & Dixon for plaintiff; S. J. Young, Trenton, defendants.

Mason vs. Town of Peterborough.—In this case the plaintiff, W. J. Mason, seeks $1000 damages from the corporation for injuries received from negligence of defendants in keeping in proper repair a certain street in the town on Feb. 23rd, 1892. Dumble & Leonard for plaintiff; E. B. Edwards for defendant.

O'Leary vs. O'Grady.—Mrs. Bridget O'Leary, of Otonabee, enters suit for $3,000 damages, against John O'Grady, Otonabee, for the death of her husband, some time ago, caused by the injuries received by the defendant throwing him upon the track of the C. P. R., thereby causing him to be killed by a locomotive engine striking him. A. P. Poussette for plaintiff; Edmison & Dixon for defendants.

Finlay vs. Pope.—This is a case in which John J. Finlay, of Smith, brings action against John Pope of Bridgenorth, to recover $2,000 for the seduction of plaintiff's daughter in the fall of 1891. E. B. Stone, for plaintiff; A. P. Poussette, Q.C., for defendant.

Hartnett vs. Galvin—Patrick Hartnett, of Peterborough, enters action for damages to the amount of $5,000 against Garrett Galvin of Ennismore, defendant, for alienation of the plaintiff's wife's affections, trespassing on the plaintiff's premises, wrongfully taking away his goods and chattels, slander of the plaintiff's character and assault. C. W. Sawers, for plaintiff; Hatton & Wood for defendant.

Northon vs. Smith.—Thos. Norton of Peterboro' in this case sues Delabease Smith, of Cannington, as administrator of the estate for the late J. E. Smith, of Cannington. The amount of claim is $757.00 in promissary notes. E. B. Edwards for plaintiff, A. J. Reid, of Cannington, for defendant.

NON JURY CASES.

The following are the non jury cases entered for trial:—

Staples vs. MacDonald—The firm of Staples & Noble, of Bethany, enter suit against Thos. MacDonald, of Toronto, to recover damages for breach of contract, for the sale of a quantity of metal shingles and for breach of guarantee in respect to the same. John Burnham, Q.C., for plaintiff, Bain, Laidlaw & Kappelle, Toronto, for defendant.

Robson vs. Gaskin—In this case Julia Robson, of Otonabee, enters action against Peter Gillespie, Walter Robinson, executors of the estate of the late David Thompson, and six others, for specific performance of an agreement entered into in the month of November, 1875, for the sale by the late David Thompson to the plaintiff of part of lot 25, 13th concession of Otonabee. A. P. Pousette for plaintiff, Hall & Hayes for the defendants.

CROWN CASES.

The criminal calender as aforementioned is very small, and only three cases will come up for trial. The particulars of each case are still fresh in the minds of EXAMINER readers. They are as follows:

Queen vs. Gen. Calder, Ashburnham—In this case the defendant, Calder, was committed to gaol to stand his trial some weeks ago on the charge of breaking into and burglarizing the grocery store of C. H. Moore, Ashburnham in July, 1891.

Queen vs. Wm. Neil—In this case Wm. Neil, of Peterborough, was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Dumble in July last, charged with forging a time check belonging to one Wm. Liddle, an employe of the Rathbun Company, Deseronto. Neil was successful in getting the check cashed at the Ontario Bank. His crime was however soon discovered and Neil was arrested.

Queen vs. W. J. Young—The defendant who was let out on bail, his father going his surety, has, it is believed, absconded, and the case will not likely come off. Young alias F. C. Austin, was committed for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction in June last, charged with offering to sell counterfeit money. He rented box 766 in the Peterborough post office and was captured by Chief Roszel by means of a letter sent by Wm. Leeper, residing near Roseneath, and enclosing the sum of $10 for $100 worth of "green goods."

NEWS NUGGETS.

—A meeting to organize a checker club will be held at the C. P. R. Hotel on Monday night next. All lovers of "checkers and good whips" please attend.

—The West End Football club will play a match game with the Collegiate Institute club on the P. A. A. A. grounds to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock. A brisk brush is expected.

—The old rough cast houses moved from the Phelan lot adjoining the new Custom House, has reached its destination at last, and is permanently located on the corner of Aylmer and Perry streets.

—The Ingersoll Weekly Sun says:—"THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER has been decked out in a new dress and presents a fine appearance and a marked improvement, the print being distinct and easily read."

—The new additions to Mr. Matthew's pork packing establishment are progressing rapidly to completion. Carpenters are now placing the first course of joists in position and with all branches going on at once, things present a lively appearance.

—An extra gang of men employed by the C. P. R. were working yesterday at the station here. They are travelling along the main line by means of hand-cars cleaning up the track and trimming the ballast and fixing up the joints of the track. They are about 20 in number.

—Some prejudiced miscreant entered the fire station some time during last night, evidently by the front door, and with a sharp knife deliberately hocked one of the gray horse's tails by cutting off about a foot of hair. The act is a mean one, and as a result of it the looks of the fine horse are to a great extent marred.

—A trustee of the Apsley public school, Mr. Geo. W. Rose, teacher, recently went to the school during session. He carried in hand a snake whip seven or eight feet long and was in a towering fit of rage. The irate parent's mission was to thrash another boy soundly for abusing his son. However the teacher interfered in the boys behalf and succeeded in throwing oil upon the troubled waters before the culminatory point was reached.

—The recommendation of the special committee appointed at the annual meeting of the curling club, viz., the club be divided in two organizations for local purposes, and play as a unit with outside teams and in the Tankard competitions, and that each club elect its own secretary, chairman and executive committee, will be considered and discussed at a general meeting of the club to be called in a few days. There is no doubt that the report of the committee will carry unanimously. The recommendations of the committee's report seem to be very popular among the "throwers of the stone."

Little Points of Department.

She is one of the nicest girls who writes me. But she is a little mistaken about one thing. There is no necessity for apologizing for asking a question that concerns her and her manners. The people who never ask anything seldom know anything. Frequently our eyes educate us, but I can understand how a bright girl prefers to know how to do the right thing and not make any mistakes. Her questions are not trivial. One's behavior at the table is of great importance, for a person who does not know how to eat properly, frequently takes away the appetite of her neighbor, a something which one has no right to do. So I am going to answer all her questions, believing that there are other girls who, while equally anxious to know what is right, are yet not willing to make themselves interrogation points and ask.

About bread and butter. It is not proper to take a slice of bread, butter it and then bite off whatever you desire. Instead, break off a small piece of bread as you need it, butter it and eat it from your fingers. Radishes, olives, celery, asparagus, long-stemmed berries, and most all fruits are also eaten from the fingers. When you eat asparagus, have the dressing put on one side of your plate, take the stalk between your first finger and your thumb, dip the end of it into the dressing, and lay the part that is not eaten in a neat way at one side of your plate. The daintiest way to eat an orange is from a fork; that is, the skin and its coarse white lining are pared off with a sharp fruit knife, the orange is stuck on a fork and is eaten exactly as one would an apple Cheese may be taken between the fingers, or it may be put on a bit of bread with a knife, and eaten on that, but a fork is not used with it. Artichokes are, of course, eaten with the fingers, each leaf being dipped in the dressing.

All pastry is eaten with a fork, and it is an insult to the cook to touch it with a knife. In fact, your knife has no use except for cutting, or buttering something, and when it is resting it should be laid sideways on your plate. Every vegetable can be eaten with a fork, the uses of a spoon being limited to a few desserts and for your coffee or teacup, and there its place is to repose in the saucer. Bouillon is drunk from the cups in which it is served when it is jellied it is eaten with a dessert spoon. Nothing excuses the chasing of a small particle of something to eat around your plate to polish it up. The old idea that one must eat everything that is given to one no longer exists, and the result is that children are not made gluttons. In drinking, remember to hold your goblet or wine-glass by the stem, and not by the bowl. While watermelon is eaten with a fork, canteloupe has served with it a dessert spoon. As it is customary, nowadays, to have the salt served in open salt cellars, it may be mentioned that in helping one's self the salt should be put near the outer edge of one's plate. In leaving the table it is not necessary to fold your napkin; instead, just as you rise lay it on the table. I think I have answered all the questions of my interrogation point, and I applaud her for the asking what she would do when at the table.

The cow sets us an admirable example—she never blows her own horn.

"Where is Ethel?" "She is out breaking her engagement with Chollie Bronson."

THE POLITICAL PRISONERS.

Their Release to be Considered by the British Cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—At the Cabinet meeting to-day John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, will present proposals for the release of all the political prisoners in Ireland.

The ministerial decision on these proposals will involve the question of granting amnesty to all the men convicted of taking part in the dynamite outrages of a few years ago. The principal prisoners serving sentences under conviction of these charges are confined in English prisons.

The Conservative papers do not object to the release of the Fenians Mullen and Downing and the dynamiter J. F. Egan, who have served two-thirds of the time to which they were sentenced. Even Mr. Matthews, when he was Home Secretary, admitted that clemency might early be extended to these men. But the Government will not dare to face the consequences that would follow the release of Dr. Gallagher and the others concerned in causing the explosions in London. The Telegraph defies the Government to degrade the prerogative of mercy by releasing the human monsters who took part in these outrages.

Snow in Switzerland.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A despatch to The Standard from Lousanne says that snow has fallen abundantly in Switzerland and has stopped traffic on the Funicular Railway at Rocherdenaye where the employes are blockaded.

No flowery rhetoric can tell the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla as well as the cures accomplished by this excellent medicine.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMENT OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1888 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

"August Flower"

Mrs. Sarah M. Black of Seneca, Mo., during the past two years has been affected with Neuralgia of the Head, Stomach and Womb, and writes: "My food did not seem to strengthen me at all and my appetite was very variable. My face was yellow, my head dull, and I had such pains in my left side. In the morning when I got up I would have a flow of mucus in the mouth, and a bad, bitter taste. Sometimes my breath became short, and I had such queer, tumbling, palpitating sensations around the heart. I ached all day under the shoulder blades, in the left side, and down the back of my limbs. It seemed to be worse in the wet, cold weather of Winter and Spring; and whenever the spells came on, my feet and hands would turn cold, and I could get no sleep at all. I tried everywhere, and got no relief before using August Flower Then the change came. It has done me a wonderful deal of good during the time I have taken it and is working a complete cure." ©

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 25, 1892.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: fruit and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

A Decision That Is Unanimatory.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—M. Loubet, President of the Chamber of Deputies, to whom the Carmaux labor troubles were referred for arbitration, decides that Calvignac, mayor of Carmaux, whose discharge by the mining company was the cause of all the trouble, shall be taken back as a workman in the employ, but that leave of absence shall be granted to him throughout the term of his mayoralty. He also decides that the company shall reinstate all the striking miners except those who were convicted of rioting. The decision is unsatisfactory and will be discussed by the Chamber of Deputies tomorrow.

The Carmaux Mining Co. has accepted Premier Loubet's decision. The striking miners are disappointed at Premier Loubet's award, chiefly because all the rioters are not reinstated. At a general meeting held this evening it was decided to reject the award and to continue the strike. The action of the leaders in connection with the nominal vote by which the men's views were elicited is considered a most audacious piece of intimidation. The police and military officials met this evening and made arrangements for decisive action in the event of disorder arising.

British Markets for Our Food Products.

The English market is accessible. I shipped fresh made creamery butter from Woodstock, Ont., last week to Liverpool, for 55 cents per 100 pounds. It will have cold transit all the way, with no depreciation in quality. Can you send butter from your own place, twenty miles back from the city, to the market for less than half a cent per pound? From Woodstock to Liverpool it costs me 55 cents per 100 pounds. The market is permanent. There is an adequate demand. England is the largest importer of fruit products in the world. Then there is a fair chance in competition in the English market, and then there are not any tolls. John Brown lives in Oxford county. They have tolls in Oxford county. Another man, Tom Black, lives in Middlesex county, where there are no tolls. John Brown takes to market a ten pound basket of butter, and it costs him on the road two cents a pound for tolls. If the butter sells no dearer in Woodstock than in London the Middlesex butter-maker would have the better chance to make marketing butter pay—by at least the two cents per pound of toll money. England does not have any tolls on farm products.

Then there is discrimination of the keenest, sharpest kind. The English market will pay to-day for cheese from three cents up to seventeen cents a pound wholesale.—Discrimination! It will pay for butter from six cents to thirty-one cents.—Discrimination! That is the kind of a market I want. I do not want a market where everybody gets the same price, whether the quality be excellent or poor. The treatment tends to discourage the efforts of the people toward improvement in quality, which alone can give permanent success. Then there is the competition between buyers of the keenest kind. Napoleon a good while ago said, England was, "a nation of shop-keepers." If you have a nation of shop-keepers, they, for the sake of profit, will compete, and that competition will always push things to the very verge of maximum price. England has been called a nation of shop-keepers; she is a nation of shop-keepers and food consumers—shop-keepers to compete for, and food consumers to use what we have to sell. We are a nation of farmers, a nation of food producers. We have food to sell; they want food to buy; they have a good, ready, permanent demand, competition and fair play; I want to go there if they will treat me in that way.—Prof. Robertson, Dairy Commissioner.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

MURDERED H S MISTRESS

A CASE WHICH CAUSES A SENSATION IN BRUSSELS.

Had Effected an Insurance on Her Life for a Large Sum and Then Suffocated Her with Charcoal Fumes—The Crime Cunningly Devised and Carried Out—Great Interest in the Case.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 28.—A sensational trial has begun in this city, and is likely to last for several days. A Frenchman named Schmidt is accused of murdering, under peculiar circumstances. Schmidt, according to the evidence for the prosecution, paid devoted attention to a Belgian girl named Lucie Sossum, who lived in this city. He succeeded in winning the girl's affections and they lived together on terms of the closest intimacy. While they were thus living together Schmidt devised a plan both to get rid of the girl, of whom he had grown tired, and to obtain a fortune of 40,000 francs. Under some pretext he induced Lucie, who appears to have had entire confidence in him, to allow him to insure her life for 40,000 francs, he being the beneficiary named in the policies.

The next development in the case was the finding of the girl dead in a room, where she had been suffocated by charcoal fumes from the stove. The circumstances of her death were evidently intended, on the part of Schmidt, to convey the impression, not of suicide, but of accident. He so represented the case and hastened to apply for the insurance money. Suspicion was, however, aroused by the fact of Schmidt being the beneficiary, whereas it was evident that he had nothing to lose by the death of the girl. The authorities made an investigation and came to the conclusion that Schmidt had himself deliberately plotted to murder Lucie and had laid his plans with fiendish cunning, but not with sufficient cunning to prevent the plot from being unravelled by the police. He had induced the unsuspecting girl to retire and then deliberately started the fatal fumes, closing the apartment so as to make sure of the deadly effect. Schmidt was arrested.

His crime was committed in December last and the authorities have spared no effort meantime to strengthen the case against him, which has aroused an interest never before surpassed in this city by a merely criminal law.

A NEW CURE FOR CHOLERA.

The Death Rate in Hamburg Greatly Reduced By It.

HAMBURG, Oct. 28.—The marked abatement in the deaths from cholera here during the past few weeks is due to the use of periodate, a new remedy introduced by Dr. Richard Weaver, E.E.P.C.S., under the direction of Drs. Lauenstein and Stoecker, and others in the Seamen's Hospital. The remedy was previously tested in London on animals, and was backed up by the recommendations of Sir Edward Clarke and other eminent physicians, who held that periodate crystals dissolved and the solution injected under the patient's skin is quite harmless to human life. It is claimed that in the first stages of the disease 95 out of 100 persons can be saved. In the malignant form 75 per cent. of the patients can be saved. This remedy is said to be generally used here now for all maladies of microbic origin.

The Paris Fund.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The difference between the two sections of the Irish Parliamentary party over the Paris fund is at last on the verge of settlement. On Wednesday last Archbishop Croke sent £50 to the fund for the relief of evicted tenants, and in a letter accompanying his donation declared that the fund should be taken from the hands of the Paris bankers and confided to three honest men who are not connected with either side of the Irish controversy until an agreement as to its disposal should be concluded.

Timothy Harrington has signified that he unconditionally agrees to the Archbishop's suggestion and adds that he desires that Archbishop Croke be one of the three new trustees. If the McCarthyites agree to this proposition there will be little further trouble regarding the fund.

Resignation of An M.P.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.—Mr. Hugh McMillan is no longer member of Parliament for Vaudreuil. He resigned yesterday.

This result will involve another election in Vaudreuil county—the third within two years. Mr. H. S. Harwood, who was returned at the general election, will again most probably be the Liberal candidate.

Refused Arbitration.

CONCORD, N.H., Oct. 28.—The Concord branch of the Granite Cutters' National Union has rejected the offer of arbitration from the manufacturers. The cutters say there are no agreements between the cutters and manufacturers upon which arbitration can be based.

Sues For $10,000 Damages.

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 28.—Last fall George W. Fox of Leamington was appointed one of a delegation to go to England to look up a fortune of which it was alleged the Fox people were heirs. On the eve of his departure William Ward of London, who was Fox's creditor to the amount of $100, had him arrested. The case was settled, and now Fox sues Ward for $e0,000 damages.

Storm in the Channel.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A heavy gale swept over the Channel all day yesterday and during the night. The storm was particularly severe on the southeast coast of Ireland. The Channel steamers are greatly delayed. The steamer Jessie of Dundalk was driven on the Cleopatra rocks and several other vessels went ashore. Yesterday a severe wind and rainstorm prevails off the mouth of the Tyne. The schooner Resolute, while attempting to enter the harbor, was driven ashore. A tremendous sea was running and the schooner soon pounded her bottom out. The schooner Annie of Liverpool was wrecked in Strangford Lough, Ireland, and her crew of six men were drowned.

Owing to the gale and the dense fog prevailing in the Irish Channel the steamer City of New York, which sailed from Liverpool yesterday, was unable to call at Queenstown. She simply signalled Roche's Point and proceeded without stopping to take aboard passengers and mails. There were 16 saloon and 20 second-class passengers and 17 mail bags waiting for her. The gale in the Irish Channel is blowing with unabated violence and the Irish steamers are several hours late. Many minor casualties have been reported.

A Liverpool pilot who took out the City of New York remains aboard the steamer, having been unable to land on account of the rough weather. The passengers remaining at Queenstown are complaining loudly of the City of New York's failure to take them, some being separated from relatives who embarked at Liverpool. These passengers will be obliged to wait for the Cunard steamer Aurania, which will leave Queenstown on Sunday next.

The Teutonic's Stormy Passage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Teutonic left quarantine this morning and passed up to her dock, after one of the stormiest voyages from Liverpool she ever encountered. It was reported this morning that two of the cabin passengers had become insane as a result of the stormy weather.

TANGIBLE TOKEN OF GOOD WILL.

Mr. A. N. Clark Cased by the Central Bridge Works Employees.

For nearly five years past Mr. A. N. Clark has been the efficient and obliging pay clerk and book keeper of the Central Bridge Works, and on his severing his present connection, the employees of the works felt that they could not let the opportunity pass without expressing in a tangible manner their esteem and respect for him. Mr. Clark was last evening invited to a spread at the establishment of Mr. M. Jamieson, which partook of the nature of an oyster supper. Here about forty employees of the works gathered early in the evening, and together with Mr. Clarke spent a pleasant time discussing the bivalves. After all appetites had been satisfied, the toast list was begun. Mr. A. E. Caddy, draughtsman, occupied the chair, and on his right was seated Mr. Clarke, the guest of the evening, and on his left Mr. Price, the manager of the works. Mr. R. M. Roy, shipping clerk, occupied the vice-chair. While the toast list was being carried out, Mr. Frank Hamilton and Mr. Geo. Baker stepped up to Mr. Clarke on a very pleasant mission. Mr. Hamilton read the address and Mr. Baker made the presentation of a fine ebony gold-headed cane supplied by Messrs. Clarke & Gibson, and on it were inscribed the words: "Presented to A. N. Clarke by the employees of Central Bridge Works, Peterborough, Oct. 28th, 1892." The following is a copy of the address presented:

MR. CLARK:

DEAR SIR,—As the tidings of your departure from our midst have come to our knowledge, it is with pleasure, mingled with feeling of regret that we assemble here this evening, being aware of the valuable service you have rendered our worthy employer for a number of years as pay clerk and bookkeeper, and also the courteous and straightforward manner in which you have dealt with us as employees, oft exerting yourself more than your duty required. On our behalf and that of our employer, we cannot allow this occasion to pass without notice. We therefore avail ourselves of this opportunity to express to you the esteem in which you are held by us. As a slight token we beg your acceptance of this walking cane. We sincerely wish you many enjoyable years to carry it and hope that the day is far distant when you will require its assistance.

Signed on behalf of the employees of Central Bridge Works.

GEO. BAKER,
FRANK HAMILTON.

Mr. Clark made a feeling reply, thanking the men for their kindness. He accepted it in the spirit in which he knew it to be given—that of hearty good will. He had always found the men faithful and true friends and their kindness would never be obliterated from his memory. Songs, toasts and short speeches made a delightful evening until a late hour.

A MOTHER'S OPINION.

"My baby girl was very sick during the past summer, and the doctor told us that it was almost impossible to save her.

"Diarrhœa had reduced her very much, and for days she lay in her cot helpless and weak. I fortunately read about your Lactated Food and at once determined to try one can for baby.

"Two or three days after feeding it to baby, I noticed an improvement. She gained strength and slept naturally. The food agreed with her stomach, and she seemed to like it.

"For a month, Lactated Food was the only nourishment I gave baby; and, to-day, I am happy to say that my baby girl is bright, strong and happy. I wish I could talk to every mother in Canada who has a sick infant; I am sure I could show them the advantages of your food."—FROM A MOTHER'S LETTER.

NEILL QUITE COLLECTED.

IT IS DENIED THAT HE HAS MADE A CONFESSION.

He is Alive, However, to the Disposition of Disposing of Whatever Furniture He Owns or Rather Fresh Wax Cloth, His Clothes, But He is Holding Out for High Rates.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Associated Press representative has authority to state that Neill, since the sentence of death was passed upon him, has breathed not a word of confession and has proffered no statement whatever relating to his guilt or innocence. Neill is regularly attended in his cell by the Protestant chaplain attached to the Newgate Prison. He treats the chaplain courteously and listens to his admonitions with respect, but otherwise keeps an absolute reserve.

Solicitor Waters had an interview with Neill yesterday on business matters. Neill was perfectly wide awake regarding the disposal of whatever funds exist or can be raised for his benefit. The offers received from many quarters to purchase Neill's clothes, especially the suit which he wears at the time of execution, remain open. No bargain has yet been struck, the prisoner apparently waiting for increased competition. Neill's sang-froid is declared by those in contact with him to be absolute.

LOSS OF A BRITISH STEAMER.

The Roumania, Plying Between Liverpool And Bombay, Wrecked.

LISBON, Oct. 29.—The British steamer Roumania is reported wrecked at the mouth of the Arelho River, near Poniche. It is said that 100 passengers and all of the crew were drowned. The Roumania was an iron screw steamship of 3387 tons belonging to the Anchor Line, and plying between Liverpool and Bombay. She sailed from Liverpool for Bombay on Oct. 22.

Poniche, near where the Roumania is reported to have been wrecked, is a fortified town of Portugal, on the Atlantic Ocean, about 60 miles north of the mouth of the Tagus.

The report of the loss of the Roumania is confirmed. A later despatch says that 113 persons were drowned and only nine were saved.

The Roumania had 55 passengers aboard, together with a crew numbering 67.

The nine persons saved from the wreck have been given shelter in a hospital in the neighborhood of Poniche.

The Roumania's captain and pilot are among the lost. Large quantities of wreckage are washing ashore along the neighboring coast.

Heavy Rains in England.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—According to reports from the midland counties rain has been falling continuously in different sections of that region for from 24 to 50 hours. Thousands of acres in West Norfolk are submerged and the potato and other crops are rotting in the field. The thermometer has risen 30 degrees in 48 hours.

Morris Declined the Honor.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Chronicle yesterday announced that the Post Laureateship has been offered to William Morris, and that he has declined the honor.

A HAPPY FAMILY DISTURBED.

Had the Prosecution of Col. Ray Anything to do With It?

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—For many years past the officials of the Ontario Government at Port Arthur have led a cat and dog life. Charges and counter charges have been preferred against various officials, and in all of these the Crown Attorney and Clerk of the Peace of the district, Mr. A. R. Lewis, has figured as complainant. It began to be suspected by the Government that if Mr. Lewis ever wore "the mark of the beast" the sign manual was becoming obliterated. When the charges against Colonel Ray were made by Mrs. (Dr.) Bathurst the zeal and persistency with which the Crown Attorney prosecuted them aroused the ire of the friends of the Colonel, who saw in his action a species of persecution. Mr. J. Commee, M.L.A., the surety of the Colonel, and one of his staunchest defenders, was naturally wrath, and the pressure which he brought to bear on the Government has resulted in this announcement:

A commission has been issued to Thomas A. Gorham, barrister, Port Arthur, as Crown Attorney and Clerk of the Peace for the district of Thunder Bay, in the room and stead of A. R. Lewis, Q.C., resigned.

Mr. Lewis, it is understood, will remove to Toronto to practice his profession.

SUIT AGAINST MISS MATHER.

Action Against the Well-Known Actress for a Tuition Bill.

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—The master in chambers yesterday made an order shortening the time for appearance and defence by the defendant in the suit brought by the Sisters of Loretto Abbey against Miss Margaret Mather. Miss Mather is the actress who two seasons ago broke her engagement with the Academy and played at the Grand, and was sued for breach of contract. While in Toronto Miss Mather made an arrangement with the Sisters of Loretto, so they claim for the board and tuition of her nieces, the Misses Mayhew, and now refuses to pay for the same. The amount claimed is $393.92.

THE LADY SUCCESSFUL.

Miss Clara Brett Martin at Last Enters Law.

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—The benchers of the Law Society were hard-hearted and refused to admit Miss Martin to the practice of law. The master in chambers, however, has proved himself more generous, for when applied to a few days ago he at once made an order allowing a plaintiff to amend his writ by adding Miss Martin as a party defendant. Every defendant in this country has the right to appear personally and defend an action.

The Cheese Champion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Lasker to-day completed his second round of the series of matches at the Manhattan Chess Club, his opponent being J. W. Baird. After a struggle of 55 moves, Lasker scored his tenth consecutive victory. The winner's score up to date is 15 games won, 1 lost and 1 drawn.

The Pope Is Well.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 29, 1892.

THE INSPECTORSHIP.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—For eight months the Board of Education have been trying to bring about a change which, in the opinion of the majority, would insure greater efficiency in our public schools; but, so far, a faction, numerically insignificant, headed by Mr. D. W. Dumble, and assisted by a partisan chairman, have succeeded in preventing the attainment of this very desirable object.

The public schools are the most important part of our whole educational machinery. In them begins and ends the scholastic training of most of the people of this country. Were the public school curriculum carried out in its entirety, the merchant, the manufacturer and the artisan could receive in them an education sufficient for their purpose. Not only is this the case, but on the training which they receive in the public schools depends the success of those who avail themselves of the advantages of our higher institutions of learning.

The appointment of an efficient head master in the Collegiate Institute has placed that institution on a level with the very best schools in the Province.

I do not know upon what grounds Mr. Dumble grounds his claims to all the honour for the very fortunate selection, but I am quite willing to let all the credit rest with him, if he will only join with us in our efforts to place the public schools in the same state of efficiency.

The difficulty, in the past, in our Collegiate Institute was the want of a COMPETENT AND EFFICIENT HEAD MASTER.

That difficulty has been overcome by the appointment of Mr. [illegible] as the Collegiate Institute is concerned, remains to be done by the board.

Now, the majority of the board are anxious to do for the public schools, which are of greater importance to the town than the Collegiate Institute, as nearly as possible what Mr. Dumble claims to have done for the High School.

We have, nominally, it is true, a head master of public schools, but it is only nominally. Mr. Smith is an earnest and painstaking teacher; and considering the character of the teaching in some of the lower forms, is showing excellent results of his work. But no one will claim that it is possible for Mr. Smith, or any other teacher, to do justice to his own class and supervise the work of the other twenty-five teachers in town.

No one, acquainted with with educational work, will believe that the present Inspector has accomplished for our schools all that Mr. Dumble claims for him. There was no desire on the part of the majority to do anything against Dr. Tilley; but since Mr. Dumble has taken such pains to sound his praises I may be permitted to say that the majority of the members of the board do not agree with him in his estimate of the Doctor's ability, or the services has rendered to our schools. What I say that during the four years that Dr. [illegible] has been in the employ of the board he [illegible] mended one important or beneficial change, I believe I shall be borne out by facts, and by the opinions of most of the members of the board.

Dr. Tilley

NEVER COMES OUT BOLDLY AND SQUARELY

and recommends anything. He is simply a trimmer, who is chiefly desirous of retaining his position and securing situations for favourites, while he tries in an indirect way to bring about the dismissal of one, at least, of the ablest teachers on the Public School staff.

But let us suppose for argument, that the few short visits which Dr. Tilley pays to our schools during the year have brought about such wonderful results as Mr. Dumble asserts they have, is it not clear that the supervision of a resident Inspector, as able as Mr. Dumble believes Dr. Tilley to be, who could devote his whole time to directing, assisting and encouraging the teachers and pupils, and advising and giving information to the Board, would bring about a still better condition of affairs?

The truth is that Mr. Dumble's opinions on the condition of the schools are worthless, because he knows nothing of the subject whereof he speaks. He has a trick of giving his opinions on every subject in such a way as to impress those who do not know him well with the idea that he is wiser and more honest than others. He, in fact, asserts that the present contest is one of intelligence against numbers, and clearly implies in his letter to the public that it is one of honesty against dishonesty.

Mr. Dumble gives the results of the last departmental and promotion examinations of our schools, and of the improvements brought about by Dr. Tilley. Let us examine this question for a short time and see whether these statements are consistent with facts. I shall, of course, confine my attention to the Public Schools, as the Collegiate Institute is not under consideration.

AS A PROOF OF THE PRESENT EFFICIENCY

The promotion examination papers are made out by Dr. Tilley, and not, as Mr. Dumble seems to think, by the Department. When Dr. Tilley received the appointment of Inspector of Peterborough, and succeeded an abler and honester man than himself, he spoke in the disparaging terms of the condition of our schools. He hoped, forsooth, to place them on a level with Millbrook schools. This course of depredation was pursued, more or less, until the commencement of the present agitation, when Dr. Tilley suddenly discovered that the schools, under his able (?) management, had become second to none in the province. The suddenness of the change was somewhat remarkable, and was commented on at the time by the teachers. Now it remained for the doctor to prove that the schools were in the very satisfactory condition he represented them to be. The first step was to lessen the honour mark so that a larger number could receive honours. The next to do was to prepare papers that would not be too trying to the youthful understandins. I believe it is the opinion of the teachers that the papers for the last promotion examinations and in some cases at least, the examiners were instructed not to be too severe in looking over the papers.

Another instance of his kindness (?). Whether those statements are true or not, and I believe they are true, the public will easily see how an inspector, who has the promotion examinations wholly, and the entrance examination partly, under his control, can so manage them as to secure to himself credit which he does not merit. The papers for high school entrance are set in Toronto, but the answers are examined here by Dr. Tilley, and examiners appointed by him.

The teachers who have charge of the entrance classes are earnest, hard working men. They have the work divided, a measure opposed by Dr. Tilley, after the same system as prevails in the high schools. Some of the teachers from whom they immediately receive their pupils are faithful and efficient. They have sole control of these pupils for a year, and teach with the fear of the examination constantly before their eyes. Is it any wonder, then, that such men, under such circumstances, should make a respectable showing at an entrance examination?

They would, of course, pass a large percentage of their classes in spite of the defective training in the junior forms. By persistent effort the strain is kept up until the entrance examination is over, and then the begin to manifest themselves.

The High School teachers who teach in the First Form could give Mr. Dumble some valuable information on this subject; or better still, let Mr. Dumble take opinions of some of the professional and business men of the town who have found it necessary to employ any of those boys or girls.

But, is it true that the result of the last Entrance examination proves that our schools are in the very satisfactory condition, Mr. Dumble and Dr. Tilley would have us believe they are? The total number of pupils on the public schools registers last year was 1,640, of these 49, or 3 per cent. passed the entrance. Does Mr. Dumble or any one else pretend that this showing is satisfactory.

The number who passed the last Entrance examination does not show such decided improvement in the work done in our schools since the appointment of Dr. Tilley. The records of the past examinations will, I think, show that good work has been done all along in the Entrance classes. The fact is that the years 1891-2 is away below that of many former years.

I have shown these examinations are largely controlled by the Inspector, and it was clearly in the power, and in the interest, of Dr. Tilley, to manage them as to appear that the schools under his guidance were rapidly increasing in efficiency. Having had considerable experience in public school work I may be permitted to know as much as Mr. Dumble of the benefits of school inspection, that such supervision as our schools have received from Dr. Tilley is almost worthless.

AND I CONFIDENTLY ASSERT

Mr. Dumble appeals to the people to support him in his policy of obstruction on the grounds of economy. Does anyone believe that he is sincere in this? Has he ever been found advocating economy in High School matters?

The fact is Mr. Dumble would like to be aristocratic. The Public Schools are the poor man's college. They are quite too insignificant to enlist the sympathy of a great man like Mr. Dumble. He would keep the Public Schools in their present condition of inefficiency lest they should in any degree enter into competition with the Institute. He would economize in Public School affairs in order that he may have more money to spend in his pet institutions. He is a strong advocate of high fees for the Institute in the lower forms to town pupils in order to shut out the children of the poor from the benefits of a higher education.

By one of his usual tricks he tried to prevent the discussion of the question of lowering the fees in the junior forms, though the present system is obviously unjust.

But Mr. Dumble is aristocratic and exclusive. He would reserve the good things of life for the rich. If [illegible] sufficient home [illegible] for the masses that they be [illegible] to the wants of so great a man.

No one can value more highly than I do the nor does any one contribute more willingly to the support of our Collegiate Institute. But I cannot close my eyes to the fact that these benefits are for the few only, while the great masses of the people must be satisfied with the education afforded by our public schools.

Now, while such large sums are voted ungrudgingly to give a higher education to the few, is it too much to ask for a very moderate increase in expenditure to render more efficient the institutions in which the many must receive the only educational training within their reach.

The appointment of a competent Head Master in the Collegiate Institute has brought about the most satisfactory results. Let us now try what the appointment of a real head for the public schools will accomplish for them. We have no fault to find with the present Head Master, but it is useless to expect him to supervise and direct the work of twenty-five teachers while the entrance classes require his constant attention.

Mr. Dumble's assertion that the present Inspector is fulfilling the duties prescribed by the board is utterly unfounded. To properly discharge those duties would require his whole time. How is it possible for him to properly discharge his duties as Inspector for Port Hope, Bowmanville, and the whole county of Durham, and at the same time exercise constant supervision over the schools of the town of Peterborough.

But, even if Dr. Tilley could give sufficient time to our schools, it is pretty clear to the majority of the board that he is not the man we want. The tenacity with which he holds on to his present position, against the express wishes of the board, is, in itself, a sufficient reason for getting rid of him. His conduct towards the teachers is not such as to secure their confidence or respect, while the feeling of many of the pupils towards him is one of positive dislike.

Mr. Dumble appeals to the people to sustain him. Will Mr. Dumble test public opinion on this question by resigning his position and appealing to the people in any ward in the town at the next trustee election? I don't think he will try the experiment. Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space, I am,

Yours truly,
W. H. HILL.

AMOS ROBINSON.

THOUSANDS KNOW HIM!

GENIAL AMOS ROBINSON SPEAKS CLEARLY AND FORCIBLY!

Scores of Brockvillians can Make Similar Statements—Interesting Facts for the Consideration of all Canadians!

Brockville, famed for its beautiful situation on the grand and mighty St. Lawrence, enjoys a well-earned reputation as a summer resort, Travellers, seeking for rest and quiet from the hurry and bustle of large cities, and those wishing to get rid of the corroding cares of life, can spend a season in Brockville or its environ with much profit and pleasure.

Chief amongst business men in Brockville, who have assisted in making the town a favorite resort for tourists, is Mr. Amos Robinson, the genial and kind-hearted proprietor of St. Lawrence Hall.

Mr. Robinson has for many years catered successfully to American and Canadian visitors. His well-managed hotel enjoys a popularity for all true home comforts, and when once visited, it afterwards is remembered in a pleasant and kindly way.

Mr. Robinson, though a veteran in the business of hotel-keeping, does not remain idle and inactive Although blessed with good and efficient help in every department, he is continually planning for the comfort of his guests, and ever anxious for their welfare.

When such work is well and efficiently performed it often means neglect of rest, sleep and proper physical exercise. Worry, bustle and overwork to the model hotel proprietor, often results in serious and distressing physical troubles.

The keen and progressive business man, unless he is guarded and careful, will surely suffer from the effects of overwork of body and brain. The common ailments peculiar to such men are: general debility, dyspepsia, indigestion, sleeplessness, nervousness and headaches.

Mr. Robinson had the misfortune last spring to suffer some of the penalties which swiftly come to those who neglect the great principles of health and rest. He was reduced to a very feeble condition; his stomach and digestive organism refused to work properly.

This condition of health Mr. Robinson could not bear; matters assumed a serious aspect, and for a time the future looked gloomy and dark. The cloud of gloom, however, soon passed, and a bright silvery ray of light shone forth in great purity, disclosing the talismanic words, "Paine's Celery Compound."

Mr. Robinson had heard his friends speak of nature's great restorer; he had read of wonderful cures effected by it—indeed some of his best friends had used it with grand results, and now the important question was: "Shall I use it in my present trouble and distresses?"

It did not take long to decide; Mr. Robinson had a strong faith in Paine's Celery Compound, and at once determined to test its curing powers. He was not disappointed; his recovery was quick and sure, and all his friends were agreeably surprised.

This wonderful and effective preparation will produce the same good work for you, suffering reader. It matters not how obstinate your case is, or how long you have been languishing and suffering. Do not despair if your doctor has pronounced your case as hopeless. We offer you a mightier and stronger hope than any physician can how. Hundreds have been rescued who were in a more desperate condition. Will you accept the offered medium of new life?

St. Lawrence Hall, Brockville, Ont. July, 4th, 1892.

Messrs. Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal:

GENTLEMEN,—In the early spring months of the present year, I was reduced to a very feeble state of health, from loss of appetite, consequent upon a run-down condition of general health.

Feeling the importance of taking active measures for recovery, I decided to try the much-talked-of remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. I am now pleased to inform you, that by the faithful use of your Compound for a short time, I was wholly restored, as far as general health is concerned.

At present my stomach is in fine condition, my appetite good, and the taking of my regular meals is no longer a burden.

It gives me pleasure to speak so highly of Paine's Celery Compound, and to recommend it to all my friends.

Yours with respect,
A. ROBINSON.

In previous issues of this paper, it was announced that special arrangements had been made to supply the needs of all who were not in a position to procure Paine's Celery Compound.

In a quiet but effective way, the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound have spread joy and gladness in many homes, where disease and suffering once held sway.

Many a worthy man and woman who could not pay for medicine or the services of a physician, have been restored to new life and health through supplies of the great Compound sent free by the proprietors. This work has given the manufacturers of Paine's Celery Compound more pleasure and satisfaction, than the shipping of a car load to some druggist in the Dominion.

No poor and worthy sufferer need be without this life-giving medicine. A letter from a Clergyman, Mayor, Reeve, Justice of the Peace or Postmaster, testifying to the character and standing of the applicant will be sufficient to warrant a supply being sent on for the relief of the sufferer.

Address the Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

St. John's Church Anniversary.

To-morrow St. John's Church will keep its Dedication Festival. The church was reopened in its present beauty ten years ago from next Tuesday, All Saints' Day. The special services to-morrow will be of a musical and festival character. Sermons will be preached appropriate to the occasion by the Rev. G. W. Webb, who has been lately appointed to Colborne. There will be a special offertory during the day, being the congregation's fourth united effort to reduce the heavy debt incurred in 1882. Much enthusiasm has characterized the three former semi-annual efforts made for this purpose, by which the debt has been already reduced from $11,150 to $7,100. No doubt each member of the congregation will to-morrow do what they can to lessen this last amount and thereby increase the general efficiency of the church.

Dominion W.C.T.U. Week of Prayer.

The meeting will be held in the hall now occupied by the Union in the Opera House building, first floor. The morning from 10.30 o'clock until noon will be devoted to a consecration and prayer service, and a time of great spiritual refreshment is expected. In the afternoon from 3.30 to 5 o'clock the subjects for thought and prayer will be more particularly the work now being done by the W. C. T. U. Collections will be taken to aid in the extension of woman's temperance work in the Northwest. Several addresses will be delivered by ladies of the town, including Miss Code of Hazel Brae, both morning and afternoon. The public generally is most cordially invited to attend these meetings.

A SOLDIER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Death of Sergeant Billings.

Sergt. C. Billings, a familiar figure in military circles in Peterborough, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Campbell, who resides at Auburn, at 8 o'clock this morning. His sudden demise was due to heart disease, his illness only being of one or two days duration. He was in his 75th year, and was born in Eton village, near Windsor, Eng. Together with his wife and family of eleven children he came to Canada in 1857. He settled in Haliburton, for a short time, and then removed to Peterborough where he has since lived. Mr. Billings leaves a family of several grown up children; his son George who resides on Murray street and Mrs. Campbell of Auburn. Two sons, Leonard and Charles reside in Rochester, Thomas in Toronto and Fred in Hespeler. Two married daughters, one Mrs. Taylor, who is the wife of Taylor, the noted comedian, reside in England. Sergt. Billings had a long military career, beginning his soldiering as far back as 1837. He joined the Seventh Foot Imperial Regiment in Guernsey and went to Gibraltar. After serving with the regiment in the West Indies he was transferred to the Seventh Hussars in 1838 and came to Montreal. He went back to England in 1842 and in 1853 was discharged. He came to Canada and shortly after joined the 57th Batt., Peterborough Rangers. After two year's service he was transferred to Peterborough troop of cavalry, of which he was a member until his death. Sergt. Billings was orderly to Lieut.-Col. H. C. Rogers, commander "C" Troop of Cavalry for twenty years, and always encamped with the troop every year. He was also for several years drum major of the 57th Battalion Band. The funeral will take place from the residence of his daughter Mrs. John Campbell, near Smith street bridge, on Monday afternoon at three o'clock to Little Lake cemetery. The 57th Batt. will furnish a band and firing party of 13 men. "C" Troop of Cavalry will also attend in a body.

He Goes to the Central.

The case of Harry W. Elliott who was arrested in Peterborough a few days ago on a warrant received from Chief Rankin, Cobourg, and taken to Cobourg, came up for trial at the Fall Assizes there yesterday. He was sentenced by His Lordship to 23 months in the Central Prison. Mr. E. B. Stone defended the prisoner. The crime for which Elliott was convicted was breaking a bonded car at Cobourg in April last and stealing a quantity of patent medicine. Mr. Stone also defended another man charged with larceny.

Uncle Hiram.

In Uncle Hiram a railroad train 200 feet long crosses the stage in 10 seconds. It is a great piece of stage mechanism, though not more wonderful than the sawmill and steam boiler explosion in Act 2. A competent company, headed by Aaron H. Woodhull, and the sweet singer and dancer, Miss Troja Griswold, portray the various characters well. Uncle Hiram is a strong American play of the present times, and its scenes are laid in New York city and the hills of Vermont. The company carries all its own scenery, and will be the attraction at the Opera House, Monday, Oct. 31st.

There is no secret or patent in the production of "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. It could be produced by any manufacturer, but no manufacturer could make it pay at that price unless he could buy on a large scale and sell on a large scale. He could not sell below the present price without a loss, even if he could purchase on the most advantageous terms. To get a large market, therefore, without which he would have no inducements to go on, would be the work of many years. That is the reason why Messrs. Tuckett & Son have the command of the market, and they are wise enough to know that they can retain it only by keeping the price down to hard pan figures.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.

Mr. W. B. Ferguson Succumbs to an Apoplectic Seizure.

It is the painful task of the EXAMINER to record the sudden death of Mr. W. B. Ferguson, which took place at his residence, 403 Stewart street, Yesterday morning Mr. Ferguson was down town and returned to his office at the Rathbun Company's agency. Near noon he felt so badly that he went home, which he reached in a very weak condition and had hardly got into the house when, stricken with apoplexy of the congestive type, he became unconscious and helpless, and continued in this condition, in spite of the best medical attention, till about 7.30 when death closed the scene. Mr. Ferguson has not been in robust health for some time past, but his friends did not anticipate the awful suddenness of his demise, which proved so severe a shock to both them and the general public to whom his name has been familiar for over half a century. The deceased gentleman was of Irish descent. He was a native of Peterborough, the son of the late Frederick Ferguson, Esq., who was one of the pioneer citizens of Peterborough. At an early age he became connected with the Midland Railway, of which his late father was a prominent promoter, and continued in that employment for years, rising from one prominent position to another till he became superintendent. This position he held till the amalgamation of the Midland with the Grand Trunk. About two years after he assumed the position of manager of the Rathbun Company's agency here, and continued its duties to the day of his death, almost literally leaving the office for his death bed. About twenty years ago Mr. Ferguson married Miss Lynn, of Port Hope, whom with two sons he leaves, to mourn his loss. Mr. Ferguson was a gentlemen of decided character, upright and straightforward in his dealings, and worthy of the high respect in which he was held. He was at the time of his death a representative of No. 3 Ward in the town council. The funeral, which will be private, takes place on Sunday morning.

FORESTERS' SUCCESSFUL CONCERT.

Court Peterborough Presents an entertaining Programme—Highly Appreciated by a Large House—Dr. Stanley's Brief but Comprehensive Address.

Just as everybody expected, Court Peterborough, No. 29, Canadain Order of Foresters scored their annual signal success last night. Their concert was a success in every way—there was a large house which received the excellent programme presented with much favour. There were seated upon the stage the following Past Chief Rangers: Bro. A. McFarlane, Bro. A. D. Russell, Bro. A. Carpenter, Bro. F. J. Jameson, Member High Court Executive; H. W. Watson, P.D. D. H.C.R., Bro. R. Robertson, R. Q. Dench, D.D.H.C.R. Court Lakefield, Lakefield, W. Robinson, C. R., and of course Dr. Stanley of the Medical Board. The chair was occupied by Bro. H. Nesbitt, D.D.H.C.R., who made a few introductory remarks, thanking, on behalf of Court Peterborough, the large number present, for their attendance. He regretted that Bro, Britton, of Gananoque, would not be with them owing to the death of a relative. He then introduced the first number on the programme, a well rendered selection (Mandolin Serenade) by Butcher's orchestra, which was followed by the singing in good voice by Mr. A. E. Tilley, choirmaster of St. Andrews, of "The Brave Sentinel." A pianoforte duet, "La Chasse," was well performed by Misses McFarlane and Ketcham. Miss Fawcett sang Pinsiuti's "White Wings" in such an excellent manner as to deserve the hearty encore to which she responded with "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon." Mr. Hiller's humourous song "Could I Only Back the Winner" earned him a recall, to which he sang "George McGee." Bro. Dr. U. M. Stanley, chairman of the Medical Board, Canadian Order of Forresters, followed with a brief address. After a few good natured remarks the speaker said he accepted with pride the title the chairman had given him, "Father of Canadian Forestry," and whose chief justification was that he had moved the resolution of secession from the Independent Order, which was the origin of the Canadian Order, which started with nineteen courts and a membership of 400; and now after thirteen years of prosperous existence had four hundred courts and a membership of 15,000. In that time it had been paid out in sick and funeral benefits the sum of $600,000 and had gladdened the hearts of widows and orphans by paying $400,000, representing the insurance the order provided members for the benefit of their wives and families when the bread-winner was removed. The Canadian Order of Foresters presented a society equal to any society in this or any other country for the benefits of insurance and in case of sickness. He went on to explain that the membership age ranged from 18 to 45 years, and the monthly dues from 60 cents to $1.00 per month according to age. Provision was made for either $1,000 or $2,000 insurance. The Order had a surplus of $212,000 perfectly secured by bonds three times the amount. The Order had their $50,000 surety deposited with the Government and in all respects there was ample security. He invited those who contemplated insuring to study the claims of the Foresters, whose financial standing was solid and whose membership included the most thrifty, honest and industrious class of citizens. He concluded his address by inviting those wishing good and cheap insurance to join one of three courts of the Order in Peterborough—the banner Forestry town of the Dominion. (Cheers.) The next number on the programme was the excellently sung vocal solo "The Bells of Lynn," with flute obligato, by Miss Tivey, to which succeeded a pianoforte solo, "Whispers of Erin," very finely performed by Miss Dineen. Mrs. Green sang with excellent taste and expression, the song, "What the Years may Bring." The pianoforte duet by the tiny Misses Stevens and Brown was exceedingly well performed. Many an adult player might have been proud of playing as well. For their age their execution was remarkable. Miss Harris sang "To-morrow will Do" so well that she was rewarded with an encore and gave very sweetly, "When the Dew-drops Fall." Miss Lily Jackson's singing (with flute obligato by Mr. Butcher) of the difficult selection "Von Dir" was well done. Her tones were sweet and her mastery of the vocal difficulties of the song easy and unconstrained. She deserved the warm applause her song received. Mr. Tilley appeared again to excellent advantage in the song "The Landlord's Daughter." Miss Hall and Miss Wrighton performed the pianoforte duet, the "Uhlare's Call" very creditably indeed. The closing number of the programme, the vocal duet, "Love and Friendship," sung by Mrs. Green and Miss Fawcett, was a decided musical treat, the blending of their voices giving a very pleasing effect. "God Save the Queen" sung by the company brought a very successful entertainment to a close.

Mrs. T. Dunn played the most of the accompaniments in her usual excellent style. Miss Butcher and Mr. Armstrong also played some of the accompaniments acceptably.

The pianoforte used on the occasion was an Evans, kindly loaned by Messrs. Jackson & Co.

..IE STRIKE AT CARMAUX.

It is Believed That the Trouble Will End in Bloodshed.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 324 to 198 rejected a motion to grant amnesty to the convicted Carmaux rioters. It also rejected by a vote of 309 to 90, after a full discussion invited by the Government, a motion to withdraw the troops now at Carmaux.

In an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, M. Marcere, a former Minister of the Interior, declared that the strikers' rejection of M. Loubet's award was the first act of practical Socialism that had occurred in France. The weakness of the Government and the apathy of the Chamber of Deputies had encouraged the Socialists.

M. Marcere further commented upon the situation growing out of the strike and declared that the trouble was now almost certain to end in gunshots.

During the discussion on the amnesty motion in the Chamber M. Vietta, Minister of Public Works, insisted that Premier Loubet's award must be respected. It was not the Government, he said, but a just man, that gave the award, and he added had the strikers resumed work this morning the convicted men would have been pardoned to-night.

M. Millerand interrupting asked: "Will you promise that the convicted men will be pardoned if the strikers resume work?"

Mr. Vietta replied: "We must not let the men believe that they can again break the law, but if the strikers resume work to-morrow I shall myself demand pardon for them, but not amnesty."

M. Clemenceau and Millerand telegraphed to Carmaux the result of the amnesty debate and the statement of Minister Vietta, adding that they believed that the pardoned men would be reinstated, the understanding being that the mining company has made a promise to that effect to M. Vietta.

The strikers have telegraphed to all the miners' unions in France begging them to send coats for the use of the strikers. The Strike Committee, replying to a deputation of non-unionists, who asked how long the strike was going to last, said that they did not know when the strike would end.

THE PREMIER'S HEALTH.

He Will Limit His Attendance in the House Next Session.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Under the insistent monition of his physician, Mr. Gladstone has decided to limit his presence in the House of Commons during the coming session. He will attend the sittings only on the days when important measures are under consideration. His deputy in the general leadership of the House will be Sir William Vernon Harcourt. As there are authentic reports that the eye malady from which Sir William is a sufferer is growing worse, the Liberals are disturbed at the prospect of a disorganized leadership. At the Cabinet Council to-day arrangements were probably made to have a substitute ready to take Sir William's place should his health fail.

Balfour Favors Bi-Metallism.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Mr. A. J. Balfour addressed a meeting in Manchester last evening in favor of bi-metallism. In the course of his remarks he said: "Our existing currency is neither a convenient medium of exchange nor a fair permanent record of obligations over long periods. If I were given the unwelcome choice between a standard which has appreciated and a standard which has depreciated, but which has led to rising prices, I should choose the latter. The Government ought to intervene in this question."

CANADA'S NATURAL FERTILIZERS.

The Use and Value of Dry Peat as an Absorbent for Liquid Manure.

The absorbent character of peat and allied materials has already been mentioned. It is owing to this quality that they are of special value in the stable, the cow-house and the pig-pen, and indeed, wherever there may be liquid manure to absorb. When sprinkled in such places, not only do they prevent bad smells, but they also preserve for future crops much plant food that would otherwise go to waste. Much ammonia escapes into the atmosphere in stables where absorbents are not used. Should there not be a very good system in cow-houses and pig-pens for conducting the liquid portion of the manure to tanks, a loss of fertilizing elements will be sure to ensue through soakage, unless some material is scattered that will take it up and retain it. For this purpose, the use of dry peat and muck can be with confidence advised. In this connection, it must not be forgotten that while the plant food in manure is thus rendered permanent by such treatment, the fertilizing ingredients of the absorbent are at the same time made more valuable for immediate use.

When manure is made through the winter under cover and the cattle are fed loose under the barn or in a covered shed adjoining, dry peat as a litter and absorbent is specially to be recommended. The constant tramping of the cattle ensures the intimate mixing of the peat and manure. When this afterwards is drawn out and fermented on the heap, an excellent fertilizer results.—Frank T. Shutt, Chief Chemist Dominion Experimental Farms.

The joints and muscles are so lubricated by Hood's Sarsaparilla that all rheumatism and stiffness soon disappear. Try it.

Threw away His Crutches—A True Account of a Remarkable Event.

STATEMENT OF MR. M'NEE.

For eight years I was troubled with a sore on my leg which resulted from having it broken. The doctors kept me in bed five months trying to heal it up, but all to no purpose. I tried all sorts of liniments, salves, ointments, pills and blood medicines, but with no benefit. In 1888 it became so bad that I had to sit on one chair and keep my foot on another for four months. I could not put my foot on the ground or the blood would rush out in a stream and my leg swelled to twice its natural size. Eleven running sores developed on it, which reduced me to a living skeleton (I lost 70 pounds in four months. Friends advised me to go to the hospital, but I would not, for I knew that they would take my leg off. The doctor then wanted to split it open and scrape the bone, but I was too weak to stand the operation. One old lady said it had turned to black erysipelas, and could never be cured. I had never heard of Burdock Blood Bitters then, but I read of a minister, Rev. Mr. Stout, who had been cured of a severe abscess on the neck by B.B.B., after medical aid had failed, and I thought I would try it. I washed the leg with the Bitters, and took them according to directions. After using one bottle I could walk on crutches, after taking three I threw away the crutches, took a scythe and went to work in the field. At the end of the sixth bottle my leg was entirely healed up; pieces of loose bone had worked out of it and the cords came back to their natural places again. That was nine years ago and it has never broken out since. I can walk five miles to-day as fast as anyone, and all this I owe to B. B. B., which certainly saved my leg if not my life. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Give B. B. B. a trial and it will cure you as it did me.

Yours truly, WM. MCNEE,
St. Ives P.O., Ont.

Mr. F. C. Sanderson, the druggist, of St. Marys, Ont., certifies to the entire truthfulness of the remarkable statement made by Mr. McNee, and says that several other wonderful cures have been made in his district by this unrivalled remedy for bad blood, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

"August Flower"

Mrs. Sarah M. Black of Seneca, Mo., during the past two years has been affected with Neuralgia of the Head, Stomach and Womb, and writes: "My food did not seem to strengthen me at all and my appetite was very variable. My face was yellow, my head dull, and I had such pains in my left side. In the morning when I got up I would have a flow of mucus in the mouth, and a bad, bitter taste. Sometimes my breath became short, and I had such queer, tumbling, palpitating sensations around the heart. I ached all day under the shoulder blades, in the left side, and down the back of my limbs. It seemed to be worse in the wet, cold weather of Winter and Spring; and whenever the spells came on, my feet and hands would turn cold, and I could get no sleep at all. I tried everywhere, and got no relief before using August Flower Then the change came. It has done me a wonderful deal of good during the time I have taken it and is working a complete cure." ©

CHESS IN WHEAT.

The Only Way to be Rid of It is to Sow Clean Wheat in Clean Land.

There are two enemies of fall wheat which farmers will do well to look to at this time of the year. These are the Hessian fly, much of the injury of which can be averted by sowing late (after 20th of September) and the pest I wish to draw especial attention to now—Chess, which is well-known by name at any rate.

I have many letters and enquiries from farmers with regard to the very remarkable but utterly mistaken idea that wheat can by any possibility change to Chess. This is quite impossible and the strange thing to me is that some of these farmers have not proved it for themselves, by trying to produce Chess experimentally from wheat by some of the causes which it is alleged will do so. A. A. Crozier in his charming little book "Errors about Plants" says on this subject: "No popular error has been more generally held in this country than that wheat will turn to Chess; there are signs, however, that interest in the question is dying out, which probably means that the better educated farmers have ceased to believe in the transmutation theory. None of the leading agricultural periodicals now advocate this theory and some of them decline to discuss it any longer. Nevertheless, the subject is by no means out of date." "The causes assigned for the alleged transmutation of wheat to Chess are numerous and varied; sowing shrunken seed; sowing in a certain time of the moon; injury by Hessian fly; eating off of the plants by stock or by fowls; trampling by animals, or injury by passing vehicles; drowning or freezing out during winter; cutting off the "tap" root in imitation of heaving during winter."

In this country Chess is generally supposed to grow only from fall wheat; but occasionally this faith is shaken by plants being found amongst spring wheat, oats and other crops. Many claim that although Chess seed will grow it will not reproduce itself.

Chess or Cheat is just as much a distinct species of grass as wheat, oats, Red-top or Timothy, and always comes as true to seed as any of these other grasses. As a proof of this, I tried the following experiment, the results of which have been examined by some thousands of farmers who have visited the Experimental Farm during the past summer. One hundred grains each of Chess and fall wheat were sown last September and each grain was marked with a small picket. One quarter was trampled on in the spring, and one quarter was cut off with shears; part was uncovered and exposed to the frost during the winter and the growth of every plant noted, and left standing where grown, to be examined by all visitors. In addition to this both of these beds lay under water for a considerable period in the spring, and were afterwards exposed to frosts on two or three occasions. Of the 100 grains of wheat 27 only grew and these all produced good grain precisely like that sown and the plants were quite different in appearance from the Chess alongside them all the time from early spring until the grain was ripe. Of the Chess 78 grains grew and produced a heavy crop of Chess seed also of course exactly like the seed from which the plants grow.

The above experiment proved to all who examined the plots: 1. That Chess will certainly grow from Chess seed and produced seed exactly like that sown; 2. That Fall Wheat cannot be changed to Chess by any of the methods tried above.

It, therefore, follows that farmers who are now buying and sowing Fall Wheat will be wise if they examine their seed wheat very carefully before sowing it, for there is only one remedy for Chess which is to sow clean seed wheat in clean land.

It is to be presumed that all farmers know the appearance of a grain of wheat. The grains of chess are smaller, as a rule, covered with the brownish or greenish husk; when the husk is removed, the seed inside is dark brown or purplish in color and of a horny texture; the groove down its side is marked by deeper than a grain of wheat and instead of having the edges rounded away from the groove has them sharp and when the husk is on the seed, more or less closed. — James Fletcher, Entomologist and Botanist, Dominion Experimental Farms.

CANADIAN FARMING.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE PENS OF PRACTICAL AGRICULTURISTS.

G. E. Casey on Good Roads—Historical Sketch of the Farm by John Craig—Prof. Robertson Writes About Producing and Marketing.

The possible profit from production does not all reside in the market price. The enlarged and improved carrying facilities of the world have made competitors out of some who are far removed from each other in geographical location. At Woodstock, Ont., in the production of butter, I am a competitor of a man who is on the other side of the earth, in New Zealand. It does not always so. Ever take you back to a little shop in Scotland to which are sent to sell butter made on the farms of a few other farmers were those our only competitors. But you can go there now and buy American and New Zealand butter, and the New Zealand dairyman meets me there and undersells my competition. It is astonishing with what ease that, unwisely of his will. It is the progress of civilization and the progress of humanity that have made competitors out of producers all over the world; and we cannot help ourselves. Since I cannot control the market price of my products, my profit at that end is an uncertain quantity. Profit always comes between the price obtainable and the cost of production. If it costs me here fifteen cents per pound, and I can sell there for twenty cents per pound, I have five cents of a margin for profit. If I can reduce this fifteen cents of cost by the application of good business methods to ten cents, I lengthen my line of profit at the safe end of the business, where nobody comes in to interfere and prevent me from getting it. Therefore, the main profit is made at the home end of a man's business, which he can control. The home end of a man's business in every sense, is the one which he should look after most.

The food products from the farms in Canada are mainly eaten at home in our own country. I want to show you the gain in the market capability, market capacity, in Canada in ten years. The growth of population who eat food, but who do not produce food, in ten years has been 234,146. That is the increase in the population in cities, towns and villages of over 1,500 souls each. These people consume the farm products of Canadian farmers, at wholesale farm prices, to the amount of $21,000,000 annually. We send to England and the United States now, of the same things—farm products—leaving out horses and hay, to the value of $35,955,986, annually. Our whole export from Canada last year, ending June 30, 1891, to Great Britain and the United States, in farm products (except horses and hay) amounted to that sum. The total export to the United States of the same things in the same time, reached the value of $10,017,390. The extra people that have come into the towns of Canada in ten years, buy from Canadian farmers twice as many dollars' worth of their farm products annually, as we send to the whole of the United States. That means a good deal. I do not like anybody that tries to create a feeling of antagonism between the townsman and the countryman. The townsman is a customer of the countryman, and the countryman is a customer of the townsman, and there should be no antagonism. If their interests are not identical, they are, at least, harmonious. All efforts to create distrust and dislike between the agricultural and manufacturing interests should be refrained from. As the town grows, the country makes some progress; they mutually benefit each other.—Prof. Jas. W. Robertson, Dairy Commissioner.

G. E. Casey on Good Roads.

Mr. George E. Casey, M.P. for West Elgin, has a good letter in the St. Thomas Journal on the subject of country roads. We give his conclusions: In the first place there are certain principles of road-making, of which, with proper advice, the municipal authorities should establish certain standards—such a standard for main highways, such and such for side lines and concessions. Let the roads be made uniformly on these principles, not all finished at once, but all on the same plan as far as the money goes. "Commute" all statute labor as at present assessed on an uniform cash basis, adding what is now spent in grants. Let those who would rather work than pay cash hire their teams or themselves to the township and get some ready money in a slack season of the year. The pathmaster should make and mend like the section boss of a railway, guided by an uniform system of instructions and not by his own whim. He calls attention to the following among other advantages: Roads would be so built that each year's work would bring them nearer to the standard established, whereas now it often makes them worse. They would be practically permanent when completed. When a road is once well made it takes a great deal of road-making to unmake it. Sometimes the roads badly need mending at seasons when it is not convenient to do road work. Under this plan they could be attended to without troubling the farmer. All this would involve no new cost unless, after trial, it was decided to incur it.

To-Day

Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in prosperity and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competitors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine. Such success could not be won without positive merit.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristalic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathatic.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

MILWAUKEE'S HOT FIRE.

THE CITY HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DESTRUCTION.

Twenty-Two Solid Blocks of Factories, Warehouses, Distilleries, Etc., and Many Residences Destroyed—A Fire Which Approaches the Great Chicago Catastrophe of 1871.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 29.—A fire which started at 5.30 last evening at the Union Oil Company's oil store in East Water-street threatens (8 p.m.) to destroy the entire business section of Milwaukee east of the Milwaukee River, below Huron-street. For an hour the fire department struggled bravely with the elements, which were fanned by a gale that is blowing at the rate of 36 miles an hour.

Chief Foley kept the fire confined to one block in East Water-street until 7 o'clock, when it leaped across the street and began a rapid march toward Lake Michigan, six blocks away, cutting down in short order Edohmen & Co., wholesale drugs; M. Bloch, wholesale liquors; Budd & Kip's seven story furniture factory; Reundy, Peckham & Co., wholesale grocers; Jacob Wellauer & Co., wholesale grocers; Johnson Bros., cracker factory; and the National Distilling Co.

At 8 o'clock the flames had crossed Broadway between Buffalo and Detroit, taking numerous wooden structures and then advancing to Milwaukee-street.

At 8.15 the flames had reached Jefferson-street, three squares from where it broke out, and is now burning private residences.

The course of the fire changed at 8.15, and it now seems likely to consume the territory between Broadway and Jefferson-streets to the east and west branch of the Milwaukee River.

The fire has reached the river and the big Angus Smith grain elevators are next to fall. At Broadway Bridge the fire has just begun, and it is feared that that portion of the south side in the shipyard district will be licked up. The fire department is powerless to stay its progress. Not only is the fire advancing with the wind on its mission of destruction, but it has begun to back up at the point where it began and where there is no means of staying its progress. The loss threatens to reach into the millions.

The freight yards of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad are reached, and whole trains of cars loaded with merchandise, live stock and grain are burning.

9.05 p.m.—The fire is still burning fiercely. There are several fires in other parts of the city, and there are no engines to respond. The entire lower part of the Third Ward, inhabited largely by poor Irish families, is devastated. About 300 cottages have been destroyed and the poor people are wandering about the streets loudly lamenting their loss. Alarms are coming in every few minutes from parts of the city widely separated, and it is thought fire bugs are helping in the work of destruction. The elegant residence of L. F. Hodges, a member of the Board of Trade, at Ninth and Cedar-streets, two miles from the fire district, has been destroyed.

Up to 9 o'clock this evening two fatalities have been reported—one fireman killed and a woman suffocated. The gas works are burning and frequent explosions occur that shake the whole city. The lights are going out.

The department is using dynamite in an effort to stop the advance of the flames and several buildings have been blown up. Alarms are still being turned in from widely separated parts of the city.

Up to 11 o'clock the fire has lapped up everything in the territory bounded on the west by the north branch of the Milwaukee River, on the east by the lake and on the south by the harbor branch of the river; 22 solid blocks, five of which were occupied by wholesale houses, factories, distilleries, etc., and the rest by residences. This does not include the vast yards of the Chicago and Northwestern Road, which cover many acres. Hundreds of cars have been burned. There is no telling at this hour what the extent of the fire will be. It is extending south of Broadway bridge and backing up Detroit-street at the river front and at the lake.

Insurance men estimate that the entire loss will aggregate $7,000,000 up to this hour. The fire is still spreading.

Engines from Racine and Kenosha are playing on the fire at points where they can do the most good. They left the trains south of the fire and did much to confine it to the north bank of the river below the turn at Walker's Point bridge.

At midnight Chief Foley announced that the fire was under control.

THE IAMS TORTURE CASE.

The Cashiered Soldier Tells of the Wrongs Done Him.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—The Private James' case was resumed to-day before Judge Porter. A large crowd was present, including many officers of the National Guard. In regard to the plea of "No Jurisdiction" made yesterday, Judge Porter said "If a military commander exceeds his duty or goes beyond his authority he is amenable in the civil courts for the results of such acts."

John D. Watson opened for the commonwealth. He made a strong presentation of the case and described the torture Iams suffered.

W. L. Iams, the prosecutor, was then placed on the stand and described the agony he suffered in being hung up for half an hour by cords tied around his thumbs. He said: "I began to grow tired, my legs cramped, my head ached, my eyes felt as if they were being pushed from their sockets, the muscles in the back of my neck seemed as if they were being torn from the base of the skull. I suffered terrible agony and it seemed to me that I had been suspended in the air a week before being cut down. I saw Colonel Streaton there when I was cut down. I was in a dazed condition and everything seemed blurred. The first thing I remember was when some one gave me some ammonia. I was lying on the ground, had a terrible headache and some one gave me some whisky." He next related how he was dressed in a ridiculous garb and drummed out of camp.

The cross-examination brought out nothing of importance.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

GREATEST SKIN CURES

Cuticura Cures All Skin Eruptions, Gives a Clear Complexion Free from Pimples.

Too much praise cannot be said of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, as I have used them for the last year and a half or so, and find them to be the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the age. I have used a good many so-called toilet soaps, and I find CUTICURA SOAP is the best I have ever used. I find it far superior to all other toilet or medicinal soaps. It cures all Skin eruptions, and gives a clear complexion. As for shampooing I would use no other, and for the face either, as it is a cure for all pimples, blackheads, eczema and all irritations and roughness of the face. For after using the CUTICURA SOAP awhile, it makes the face smooth and cool, and does not give that burning sensation which so many other toilet soaps do. Try the CUTICURA REMEDIES and you will not regret it that you have ever done so.

THE INSPECTORSHIP.

PETERBOROUGH, Oct. 31st, 1892.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Mr. W. H. Hill's letter in Saturday's paper will have been a surprise to your readers. Most people had him in their minds as a straightforward, honourable and high-minded man, but if this letter discloses his true character, it will have served a good purpose. Like all men who have been foiled, he loses his temper and resorts to abuse, calls names, and not content with this, resorts to calumny. According to him the members of the Board who do not fall into line with his plans are an insignificant faction. The chairman is a partizan, Dr. Tilley is a trimmer. Mr. Dumble knows nothing of the subject—his opinion is worthless, etc.; and he is tricky. Again, Dr. Tilley is dishonest and a fraud, a man who uses his position for securing situations for favourites and is the indirect way to bring about a dismissal of one, at least, of the ablest teachers.

Now this is a very formidable array of charges. The insignificant faction he speaks of are Mr. T. Rutherford, J. J. Hartley, W. H. Wrighton, Jas. Stevenson, Mr. Dumble and Dr. Bucher. It may be that these men, several of whom were on the board before Mr. Hill ever struck Peterborough, will carry as much weight in the community as that wonderful majority, which includes Mr. W. H. Hill. 'Tis true Mr. Hill has taught a country school, but on that account he is not supposed to know everything, and from twenty to forty years' experience on our school board ought to go for something.

I felt all along that if Mr. Hill and his friends got plenty of rope the usual result would follow—that letter does the business, and the true inwardness of the gentleman is made apparent. It is not an inspector that is wanted;

MR. HILL'S LETTER CLEARLY DISCLOSES that it is a head master. Between the two there is all the difference in the world—no head master can be an inspector of his own schools. It would be absurd for him to set examination papers and pass judgment on his own papers, and this attack on the inspector has been dishonest from the beginning. If a head master were appointed the government insists on the employment of an inspector, just as in Port Hope and Lindsay. Now if we had to pay $1,200 or $1,500 for a head master, and had to retain an inspector at $350, the increased expence instead of being $1,000 as was claimed, would be the head masters salary. Mr. Hill admits that the board in the reconstruction of the Institute staff did well, and has placed that institution in a level with the very best schools in the province. Yet Mr. Hill thinks that the men who have done well by the Institute are not to be trusted with the public schools. The fact is the two are so interwoven that we cannot have good high schools unless the public schools from which they draw their pupils are well conducted. Mr. Hill admits that our Institute did do well; nay, he goes further, he admits that our entrance class did well, and that some of the advanced teachers in the public schools did well. He said the teachers who have charge of the entrance classes are earnest, hard working men, and that some are faithful and efficient, that they teach with fear of the examinations constantly before their eyes, and adds "Is it any wonder that such men under such circumstances should make a respectable showing at an entrance examination."

The fact is the published government reports place Mr. Hill so that he cannot lie about the Institute or entrance class, but as to the lower forms he for he immediately adds that the teaching in the lower forms is bad, and that Dr. Tilley manipulates the examination papers so as to pass a great many more than should pass—that Dr. Tilley not only set easy questions but directed the examining board not to be too severe in looking over the papers and that an Inspector who has the promotion examinations wholly, and the entrance examinations partly under his own control, can so manage them as to secure to himself credit which he does not merit. Was there ever a stab in the dark worse than that? The examining board for the entrance consisted of Dr. Tilly, ex-officio, Miss Lynch appointed by the Separate School Board, Mr. McCreary and Mr. Fessenden appointed by the Government.

Are these people to be thus slandered with impunity? Mr. O'Brien, the teacher of the lowest form in the Institute, says the entrance class is well prepared, while Mr. Fessenden, the head of the Institute, says it is the best entrance class he ever had.

In my first letter I said that there were on the board men who continuously and systematically slandered our schools. Here you have one of them brought to light. Are these the men who are to govern our schools? Mr. Law makes the extravagant statement that the inspector gets $40 or $50 a day; if the former, his salary of $350 a year would hardly represent 9 days, if the latter, 6 day's service, while the labor connected with the examination papers alone takes three weeks. What is the cause of this insinuations, and slander? Does it display that prudence, judgment and candour which should govern the doings of our school board?

Mr. Hill says Dr. Tilley for the purpose of securing his little salary of $350 has stooped to trickery, deception and fraud. Tell me, Mr. Hill, if you had an Inspector at $1,500 a year what would he do. Could you trust him, or are there any honest men in connection with our schools? You have branded the Inspector, the Board of Examiners, all the members of the "insignificant faction," where outside of the majority will you find honest men?

You asked for a headmaster. The headmasters of the Ward schools who are over the teachers during the lower work are not to be trusted, and Mr. Smith who has so long and so faithfully served the people, you want to displace, and you, honest man, get at it by a motion to dismiss the Inspector, whereas it was Mr. Smith you were after all the time. Your own words are: "But, even if Dr. Tilley could give sufficient time to our schools, it is pretty clear to the majority of the Board that he is not the man we want." Why did you not stand up in the Board like a man and say so? Why did you not charge him there with the crime you have laid at his door, instead of protesting as you did, that you had nothing against Dr. Tilley? Why did you not say candidly that you wanted a headmaster, and that it was Mr. Smith you were after? You are caught in the meshes of your own weaving.

Now, Mr. Hill, you have shown your hand so far, just pull the card out of your sleeve and let us know who the man is you want to make a situation for. But I leave you. To cross swords with an honest man is a pleasure; to contend with one whose weapons are mud-slinging, slander and falsehood is a task, I shall leave to someone else. I am done.

I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
D. W. DUMBLE.

THE INSPECTORSHIP.

Reply of Mr. Hill to Mr. Dumble's Letter of Friday.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Mr. Dumble's letter in your last Friday's issue is a somewhat remarkable production and requires an answer. It contains much assertion but absolutely no proof.

As usual, Mr. Dumble assumes to know all about school matters, while those who venture to disagree with him are ignorant or dishonest.

The difficulty all along in the past has been that the other members of the board have overestimated Mr. Dumble, and shown too great a deference to his opinions. They have been too ready to take him at his own estimate of himself.

Fortunately the board are becoming more enlightened on the question of his ability, and are even inclined to distrust the honesty and disinterestedness of his motives. So no doubt, of late his insinuating manner is not so much in evidence from this quarter. It would be remembered that Dr. Tilley is an interested party in the discussion, and from the knowledge that the board has already guessed at the Doctor's motives, they are not inclined to place very much confidence in any information derived from him.

Whether Dr. Tilley retains his position or not he has certainly lost any usefulness he may have had in the community. The board can no longer consider it necessary to disregard his suggestions and even to act directly contrary to his recommendations.

The doctor reported against a teacher, and the board increased his salary; he opposed the division of the subjects between the members of the Entrance forms, and the board directed the division to be made.

It is scarcely worth while to discuss the accuracy of Mr. Dumble's statements with regard to the condition of our public schools. After his reply to Mr. McBain's communication he cannot surely think that any person will take his assertions as serious.

If there is one feature of Mr. Dumble's character, praiseworthy that stands out more prominently than any other, it is his loyalty. Whatever else Mr. Dumble may be, he is loyal, and it is his loyalty which has led him to express opinions so directly opposed to the facts of the case and to the opinions of most of the other members of the board.

According to Mr. Dumble the people of Peterborough should be loyal to their institutions, even at the expense of truth. He, with the rest of the community, believes, no doubt, that our public schools are in a very unsatisfactory condition, but he loudly asserts that they are second to none in the Province!

Much has been said lately about the wretched condition of our sewerage. This, according to Mr. Dumble, is all wrong. We should loyally assert that our system of drainage is second to none in the province. Truth is all very well, but at any sacrifice we should be loyal.

I have said that Mr. Dumble's letter is somewhat remarkable. The tone is milder and more conciliatory. Is Mr. Dumble preparing the way for a change of attitude on the question of school inspection? Is it possible that Dr. Tilley might be induced to as fair sacrifice his own interests as to accept the position of permanent Inspector of our schools?

Mr. Dumble says: "I don't for a moment say a resident Inspector would be an evil." This is so entirely at variance with his arguments at the Board, and with the position he took in his first letter, that I am forced to this conclusion, that he is preparing for a change.

I hope, Mr. Editor, that the people of the county of Durham will not see this letter. How sad they would feel at the thought of losing the services of their very accomplished Inspector. Besides, it would be scarcely fair for Peterborough to take from them Dr. Tilley, seeing that we already have Mr. Dumble.

Again thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain,

Yours truly,
W. H. HILL.

A BANK SWINDLER AT LARGE.

An Escaped Stratford Prisoner Turns up at Salt Lake City.

TORONTO, Oct. 31. — Chief Government Detective Murray has been notified that Faling, alias Cole, alias Hale, who recently escaped from Stratford jail while waiting trial for obtaining $1000 from J. W. Scott, a Listowel banker, by means of a bogus draft, turned up in Salt Lake City, Utah, a few days ago, and succeeded in confidencing another bank out of $2500.

Faling, it will be remembered, escaped from Winnipeg jail while waiting trial by means of a key which he alleged was supplied him by a turnkey. Detective Murray extradited him from St. Paul, Minn., but despite the fact that the Stratford authorities were warned that Faling was one of the cleverest confidence men on the continent and a noted jail-breaker, he was allowed to escape—his exit being secured, so the jailer said, by means of a key made out of the handle of a tin pail, and by means of which it was stated he had unlocked three or four doors and returned to his cell and left the key behind.

Detective Murray states he does not intend to again attempt to arrest Faling—that, in fact, he wouldn't go to the border after him.

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

That's What Miss La Belle Wants From Mr. Samuel B. Moore.

TORONTO, Oct. 31. — Lady Evelina La Belle Roberti, a Canadian singer of some note, has given testimony before trial in a suit brought by her sister, Miss Albertina La Belle, to recover $25,000 from Samuel B. Moore for breach of promise of marriage.

Miss La Belle, who formerly resided in Toronto and Montreal, went to New York city about a year ago with her sister, Lady Evelina, and lived at the Colonnade Hotel, where she met Mr. Moore, who is a salesman for a Broadway firm.

Mr. Moore, it is claimed, proposed marriage to Miss La Belle and was accepted. He told her that an uncle, who had the management of a fortune which was coming to him, was anxious that he should marry another young lady. After the engagement he gave to Miss La Belle a handsome bracelet fastened by a padlock, of which he kept the key fastened to his watch chain, and also a diamond ring. He admits that he was very attentive to Miss La Belle, but he denies the engagement.

A Bark at Port Townsend, Wash., Reports Two Deaths.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 31.—The bark Cowlitz, 60 days from Toku, China, arrived yesterday and reported two suspicious deaths. The vessel had no papers or bill of health. The last death occurred in quarantine yesterday and the crew were sent to the pest house.

White Cloud's Heart is Bad.

WHITE EARTH, Minn., Oct. 31.—The Indians of the White Earth Reservation are in a turmoil. At a war dance Thursday night Chief White Cloud, the most noted Indian in Minnesota, made a murderous attack with a scalping knife on his son, William Wright, wounding him in such a terrible manner about the head and lungs that he lies dying in his tepee. A general fight ensued and several other braves were wounded. Agent Sobular telegraphed to St. Paul for assistance in getting the Reds under subjection, and received an answer that several deputy United States marshals left for this point on the 4 o'clock train and would reach here Friday morning.

A Demented Nun Walks Sixty Miles.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 31.—A demented nun escaped from Prince Albert convent the other day and traveled all the way to Duck Lake, a distance of nearly 60 miles, on foot. She was found on Saturday in an exhausted condition.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—The Chinese now have a temple in Boston, situated in Mount Hope Cemetery. It is the only one in the United States. It was dedicated yesterday.

MILWAUKEE'S BIG FIRE.

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT IT WILL COST MANY MILLIONS.

In the List of Insurance Companies Affected Appear the Names of Several Home Companies—A Subscription Opened to Aid the Destitute and Homeless.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—The fire which broke out at 5.40 Friday evening in the premises of the Union Oil Company was not got under control until 2.30 this morning, by which time damage to the extent of $5,000,000 had been occasioned. The fire swept everything in its path to Lake Michigan, and then began a backward course. In its path lay the big freight sheds and the yards of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad with the round-house and its valuable contents of rolling stock. The east end of the freight sheds, at the corner of Chicago and Jefferson streets, was the first to ignite, and the flames soon spread all over the yards, burning freight cars and everything before them. Fifteen long trains of freight cars stood on the Northwestern tracks when a billow of fire leaped across Van Buren street and touched the south end of the freight house. A million dollars worth of railroad property was doomed. The south end of the freight house was filled with oil tanks and as the fire must surely reach them, the men rapidly forced the air into the tanks, diluting the gas so that it was weakened beyond the point of possible explosion. Then they let it out sufficiently to sink the tanks below the level and fled for their lives. As a result of this good management Milwaukee will have its usual gas supply within a day or two.

The following is the estimate of the losses:

Kief's furniture establishment, $300,000; J. E. Patton & Co., oil and paints, $250,000; J. P. Kisseager, liquors, $75,000; Milwaukee Mirror Company, $50,000; B. T. Riderdorf, tobacco, $50,000; Roundy, Peckham & Co., grocers, $200,000; H. Scaffello & Co., grocers, $200,000; J. Welleur & Co., grocers, $200,000; Milwaukee Chair Company $250,000; H. Reidesburg & Co., vinegar works, $200,000; Hansen Malting Company, $000,000; Milwaukee Gas Works, $50,000; Johnston Cracker Works (old), $50,000; Union Oil Co., $50,000; Blockers & Co.'s wines, $50,000; National Distilling Co., $50,000; E. H. M. Duehm & Co., drugs, $150,000; Weissel & Viller, machinery, $100,000; Toepfer & Son, machinery, $40,000; Bayley & Sons, machinery, $50,000; Inbusch Bros., grocers, $250,000; S. Fernek & Bro., confectionery, $75,000; Delorme & Quentine, soaps, $35,000; Milwaukee Rag Co., $50,000; A. J. Hilbert & Co., flavoring extracts, $40,000; Northwestern freight house, cars and contents, $50,000, Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western freight house, $50,000; McLondon Hotel, $50,000; Pfeugot & Co., confectionery, $25,000; Bauer & Co., glove manufacturers, $10,000; 50 small business places, $50,000; 500 dwelling houses, cottages and barns, $500,000; total, $5,825,000.

Several insurance men state that the insurance companies will suffer a loss of at least three million dollars by the fire.

It is known that five lives were lost and many people were seriously injured. The dead are: Henry Peddenbroch and Charles Stahl, firemen; unknown woman, 60 years old; Mrs. Kalaban, died from effects of shock; unknown man, head smashed by falling walls.

Helping the Destitute.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—Several hundred business men assembled at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday to take action to relieve the sufferers from the fire. A subscription list was opened and $50,000 subscribed in a few minutes. There are now so many people destitute that it was decided to open the doors of the exposition building for their accommodation. The Third Ward school building was the principal place of refuge for the homeless families early last night, but later they scattered, being for the most part taken in by kind-hearted neighbors.

The Companies Affected.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—The companies who will be the heaviest losers by the fire are as follows: Hartford, Conn., $75,000; Home, $70,000; Lancashire, Eng., $60,000; New Mechanic, $75,000; Phœnix, Brooklyn, $75,000; Commercial Union, $50,000; Continental $40,000; Commonwealth, New York, $75,000; North British $50,000, Northwestern National $50,000, Concordia $40,000, London and Lancashire $50,000, German American of New York $60,000, Ohio Farmers $56,000.

A complete list of the losses cannot be made at this writing.

An accurate count shows that there were 465 buildings burned and 338 families rendered homeless. Residents of the Third Ward familiar with its population say that the families will average seven persons each.

SCANDAL IN BROOKLYN.

Langley, the Drygoods Prince, Sued for Divorce by His Wife.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Oct. 31.—Millionaire William H. Langley, wholesale drygoods merchant, whose home on the heights is one of the handsomest in Brooklyn, has been sued for an absolute divorce by his wife, Mrs. Marie Belle Langley. Mr. Langley has had the papers drawn up in a counter-suit against his wife, and names Mr. William C. Dewitt, who was corporation counsel for 14 years, as co-respondent. He also threatens to bring a suit for $250,000 damages for the alienation of Mrs. Langley's affections against Mr. Dewitt, whom nobody in Brooklyn excels as an orator, and who was chosen to present the name of Senator David B. Hill at the recent Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

Three Days in a Hurricane.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The British freight steamer Melbourne, Capt. Cave, which arrived this morning from London, encountered a terrific hurricane from Oct 22 to 25. During all this time the seas continually swept over the steamer's decks and as high as the upper bridge. The vessel was badly damaged.

Ashton Fletcher Dead.

WOODSTOCK, Oct 31.—Ashton Fletcher, the barrister, died yesterday. All that medical skill could do was done, but without avail. Dr. Graham of Toronto came up and held a consultation with his own physicians, but human skill could do nothing in such a case. From the first it was clear that death was near. The patient lingered in an unconscious condition until 3 o'clock this morning, when death came.

LEFT BY THE ROADSIDE.

THE EFFECT OF THE WHOLESALE EVICTIONS IN IRELAND.

The Landlords are Determined to Get Their Rent or Possession of Their Land, and the Chief Secretary for Ireland Must Not Oppose the Carrying Out of the Law.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The scheme of wholesale evictions in Ireland is b ing carried out. Although Chief Secretary Morley has given orders reviving and enforcing the old rule that the police shall not give aid in evictions between sunset and sunrise, yet the landlords find the hours of daylight quite sufficient for their work. Scores of the aged and decrepit, as well as of the young and otherwise helpless, may be seen camping on the roads in the southwest part of Ireland with nothing but clothing little better than rags to shelter them from the bleak storms of October. At Bantry a few days ago a whole family were found in the midst of a fierce rain and wind storm crouching in a grove of trees and wet to the skin. They had been evicted last Saturday, when the husband was hardly able to hobble out of his wretched cabin, and the wife and mother about to give birth to another child. The little one was born without medical attendance on the following day, with the rain pouring down through the branches of the trees, now almost denuded of leaves, and the wind blowing a hurricane around. Kind neighbors learned of the wretched plight of the unfortunates and gave them a temporary home. There are three young children besides the baby, which, it is said, is barely alive owing to the cold and exposure. Chief Secretary Morley is practically helpless to prevent these outrages so long as the landlords can find bailiffs willing to perform their cruel work. The laws passed by an English Parliament permit the landlords to do as they please, and Morley must bow to the law until it is repealed. The Tories are just now enforcing these laws with the utmost rigor.

Ireland, however, is not the only part of the British dominions where distress prevails. It is calculated that about 100,000 people in London are at this moment in want of the necessities of life. Steps are already being taken by charitable individuals and associations to minimize the suffering as much as possible during the coming winter. But the task seems to be too great for charity, and it is feared the poor of London will see one of the most miserable of Christmases. People are offering to work for almost any wages, and able-bodied men may be had for 12 hours a day at 10 shillings, or about $2 a week.

THE BRUSSELS TRAGEDY.

Schmidt, the Smotherer, Sentenced to Death.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 31.—A verdict of guilty was rendered Saturday in the case of Schmidt, the man who was charged with drugging and smothering a girl in a hotel at Girlemont, in order to obtain the insurance of 40,000 francs he and a confederate named Landre had taken out on her life. He was at once sentenced to death. Landre has not yet been apprehended.

A Remarkable Trial at Rome.

ROME, Oct 31.—A sensational trial has just been concluded in a highly romantic manner at Caltuzzetta, Sicily. Signorina Rosalie Cordova, a niece of Senator Cordova and of the late Cabinet Minister of the same name, was tried on a charge of attempting to murder her lover, Domenico Raffiotta, who had misled her under promise of marriage and had then deserted her. Made desperate by her position, Rosalie lay in wait for her recreant lover, and as he emerged from a theater she fired, seriously wounding him in the chest.

Domenico recovered and was forced to be a witness against the girl whom he had wronged. His love for Rosalie seemed to have returned, and he was a very reluctant witness. He declared that he did not believe she had intended to kill or even injure him. Upon being further questioned, he broke down and protested that he could not testify against the prisoner, because he still loved her, and she was justified in what she had done.

The scene was an affecting one, the court and audience being moved to tears. The jury brought in a verdict of acquittal, without leaving their seats, and amid cheers the reunited couple left the court room hand in hand, seeking a priest to join them in wedlock.

A Breach of Promise Suit Settled At Welland.

WELLAND, Oct. 31.—In the civil list at the assizes the principal attraction was the case of Williams vs. Hopkins, breach of promise, and the Court House was well filled with an audience desirous of hearing some spicy evidence. Principal Woodworth of the Model School marched the young lady modelites up in a body for the purpose of securing for them a practical lesson on "false love and its consequences." They were sadly disappointed, as the lawyers settled it out of court. Miss Williams sued Samuel Hopkins of Port Colborne for $10,000 as a balm to heal the wounds of blighted affections.

The case was settled out of court by Miss Williams accepting the modest sum of $1250, each party to pay their own costs. It made a hole in Mr. Hopkin's fat purse, but those who know him well say he is able to stand it, and perhaps if it went to the jury they probably would have set a higher value upon the wasted cooings, hand squeezes and other things which only lovers know anything about. But Mr. Hopkins is married now, and having had one breach of promise experience will not likely have another.

SIR RICHARD HOME AGAIN.

Tariff Reform, He Says, is a Winning Battle Cry.

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Sir Richard Cartwright has been reconnoitring the battlefield of politics in the United States. He returned Saturday to Canada from a visit of Several weeks to his son, Dr. Cartwright, who is practising his profession in Rochester, N.Y.

Questioned as to Cleveland's chances, Sir Richard held that they were excellent, so excellent that in northern New York the revolt among the erstwhile Republican farmers would so weaken the Harrison forces that they would be overwhelmed at Haarlem Bridge, where the masses of metropolitan citizens are solid for Democracy.

"Do you attribute the expected change in the farmers' vote to the growing popularity of tariff reform?"

"I certainly do, though I do not expect that tariff reform will win one of the Eastern States, except Massachusetts, though it was always strong in the South and West."

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away! Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival. A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

It Beats Jack Frost.

DEAR SIRS,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family and know it is a sure cure for lumbago and frost bites. My wife was so bad with lumbago that she could not straighten herself, and Yellow Oil completely cured her. It has been a fortune to us.

Bourke of Public Acquaintance.

DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—The case of Edward Thomas de Burgh Bourke of Buffalo, charged under an extradition warrant with stealing diamond studs from a Dublin jeweler, came up Saturday.

There were two counts in the indictment, one for larceny, the other for false pretences in issuing checks without funds to meet them. The latter charge was abandoned, and the jury threw out the bill for larceny.

Judge Andrews directed that Bourke be discharged and said the Government ought to pay his expenses back to America, an opinion that was cheered by the spectators.

Betrayed by Illegal Association.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Paris correspondent of The Chronicle telegraphs that a Mrs. Crouan, nee Brian, a rich woman, is accused of hiring laborers to murder her husband and throw his body into the Seine. The laborers told the police of the bargain and Mrs. Crouan and her maid have disappeared. A woman named Holland, a fortune-teller, who acted as intermediary, has been arrested.

"Gen." Booth's Action.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The committee who undertook to examine into the accounts of the Salvation Army are much hampered by General Booth, who just as they were getting to work made an appeal for a fresh levy of £30,000. As the committee came together in deference to a desire on the part of the public to learn exactly what had become of the £100,000 handed over to General Booth last year this fresh demand is regarded as precipitant. In his own interest and that of his army the General would have done better to wait a while before again sending round the hat.

Where Marriage Was a Failure.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Rev. O. J. Schoolcraft was granted a divorce from his wife, a dissolute woman whom he married to reclaim.

"I was deaf for a year, caused by catarrh in the head, but was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla." H. HICKS, Rochester, N. Y.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 885 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analysed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

The following well-known runners are the entries in the event: "Flaherty Mare," Brighton, "Mack," Brighton, "McAdoo," Grafton, "Barney," Norwood, "Floss," Cobourg, "King Dodds, Port Hope," "Haw," Port Hope and "Huckleberry," Millbrook, Midland and Grand Trunk.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Midland Railway, held in Toronto on Thursday last negogiations are concluded for the complete amalgamation of the Midland with the Grand Trunk system. So far as can be learned, the agreement provides that the Midland stock becomes, dollar for dollar, stock in the Grand Trunk, and that every £50 Midland stock shall carry a vote. This would appear to give the Midland shareholders some advantage, as at present £100 of Grand Trunk stock is essential for a vote. It may be however, that the concession is really in favor of the Grand Trunk directorate owing to the fact of their possessing such a large number of shares. The bonds of the Midland will be in the same position as before, with option of changing them to Grand Trunk 4 per cent, securities. The agreement will require the ratification of the Dominion Parliament before becoming legal.

Auburn Mission Trustees Meet.

At a meeting of the trustees of this mission called, the resignations of Mr. Walter Anderson as Superintendent of the evening service and of Mr. Adam Turner, as caretaker, were handed in. Expressions were made as to the very satisfactory manner in which these brethren had discharged the duties of their offices, and it was with great regret that their resignations were accepted. Mr. Anderson, however, retains the Superintendency of the Sabbath School, which is in a flourishing condition. Mr. H. Grundy was appointed Superintendent of the Sabbath evening service and Mr. Long, of Auburn, caretaker. The hope was expressed by the trustees that the public generally and of the neighbourhood particularly, will give this work, which is undenominational, their sympathy and help by their presence at the meetings. Speakers from the different churches of the town will week by week take the evening meeting.

Stage Realism To-night.

An exchange says:—We have railroad effects on the stage in plenty, but it remained for Aaron H. Woodhull to introduce one in Uncle Hiram that puts all others in the shade. In Act 4 the hero is knocked senseless on railroad track just as the limited express is about to pass. The engineer sees the danger, whistles down brakes, rings the bell and reverses the lever, but too late. The entire train consisting of locomotive, tender, baggage car, passenger coach and vestibule sleeper cross the stage at lightning speed. The hero is saved, but the engineer fearing not, backs up. The audience see the conductor walk along the aisle of the vestibule coach, open the door, step out on the platform and on ascertaining no harm was done, signals to go ahead, when the train moves off with all the effects of steam, air brakes, exhaust, jolting of the cars, &c., faithfully reproduced. Consequently Uncle Hiram is playing to the capacity of theaters everywhere. Uncle Hiram is the attraction to-night at the Opera House. 1d

ST. JOHN'S ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

THE RE-OPENING OF THE RESTORED CHURCH CELEBRATED.

Impressive Services During the Day—Excellent Sermons by Rev. G. H. Webb, of Colborne—An Offering of $398 to Reduce the Parochial Debt.

The dedication festival of St. John's church—the occasion being the tenth anniversary of the re-opening of the restored church, was held on Sunday, Oct. 30th, that day being the nearest Sunday to All Saints Day—on which the renewed church was dedicated in 1882. In accordance with the plan adopted last year this anniversary witnessed the fourth special semi-annual effort to reduce the parochial debt by free-will offerings, made at which consisted of Holy Communion service at 8.30 a.m., Morning Prayer, Sermon, by Rev. G. H. Webb, Colborne, and Holy Communion at 11 a.m., and Evensong and sermon by Rev. Mr. Webb at 7 p.m. At the early celebration there was a good attendance of the congregation. At the morning service the beautiful church was well filled. The services were conduced by Rev. G. H. Webb, assisted by the rector.

The former preached the sermon and took for the text part of the 10th verse of the sixth chapter of the gospel of St. Matthew—"Thy Kingdom Come." He said that on such an occasion no better theme could be chosen than that for which a church, was erected—the advancement of the Kingdon of God—when we came together to worship and to meet our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. We daily repeated the prayer "Thy Kingdom Come." Were we living as we prayed? Not every one that sayeth Lord, Lord, but he that doth the will of the Father, was the Divine assurance. What did the Kingdom of God mean? The primary thought was the second coming of Christ to reign over the whole earth. That was only a part of the meaning; we each had a definite duty that must be done by ourselves. We must have God's kingdom set up in our hearts, making them His abiding place, making them His by a full surrender of them to His will—renouncing the world and its maxims, the flesh and its lusts, and the devil and his works—in fact we must set up the complete Kingdom of God in our hearts. This was the first step. Many thought of working for God before they had allowed God to enter their hearts but He would accept no divided allegiance — we could not serve God and mammon. When the Kingdom of God ruled in our hearts we should show our appreciation of the privilege thus secured. Every true child of the kingdom would try in whatever way he could would try to bring others in subjection and allegiance to it. The efforts of Christians to extend God's kingdom was a fair test of their appreciation of their privileges. He that talked much of his privileges, generally ended his efforts in connection therewith by mere talk. Philanthrophy was not all that was required. We were members of Christ and our lives must be devoted to the work of extending his kindom. "Thy Kingdom Come," must be lived as well as prayed. We say that we "believe in the communion of saints." Did we show that in our lives? In connection with this matter we all had duties that could not be shifted upon others. We must not only pray for the progress of God's work, but we must also work to that end. There was a work for every Christian to do—no matter how trifling it may seem, it was anobled by being Christ's work; it was extending his kingdom. It was doing as Christ did, going about doing good, according to his talents. We could not do this of ourselves. We came to Christ's table for the grace and strength that would help us to fulfil our great trust. Then we went forth, with God's help with us, to do our great work. The preacher concluded by urging the congregation to enter upon their work with the resolve, by God's help, to do all they could to extend the kingdom of Christ.

THE EVENING SERVICE.

At this service there was again a very large congregation. Rev. G. H. Webb, assisted by Rev. C. B. Kenrick, conducted the service and preached the sermon. He selected for his text the 17th, 18 and 19th verses of St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians and preached a very excellent sermon full of fervour and apposite to the occasion.

The musical portion of the service was of a bright, joyous, festival character. In the morning the special musical feature was Barnby's Te Deum. In the evening the offertory anthem was "What shall I Render unto the Lord?" in which the solos were excellently taken by Master Maitland Boswell, soprano, and Mr. Drope, baritone, and the duet by Masters Boswell and Charles Seymour, the full choir joining in the chorus. Mr. Clarke at the organ rendered very effective accompaniments not only in this, but throughout the day.

The offerings of the people were on this occasion on a similar scale of liberality which has characterized the special semi-annual efforts to reduce the mortgage indebtedness of the church. At the beginning of this movement this amounted to $11,050. The contributions of Easter '91 ($1,700); Nov. 1st, '91 ($1,000); Easter '92 ($1,250) amounted to $3,950, reducing the debt to $7,100. The contributions of yesterday totalled $593, making the total of the special contributions, $4,593, and further reducing the indebtedness to $6,507. Of the $593 contributed yesterday the South Ward Mission gave $13. The morning offertory amounted to $482 and the evening to $111.

COLLEGIANS CONQUER.

Football Match Between the Collegiate Institute and West End Teams.

On Saturday afternoon a return football match was played between the Collegiate Institute and West End Association teams. The personnel of the teams was as follows:

COLLEGIATES.		WEST ENDERS.
Cowan	goal	Tighe (sub)
Drope, H Burnham	backs	L Cluxton, H C Cluxton
Davidson, Borland, Orde	halves	Lambe, H Rogers, W Dumble
Heap	centre	W B Carmichael
V McWilliams, Scott, E King, Adams	right ring, left wing	Hall, McDonald, D McCabe, P Roper

The game which lasted an hour was refereed impartially by W. J. Montgomery. The grounds were rather wet or fast playing but nevertheless a good game was put up. About fifteen minutes before the close of the second half Scott took a corner kick for the collegiate and one of the West Enders backs in attempting to bunt the ball and knock it out, missed his aim and knocked down the goal keeper, when the sphere went through. This was the only goal scored by either team during the contest. Both sides played pretty evenly and in the shots on goal each shared alike the honors. The forwards of the West Enders did some great combination playing, while the backs fed the forwards well. The Collegiate backs also did some great play. It would be unfair to individualize the playing of either team, for all around put up a fine game,

GREAT STORM ON LAKE ERIE.

Grave Damage to Shipping Reported From Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—The gale Saturday night caused considerable damage to shipping at this port. The steamer Shamara is on shore at the foot of Dodge-street, almost on the rocks of the railroad embankment. Six men and the captain's wife were on board and were rescued. The woman lies in a critical condition. The steel steamship Maruba went ashore at 7.30 this morning on the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railway docks north of the Union depot. She is broadside on and rests easily, but if the gale continues is liable to suffer injury. She is already leaking. The crew remains aboard. The steamer Pontiac made the inside of the breakwater and sank. She is resting easily and will suffer no further injury. The big ore carrier Ketchem is on the bottom in the entrance to the breakwater with a full cargo of ore. The schooner Glad Tidings drifted against the west pier and struck hard. It is feared she is badly strained. The old schooner Col. Cook is on the beach inside the breakwater. The yacht Mott B. is sunk in the breakwater. A terrific gale from the northwest has prevailed since last evening.

A Steam Barge Nearly Lost.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 31.—Vessels have been brought into this port yesterday that were caught in the gale on Lake Erie Saturday and damaged or disabled. Tugs outside got a line to the big steam barge Veronica during last night and towed her in here. She was from Escanaba with ore, and her captain reports that he got out of the Detroit River Friday morning and was soon after caught in the gale sweeping eastward down the lake. The crew had a terrible experience. Saturday a big sea stove her deck housings, sweeping into the engine room and putting out her fires. The barge was on the point of foundering when the crew got a sail on her and beat about on the lake off this port until the tugs got hold of her. Scarcely a man of the crew is able to do duty.

FARMERS HOLD YOUR WHEAT.

What Is the Advice the American Agriculturist Gives.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The stampede of the wheat market has been complete. Farmers have been led to believe in a very large crop, heavy falling off in exports and an enormous surplus from last year. All reports, official or unofficial, have stimulated the farmer to the belief that later on prices would break and that the early market was the one to sell on.

The American Agriculturist, however, in its forthcoming November issue, prints an elaborate review of the wheat situation, showing facts to the contrary. It points out that exports from India are falling off, and that Russian wheat is being held for an advance, and that the surplus for export from Australasia and South America is very small. The world's reserve supply was by no means made up by last year's heavy yield in the United States, and the replenishing of these reserves accounts for our enormous exports and the active foreign market at present.

It demonstrates that its September estimate of 500,000,000 bushels is a very liberal one of the United States wheat crop of 1892 and claims that the crop has been persistently over-estimated for the past four years.

UNSPORTSMENLIKE SPORT.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I like to know what use our fishery inspectors are, if they allow the wanton and illegal destruction of fish by spearing by the aid of the jacklight by parties coming from the vicinity of the floating bridge, as the writer has seen on Pigeon Creek, night after night inside of the last five weeks, while shooting. I think it is a crying shame that it is allowed, as the splendid fishing of a few years ago is now very largely entirely destoryed. Of what use is an inspector living four miles away and going to the creek probably once or twice a year at the most? Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space,

I remain,

HOME RULE MEASURE.

No Cabinet Dissension Regarding the Scheme.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—That section of the Cabinet having any influence whatever with Home Rule proposals have long been so versed in both the leading principals and the details of the measure that the presentation of a draft of the bill yesterday, if the presentation occurred at all, must have been considered a mere formality. Immediately after the Government was formed Mr. Gladstone constituted several committees, each charged with preparing the leading measures of the coming session of Parliament. The Home Rule committee consisted of Mr. Gladstone, Earl Spencer, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, John Morley and Sir George Trevelyan. Supreme confidence prevails in the innermost Ministerial circle regarding the absolute unanimity of the Cabinet committee on the Home Rule scheme. With the committee in unison dissension among the minor members of the Cabinet is impossible.

The Government measures next in importance before the Cabinet are the electoral registration reform, publicans' licenses and parish councils' bills. All of these have been drafted, and it can now be announced that they will form the bulk of the business of the session.

The Eviction Commission.

The Irish Eviction Commission will begin its meeting on Nov. 10. Lister Drummond, the secretary, is an Oxford man and a Catholic convert who has long served under Justice Mathew, the President of the commission, as revising barrister. Both Justice Mathew and Mr. Drummond are in sympathy with the tenants, and will so vitalize the enquiry as to dispel the suspicion of certain Nationalists that the commission was a put-off.

THE MONETARY BASIS.

An Attempt to Foster Bi-Metallism in Great Britain.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The currency agitation radiating from Manchester as a centre is now waking up the commercial and financial circles of London. The London Chamber of Commerce will shortly be asked to endorse the principal resolution adopted by the meeting in Manchester last night. In the highest financial quarters, however, there is a belief that the Government intends to pursue a policy of inertia on the currency question. On the other hand the Indian Currency Committee will not take long to arrive at a decision. Sir John Lubbock in a speech at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce gave some indication of the line of the Indian Committee's recommendation in suggesting an increase of the seigniorage or coinage charges. Other experts deny that this is a real remedy, but beyond this the Indian Committee is not expected to go. This committee will make its report at about the time the International Conference assembles.

The Times On Balfour's Address.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Times, referring to Mr. Balfour's address on bi-metalism, says: "We regret that Mr. Balfour is committed to the unsound policy of bimetalism. It is a serious matter when a public man of his authority undertakes the heavy responsibility for a change, of which he has not even attempted to prove the practicability."

Gloomy Prospect for Mitchell.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The appeal of Charley Mitchell, the prize fighter, who on Oct. 7 was sentenced to two months' hard labor for brutally assaulting George Savage, an aged lodging-housekeeper, will be heard in January. Judge Sir Peter Edler, before whom the appeal will be heard, has gained a reputation for the severity with which he deals with law-breakers. He recently confirmed with promptness a sentence imposed by a police magistrate on the pugilist Fritchard, and these facts do not argue well for Mitchell.

To Be Deprived of All Honors.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—General Rippenkampf and General Zistzonoff, who recently incurred the Czar's anger by violently assaulting each other, will be punished under the severest Russian military law. General Rippenkampf is over 60 years old. Both officers will be deprived of all their honors.

DEAR SIRS,—Anti-Dandruff is evidently giving satisfaction. I have sold about half the gross I bought from you on the 23rd of January last. I use it in my own family and like it well. Can recommend it to all who are troubled with dandruff.

Racked with Rheumatism.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B. B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also suffered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

The Carmeaux Strike.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Strike Committee at Carmeaux has requested William Millerand, Pelletan and Clemenceau to visit Carmeaux and examine into the situation themselves. It is reported that the nonunion workmen have arranged with the company and the police to attempt to work the mines in the event of the strike being farther prolonged.

Miss Parnell Wins Her Suit.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Miss Anne Parnell, sister of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, was successful yesterday in a suit for damages against a hotel-keeper in the Strand, who had ejected her from the hotel after having let a room to her. Miss Parnell sued for damages in the Westminster County Court and the court awarded her the sum of £20.

FLORENCE, Oct. 29.—The charming villa Oppenheim, which was once occupied by ex-Empress Eugenie, has been selected as Queen Victoria's residence during her visit to Italy.

An Austrian Mayor Poisoned.

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—The Mayor of Lemburg has been poisoned. It is asserted the crime was committed by people who are angry because of the severe cholera precautions taken at the mayor's instance.

Makes Flesh and Blood.

When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker, and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life" and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles 50c. and $1, at all drug stores. dw

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

THE OFFICER SLUMBERED.

And His Prisoner Gave Him the Slip, Handcuffs and All.

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—Charles Hamilton, the young lad who had been touring the country with the alleged murderer of Detective Phair, and who was being taken to Berlin to serve his sentence, took advantage of the constable's weariness when the train was nearing Brampton to escape, handcuffs and all. He is still at large.

To Compete With the British.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—China has granted the request made by Russia that she be allowed to establish consulates in Central China, Manchuria and Mongolia. The establishment of these consulates is due to Russia's desire that the occupants of the offices aid in pushing Russian trade in competition with the British.

It Was Not Pleuro-Pneumonia.

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—A London cable to The Star says: The Board of Agriculture has not yet given its decision regarding the alleged outbreak of pleuro-pneumonia among the Canadian cattle, but Principal Williams and Professor Owen Williams of the new Veterinary College of Edinburgh report that the lungs taken from the animals and examined by them present all the signs of bronchial pneumonia or cornstalk disease, which is non-contagious. In the face of this the Board of Agriculture will hardly be likely to schedule Canadian cattle.

CELERY CULTURE.

What Kinds to Grow—How the Plant Should be Sown and Attended to.

It is a matter of regret that this wholesome vegetable is not more generally cultivated by farmers. Indeed, it is difficult in many districts in the Province of Quebec to find it in gardens, except in or near the larger towns. The fact of the seed germinating slowly, and the extended period of time between seed-sowing and setting out the plants, probably deters many from growing it—causing them to look upon it as a lengthy operation. The usefulness of the product, however, far out-weighs any trouble incurred in raising it. Sow the seed early, in rich ground. Set out in July, choosing moist, rich soil (trenching is not necessary). Bank up part of those set out for early use about middle of September, being careful that the soil is kept from between the leaves; the remainder towards the end of the month.

The following selection of the thirty varieties tested the past season were most satisfactory. Field notes are appended:

Paris Green Yellow (Steele Bros.)—A dwarf variety, though resembling Golden Self-Blanching was earlier. Heart large for an early sort; very crisp and fine flavored.

White Walnut (Henderson.)—One of the larger-growing kinds; medium early; crisp very fine flavor. A good market variety.

Half Dwarf (Henderson.)—Was fit for table soon after White Walnut. Large hearts; blanches well; crisp; fine flavor. As a medium early variety it was not excelled.

White Plume.—Introduced by the late Peter Henderson in 1884. It has become exceedingly popular, and is now more widely grown than any other variety. It is advocated occasionally by seedsmen that with this as well as other partial self-blanching kinds earthing up is unnecessary; but the improvement in quality will always repay the grower for the extra labor.

Sandringham.—Was one of the most satisfactory among the later kinds. It should be profitable for market. The Dwarf variety of this does not seem to be as yet well selected.

Giant Golden Heart (Vaughan.)—Very large; late, but somewhat lacking in flavor.

Red Giant Solid.—Probably the best red celery for market purposes; flavor good; a little inclined to be stringy.—Horticulturist, Central Experimental Farm.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

His Excellency, on the advice of the Minister of Justice, has decided to allow the law to take its course in the case of Robert Olsen, alias Buck, condemned to be hanged Dec. 1 for murder on Aug. 1 last in Moncton of Constable Joseph E. Steadman, who was trying to arrest him for burglary at Chatham. Sir John Thompson has been appointed in place of Hon. Mr. Tupper to meet the Newfoundland delegates at Halifax. Messrs. Thompson, Bowell and Chapleau, with Douglas Stewart, secretary, leave for Halifax on Thursday next.

J. A. Bernier has been called to the Senate in place of the late Hon. M. A. Girard, Manitoba.

The writ for East Assiniboia to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Mr. Dewdney to be Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia was issued to-day. Nomination will be on Nov. 21, and the polling, if any, on Nov. 28.

J. A. McLean of Bridgewater, N.S., has been appointed Queen's Counsel.

J. E. Cuff has been appointed Collector of Customs at St. Catharines.

The trade of Canada is going up with leaps and bounds and if the remaining nine months of the fiscal year hold out in anything like proportion to the first three months, which closed on Sept. 30, the record will be broken worse than Nancy Hanks has broken the trotting record. For three months the exports have been $39,794,075 and the value of goods entered for consumption $33,281,896, showing an increase over last year of $5,777,063 in former and $2,742,868 in latter. An increase in the total trade of the country of $8,519,901 in three months is a pretty good answer to those who who complain that the McKinley Bill is killing us. We can stand a good deal of this kind of killing. For the three months the customs revenue has been $5,669,944, an increase of $483,115 over last year.

Escaped With Their Lives.

GUELPH, Oct. 29.—About 4.30 yesterday morning the family of John Dunn, living on the old Sheriff Grange Homestead, Waterloo-avenue, were aroused by fire. They had just time to snatch up some clothing and make their escape. Dunn moved into the house some two months ago from a farm and brought with him quite a quantity of this season's crop, which was destroyed, together with the household effects. The house was burned to the ground. Origin of fire unknown. Loss about $2000.

A Neglected Cold in the Head

leads to catarrh, perhaps consumption and death. Why neglect with such a safe, speedy remedy as Nasal Balm at hand? D. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says:—Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the the first application. All dealers or by mail, post paid, at 50c. small and $1 large size bottle. Address G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Doubly Commended.

SIRS,—I had a very bad cold and was cured by two bottles of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. I cannot do without it. MRS. W. C. H. PERRY, Sea Gull, Ont.

EAR SIRS,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as the best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used.

MISS F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A Sensible Man

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

CATTLE EXPORT MAY END

BECAUSE OF THE DISEASED COWS SENT TO ENGLAND.

The British Authorities Alarmed at the Alleged Introduction of Pleuro-Pneumonia by Canada Cattle—The Canadian Government Will Trace the Cattle and Report.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—It is learned from the department of Agriculture that Sir Charles Tupper, High Commissioner for Canada, has telegraphed that the veterinary authorities of the Imperial Privy Council have ordered the animals which were imported into the United Kingdom by the Monkseaton and the Huronian to be traced with a view to slaughter. No decision has been communicated as to the nature of the disease found in the two animals slaughtered some days ago, but the action of tracing and of ordering to be slaughtered all the animals which were on the two steamships mentioned with them points to a very serious suspicion. The Minister of Agriculture, at the request of Sir Charles Tupper, has directed that all the animals which were shipped on the two steamers named be traced to the districts whence they came and a particular report furnished of the facts found. It is very confidently believed that there is absolutely no pleuro-pneumonia in Canada, and therefore that the disease affecting the animals in question was one of the forms of pneumonia, quite different from the contagious pleuro.

The London Standard is out with an article demanding the instant placing of Canada on the schedule list as a plain duty to be performed. The question is to be discussed by the Central Chamber of Agriculture on Monday and the Royal Agricultural Society on Wednesday. These facts show the great interest which is being manifested. The true position of the facts in Canada have been clearly and fully stated by the High Commissioner, who is anxious to get further reports respecting the localities whence the two animals referred to came, and these will be furnished as soon as possible.

It will be remembered that when the Canadian commissioners last visited Washington for the purpose of discussing with a view to settlement the various questions of international interest unsettled between Canada and the United States one of the matters so discussed was the appointment of a commission of experts to consider the question of the protection of fish in the inland waters contiguous to the two countries and the regulation of the use of engines of destruction in non-territorial waters. It is understood that the appointment of such a joint commission has now been agreed on and that Canada will be represented by Commander Wakeham of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, whose long connection with the Fisheries branch of the department specially qualifies him for the position. The commissioners will have access to all the material bearing on the subject collected by the Canadian and United States Governments, and will make investigations during a period not to exceed two years. The report will cover the protection of fish and the use of engines for their destruction, and also will contain suggestions as to the close seasons to be observed by the fishermen of both countries. The report will be made jointly and severally to the two governments and will be subsequently used as the basis of an international agreement.

Yesterday being the birthday of Mr. George Johnson, Dominion Statistician, he was presented by the ladies engaged on the census with a large bowl of magnificent tea roses. Mr. Johnson is a giddy young widower, slightly on the shady side of 50, and there are many charming ladies employed on census work.

LOSS OF THE ROUMANIA.

One Hundred and Fifteen Lives Lost by the Catastrophe.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—The place where the Anchor Liner Roumania was lost is a little to the northeast of Cape Carvariro, almost the extreme westerly point of Portugal. Severe westerly gales have been prevailing for some time and it is thought the Roumania made more leeway than was calculated upon by Capt. Young in his dead reckoning, for the vessel was off her course and headed directly for the coast. To those acquainted with the coast it appears strange that Capt. Young, who was an experienced navigator, lost his vessel at this place, for the lead, by showing the depth of water and the bottom, should have warned him that he was too near the coast.

It has been learned definitely that of a total of 122 persons, passengers and crew on board, only seven were saved. There are no life-saving appliances in the vicinity of the wreck and even if there had been it is very doubtful if they could have been used in the teeth of the gale, amounting almost to a hurricane, and the tremendously high sea that was running.

Seven bodies in a nearly nude condition have been washed ashore, and the fact that they were unclothed is taken to indicate that many of the people aboard were in their berths when the steamer struck and had no chance to save themselves.

Among the Roumania's passengers were Capt. J. E. Barry, Capt. B. H. Randolph and Capt. George Hamilton and wife, Lieut. B. B. S. Cook and Lieut. C. D. Sanford and wife, Lady Johnson and child, Rev. J. S. Smalkin and several English ladies, who were returning to them with their children and nurses. Almost all the officers of the ship were Scotch. Sixteen of the crew were Lascars.

The bodies of several children have been recovered. Among the dead are Mrs. Beatty, an Irish missionary, who was returning to her husband in India, and Miss McGeorge, a medical missionary of the Irish Presbyterian Church. Every indication points out that the steamer struck after the passengers had retired. This conjecture is borne out by the very slight apparel found on the dead.

METHODISM IN AMERICA.

The Anniversary of Its Inception Celebrated in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The old John-street Church, this city, bears the distinction of being the cradle of American Methodism. Beginning with a love feast at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, a celebration of the 126th anniversary of the inception of the Methodist doctrine in this country has occupied the entire day and the evening and the old church has been crowded to the doors. Among those taking part in the exercises were Bishops Newman, Carman and Walden.

Murder at New Westminster.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Oct. 31.—A. R. Pittendrigh, son of Capt. Pittendrigh, coroner, was murdered on the Indian reservation Thursday night. The theory is that he assaulted an Indian woman named Mary, who committed the murder.

The Single Tax in Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—The proposition to adopt the single tax theory in Winnipeg's municipal government constitutes the issue in the approaching civic elections. Those opposed to change are already getting their ticket in the field.

A Chance for Ship-Owners.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Lake and rail space, both on the Beatty and C.P.R. lines, is held at a premium. It seems to have been secured for the remainder of the season of navigation. The balance of the season will only allow each line to make ten more trips, and that is the reason why space has been secured by grain shippers.

A Schooner Ashore.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 31.—The schooner Grantham, with coal from Charlotte bound for Toronto, went ashore at Timber Island on Friday night. A wrecking expedition has left here for the stranded vessel.

G.T SHAREHOLDERS KICK

THEY HOLD A VERY STORMY MEETING IN LONDON.

Sir Henry Tyler's Management Criticised and the Utility of the New Union Station at Toronto Questioned—It is Highly Probable that Sir Henry Will be Re-Elected President.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—A cable despatch to The Star from London says:

A large and lively annual meeting of the Grand Trunk shareholders Saturday lasted three hours.

Sir Henry Tyler made a long and sanguine speech, in which he stated he, as a consequence of the recent changes, expected a saving of £40,000 annually.

Mr. Girdlestone, on behalf of some of the leading stockholders, moved in favor of further savings in the engineering and legal departments and against the proposed new Toronto station, as well as against the proposal regarding the taking over the Nipissing line.

Mr. Baker seconded the motion and urged that Mr. Seargeant, the general manager, be dismissed. He charged those behind the scenes of the company with speculation.

Mr. Gramshaw, another prominent shareholder, urged that the president and the directors of the company be appointed in Canada like the Canadian Pacific officials, leaving a small board here. The Grand Trunk, he said, was becoming a philanthropic affair.

Mr. Hubbard, a director, detailed the favorable results of his recent tour with Sir Henry Tyler, and eulogized Mr. Seargeant and his staff.

Mr. Household, the auditor of the company, said he refused to be muzzled. Though an official, he protested against the new capital outlay. The board should be strengthened in Canada.

"An auditor here," he said, "has no more idea of the real nature of the expenditure than the man in the moon."

Sir Henry Tyler replied that the Toronto station and the Nipissing line were essential and would be profitable. It would be folly, he said, to transfer the control of the company to Canada. A pension of £1000 had been given to Sir Joseph Hickson. It was given to keep him loyal to the company's interests. The Grand Trunk, Sir Henry continued, had agreed with Mr. Van Horne of the Canadian Pacific to dismiss every official who cuts rates.

Mr. Girdlestone's amendment to the annual report was rejected by about 60 to 40.

Then Mr. Girdlestone demanded a poll on the motion for the consolidation of the minor railways into the Grand Trunk system.

Mr. Baker moved to postpone it. This was carried against the board by about 20 to 20, a large number of the shareholders at first present having left the meeting.

Sir Henry Tyler demanded a poll on the other board meetings, which were carried.

Mr. Baker charged that the annual report had not really been adopted, and he protested against the board's use of its proxies, while the other shareholders received none.

Mr. Household declared, as auditor, that a miserable and disgraceful fraud had been committed at the last poll, in the board charging for proxies which were never received by the shareholders.

The meeting dispersed amid loud protests while the poll was proceeding.

THE IMPRISONED DYNAMITERS.

President Harrison Doing a Little Political Work.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The Secretary of State has recently sent an instruction to the United States legation in London respecting Dr. Thomas Gallagher, John Curtin and other Irish-Americans now serving life sentences in Great Britain. Representations have been made to this Government in their behalf and President Harrison has directed that the legation in London bring the matter to the consideration of the British Government with a view to securing such modification of the sentence of the court as will bring about their release from further imprisonment.

Dr. Gallagher is reported to be in bad health, and the legation has been instructed to visit his prison and procure such alleviation of his confinement as humanity may suggest pending the consideration of the case as newly presented. Confidence is felt that in view of the long confinement which the prisoners have already suffered and of their certified good character in the United States the present Gladstone Government will listen favorably to the appeal of the Government of the United States and grant them liberty to return to the country of their adoption.

Last Trip Across the Pacific.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 1.—The Canadian Pacific Railway's steamship Empress of Japan arrived last night from the Orient, having made 17 knots all the way, beating the trans-Pacific record with ease. Midway between Hong Kong and Shanghai, Oct. 10, she encountered a terrific typhoon, which, by the staunchness of the ship and good seamanship, she weathered safely.

Lasker the Chess Expert.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Lasker defeated Hanham in their third and last game at the Manhattan Chess Club. Hanham opened irregularly as the first move of their match. On the 31st move he offered a draw, which Lasker refused. Hanham lost on the 39th move.

The Rebels Disarmed.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 1.—Order has been completely restored in the city of Santiago Del Estero. The rebels have been disarmed by the federal troops.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA IN CATTLE.

A Demand in England That Canada Be Scheduled.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—A London despatch to The Star says: The Canadian cattle trade is in a critical state. The Board of Agriculture has given no distinct description whether the disease in the suspected Canadian cattle is pleuro-pneumonia, but in view of the large consignments on the Atlantic from Canada, The Standard, Live Stock Journal and other papers loudly demand Canada to be scheduled. It is feared, despite the Government's desire to treat Canada kindly and as a British colony, their hands may be forced. The Canadian Government may avert the blow by an instant submission of facts which will go to prove that the districts whence cattle came are still entirely free from the much-dreaded disease.

Killed As a Precautionary Measure.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Sixty head of cattle in Elginshire, Scotland, which had come in contact with Canadian cattle suffering from pleuro-pneumonia, have been killed as a precautionary measure.

CHOYNSKI WHIPS GODFREY.

The Coney Island Fight Lasts Fifteen Rounds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Choynski and Godfrey fought 15 rounds at the Coney Island Athletic Club last night, when Godfrey was defeated.

The crowd was too large for comfort, and standing room only was to be had by the time the first fight began.

Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, came in just before the first bout began. His reception was most hearty. It was nearly 9 o'clock when the first battle was announced, the contestants being Kid Hogan of Brooklyn and Dolly Lyons of this city. The boys fought at catch weights, owing to the fact that Lyons could not get down to weigh at 112 pounds.

The fight lasted 10 rounds, the greater portion of this time being of the give-and-take order. The referee decided in favor of Hogan. It was generally admitted that Lyons gave the winner a hard fight.

Godfrey and Choynski fought 15 rounds before Choynski was declared the victor. Like the preliminary battle the contest was pretty even for 13 rounds and not much advantage to either. In the 15th Choynski got in a heavy one from which Godfrey failed to recover.

Choynski has been defeated three times by "Jim" Corbett and twice by "Joe" Goddard, but they were all hard-fought battles, and both Corbett and Goddard speak of Choynski in the highest terms, and say that he is not only a good stiff puncher but one of the gamest men that ever entered the ring.

Godfrey, on the other hand, though the oldest man in the prize-ring to-day, is a clever fighter and a very free hard hitter. He has only met with two defeats before to-night in his long pugilistic career, one at the hands of Peter Jackson and the other when "Jake" Kilrain knocked him out in the 44th round. Both these battles were most desperately fought, and Godfrey made his opponents realize the fact that they had no easy task to perform.

MR. BLAKE'S DEPARTURE.

Given a Good Send-off at the Union Station—Check for $1000.

TORONTO, Nov. 1. — There was a large gathering at the Union Depot yesterday afternoon to say good-bye to Hon. Edward Blake on his leaving for New York, where he sails to-morrow in the Teutonic for Liverpool. Mrs. Blake accompanied the hon. gentleman. Shortly before 5 o'clock, Hon. Frank Smith, Mr. Patrick Boyle and Mr. Lee accosted Mr. Blake and expressed their hearty thanks for the services Mr. Blake has rendered to the Irish cause, and their anticipation that still further benefit would result from Mr. Blake's mission. Senator Smith then produced a check for £1000 and told Mr. Blake this was a portion of the fund which had been subscribed by the friends of Ireland since the reception given the member for Longford at the Pavilion. Mr. Blake, who was visibly affected by the personal references, accepted the gift with many thanks. President Loudon, Professor Carpmael, Ex-Mayor Manning and other gentlemen heartily shook hands with Mr. Blake, and after an affecting good-bye to the members of the Blake family the train steamed out of the station amid the cheers of the assembled crowd.

FREE FROM RUSSIAN TOILS.

The Crew of the Seized Sealers Arrive at Victoria.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 1.—The Empress of Japan brought to Victoria the captains and crews of the Canadian sealers, Carmelite and Maria, which were seized by the Russians 15 and 28 miles respectively off Copper Island. The men were taken to Vladivostock by the Russian warship Witges, bearing the admiral of the fleet, and after severe hardships there they were sent to Naga Saki. There they found that the British warship Leander had left to rescue them. They awaited her return from Vladivostock and were informed by the commander that their seizure was illegal and would be resented. On Oct. 20 the Leander and two warships from Hong Kong again sailed for Vladivostock, the object of their cruise being to recover the schooners and sealskins held by the Russians.

WHO WILL GET IT?

The Vacant Middlesex Registrarship Now to Be Filled.

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—It is understood that the office of registrar of East and North Middlesex, vacated by the death of Col. Walker nearly three years ago, is at last to be filled, and on the heels of the rumor applicants for the position are besieging the Attorney-General's office daily. During the vacancy the office has been filled by Col. Walker's deputy, Mr. Noble.

The Lock-Out in Lancashire.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Each side in the cotton dispute is seeking to fix on the other the odium of commencing the threatened war. The masters describe it as a strike, while the operators declare it will be a lock-out.

One of the leaders of the Society of Cotton Spinners asserts the ability of the union men to hold out for six months, and declares they will teach the non-union spinners a lesson. It is believed a cessation of work for six weeks will so reduce the accumulated stocks of manufactured goods that the masters will be willing to reopen their mills at the old rate of wages.

THE MURDERER IS MOODY

HE IS SULLEN AS HIS END DRAWS NEAR.

He Has Given Up Hope of Reprieve and Is Silent When His Counsel Asks Him for Information of His Crimes—His Execution Will Be Private—It Is Not Yet Determined What He Shall Confess.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Neill Cream, the convicted prisoner now awaiting execution, is restless and sleepless in his condemned cell. He relates the use of opium, by which he has been surrounded, and spends the time in reading. Solicitor Waters, who represented Neill, visits every day and endeavors to get Cream to talk about his past crimes. These requests merely irritate Cream, who demands to know what is being done to obtain a reprieve for him. To this Waters has replied that he is working hard with that object in view, for Cream is apparently without friends.

A three-foot passage, iron-caged, separates the prisoner from his visitors, and two warders are stationed at the gateway listening to everything that is said.

The officials will not allow any confession to be made public unless it passes through their hands, and then the confession will be in the brief formula: "The prisoner has admitted the justice of the sentence." This formula will comprise the extent of the disclosure. The officials will never disclose any confession which Cream may see fit to make to the chaplain.

The prisoner is not allowed to hand papers to his solicitor, except after the jailers have perused them, and this rule is sufficient to balk the desire of Solicitor Waters to get a written confession from his recent client. Cream has, however, promised to give Waters a history of his life, and this the officials may, if they should see fit, hand over to the lawyer after the execution.

While portions of Cream's life story are said to be thrilling, it has been learned that the condemned man does not admit to the warders of the jail that he made startling revelations or has acknowledged some of the crimes he is alleged to have confessed. Cream told Waters when his defence was being prepared that he had given poisonous doses to Miss Stack of Chicago and to Daniel Stott of Chicago, and he boasted that he had served dozens the same way. That was regarded as mere empty talk, as the prisoner appears to have given no particulars of the crimes of which he boasted. Nevertheless it is certain that Cream has prepared a written statement and that Waters is seeking to secure a large sum of money for the alleged confession.

Neill Said to be Demented.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Mr. Waters, solicitor for Thomas Neill, now under sentence of death for poisoning Matilda Clover, has received a despatch from Canada stating that affidavits showing Neill is insane have been mailed to him. They will be embodied in a petition to Right Hon. Herbert Asquith, the Home Secretary, asking him to remit the death sentence on the ground that the condemned man is a lunatic.

The Execution Will Be Private.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—It has been decided that the execution will be strictly private. Only the officials whose attendance is necessary will be present, and there will be no opportunity for any farewell demonstrations on the part of the condemned. Neill continues very morose and is really beginning to believe that there is no chance for him to escape the gallows. He has been carefully searched to see if he had any means of suicide hidden away, but nothing was discovered and the officials are convinced that he was confident of acquittal and thought no precaution necessary.

The authorities are inclined to place very little confidence in the supposed confession. They think it will be a good deal like the pretended confession left behind by the murderer Deeming, which was destroyed after Deeming's execution. It is possible that the same course may be decided upon in regard to any papers left by Cream.

THE RECIPROCITY QUESTION.

The United States Government Begins to Make Excuses.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. — Inquiry was made at the Department of State relative to the statement coming from Ottawa that the United States Government was to blame for the failure of reciprocity in certain cases. It is learned that the United States Government has been ready for a long time past to issue the proclamation, but that the delay has been caused by the failure of the Canadian Legislature to act as required in the matter. At least if any such action has been taken the Department of State here is not officially advised and so cannot proceed further in the matter.

Murdered Her Mother.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—Yesterday about 9 o'clock Mrs. Mary B. Maran, a widow, living at 66 Dana-street, in the fashionable part of Cambridge, killed her mother, Mrs. Annie L. Brownlee, a woman nearly 70 years old. Mrs. Brownlee was found lying dead on the floor and the neighbors were trying to pacify the murdered woman's daughter, Mrs. Maran, who is evidently insane.

She said early this morning she and her mother were chatting pleasantly, when the old lady kissed her and told her she was a very dutiful daughter. The murderess said, "As mother started to go up stairs I walked up behind her and struck her on the head with a wrench."

He Was Well-Known in Toronto.

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—Mr. George Roberts, who committed suicide in Orillia Friday night by taking several ounces of laudanum, was well known in Toronto.

Up to some eight months ago he was traveler for Milburn & Co., wholesale patent medicines, Colborne-street. The firm speak highly of his capabilities, but say that gambling was his curse, and it was for this reason that they had to part with him. After leaving here he went to Detroit. He was 28 years of age and of fine physique. At the coroner's inquest a verdict of death from poison administered by his own hand was returned. The body was removed to Hamilton Monday by a brother of deceased.

The Great Storm On the Lakes.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The loss to shipping on the lakes during Saturday's storm will aggregate $1,000,000. Yesterday the storm on the lower lakes was lessening, but on Lake Superior the wind was still blowing a furious gale, accompanied by a very heavy fall of snow.

THE LATE SERGT. BILLINGS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

At this time a brief reference to the life and death of the late Sergeant Billings may not be unprofitable to any of us. Of his early life in our midst—then a man in the prime of life—his life, as those who know him best can testify, was not exemplary. But about six years ago he attended evangelistic services then being held in our town by Evangelist Schivera, and as a result of the preaching of the Gospel he turned his back on the old way and set his face to the new, and by a living faith in a personal Saviour he experienced the new birth and began a new life. He was then about sixty-nine years of years of age, and his one great regret afterwards was that he had so long delayed the step he had then taken, but said he sincerely thought that if the truth had been earlier presented to him as it was at that time, he would sooner have accepted it. Although in the past six years he has had many besetments and "many adversaries" his life has been a most striking contrast to his former days; and there is every encouragement to those who are situated as he was, in a greater or less degree in the power of the Evil One, to seek for and accept a strength that is in the Mighty One. The last six years of his life have been the happiest. His death was a triumphant one.

I remain, Mr. Editor,
Yours truly,
A FRIEND.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

This being the first year for the dog tax being levied in the township of Monaghan, it would appear that the dogs are not going to be imposed upon, and they would also seem to be equal to the occasion, as they are making wholesale slaughter of the sheep. Those parties who are so unfortunate in having a visit from the canine tribe, are required to have their damages valued at once by two respectable farmers, who will make oath as to the injury done to the stock, and the owner is required to make diligent search for the dogs, and also swear that he has done so, which, if found, the owner is to be looked to for the assessed damage, which is to be two-thirds the full amount of damages which the valuators levy.

Miss Seens, of Baileboro read a very interesting paper on the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour at London last week.

On Saturday evening as Mrs. John O'Hara, of Fraserville was proceeding to the yard she slipped on the steps and falling sustained a fracture of the leg just about four inches above the knee joint. Dr. Montgomery, South Monaghan, and Dr. Gray, of Baillieboro are attending the unfortunate lady, Mrs. O'Hara being about sixty years of age, will likely be confined to the house for some time. She has the sympathy of the community in her unfortunate accident.

On Friday week last as Mr. Geo. Berry, of Cavan, was working on the farm with a team of colts, the flies being troublesome, one of the colts shook one of the lines over its head while standing. Mr. Berry walked up the tongue to remove the rein and when returning to the waggon the horses started and ran away, throwing him between them and the waggon. He hanging on the lines, was dragged considerable distance, the waggon passing over his neck, breast, arm and leg. His physician states that his patient, although severely bruised, will recover from what might have been a fatal accident.

"SHE HAS MADE IT A FAMILY FRIEND."

It is Worthy of Such an Honour.

"We are never without your famous Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our house. Two years ago my wife had occasion to test its virtues in a case of sore throat, and found it so effective in removing the trouble, that she has made it a family friend. We have advised scores of friends to use it for coughs and colds and in every case it has given entire satisfaction."

The above extracts are taken from a Toronto gentleman's letter, and such testimony should prove interesting to all who are looking for an honest and reliable cough remedy.

Harvard Bronchial Syrup has no equal on this continent as a cure for irritation of the throat and bronchial tubes, hacking cough and enlargement of the tonsils. It does not require several bottles to bring relief. Very often one or two doses will give the desired results,

This magnificent remedy is now as popular in the Dominion as it is in the United States. It has never failed to cure the most obstinate colds, and has always triumphed where other cough mixtures have failed.

Try it, reader, if you wish to get rid of that troublesome and dangerous cold; it will do wonders for you.

It Beats Jack Frost.

DEAR SIRS,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family and know it is a sure cure for lumbago and frost bites. My wife was so bad with lumbago that she could not straighten herself, and Yellow Oil completely cured her. It has been a fortune to us.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

Women with pale, colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion. dw

AND HE WISHED THE OTHER BYE,

The Toronto World says: Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P. for West Peterborough, was on 'Change yesterday. Before "call" a number of grain brokers were gossiping and the talk turned on the difficulty Toronto had in getting the Dominion Government to spend any money on local improvements. "Well," said Mr. Stevenson, "if Toronto people can't get what they want I'm sure no one else can. Now, take Peterborough," he continued with a rising inflection. "We contribute $100,000 a year in customs and $80,000 a year in inland revenue, and we get nothing—not a copper."

Two or three brokers shook their heads as if to say it was a shame, and the others were silent.

"When I come up here," Mr. Stevenson went on, "I see your big building and go through your marble halls—nothing less than marble, mind you—and we are content if we get sun-dried brick. I tell you, Toronto is getting everything and we get nothing."

IN CUSTODY AT BUFFALO.

"Rev." Mr. Ruthven Held For False Pretences.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Oct. 33.—A man calling himself the Rev. Mr. Ruthven has been working the mission dodge in the city for some time past.

About three weeks ago Ruthven appeared in Buffalo, claiming to have come directly from the Toronto Pan-Presbyterian council, and provided with letters of introduction from that body. He represented himself to be interested in the mission work in the South Sea Islands, and said he was collecting funds to build a boat to carry the Gospel from Australia to the South Pacific Islands. He sold to the various churches certificates of stock in the vessel to be built. Ruthven was arrested on Saturday night and charged with obtaining money under pretences. When arrested he was intoxicated and is still in that condition. He is evidently well acquainted with the South Sea Islands and claims to be a native of the Islands.

HE WAS ON THE JEANETTE.

And the Hardships Drove Him to Madness and Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.— Early Saturday morning James R. Bartlett, one of the survivors of the Jeanette expedition, shot and killed his wife's niece, Lottie Carpenter, shot his wife in the shoulder and then shot and killed himself. Since his return from the Arctic regions Bartlett's mind has been weak as the result of the hardships experienced, and yesterday he threatened the murder of his wife and niece.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth.—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 413 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION
Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Rare Relict of Chemistry.

A reporter was shown to-day in one of the town drug store two rare chemical curiosities. One was a sheet of the finest manilla paper used over fifty years ago by druggists in the Old Country for wrapping up parcels. On the paper which is of a bluish tint and tough as parchment are printed the words "From Thos. Rush, chemist and druggist, Thaxstead, Eng." The other was an old style seal such as used many years ago by all business men. It bore the same inscription.

A Creditable Production.

Last evening at the Opera House, A. H. Woodhull's company in "Uncle Hiram" appeared to a full house—one of the largest that has greeted any production here this season. The play was an excellent one and well put on. The plot is interesting and successfully worked out. The characterization was good, without an exception. The thrilling scenes presented in the saw mill, railroad express and boiler explosion, were in themselves natural and splendidly represented, besides lending a charm of realism and life to the play, seldom produced. The songs and jokes were catchy and unreservedly applauded. Miss Troja Griswold more than sustained her past reputation and proved a great favorite. Aaron Woodhill as "Uncle Hiram" was all that the most fastidious or critical could desire. The play is a capital picture of American rural life and had been produced with signal success throughout Ontario all this season. They left for the west this morning.

Amusement Notes.

Lincoln J. Carter's "Fast Mail" was presented at the City Opera House Saturday evening to the largest audience of the season. There was standing room only. Every character was well taken and the scenery was the best ever seen in the city. The steamboat explosion, the freight train, the fast mail and Niagara Falls by moonlight, were realistic and drew forth rounds of applause. It was a splendid reception to a good company. The company had twice beforeappeared before a Port Huron audience, but Saturday evening's performance was a record breaker, all of which goes to show that the play catches the popular fancy and pleases both parquette and gallery. It was the 1498th presentation of the piece. On Tuesday evening, at Toledo, the company will give its fifteenth hundred performance, at which time souvenir spoons will be given to every lady in attendance. Mr. Carter now has in preparction a new play entitled "The Tornado," with elaborate scenic effects which will be brought to Port Huron in the near future. If it proves to be as good as the "Fast Mail" the opera houses throughout the country will have to be enlarged to accommodate the crowds. At Opera House here Saturday night. —Port Huron Times. 1d

A SOLDIER'S FUNERAL.

The Remains of the Late Sergt. Charles Billings Consigned to the Tomb, Under Military Auspices.

The funeral of the late Sergt. Charles Billings took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. John Campbell, Auburn. The last sad rites of the veteran military man were attended by a large number of people. Rev. J. E. Trotter conducted an impressive service at the house and also the customary burial service at the grave. The pallbearers were Sergt.-Major Goldie, Sergt. Hall and Sergt. Wilson of "C" Troop, 3rd regiment of cavalry, Color-Sergt. Distin, Staff-Sergt. Elcombe, Col.-Sergt. Lyod of the 57th Battallion. The procession moved solemnly down George street with the 57th Battalion Band in the vanguard, who with muffled drawn and slowly tread, moved quietly towards the cemetery. Following the band, the procession proceeded in the following order: 57th Batt. firing party of 20 men, under the command of Color Sergeant Hounsell, hearse bearing the remains, many floral tokens being upon the coffin; pall bearers; "C" Troop Cavalry, Lt.-Col. H.C. Rogers, in command; Lts. Loucks and Johnson of "B" Troop, Cavalry, Millbrook, Col. J. Z. Rogers and Lieut. Matthews representing the officers of 57th Battalion. The non-commissioned officers brought up the rear of the military, followed by relatives and citizens in carriages. At the grave the 57th Battalion firing party fired three shots over the grave of their departed comrade.

Last Night's Festivities at Ashburnham.

The boys of Ashburnham celebrated Hallowe'en last night, notwithstanding the heavy rain, in collecting cabbages, beets and other vegetables and scattering them indiscriminately around town. In front of the town hall they placed two empty barrels across the street and erected a long pole reaching clear across, and on these they placed their "vegetables," but unfortunately in the display, a pane of glass was broken in the fanlight of the main entrance to the new town hall. Immediately opposite they pulled down an old unoccupied shed which has been leaning over for some years. Fences, gates, woodsheds and such like, all had a share of attention. Cabbages sold quickly at two heads for 5c. where they were offered for sale.

But 4 Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"It is with pleasure that I tell of the great benefit I derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. For 6 years I have been badly afflicted with breaking out with running sores during hot summer months. I have sometimes not been able to use my limbs for two months at a time. Being induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I got one bottle last spring, commenced using it; felt so much better, got two bottles more; took them during the summer, was able to do my housework, and

A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

Provided in the George Street Methodist Church Last Evening.

There was a fair attendance congregated in the George street Methodist church last evening to hear Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the noted Indian elocutionist. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour of the church. Mayor Kendry occupied the chair and in a few pleasing words opened the proceedings of the evening. Miss Johnson opened the meritorious programme rendered during the evening by appearing in the first number, "Beyond the Blue." Miss Johnson, who is of graceful form and charming presence, rendered the selections in a style that pleased and intensely interested the audience. She proved herself to be an elocutionist of no mean ability, possessed of much power, and especially when revelling in the beauties of nature does she particularly excel. Her voice is clear, flexible, resonant, and her portrayal of character and emotions are natural and faithful. Miss Johnson appeared in three other numbers during the evening and in two of them was becomingly costumed, as a typical Indian maiden clad in buckskin from head to toe, and with her raven black hair tossed back in flowing tresses. Her other dress was that of a boating daughter in a pretty white dress with blue sash and hat. "A Red Girl's Reasoning" and "The Song my Paddle Sings" were loudly welcomed. Miss Johnson during the evening responded to two hearty recalls. Mrs. Seward sang "Come Unto Me" in a well modulated voice and with pleasing effect, to the acceptable accompaniment of Mr. Geo. Schneider. The well-known George street church quartette composed of Messrs. W. H. Manning, 1st tenor, E. McKee, 2nd tenor, S. F. Hill, 1st base, and A. Turner, 2nd base, rendered two fine selections and were coerced into an encore. "God Bless my Boy" was especially well given in sweet harmonious strains, the voices of the singers blending beautifully. The entertainment closed shortly before ten o'clock when a well pleased crowd wended its way joyfully homewards.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

ENNISMORE'S BEAUTIFUL CHURCH.

His Lordship Visited it on Sunday—Erecting New Stations of the Cross—The Services at the Beautiful St. Martin's.

The Roman Catholic church of St. Martin's, Ennismore, has been recently very much beautified and improved. A substantial new sacristy has been added to the church building and the interior of the church has been elaborately and appropriately decorated in fresco work. Mr. Fred Richardson, of Belleville, the well known artist, has done some beautiful artistic work. The walls and ceilings of the church have been covered with beautiful and appropriate frescoes, which make St. Martin's church without doubt, the finest and most beautiful church in the diocese.

On Sunday His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, accompanied by Rev. Father Scollard, went to Ennismore to perform the solemn ceremony of blessing the new stations of the cross in St. Martin's. Rev. Father Scollard sang the mass in the presence of a large congregation, and His Lordship preached the sermon, and at the close congratulated the congregation upon the beautiful church, which their piety and the energetic efforts of their pastor had by the blessing of Almighty God given them. He paid a high tribute to the energetic and zealous action of Rev. Father McColl, parish priest, who in so short a pastorate had been able to accomplish so much in the parish in the way of improvement. Then followed the impressive ceremony of erecting the stations of the cross. In the evening Rev. Father Scollard preached a sermon equal in earnestness and eloquence to his address of the morning. His sermons, apart from their intrinsic merit, had an additional interest from the fact that the preacher was one of them who had been born and had grown up in the parish.

TELEGRAPH vs. TELEPHONE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Monopoly is one of our greatest evils. A striking example of the truth of this statement exists right at our very doors. Before the amalgamation of the Ontario and Bell Telephone systems in Peterborough, telephone communication with Toronto or other points for instance, cost the sum of 25c. Now the privilege since the merging the two former corporations into one costs no less a sum, Mr. Editor, than sixty cents, the rates being more than doubled. This is an unjust imposition on a public and one which should be severly denounced. I would advise all parties when requiring intercourse with the outside world to use the telegraph wires as it comes cheaper. It costs only 25 cents.

Yours, etc.,
FAIR PLAY.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Second Day of the Autumn Assizes—Carter vs. Bradburn Concluded—Neil Pleads Guilty—Calder on Trial for Burglary.

TUESDAY, Nov. 1st.

Yesterday the court was engaged with the hearing of the evidence in the case of Carton vs. Bradburn, and the session of the court lasted till late in the night and was completed this morning when the counsel and His Lordship addressed the jury. It will be remembered that this case is an action for damages brought by Michael Carton to receive $3,000 damages for assault, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. The case the origin of the present case have been fully published in the EXAMINER, and it is unnecessary to repeat them. Verdict for plaintiff for the sum of $50 and county court costs, with no set off. Mr. Edwards for plaintiff; Messrs. Hatton & Wood for defendant.

Queen vs. Wm. Neil—In this case the grand jury brought in a true bill, and this afternoon Neil was arraigned in two courts—obtainining the sum of $23.70 on false pretences, and forgery o' a time check. In July last Neil was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Dumble on a charge of obtaining money on false pretences, by procuring the cashing at the Ontario bank here, of a time check belonging to one Wm. Liddell, an employee of the Rathbun Company. To this indictment the prisoner pleaded guilty, but to the charge of forgery not guilty.

The Crown did not call any evidence on the latter charge, and the prisoner was released on his own recognizance to appear for sentence when called upon. Mr. W. H. Moore appeared for the prisoner.

The trial of the charge of burglary against George Calder, Ashburnham, is engaging the attention of the court this afternoon.

JAS. DOLAN.

THE INSPECTORSHIP CONTROVERSY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—If any justification were needed for the charges brought in my letter against Mr. Dumble, it would be amply furnished by his communication in your Monday's issue. Nearly the whole of that characteristic production is made up of scurrilous abuse and misrepresentation of facts.

I did not, as Mr. Dumble asserts, speak of an "insignificant fraction," but of a "faction numerically insignificant." I did not assert that Dr. Tilley was "dishonest and a fraud," (fraud is no where to be found in my letter) and that he "manipulates the examination papers so as to pass a great many more than should pass."

I endeavoured to show that Dr. Tilley was an interested party in this discussion; that he had it in his power to so manage these examinations as to make a favourable showing for himself; that Mr. Dumble obtained his knowledge of the schools from the results of these examinations, and from information afforded him by Dr. Tilley; and that too much reliance should not be placed on knowledge thus obtained.

It is not true, as Mr. Dumble asserts, that I want a head master to take charge of all the public schools of the town. We have a and one for each of the Ward Schools, and, so far as I know, the Board is perfectly satisfied with them.

I used the term head, it is true; but it is impossible to believe that Mr. Dumble understood me to mean a head master.

A sufficient answer to this part of Mr. Dumble's letter may be found in the rules laid down for the guidance of the official whom the majority of the board desire to appoint.

Nor is their any truth in Mr. Dumble's insinuation that I, or any of those with whom I act in this matter, have any particular person in view for the position of Permanent Inspector. When the board has decided to make the change, I have no doubt a competent man will be found; but, so far as I know, no name has been mentioned as yet.

Mr. Dumble charges me and other members of the board with having continuously and systematically slandered our schools. Can Mr. Dumble, or any other man, point to a single utterance or a single act of mine, which would justify this assertion? That there are defects in our schools all will admit, and that a sincere desire to remedy these defects merits the charge of all honest men will deny. But it is needless to follow Mr. Dumble further in his systematic misrepresentations.

Nor should we blame him too severely when we reflect that it is the intensity of his loyalty which leads him astray. But, seriously, Mr. Dumble, would it not be well to be occasionally loyal to truth?

I have tried to conduct this correspondence in a fair and gentlemanly manner.

I have not attempted to imitate the refined and elegant style of Mr. Dumble's last letter, because in that particular vein he is inimitable. I am as desirous as Mr. Dumble so often asserts himself to be, to improve the condition of our schools, and I believe the best posible way to do this is by the appointment of a permanent Inspector. Mr. Dumble commenced this discussion and he is very anxious now to drop out of it.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space,

I am, yours truly,
W. H. HALL.

P.S.—Permit me to correct an error in my first letter. I stated the Entrance Examinations were conducted by Dr. Tilley, and the examiners appointed by him. The assistant examiners were formerly appointed by the Inspector. It had slipped my memory at the time of writing that there had been a change in the regulations in this respect.

THE FEED AND CARE OF FOWLS.

When fowls run at large over an extensive range they pick up a great quantity of food and do not require to be fed as often as those kept in a yard. But even then they should be given some kind of grain food at least once a day, as the scraps from the table could be utilized in no better way than by cutting them and feeding to chickens. When confined in yards chickens must be fed abundantly and regularly with clean and wholesome food three times a day, and this should be so varied that the chickens will not tire of it.

In a state of nature, and when foraging for their own support, they have a great variety. All the small grains, including corn, are good, but the latter is better when it is broken. Corn meal stirred up with water into a mush is very good, but it is better when this mixture is seasoned with salt and molasses and baked. All vegetables cut into small pieces are good, and the cheap pieces of meat from the butcher's when cooked and chopped up, are eagerly eaten.

In feeding any of these the food should be scattered about the yard, so that the chickens can hunt for it, and all have an equal chance. The greatest care should be taken in keeping the watering pans clean and abundantly supplied with water. They should be filled at least twice a day—in the early morning and in the middle of the afternoon.

On each such occasion the pans should be emptied and rinsed out. Unless hens are well fed they will not lay well, and will not remain healthy.

Nothing could be more cruel than to confine a lot of chickens so that they cannot forage for themselves and then to neglect to feed them with regularity. If a lot of chickens running at large be noticed, it will be seen that they are hunting for food in the most industrious manner all the time. They are great and continuous eaters by nature, and this should be remembered.

But at the same time it is a sad mistake to over-feed chickens. When grain or other food is left lying on the ground unconsumed, then it is certain that the food has been supplied in too great quantities. An observant person will soon learn how large each ration should be, and act accordingly.

Like men, chickens should get through each meal with still a capacity for a little more. Always stuffed to their full capacity, they will surely fall ill.

Raising Young Canaries.

Bringing up a nest of little canaries is a pleasure in itself, and can be done from March to June, the mating fever being at its height in the latter part of April. All canaries have a desire to mate then, and if you do not intend to gratify your bird in this, change him about, talk and whistle to him to divert his attention.

It is well to hang another bird near for company, otherwise he is apt to mope and cease singing. But if you can satisfy your bird's natural instincts, and wish to see a pretty sight, get a breeding-cage which has a wooden back and flat top, and hang it on a wall a foot above your head, in a quiet spot.

Buy a wire nest, and after lining it with canton flannel, stitched in, fasten it firmly in the upper corner of the cage, leaving room enough for the bird to pass in and out at the top. Then place loose cotton and nesting in the cage for the canaries to build with. The latter material can be had at bird stores.

After mating, the female commences to lay eggs in about eight days. She sits upon them thirteen days—from four to seven eggs are usual—and the little ones are hatched out one each day.

From the start give the old birds rich food, but no hemp. Besides the usual seeds, give hard-boiled egg and pulverized cracker. The latter the mother feeds to her young until they are able to crack seeds for themselves. If the male is too attentive to the female after the young are hatched, and is not a kind father, put him in his own cage, keeping him there, out of the female's sight, until the young birds have perched a few nights, when they can be removed and a new brood started.

The same person should always feed the canaries during this period, disturbing them as little as possible. If the nest be taken down, or if the birds be annoyed by persons looking into the nest, they are apt to desert it.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B. B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also suffered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

THE CRY OF THE DEAD.

They do neither plight nor wed
In the city of the dead,
In the city where they sleep away the hours;
But they lie, while o'er them range
Winter blight and summer change,
And a hundred happy whisperings of flowers.
No, they neither wed nor plite,
And the day is like the night,
For their vision is of other kind than ours.

They do neither sing nor sigh
In the burg of by-and-bye,
Where the streets have grasses growing, cool and long;
But they rest within their bed,
Leaving all their thoughts unsaid,
Deeming silence better far than sob or song.
No, they neither sigh nor sing,
Though robin be a-wing,
Though the leaves of autumn march a million strong.

There is only rest and peace
In the city of surcease
From the failings and the wailings 'neath the sun:
And the wings of the swift years
Beat but gently o'er the biers,
Making music to the sleepers, every one.
There is only joy and rest;
But to them it seemeth best;
For they lie at ease and know that life is done.

—Richard Burton.

The First Purchaser—I tell you, my dear, it's a howling success.

Novels Indexed—A New Scheme.

In this day of hop-skip-and-jump reading, when a solid page of description is a horror, and literature is judged by the amount of white paper left between the lines of dialogue, the proposition that indexes be attached to works of fiction—more particularly the summer novel—and not confined to works of law, government reports, prayer books, etc., will appeal favorably to many.

To show its advantages I give below excerpts from such an index to a brilliant novel soon to be issued, which, if you wish, we will glance down. If Maud likes description and abhors love scenes, she will look for "Description:

castles at sunset, pp. 2, 13, heroine's dresses, pp. 38, 54, 68, 69, 120, 240, 246, 318.
scenery, pp. 1, 4, 56, etc."

And you, Sue, will turn to "Love" (as I veritably believe he turns to you, with eyes full of ecstasy).

"Love: defence of free, pp. 3, 6, 92.
explanation of attributes, pp. 50-61.
Lionel falls in, p. 17.
Lionel falls out, p. 18."

Just see how well that works! No time lost! Why, my dear, you could read a hundred novels a day with an index, and thus "Keep abreast of the times." When you have finished with "Love" you might turn to "Kissing" (it is usual, perhaps, to turn to kissing at the same time).

"Kissing; see kiss."
"Kiss:
discretion in employment of, p. 92.

He Caved.

We were going through Canada, and as soon as we entered the Queen's dominions a St. Louis man who was in the smoking car with us began to talk.

"No petticoat government for me," he was saying. "I want to get out of this country as quick as I can. I tell you, gentlemen, I never did believe in petticoat government; women are all right in their proper spheres, but when it comes to government——"

At this moment the car door opened, and through the volume of smoke a stern-visaged, spectacled woman presented herself.

"Is that you, Hiram? I guess you've smoked about enough. Come back into the sleeper. It makes me sick and dizzy to stay here. Come, hurry up," and she held the door open while she waited.

And Hiram meekly followed her, without a single protest against the home article of petticoat government.—Detroit Free Press.

De less de fire will be,
And the leastes' kind of 'possum
Climbs de bigges' kind o' tree.
De darkey at de ole camp-ground
Who kin loudes' sing and shout,
Is a gwine to rob some hen-roost
Afore de week is out."

The prisoners were sentenced to terms of imprisonment at hard labor varying from 3 months to 2 years.

A Neglected Cold in the Head

leads to catarrh, perhaps consumption and death. Why neglect with such a safe, speedy remedy as Nasal Balm at hand? D. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says:—Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the the first application. All dealers or by mail, post paid, at 50c. small and $1 large size bottle. Address G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Doubly Commended.

SIRS,—I had a very bad cold and was cured by two bottles of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. I cannot do without it. MRS. W. C. H. PERRY, Sea Gull, Ont.

EAR SIRS,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as the best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used.

MISS F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A Sensible Man

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

WOMAN KILLER IN PARIS

THE HORRIBLE CRIME IN THE RUE BOTZARIS.

The Crime Was Committed Either By a Surgeon or a Butcher—Bloodstains Were Found Three Hundred Yards From the Scene of the Butchery—The Police Active.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A Paris correspondent gives the following additional particulars of the murder in the Rue Botzaris: The murder was evidently the work of a practised hand, the dissection of the body being skilfully performed, a fact which gives color to the belief that the work was done by a surgeon, or, at least, by a butcher. It is believed that not more than from 16 to 24 hours elapsed between when the crime was committed and the time when the mutilated remains were discovered. It is also believed that the body was still warm when it was cut to pieces. There was a strong smell of carbolic acid in the room where the remains were found, and this fact at first led to the supposition that the body had been used for dissecting purposes and that the several portions were intended as medical specimens, but evidence to the contrary was soon found in the fact that the flesh had been hacked and torn with a blunt knife. The police, after the discovery of the crime, at once sent out dogs to trace the murderer or murderers. Bloodstains found 300 yards distant in a waste area of ground form the only clue yet obtained. Madam Faillon, who lives near the scene, says her dogs barked loudly Saturday morning, and that on Sunday she saw two men pointing to the waste ground, one of them saying to the other: "That's the place." The remains were wrapped in a bundle. It is supposed that the murderer placed the bundle in the house temporarily, intending to take it elsewhere.

LANGTRY'S YOUNG LORD.

An Aristocratic Youth Now Said to Be the Favorite.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Langtry is again the subject of gossip, having come into public notice this time on account of the attentions paid her of late by Lord Rosslyn, the 23-year-old scion of the noble Scotch house of Erskine, who has gained some notoriety by his sporting proclivities.

The young lord, is said to be the latest conquest of the famous beauty, and he is credited with having lavished numerous gifts upon the thrifty actress. At a recent sale of some of Lord Rosslyn's horses a splendid yearling was knocked down to an unknown Mr. Jersey for 1700 guineas. Some persons who had curiosity to know who Mr. Jersey was made enquiries, which developed the fact that the name was fictitious, the new owner of the horse proving to be the Jersey Lily. The real state of the case is said to be that the horse was a gift to Mrs. Langtry, the pretended sale being for form's sake.

THE FRENCH IN DAHOMEY.

Col. Dodds Again Defeats King Behanzin's Army.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—A despatch from Porto Novo announces that the French expedition under Col. Dodds has again defeated King Behanzin's army. The French after receiving reinforcements and provisions at once attacked the enemy's fortified line at Kato. They crossed the river, stormed the two forts of Kotopa and after a brilliant engagement routed the entire Dahomeyan army, pursuing the enemy to within one kilometer of Cana. The French at that point pitched their camp and rested.

According to official despatches Col. Dodds intended to attack Cana on Friday last and Abomeroy on Sunday.

BRUTAL CRIME IN VIENNA.

A Carpenter's Apprentice Murders a 16-Year-Old Girl.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—Last night a youth named Wittmann, a carpenter's apprentice, murdered Rosa Sewald, a girl of 16, sister of her employer. Wittmann became enamored of Rosa and pressed his suit whenever opportunity offered. Rosa laughed at his attentions and gave him no encouragement.

Last evening the girl went for a walk. Wittmann learned the direction she took and waited for her. When Rosa came along Wittmann spoke to her and she greeted him pleasantly. Wittmann asked her if she would marry him, and upon receiving a laughing "no" he struck her with a cudgel. Rosa fell, and as she was staggering to her feet dazed by the cruel blow her assailant again struck her, knocking her insensible. Then with brutal ferocity he beat her head into a jelly. Some men at a distance saw the whole affair, but when they reached the scene the girl was dead. Wittman was arrested.

LIKE THE OSBORNE CASE.

Two Army Ladies Figure in a Case in Court.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A case that resembles in many respects the famous Osborne case came up for trial in the Queen's Bench Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice yesterday. The parties to the suit are the wives of army officers, and the court room was crowded with friends of the plaintiff and defendant. The case was that of Leader against Smyth. Mrs. Leader, who is the wife of Lieut. Leader, sued Mrs. Smyth, wife of Major-Gen. Gibbons Smyth, for damages for slander. The audience in the courtroom were disappointed, however, as the case was postponed until to-morrow.

Mrs. Leader paid a visit to Mrs. Smyth. After Mrs. Leader had gone Mrs. Smyth missed a diamond brooch. Some time after Mrs. Smyth was in the west end and saw her brooch exposed for sale in a shop window. She went into the shop and asked the jeweler where he got the brooch. He told her he had bought it from Mrs. Leader. Mrs. Smyth denies that she accused Mrs. Leader of stealing the brooch, but pleads that if she used the words imputed to her by Mrs. Leader she was justified in doing so. Mrs. Leader denies emphatically that Mrs. Smyth ever owned the brooch. She declares she received it as a marriage present from a gentleman now dead, but who was formerly an officer in the Indian army.

Gladstone Guards His Health.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The anxious care taken to nurse Mr. Gladstone's energies is evident by his declining to immediately accept an invitation to attend the inaugural banquet at Guildhall of Lord Mayor Knill on Nov. 9. Sir Andrew Clarke, Mr. Gladstone's physician, has prohibited his attending all evening meetings, and will not assent to his presence at the Guildhall banquet until the time approaches, when he will be better able to judge whether or not the Prime Minister should attend the banquet. There is no precedent for the Cabinet chief absenting himself on the occasion of the Lord Mayor's banquet, if he is able to appear.

THE LOSS OF THE ROUMANIA.

The Storm Has Broken the Stranded Vessel in Half.

PENICHE, Portugal, Nov. 1.—A heavy sea is still running and makes it impossible for anyone to approach the wreck of the steamer Roumania. It is evident the steamer has broken in half, for only her bow and stern can be seen. The wreck lies only about 300 feet from the shore.

It is hoped that when the sea goes down more bodies will be found in the wreck, so that they may be given burial. A strict watch is kept along the coast by the cavalry men who have been detailed to prevent pilaging of any bodies that now come ashore. There is now no doubt that the clothing was stolen from the bodies that were washed ashore before the guards arrived at the scene.

Sunday Newspaper Cases.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 1.—The Sunday newspaper cases, eight in number, were argued in the State Supreme Court yesterday. These are the cases where the defendants were found guilty and fined for engaging in worldly employment on Sunday by selling Sunday papers. Major A. M. Brown argued for the appellants and William Yost for the Common wealth. The decisions were reserved.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straightforward dealing, and its example has done much to do away with cramping of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay, contains upon its face the entire contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy, showing what the insured may not do, and which always give rise to dissatisfaction and disputes. The STANDARD points only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

A RIVER OF BLAZING OIL.

A LIGHTED MATCH AND THE HARM IT WROUGHT.

A Man Crossing the River at Philadelphia Inadvertently Sets Fire to Floating Oil and He and His Companions Have to Swim for Their Lives.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—At Point Breeze last evening William Miller, Albert Krambach and Warren Hilt were crossing the river in a row boat. About 150 feet from the shore one of the men lighted his pipe and carelessly tossed the blazing stick into the oil-covered water. Instantly a burst of flames shot up alongside the skiff and the surface of the river around the boat was blazing fiercely.

The flames of the burning oil licked the boat and the men plunged into the burning fluid and started to swim ashore. The fire circle grew larger and spread more rapidly than they could swim and they found that they were being roasted alive. Hilt sank beneath the blazing surface and was seen no more, but his two companions by repeatedly diving and swimming beneath the surface, succeeded in reaching the shore. Both men were horribly burned about the shoulders, head, face and arms. They were taken to the hospital, where, it is said, their condition is critical.

The fire spread down the river, and the wrecking steamer Maryland caught fire and was damaged $15,000.

FOUND RELIEF IN DEATH.

A Montreal Woman, Separated From Her Husband, Poisons Herself.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—About five weeks ago Madame Timobersky was seperated judicially from her husband, who has been employed as a master mechanic in Chantoloup's foundry for the past three years. The fact preyed upon her mind. She frequently asserted her entire innocence of the charges brought against her, and announced that unless he took her back she would commit suicide. This was of course put down to hysterical excitement. No one believed she would carry her threats into effect. But yesterday afternoon some persons passing the door of the sitting-room at No. 135 St. Charles Bortomee street, where she took her meals, heard the moans of a woman in agony from the inside. They pushed open the door and found Madame Timobersky writhing in agony on the floor with a bottle, evidently containing Paris green in water, lying beside her. The deadly arsenite had already got hold of its victim. Mr. Edmond Giroux, jr., a near-by druggist, was hastily called, and administered the usual antidotes of milk and plaster; but he soon found that the poison was already mastering her system and hastened to get the General Hospital ambulance in order to remove the dying woman to that institution.

Of her arrival there, Dr. Wasson took charge of her, and applied the stomach pump but by this time it was too late. The unfortunate woman was rapidly approaching her end. To the last she repeated her protestations of her entire innocence of the charges brought against her, and stated that she would rather die than live without her husband. When the dread moment came at half past eleven, she died asserting in spite of her agony, that she was a true and loving wife; and those who stood beside her deathbed believed her.

DISSATISFIED TELEGRAPERS.

They Make a Demand for More Pay And Threaten to Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 2.—The committee representing the despatchers and operators of the Big Four system, in a demand for an increase of wages, left yesterday morning, having laid the matter before Supt. Peck and Superintendent of Telegraph Rhodes. The committee stated they would expect an answer by the last of this week. They declined to make any reduction in their demand for an average increase of $10 per month per man, and were firm in insisting that the increase be granted. If the advance is not granted the dispatchers and operators will appeal to President Ingalls before laying the matter before the chief of their order.

The Big Four branch of the Despatchers, and Operators' Union includes over 600 employes, and the granting of their requests means an annual increase of expenditures of about $75,000.

Hon. C. H. Tupper in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Hon. C. H. Tupper, Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, arrived from Ottawa yesterday and leaves for London on the Teutonic to-morrow. He goes there in connection with the counter case for Great Britain in rebuttal of the case submitted for the United States in the Behring Sea arbitration.

Buck Loses Spirit.

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 2.—The murderer Buck, who is to hang on Thursday, Dec. 1, at Dorchester, has lost his buoyancy of spirit and approaches death in a rather sullen mood, and the apparent indifference he has hitherto shown is passing away.

Cholera Ravaging China.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 2.—The China mail says the ravages of cholera at Chung King are appalling. The deaths there are estimated at from 30,000 to 40,000. People going any distance from home carry a tag with their name and address thereon.

MANITOBA'S SCHOOL ACT

ARCHBISHOP TACHE PREPARING TO APPEAL.

He Will Be Accorded a Hearing When the Ministers Return From Halifax—It is Not Yet Known Whether the Appeal Will Be Based on the B.N.A. Act or the Manitoba Act.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—It is probable that Mr. Ewart, Winnipeg, who is counsel for Archbishop Tache in connection with the pending appeal in educational matters in Manitoba, will be accorded a hearing by the Government when the Ministers return from Halifax. In this connection it may be stated that it is not yet known whether he will base the appeal on the section in the B.N.A. Act guaranteeing protection to minorities or on the section in the Manitoba Act guaranteeing perpetuity to Separate schools as they existed when the province was created.

THE EXPORT OF POULTRY.

Dr. Ferguson Believes it Can Be Doubled If the Ocean Rates Are Lowered.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Dr. Ferguson, M.P., Leeds-Grenville, arrived here yesterday for the purpose of interviewing the ministers with reference to the shipments of poultry for the English market. The doctor says that the freight rates by steamships are all right for eggs, but rather high for poultry. The usual fall poultry fairs will be held at Carleton Place, Smith's Fall, Kemptville, Brockville and other places in this section about the 12th instant, and it is expected that the quantity offered will be much larger than last year. The shipments to England last year amounted to about 80 tons, but Dr. Ferguson says if the steamship companies are reasonable with rates that the quantity will be doubled this year.

WHAT BISHOP BROOKS THINKS.

He Does Not Believe in Close Sessions of the House of Bishops.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Bishop Phillips Brooks, who has just returned from the Episcopal General Convention at Baltimore, in speaking of the work of the convention at a dinner of the Episcopalian Club last night, said of the "House of Bishops": "It is absolutely un-American in its practice of sitting with closed doors and it is a practice that is sure to be amended some day or other. This is one thing that certainly needs change; the breaking open of its concealment so that the people can hear not merely what has been decided in the house, but why it was done. To do as they do now is not only un-American, but is not in accord with the open and free spirit of Christianity."

The Bishop also said: "I have for a long time felt that another thing ought to be done: the entrance into our Christian ministry and exit out of it ought to be made easier than it is. Men ought not to be compelled to stay or go in disguise, when, in the best of the light which God has given them, they felt that their work lies there no longer."

IT STOOD THE TRIAL.

One of Chicago's Steel-Framed Structures Put to the Test.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A fire occurred in the Chicago Athletic Association building in Michigan-avenue early yesterday. The structure was a new one and was damaged $50,000. The loss on contents will reach $35,000.

The fire was the centre of attraction for builders, contractors, architects and insurance men, as it was the first big new style steel-framed structure to suffer. It is said that the construction work is not damaged. Not a tile arch has dropped, nor has any of the ironwork been seriously injured.

WANTS $5000 DAMAGES.

A Local Barrister Sued by a Widow for Breach of Promise.

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—Solicitor J. A. Macdonald, acting for Frances Morecroft, has commenced an action against Barrister T. C. Robinette, at present a teacher in Parkdale school, claiming $5000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff, it is said, is a young widow with whom Robinette was on intimate terms while in Buffalo, and who claims that he promised to marry her.

Messrs. Armstrong, McIntyre & Elliott are the defendant's lawyers, and they claim that their client has a good defence.

A Jail Breaker.

LOCKPORT, N.Y., Nov. 2.—James Lee, sentenced to 10 years at Auburn Prison for attempting to kill an officer, broke jail yesterday and made good his escape. He succeeded in removing from the cell roof a stone flagging weighing 1400 pounds, laid in cement. Kicking off the boards and shingles, he reached the roof of the jail and descended to the ground by a rope made from his bed tick. A few days ago Lee gained his liberty, but was pursued by officers and captured only after being fired upon and brought to bay. He is considered a most dangerous character and will not hesitate to commit murder rather than be retaken.

Hon. T. M. Daly in the West.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 2.—Hon. T. M. Daly, the new Minister of the Interior, arrived here yesterday and left for Brandon in the afternoon. From Brandon he will proceed to Regina to attend to Indian affairs, returning to Brandon to attend a banquet in his honor on Friday evening. Interviewed to-day, Mr. Daly frankly said he did not expect to be opposed in his constituency, believing that the Manitobans would show ingratitude to the Government by opposing their generosity in giving Manitoba representation in the Cabinet.

NO PLEURO-PNEUMONIA HERE.

That is What a Number of Cattle Men in Toronto Assert.

Toronto, Nov. 2.—The cattle dealers and exporters whose business is centered in Toronto have actively taken up the matter of ferreting out the truth or falsity of the report that pleuro-pneumonia exists among Canadian cattle. It will be remembered that a short time ago a case landed in Scotland off the SS. Monkseaton was said to have been affected with pleuro-pneumonia and was immediately ordered by the veterinary department of the Privy Council to be slaughtered.

The Dominion Government on being notified of the fact, took active measures to ascertain the facts. The Inspector of live stock for the Dominion, Dr. McEachran, was commissioned to use every effort to find out the truth and make it known. Dr. McEachran is now engaged with a large staff, posted in different parts of the country, in performing his [illegible]. There were 760 cattle landed at Monkseaton, and as these were [illegible] from different parts of the country it will be seen that he has no easy task before him.

Dr. McEachran arrived in the city yesterday, and in company with Ex-Ald. Frankland, President of the Dominion Live Stock Association, and Dr. Smith, inspector of live stock for Ontario, visited the Western Cattle Market.

At 11.30 a meeting of cattle dealers was convened, Ex-Ald. Frankland acting as chairman. Among those present were Charles Zeagman, Henry Mayhew, Sidney Smith, Ex-Ald. Verral, John Sheridan, P. Convy, C. Coffee, George Crealock, Ald. Crawford, C. Flannagan, Charles Morse, A. J. Thompson, E. T. Pears, Joseph Wilson, W. Lenock, John Rogers and S. Halligan, Toronto; Richard Tetley and Thomas Bromley, Liverpool; C. M. Acer, Montreal; Reuben Pugsley and Robert Cook; Eglinton; George Breathbridge, Walford; D. Coughlin, St. Thomas; W. Phelps, Longwood; William Murby, Watford; George Pauline, Chesley; R. Conley, Glenboe; Thomas Connor, London; William Thompson, Watford; Andrew Aiken, Cookeville; James Eakins, Port Hope; T. O. Robinson, St. Mary's; George Armstrong, Brampton; Stroud Bros., Hamilton; J. Rowland, Walkerton; John Brown, Mount Forest; Weeks Bros., Mount Bridges, and D. McLean, Strathroy.

Dr. McEachran announced that he and his staff were engaged in ascertaining the facts regarding the report which came from England. The 700 cattle were collected principally in Ontario, but a few had come from Manitoba. Veterinary men were under instructions covering all the districts from which the cattle came, and every farm was being visited, and special reports would be sent from each with the least possible delay. He asked several shippers for information regarding the recent shipment, which was readily given.

The chairman stated that owing to the very rigid quarantine enforced by the Dominion a disease such as pleuro-pneumonia could not exist without the Government's knowledge, and certainly it would be known to the cattle shippers if it existed.

After considerable discussion the following motion, moved by ex-Ald. Frankland and seconded by Ald. Crawford, was passed unanimously:

That in our opinion no contagious pleuro-pneumonia exists in Canada and that this meeting do undertake to see at the Government officials in every way in their po wer to make the investigation now in progress effective.

IT IS NOT VIRULENT PLEURO.

The British Authorities Acted Hastily in Killing the Cattle.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The slaughter of the 1200 head of Canadian cattle landed by the steamers Huronia and Monkseaton at Dundee began last Friday by the order of the Board of Agriculture. Scotch veterinary surgeons declare that the disease is not pleuro-pneumonia, but a non-contagious affection, the symptoms of which are similar, and condemn the Government as acting hastily. The Government has issued orders that incoming Canadian cattle be subjected to the sharpest scrutiny.

Canadian Cattle Must Be Scheduled.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Times says that Canada "can no longer be regarded as free from the cattle disease. The Ministry must choose between this class of Scotch graziers and the safety of the whole British herds. Pest cases have been discovered in the suspected cargoes. The Board of Agriculture has practically agreed that the disease is pleuro-pneumonia."

The Canadian officials here are urging that the decision to schedule Canada be delayed until the result of enquiries being conducted in Canada with respect to the existence of this disease in the localities whence the affected cattle are said to have come be made known. In view of this grave crisis Sir Charles Tupper will likely return to London from Paris at once.

New York Tenement Burned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The five-story double-decker tenement at 351 East Fifty-first-street, owned by Morris Tekulskey, was on fire yesterday; 17 families rendered homeless and lost all their possessions. No loss of life occurred. Loss $20,000, no insurance.

The Shooting Was Justifiable.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 2.—Nellie Dunn, a member of the demi-monde, who recently shot and killed Wagner, an Emerson hotelkeeper, who was creating a disturbance at her house, has been discharged by a justice of the peace, who after hearing the evidence considered the shooting justifiable.

Killed By a Trolley Car.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Nov. 2.—John E. Leddy, aged 8 years, was killed by a trolley car here yesterday. Willie Cluff, another young boy, was shortly afterwards so severely injured that he may die.

Poisoned By Diseased Meat.

WARSAW, Nov. 2.—Twenty persons living on a farm at Groitsy, a village of Poland, have been poisoned by eating the flesh of a cow that had suffered with cattle plague. Ten of the persons who partook of the meat have died, after suffering great agony, and the physicians state that some of the others will not recover.

Fire at Crookston, Minn.

CROOKSTON, Minn., Nov. 2.—Fire last night destroyed the McKinnon Block, the Crookston Mercantile Company and Williams & Roberts, merchants, being the sufferers. Loss $30,000, insurance $17,000.

Higher Rates of Transportation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Railroad officials here are of opinion that the advance in rates just made in the west is the forerunner of rates higher of transportation generally.

THE INSPECTORSHIP SETTLED.

DR. TILLEY SUBMITS HIS RESIGNATION.

Its Acceptance Provokes a Lively Discussion—Warm Words Pass Between Members of the Board—Strained Relations Provoke Nothing More Serious Than Talk—A Whole Time Inspector to be Advertised for.

The regular meeting of the School Board was held on Tuesday evening. There were present: Mr. Wrighton in the chair, and Messrs. Dr. Burnham, J. Corkery, J. Stevenson, W. H. Law, Dr. Boucher, J. McKee, P. Hamilton, W. H. Hill, J. J. Hartley, W. G. Ferguson, J. J. McBain, and D. W. Dumble.

COMMUNICATIONS

were presented

From Miss Roper, secretary of the Peterborough Protestant Home, asking the Board to remit May Dillon's school fees.—Permission granted for May Dillon to attend Collegiate Institute for one year free of fees.

From Wm. Smith, principal of the Peterborough public schools, asking, in view of his long services and increased duties that his salary be increased from $800 to $1,000 per year.—Committee of Appointments,

From E. G. Rundle, asking for the use of the gymnasium for classes for lady teachers.—Spervision

From May H. Morrow, asking to be appointed a teacher.—Appointments.

From the Education Department, stating that the grant to the Collegiate Institute was $668.42, and enclosing cheque for this amount.—Received.

DR. TILLEY RESIGNS.

A communication was received from Dr. Tilley as follows:

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN.—Your Board some time ago passed a resolution defining the duties of the Inspector of your Public Schools. As these duties were mostly those laid down by law for the guidance of the Inspector and were such as I had endeavoured to discharge since my appointment in Peterborough, and as all the members of the Board who spoke on the resolution referred to, stated that it was not with a view of displacing your present Inspector, I wrote a letter accepting the duties thus defined. My letter was not read at the last meeting of the Board, and as remarks at that meeting and events since, have put a different face on matters, I beg to withdraw my letter of acceptance, as I cannot think of undertaking any new duties until the very serious charges reflecting on my honour as a public officer by a member of your Board in the daily papers of the town of Peterborough, be disposed of.

The duties as defined by the Board have, however, been attended to up to the present, and shall be, so long as I am connected with your schools.

If the majority of your Board desire a change as regards the Inspector, I will, as I stated at a former meeting of the Board, step aside at any time; and in any case I wish my connection with your schools to terminate with the present school year.

Your Obedient Servant,
W. E. TILLEY.

—Received,

From J. B. McKay, asking a three days' leave of absence to attend the examinations of the School of Pedagogy.—Granted,

THE JANITOR'S DUTIES.

Mr. Hill moved, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, that the duties of Janitor, as reported, be referred to the committee of the whole Board.—Carried.

THE INSPECTORSHIP QUESTION.

Mr. Hamilton, in referring to a resolution that he had intended to move, and which was moved at a previous meeting, said that the majority of the Board had not been fairly treated by the chairman, and—

Mr. Wrighton—I went according to the law.

Mr. Hamilton—That is as you understand it.

Mr. Wrighton—How do you understand it?

Mr. Hamilton—I don't presume to interpret it. I got my interpretation from the Deputy-Minister.

Mr. Dumble—Who is he?

Mr. Hamilton—Mr. Millar.

Mr. Dumble—He doesn't know everything.

Mr. Hamilton—He knows as much as Mr. Dumble.

Mr. Hamilton, continuing, said he hardly knew what course to pursue. If Dr. Tilley's resignation was straightforward, we could accept it but if there are any conditions attached, I shall move my resolution passed at the last meeting of the Board.

After the reading of Dr. Tilley's letter—given above—Mr. Wrighton—holding the resolution of Mr. Hamilton in his hand said, I can't entertain this resolution; it has already been disposed of. According to the rules it cannot be re-introduced.

Mr. Hamilton—We are willing to be guided by the decision of the Department of Education and not by that of a chairman, who has acted the partizan all the way through.

Mr. Wrighton—O, that's all very well!

Mr. Hill read a letter from the deputy minister stating that in case a chairman left his place, the remainder of the board could elect a chairman and proceed with business,

After some talk the matter was glossed over, and the excitement diverted into another channel.

ACCEPTING THE RESIGNATION.

Mr. Hamilton moved that Mr. Tilley's resignation be accepted.

Mr. Dumble—Is that intended as unconditional?

Mr. Hamilton—Unconditional.

Mr. Tilley—That resolution meets my views. I meant my resignation to be unconditional.

Mr. Wrighton—Is the motion carried?

Mr. Dumble—No; I have an amendment.

Mr. Wrighton—Better put it in writing.

Mr. Hill, while Mr. Dumble was writing his motion, said if the resolution was passed it would be a reflection upon the opinion of the majority of the Board.

Mr. Tilley amended his letter of resignation so as to take effect at the end of the present calendar year, and Mr. Dumble said in that event there was no need of his amendment.

The resolution was adopted unanimously, so far as the vote showed.

There was silence for a time and it looked as though the session of the Board would conclude, but the storm broke out afresh. The air seemed electrically charged. Both parties were as quick to take offence as ever were the partizans of the Montagues and Capulets.

Mr. Dumble moved, seconded by Mr. Stevenson, That the Board acknowledges the valuable services rendered to this Board by Dr Tilley, and heartily expresses its regret that circumstances caused him to send in his resignation.

Mr. Dumble said the circumstances under which Dr. Tilley left were painful. He had been badgered, insulted and wronged. Statements had been made by people who did not know what they were talking about. He had been accused of abusing his position. Attacking a man's ability was a trifling affair to impeaching his honour and accusing him of malfeasance in office. Such a charge should only be made upon proof, positive. Dr. Tilley had been publicly charged with using his position to injure one teacher and to promote the interests of another. He (Mr. Dumble)

KNEW OF NO INSTANCE

Mr. Wrighton—This (Mr. Tilley's resignation) will have to be dealt with.

Mr. Hamilton—I move that it be accepted.

After some desultory, though warm talk, when Dr. Tilley had departed from the rule of integrity. The charges that had been made if they were true should have been brought before the board. They had been made in the newspapers by parties who have said at the board that they were not attacking Dr. Tilley personally, but were seeking to effect a change in the system. Yet we had this attack against his integrity—it was unmanly and unfair. The charges might have been made in committee and not have been spread broadcast through the newspapers. Dr. Tilley under such treatment resigned. Nothing so unmanly and unfair had ever before been done by the board. He goes charged with a serious offence by one member of the Board. Dr. Tilley was superintendent of a hundred schools in Durham and he (Mr. Dumble) hoped this resolution would be passed, and thus the evil that had been done, would be, to a certain extent, undone.

Upon the motion being put,

Mr. Hamilton said that Dr. Tilley might well exclaim: "Deliver me from my friends!" No one knew better than Mr. Dumble that the trouble had been brought about by Dr. Tilley himself by acting on the advice of his friends, or by his own indiscretion. Dr. Tilley knew in July that a report that virtually involved his dismissal was presented, the desire being to improve the condition of the schools. Mr. Dumble when he extolled Dr. Tilley was not speaking in accordance with the facts. The schools, he could state on the authority of the principals, were not in as good a condition as when he came.

Mr. Dumble—What principals?

Mr. Hamilton—I am not here to be cross-questioned. I state what I know from the principals.

Mr. Dumble—What you say

CANNOT BE CORRECT

for some of the principals have stated otherwise to me. When you say "principals" it means all the principals.

Mr. Hamilton—Mr. McBain is present and can bear me out in my statement.

After a little conversational exchange

Mr. McBain said that the principals were present when the statements were made, but not all at the same time.

Mr. Hamilton, continuing, said that at the last entrance examinations forty-nine had passed and that in former years there had been as many as sixty passed with fewer public school pupils. The teacher's had been asked if Dr. Tilley's services had been of that exalted character which Mr. Dumble had represented, and the answer was to the effect that the teachers had not that confidence in Dr. Tilley and that sense of helpfulness which we had been led to believe was the case. Mr. Dumble's resolution, if adopted, would stultify the Board and he (Mr. Hamilton) could not consistently vote for it.

Mr. Hill stated some strong objections to the rule of the minority and went on to strengthen the statements of Mr. Hamilton in reference to the entrance examinations record of the schools, by pointing out that at the end of the first year of Dr. Tilley's inspectorate (1890) the successful entrants numbered 45; in 1891 the number was 31, and in 1892 it was 49, an average of 41; while in the three preceding years the number of successful entrants was 70 in 1887; in '88, 65 and in '89 56, an of 63. These figures contradicted the statements made by others. He (Mr. Hill) believed that in regard to the schools. The reason he and the majority of the Board had not come out openly against Dr. Tilley was that they thought the easiest way of effecting their purpose was the best way.

Mr. Stevenson said he had learned that hole and corner meetings had been held by the majority—

Mr. Hill—The minority has done the same.

Mr. Stevenson (warmly)—That is not so. You can't deny that and we can.

Mr. Hamilton—I can explain. Mr. McBain and I went to the teachers individually—no meetings were held.

Mr. Stevenson continuing said that the fact that the teachers found fault with the inspector, was to his credit, it showed that he was keeping them to their work and they resented it. He pointed out the inconsistency of members of the board at one time saying that they had nothing against Dr. Tilley, and at the next meeting denouncing him. The figures quoted as to the results of the entrance examinations did not prove much because circumstances were not the same in regard to difficulty of papers set and other conditions. He (Mr. Stevenson) was as anxious as Mr. Hamilton for the welfare of the schools, and after an experience of 40 years he had known no Inspector who had done his duty so faithfully and he hoped that his successor would be as good a man. The board had treated Dr. Tilley very shabbily. One night we brought in a resolution and before he had a chance to accept or decline this, a resolution is moved dismissing him.

Mr. Dumble said that in his experience of 25 years he had seen nothing so utterly lacking in honour as the position taken against Dr. Tilley. Things had not been carried on openly and above board by members. Members had gone—"sneaking" he was going to say—to the teachers, and got evidence from one servant of the Board against another. The teachers who had not been recommended by the Inspector for the principalship of the South Ward school had spoken against Dr. Tilley, and—

Mr. Hamilton—That's not true.

Mr. Dumble—It is.

Dr. Tilley here interposed, and said that he would prefer that no further discussion should take place. Some time since he had suggested that the Board should meet and discuss the matter, and if, as a result of that discussion, it were thought best, he would retire. In reference to the teachers whose evidence against him had been quoted, he did not think that what they had said had been properly understood. He did not believe that the principals had knowingly said anything disparagingly of his services. He exonerated the principals of the ward schools absolutely. He had tried to advise honestly in reference to appointments. As to the South Ward appointments, two or three members had strongly opposed a transfer from the other schools, and and had urged that a new man be appointed. In reference to the resolution he after thirty years service during which he had never had a similar experience. He would much prefer the discussion on the resolution would drop. Newspaper statements had been made that could not be borne out but further discussion would not improve the matter.

Mr. Dumble—I cannot drop the matter, for the board cannot continue to act without acting openly. It was the duty of the majority who had visited the teachers to have communicated the result of their inquiries to the board. If they had had the information they claimed, they should have submitted it to the board to form the basis of action.

Mr. Hill—You were satisfied before hand.

Mr. Dumble—I was not, and continuing he said that the figures relating to the results of the Entrance examinations were not reliable for the conditions charged. It was a shame to villify the examiners. Miss Lynch, Dr. Tilley, Mr. Fessenden and Mr. McCreary and say that they had acted unfairly in order to pass a large number of pupils. Mr. Dumble appealed to the majority of the board to take the rest into their confidence and not act upon a set of informations independently from the rest of the board. He thought from what had been stated that there should be an investigation into the condition of the schools.

Mr. Hill stated that last spring a committee had been appointed to

of the schools and Mr. Dumble had not attended the meetings of the committee.

Mr. Dumble—I only got notice of one meeting and then I was absent from town and could not attend.

Mr. Hamilton said he had been a member of the Board for four years and had tried to act fairly. There had in that time been at least two quarrels for which Mr. Dumble had been responsible. In referring to underhand actions, Mr. Dumble stated what he knew was not true. When the matter of school inspection was first brought up, the principle only was in his (Mr. Hamilton's) mind, and it was thought that an Inspector with large duties in Durham could not properly attend to both. If in the discussion of the principle the Inspector had been brought in, Mr. Dumble's intense egotism, intense obstinancy, and intense desire to rule the Board, were responsible. He (Mr. Hamilton) had visited the schools to get information. In answer to Mr. Dumble's assumption that he did all that was done for the schools, Mr. Hamilton said that others who do their best would not submit. So long as there were business men in the board Mr. Dumble

COULD NOT RULE ALONE.

Mr. Hartley referred to the inconsistency of the majority at one meeting asserting their entire confidence in Dr. Tilley, and at the next condemning him in the strongest terms.

At length the discussion was brought to a close by Mr. Dumble stating that in view of Dr. Tilley's wish he would not press his motion, and it was accordingly withdrawn.

CLOSING RESOLUTIONS,

Mr. Dumble moved, seconded by Dr. Boucher, that the Board, as a committee of the whole, investigate the condition of the schools. The motion was lost on the following division:

Yeas — Messrs. Boucher, Dumble, Hartley and Stevenson—4.

Nays—Messrs. Burnham, Ferguson, Hamilton, Hill, Law, McRae, McBain—7.

Mr. Hamilton moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the secretary be instructed to advertise for an inspector, whose whole time and attention be given to the supervision of the public schools in accordance with the rules adopted by this board for the guidance of such an official—applications to state salary required—duties to commence January 1st, 1893.

This resolution was adopted on a division by the vote on the preceding resolution, reversed.

The Board adjourned and left the chamber with a great deal of alacrity.

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Christian Alliance Work.

The Cleveland Union News has the following account of the ninth annual convention of the Christian Alliance held in New York city from Oct. 1st to 11th. The convention was held in the Gospel Tabernacle, corner of Eighth avenue and Forty-fourth street. A. B. Simpson is the leader in this work and had general charge of the convention. The attendance was large and at many of the sessions the Tabernacle would not hold those who desired to attend. Mr. Simpson is unquestionably a man called of God for the work of sending out missionaries into the foreign field. We desire to call special attention to the meeting of Sunday morning, Oct. 9th, when from the audience $30,000 was raised for the purpose of sending missionaries into foreign lands. There were 151 volunteers for the mission field that day."

A New Blend of Tea.

This morning a reporter dropped into the new tea store of W. C. Kirk, the noted tea blender, situated in the new market building arcade. Mr. Kirk, who is the only direct tea importer in town, has blended and packed an entirely new brand of tea, which is called the "Waverly Blend." It is taking with all the tea drinkers like hot cakes. The Waverly is a blend of the finest Indian and Ceylon teas, carefully selected from the finest teas grown on the island of Ceylon and in the Cachar and Darjeeling districts of India. They canot be matched for purity of flavour and strength in the cup.

Rugby Notes.

Sheldrake School team, of Lakefield, have disappointed the Trinity College School second fifteen in their challenge, and the T.C.S. boys will come up from Port Hope and play the Peterborough juniors Saturday afternoon.

Peterborough will have to put two seperate teams in the field for their double match on Thanksgiving Day, and it is imperative that all players should turn out to practice with unvarying regularity.

Arrangements are being made to give Victoria College team, of Toronto, a game here, if possible, on November 11th.

The Fast Mail.

The Ottawa Citizen of Tuesday says: "The immense throng that crowded the opera house last evening to witness the production of the 'The Fast Mail' were by no means disappointed, but on the contrary witnessed one of the rarest and richest productions of the kind that had has ever appeared in Ottawa. Manager Ferguson was decided in his opinion that the scenic effects were unsurpassed by any yet shown on his stage. In the last act Niagara Falls was before the audience as natural as it was possible to bring them. The different roles in the play were taken in a first class manner, and everybody left the building thoroughly satisfied." At the Opera House here, on Saturday night. Prices, 25, 50 and 75c. Seats on sale at Greatrex's drug store.

—Messrs. Webber and Winch shipped a carload of cattle and hogs to Montreal this week for transhipment.

—Col. J. Z. Rogers, accompanied by Mr. W. Scollie, left this morning on a few days hunting sojourn to Healey's Falls.

—A scarlet fever card was to-day placarded on a house on King street, west, and a diptheria card on Stewart street, south.

—Messrs. Crossley and Hunter are soon to conduct meeting at Berlin, Ont., and at Jefferson Street church, Saginaw, Michigan.

—Last night the halyards of the Court House flag would not work, and it was necessary for the flag to remain afloat all night. The ice storm that came on during the night, and the weight of ice on the fold of the flag, tore it through right across the jack, leaving a tattered remnant fluttering in the rainy breeze.

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

A SHORT SOCIAL SEASON.

Spent at St. Paul's Church Last Evening Between the Members of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Congregation.

Last evening, in response to a friendly invitation from the members of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Presbyterian church to the members of the congregation to spend a "social hour" in the Sunday school rooms, a fair number availed themselves of the opportunity to be present. The proceedings were strictly of an informal nature and no one presided.

Miss Helen Dennistoun performed a pianoforte solo with easy grace. Miss Jennie Rose sang pleasantly, "If the Waters could Speak as they Flow." Miss Montgomery sang "Alone on the Raft" in a sweet voice. Mr. J. Crane was a fine vocalist in "Anchored," and Mr. W. F. Nelson did himself credit in rendering "The Gallant Salamander." Mr. Arlidge gave a flute solo rendered correctly and harmoniously to the accompaniment of Miss Lech. Mrs. Brodigan with excellent finish, sang "Daddy." Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, always a welcome number on any programme, sang "When the Heart is Young." Miss Fairweather in a pianoforte solo exhibited laudable technique. The programme was brought to a terminus by Messrs. Crane and Nelson, rendering "The Crimson Morning," and Master Boswell singing "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," both numbers being applauded. After refreshments were discussed, a few words from Mr. Goldsmith followed. A hymn was then sung. The evening closed by all singing in long metre "Praise God From Whom all Blessings Flow" and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Continuation of the Business—The Grand Jury's Presentment—Ennismore vs. Young.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2nd.

The attention of the court was occupied with the case of Ennismore vs. Young, which was tried by his lordship without jury. The taking of evidence continued yesterday afternoon and evening, and this afternoon the case is still in progress.

This morning the grand jury made their presentment as follows:

THE HON. MR. JUSTICE FALCONBRIDGE,—

May it please your Lordship, We the Grand Jurors of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, at the autumn Assize Court of the county of Peterborough beg leave to make the following presentment:

We have completed the work assigned to us in your opening address, and visited the gaol. We found everything clean, neat and well kept, as far as the gaoler and matron could possibly make it, but in one of the wards we found a strong odour, and investigation disclosed a closet which is connected with a cesspool, as the source of the foul smell. We would strongly recommend that some efficient system of sewerage should be adopted to abate the nuisance, which in our opinion endangers the health of the inmates.

A new ceiling is required in the female ward also.

We recommend that a clock be placed in the court room, as it would be a great convenience to the court, the bar, and the public generally. We found confined in the gaol thirteen prisoners, eight of whom are in for no crime but poverty, being aged and not able to work, and one a woman who was committed as a vagrant, and has since became a mother. We strongly condemn the practice of using the county gaol as a lying-in hospital. We would again call the attention of the Town and County Councils to the necessity of providing a House of Refuge for this class of our population, so that they could be provided with food and shelter without being confined among criminals.

We visited the Nicholls Hospital in which at present there are 19 patients. There we found everything that could conduce to the comfort of the sick and afflicted. In every department there was evidence of the greatest care and diligence on the part of the matron and an efficient staff of nurses.

The St. Joseph's Hospital was also visited. In it we found eleven patients, twenty-eight aged people who are unable to work and three orphans. This Hospital and home for the aged is kept scrupulously clean and tidy, and, like the the first mentioned one, has every convenience and appliance to help alleviate the suffering of the afflicted. It is under the charge of the Sisterhood of St. Joseph.

We also visited the Protestant Home and in it we found fourteen old and infirm people, and three children. While it is not a very imposing structure, (not having been built for the purpose) this building makes a very comfortable home for the inmates. It is kept in a very clean tidy manner and reflects credit on the matron and the ladies of the town who for years have kept it up.

WM. COLLINS,
Foreman.

Grand Jury room, Peterborough, Nov. 2nd, 1892.

His lordship thanked the jury for the discharge of their duties. Their recommendations received his entire concurrence, and he would see that they were forwarded to the proper authorities and received due attention.

DR. BARNARDO'S HOMES.

The Great and Beneficient Work They are Doing.

The mention of these suggests ideas of perhaps the most extensive deserving and practical scheme of philanthrophy in the world. The EXAMINER has before it the annual report of the institutions known as Dr. Barnardo's Homes—for orphans and destitute children. These institutions have, day and night during the past 26 years, been receiving shelter, feeding, education, training and placing in employment the wretched fatheriess and destitute waifs and strays, whose lives but for this practical philanthrophy would have been lives of crime, degredation and misery. There are over a score of these homes situated in different parts of the United Kingdom, which have, according to the report in hand, have rescued from privation, suffering and moral ruin 18,839 poor boys and girls, and last year there were admitted to the shelter of the home 1717 worse than homeless children, a number almost equal to the total school population of the town of Peterborough. Included in the scheme of "Barnardo Homes" are the three immigration centres in Canada, the Hazelbrae home, Peterborough, for girls only, the Farley Avenue Home, Toonto, for boys only, and the Industrial Farm, Manitoba, for lads who are settled upon. Since the commence of the emigration work 5,010 trained boys and girls have out from these institutions to Canada and the colonies. Of these the large number of 92 per cent have been successful. Every emigrant boy or girl must be healthy, moral in character, and industrious. The importance of the work of Dr. Barnardo's Homes cannot be overestimated and only the great day of account can unfold the great good that has been accomplished through their agency.

THE EDISON DRAIN.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—The Globe of Monday, 31st ult. reports proceedings of Ontario Board of Health. Referring to the Edison drain, it says:—"The matter of sewerage in the town of Peterborough in connection with the drainage of the Edison company's building was considered and the board re-affirms its decision that Peterborough should send its sewerage below the town."

Will our town Solons and Sanitary Engineers take head, or will they, despite this notice, despite of every rule of cleanliness, health and decency, persist in polluting our waters?

Yours truly,
J. W. FITZGERALD.

A WELL-KNOWN NAME IN CANADA.

A Popular Clergyman in Sabbath Schools.

The Rev. John McKillican, Agent of the Canada Sabbath School Union, is known in every section of Canada. He has established thousands of Sabbath school during his many years of faithful work, and but few men have done a greater work for the religious training of the young in our Dominion.

The Rev. Mr. McKillican, who travels in all sorts of weather, often has the misfortune of being attacked by colds. At such times, the reverend gentleman uses Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and quickly rids himself of all trouble and danger. He has seen fit to testify in favor of Canada's great cough remedy as follows:—

"From personal experience and the testimony of others to whom I have suggested the use of Harvard Bronchial Syrup, I can strongly recommend it."

No other remedy of modern times can so quickly relieve and banish coughs, sore throat and all bronchial affections. Every home should have it for emergencies during this changeable weather. It will banish in a few hours the most obstinate cough and sore throat. If your druggist is out of it, tell him he must procure it for you at once.

LABOR PARADE IN LONDON.

A Demonstration on Tower Hill and a procession.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Despite a drenching rain yesterday hundreds of workmen assembled at Tower Hill prior to forming in procession and marching through the leading thoroughfares of the East End. The organizers of the Social Democratic Federation, who are usually in charge of the marching demonstrations, were not present. The discontent with the federation's agents found expression through a man named O'Keefe, one of the seven self-appointed delegates.

O'Keefe complained that the paid organizers were of small use and ought to resign their posts. A paid organizer named Inchus defended the value of his work and said that agitation would not be fruitless if it was backed by the trades council. He twitted O'Keefe with obtaining for the unemployed money which he had not accounted for. O'Keefe, amid an uproar, defied any one to say he had not accounted for all the money he had received.

Another paid organizer named Wait averted a row by moving a resolution, in which all present concurred, declaring that the idle workmen ought to be furnished with municipal employment. The unemployed, he said, ought to make themselves a nuisance. They ought not to stop in their hovels and starve, but should parade the streets and show their misery. The authorities were not afraid of Socialists, but they were afraid of a body of starving men who did not care whether they lived or died. The authorities knew when such men assembled they were dangerous and something must be done to smooth them down. This address was received with cheers.

The seconder of the resolution declared that idle workmen would no longer go about cadging and sponging. They must stand up for the dignity of labor and insist upon municipal work being given to them.

The threatened feud was cemented by Inchus proposing that he and O'Keefe's committee unite to gain a common end.

After the address the procession was formed. Just as this was starting a police spy named McCormack was recognized and the crowd threatened to lynch him. O'Keefe advised the mob not to touch the spy unless they wanted to swing at Newgate. A score of policeman got McCormack away.

MARTIN LUTHER'S CHURCH.

Emperor William Figures in an Interesting Event.

WITTENBERG, Nov. 1.—This old town of pointed gables, quaint towers and narrow streets yesterday presented a unique aspect. Everywhere bright banners and floral festoons are seen and the whole town bears a holiday appearance. A great pavilion has been built in front of the Scholakierie doors, where the Emperor will receive the keys of the edifice. This church was commenced in 1439 and finished in 1499. In 1760 it was severely injured by bombardment and it suffered in the same manner in 1813-14. It was first restored in 1814-17 and has now, owing to Emperor William's generosity, been again restored.

Upon the arrival of the Imperial party at the railway station they were welcomed by Prince Stolberg-Wernigerode, who conducted them to the Town Hall. The whole route was lined with troops, and back of the soldiers the crowd stood four or five deep for the entire distance. The Imperial party were received at the town hall by the burgomaster of Wittenberg, who, on behalf of the municipal authority, read an address to the Emperor. When this was finished and the Emperor had replied in a few words thanking the town officials for their good wishes, a procession was formed and proceeded to the church.

When Emperor William arrived at the door of the church Prof. Adler, the architect of the restored edifice, presented the key to His Majesty, who with a few gracious words handed it to the president of the church council. The latter in turn handed the key to Dr. Quandlt, the pastor of the church.

Dr. Quandlt then opened the door and the Emperor and his train passed through.

Upon the conclusion of the services the Imperial party drove to Luther's house, where the Emperor signed the deed of dedication.

From Luther's house the Emperor and his party reviewed a gorgeous historical procession composed of 19 groups illustrating the foundation and development of Wittenberg and the foundation of the Schloss Kirche. The 11th car was the feature of the procession. This was emblematic of the Reformation. On it was a representation of Martin Luther on horseback and surrounded by his adherents. Behind the car rode the five leaders of the famous league of Schmalkald that was founded at Wittenberg in 1536 to defend Protestants against Charles V.

STEPHANIE'S ESCAPADE.

She Horsewhips Count Chotek in a Vienna street.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A tremendous sensation has been caused in Vienna by a scandalous affair, in which the Princess Stephanie, widow of the late Crown Prince Rudolph, is concerned.

On Thursday last two cavaliers, evidently of the high nobility, were loitering on horseback on the Prater, when a handsome lady drove up in a well-appointed carriage. The carriage stopped near where the cavaliers were loitering and the lady alighted.

She drew a whip and struck one of the riders rapid blows about the head and face until the blood came. The affair attracted attention, although the gentleman who was being thrashed submitted without a murmur to his painful scourging.

The police came dashing up and thereupon the lady ceased the castigation and drove rapidly away, the two riders likewise galloping off in another direction.

The police made strenuous efforts to discover who the disturbers were, but their ardor was quickly dampened when they ascertained that the gentleman who had been scourged was no other person than Count Chotek, and it is asserted that the lady was the Princess Stephanie, who, but for the suicide of her husband, the late Crown Prince, would have been the next Empress of Austria. Count Chotek is one of the leaders of Viennese aristocracy.

A Mosh Melody.

Zip!
I am the boss mosquito;
Sometimes I'm called
Shooter for short.
I am all right,
And hungry enough for six.
I am out for blood.
If you think I am satisfied
To subsist on
Lean dudes at summer resorts,
Or on sunburned fishermen
With alcoholic breaths,
You are 'way off.
I shall linger in the moonlight
And haunt the dim piazza
At midnight's solemn hour
And dine sumptuously on the Girl graduate and the tempting debutante.
I shall sample the blushing cheeks
On next year's June brides
And lull them with the melody
Of my kazoo.
I am a shooter that has got Sand.
I wear spikes in my Shoes, and my kit of tools
Is mostly gimlets.
I can outsing the girl in the Lower flat.
Get onto my Curves.

Might Have Known the Hardins.

A respectable-looking colored man of the old school was standing near the family carriage, on Fourth avenue, the other day. He was gazing at the display of laces in the windows when a seedy white man, who looked as if he was about to beg, approached and said:

"How do you do, Uncle?"

"Howdy, sah?" responded the old fellow, lifting his hat.

"You were born in Kentucky, were you not?"

"Yes, sah."

"Didn't you once belong to the Hardins?"

"Yes, sah."

"I used to know the Hardins," said the tramp, getting ready to make his request.

"Yes, sah; dey was lots of people dat knew de Hahdins dat de Hahdings didn't know;" and he proudly opened the carriage door to allow his mistress to enter.—Courier Journal.

What a Bad Egg Is.

There is water a-plenty in a fresh-laid egg, but no more air than there is in a hammer. As long as you can keep the air out of your egg it will remain sweet and fresh, but nobody has succeeded in keeping it out more then six days. It sounds funny, but the moment yor give an egg fresh air that moment you ruin its health. People wonder why a bad egg is so positively obtrusive as to odor, but they shouldn't. What do they expect of a combination of putrified albumen, decayed cheese, sulphuric acid, carbonic acid gas, ammonia and ultra-rancid margarine set free? Honeysuckles?—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Children Must Be Catholic.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The report that the Pope has already given Prince Ferdinand of Hohenzollern a dispensation for his marriage with the daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh was premature. His Holiness is inclined to grant the dispensation, but only on condition that Prince Ferdinand agrees not to renounce Catholicism. Both parties to the alliance have pledged themselves to have their children brought up in the Catholic faith. It is understood the Emperor has been notified to this effect.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

IMPORTANT ELECTRICAL DISCOVERY

The Phonophore Telegraph Working successfully in England.

It is told that a telegraph wire which is busily transmitting a long message can at the same time be made to convey half a dozen other messages in opposite directions across like a busy bee; this done the sixteen are flashed upon the eyes responsible [illegible] authority. The discovery which underlies these astounding results possible is due to C. Langdon-Davies, who, for the some years, have engaged in rendering it practically workable, and is adapting it alike to telephonic and telegraphic use. It is difficult to convey to the lay mind an accurate comprehension of a process so exceedingly technical; but it may be briefly said that Mr. Langdon-Davies is the phonophore, utilizes, not the electric current, but the waves caused by induction. The waves are transmitted by a series of [illegible] electric impulses, and the energy of the system is found in the ability of the destructive force to pass through insulations which electric currents cannot penetrate. A wire may be blown down and in contact with the earth, yet, so long as it is not broken, it will carry a [illegible] By means of the phonophore messages may be transmitted with extraordinary rapidity and there is practically no limit to the number of telegrams that can be sent simultaneously upon the same wire. And, as we have hinted, Mr. Langdon-Davies' system is as useful telephonically as it is telegraphically. A wire which is conveying electric signals can at the same time be used for telephonic conversation without either the message or the conversation suffering in the least. For some considerable time past experiments in both directions have been proceeding, with most gratifying results, which are vouched for by such high authorities as Prof. Sylvanus Thompson, Conrad Cook, and Latimar Clark. Three of the principal railway companies have already adopted the phonophore; and it must be obvious, even to the unscientific mind, that phonophoric telegraphy and telephony, in so vastly increasing the electrician's power over the wires, has before it a very great future. The phonophore, indeed, increases almost to infinity the number of words that can be transmitted in a given time. It is obvious, therefore, that it offers great possibilities in the way of cheapening the cost of telegrams. So long as the number of words that could be carried by a wire in an hour was rigidly limited it was hopeless to look for any substantial reduction in the cost of telegraphing, but the phonophore at once increases the capacity and the speed of every wire to which it may be fitted.—St. James Gazette.

They Want a $50,000 Bonus.

HAMILTON, Nov. 1.—At the city council last night a letter will be read from the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Railway asking for a bonus of $50,000. The projectors want a bylaw submitted to the people, and to save expense they suggest that it be voted upon at the municipal elections in January.

Secretary Rutherford says that if the bylaw is carried the road will be built by June 1.

Dr. Oille will likely present his petition asking that a bylaw be submitted to grant a bonus of $125,000 to the Niagara Central.

MISS F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A MADMAN DOES MURDER.

A Member of the Irish Constabulary Kills a Whole Family.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—A horrible crime was committed last night in the Royal Irish Constabulary barracks at Ballinadrinat, county Kildare. Constable Pilkington, seized, it is supposed, with a sudden fit of insanity, entered the bedroom where Sergeant Logan and his wife were sleeping and shot them with a revolver, killing them instantly. The madman then turned to the sleeping rooms of Logan's children, and attacking them left them all for dead. Two were found to be dead with their heads crushed in, three fatally injured and the remaining two seriously injured. Pilkington then tried to burn the barracks, but the alarm spread, and finding himself discovered he committed suicide. The murderer had served 10 years in the constabulary and had a very high character.

THE G.T.R. MEETING.

Midland Railway Stockholders Will Ask for Better Terms.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The polls at the meeting of the Grand Trunk yesterday resulted in favor of the board by 129,300 votes to their opponents' 60.

The president declared the board's motions all carried.

Mr. Baker, who opposed the board, urged his friends to abstain from voting, as a protest against the board's use of proxies.

The Midland Railway was omitted from the consolidation scheme, to enable the holders of the Midland stock here to lay their case for better terms before the Grand Trunk board.

"REV." RUTHVEN'S STORY.

He Says That He Can Show That He is Not a Swindler.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 2.—The "Rev." William Ruthven, the clerical-looking suspected swindler, was seen at the Erie County jail yesterday. He claims that Buffalo is the only city in which he collected money. Asked if he had been in Canada lately he said:

"Please excuse me from answering that question. I would rather not say. I will tell that to Mr. Thomas, my lawyer. I expect him every minute."

"Do you know the Rev. Mr. McGarvey?"

"Yes, I know of him, that's all. I don't know why I am arrested or on what charge. I can't understand it."

"Do you know Rev. Mr. Paton of Toronto?"

"No, I never heard of him, and I don't know why he should lie about me. I can't understand it. I am innocent."

"Have you anyone by whom you can prove your innocence?"

"No, but I think I can prove it though. I will make it all right. I did not get enough money in Buffalo to speak about. McGarvey never gave me five cents. I am not a fraud. I am what I claim to be."

Some of the other prisoners advised Ruthven not to talk too much, and he declined to say anything more of interest. Ruthven claims to be a Presbyterian minister from New South Wales, but declined to state a definite point.

A SMALLPOX PATIENT.

He Walked Into a New York Hospital And Asked for Treatment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A seedy-looking young man, who said he was Daniel Mack, 23 years old, walked into Bellevue Hospital yesterday afternoon and said that he had smallpox. Health Inspector Blauvelt examined him and found that his story was correct as far as smallpox was concerned and that he had had it several days. Mack said that he came to this country from Canada six weeks ago and had been stopping in various lodging houses, the addresses of which he did not know. He was sent to the Reception Hospital to await transference to North Brother Island.

Riddled With Bullets.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 2.—Two brothers named Burgess who were in jail at Lebanon, Russell County, charged with the murder of "Oak" Sutherland, attempted to escape a few nights ago. This so incensed Sutherland's friends that they took the prisoners from jail, handcuffed them together, hanged them and then riddled them with bullets.

Chicago's Esquimaux Baby.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The inhabitants of the Esquimaux village at the World's Fair grounds were trying to paint things red yesterday. The cause of the jubilation was a daughter born to Mrs. Manak, whose husband votes up near the north pole when he is at home. The little Esquimaux was promptly christened Columbia Susan.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—The Protective Board of Telegraphers of the cotton belt system, Order of Railway Telegraphers, which has been negotiating with the officials of the cotton belt system to arrange a schedule of rules and rates of pay, has reached an agreement with the company. HAMILTON AND THE G.T.R.

General Superintendent Stephenson Makes New Arrangements.

HAMILTON, Nov. 2.—General Superintendent Stephenson, who was here yesterday, has made the following arrangements affecting the relations of the Grand Trunk Railway with the city of Hamilton:

Mr. Joseph Wallace, for many years chief clerk in Superintendent Stiff's office, will be General Agent of the company at Hamilton, and will be in full touch with the head office at Montreal regarding any questions that may arise.

Mr. M. C. Dickson, District Passenger Agent, will have an office at the station here, where he will be in attendance two days each week.

Mr. J. Earle, District Freight Agent, will be domiciled in Hamilton, where he can be consulted at any time.

The articles of the Hamilton and Northwestern agreement will be observed absolutely and in the most liberal spirit toward the patrons of the road at this point.

Mr. Stephenson's evident intention is to do all that can be done to give satisfaction and that without any extraordinary pressure or urging from the City Council, the Board of Trade or any other representative body in this city.

Convicted for Murder.

CHESTERTOWN, Md., Nov. 2.—Charles Brooks, Fletcher Williams and Moses Brown, men, and Joshua Brainard, Louis Benson, Henry Hurlett, Frisby Comegys and C. S. Emory, boys, all convicted of the murder of Dr. James H. Hill, near Millington, Kent County, last April, have been sentenced to be hanged. All are colored and seem indifferent to their fate.

Scalded to Death.

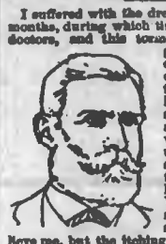
AGONIZING ECZEMA

Awful Suffering. Driven Almost Insane by Doctors. Tried Cuticura. Relief Immediate. Entirely Cured in 4 Months.



I suffered with the dreadful eczema for over six months, during which time I had consulted three doctors, and this tormenting skin disease had grown worse and worse on me in spite of all medical treatment. My condition was unbearable. My legs were swollen, my arms were raw, my face and neck full of eruption, which made me scratch until my whiskers were soaked and pasted with the sickly fluid. I could hardly bear my clothing. When night came I was afraid to go to bed, no sleep would come to relieve me, but the itching would increase. During day time I had no rest, I was all broken up, nervous to the highest degree, and nearly driven to despair. At that time I read about the CUTICURA REMEDIES, intended to try them, and dropped the doctors. After applying CUTICURA I had the first night's rest for several weeks. Using the CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with proper judgment, my condition improved slowly but surely day by day, until after three to four months' use of them I was cured. Our minister, Rev. J. G. Perrault, in Mandan, knows me and knows how I suffered. Any one may write to him and he will certify to the truth of this testimonial.

E. H. STEINBRUECK, Mandan, North Dakota.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the assured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

A DETROIT MURDER.

A Peculiarly Brutal And Cold-Blooded Homicide in a Saloon.

DETROIT, Nov. 3.—A most atrocious murder was committed in J. W. Koch's saloon, 139 Sherman-street, a few minutes before 7 o'clock last evening. George Scott Moross, engineer for the Home Brewing Company, was shot down in cold blood by George C. Frederick, a stalwart blacksmith. The act was a treacherous and cowardly one, and the victim went to his death without a word of warning. Frederick first shot Moross in the throat as the latter was standing at the bar of the saloon, but not satisfied with this he fired a second time as Moross was reeling. The bullet struck the latter in the back just below the right shoulder blade, passed diagonally through his body, piercing his heart, and almost before the few horror-stricken spectators present knew what had occurred Moross fell to the floor dead. The murder was the outcome of an old feud.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 3.—Annie Gould, wife of William Gould, action maker at D. W. Karn & Co's., had been ill for some time, and during the past few days appeared very melancholy. She was attended during her illness by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Gould, but last night managed to get some Paris green, which had been secreted by her husband under the verandah in the summer time, and thus ended her worldly suffering. She took two dessert spoonfuls of the poison dry in an outbuilding, and after a long absence came into the kitchen. She complained of feeling unwell and went to lie down. A few hours later she died. Deceased had been married seven years.

AWFUL RAILWAY SMASH

TWENTY PEOPLE KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

Collision on an English Railway—An Express Dashes Into a Goods Train—Fire Adds Its Horrors And a Horrible Scene Ensues.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—An appalling railway accident occurred yesterday morning near Thirsk, in Yorkshire, by which 10 persons were killed and a large number injured.

The east coast express train for London left Edinburgh at 10 30 o'clock last night. The express train, being unusually heavy, was divided into two sections. The first section proceeded safely to London, arriving at the usual hour. The second section had over 100 passengers on board, including several noblemen and other distinguished people. The train, which consisted of coaches from Dundee, Perth, Abroath and Aberdeen, swept safely through Southern Scotland and the extreme north of England. A thick fog prevailed and the express train collided at full speed with a goods train on a siding at Manor House. The wreck of the express train was complete. The carriages were broken and jammed together, and most of the passengers were caught in their compartments as in so many traps. The wreck took fire almost instantly from escaping gas, and the smoke and flame and the shrieks of the dying and wounded made a horrible scene.

Those who managed to extricate themselves uninjured hastened to assist others who were yet alive and caught in the wreck. It was difficult work, owing to the way in which the carriages were crushed together, and the trouble in opening compartment doors that were fastened after the usual British fashion.

Men and women could be heard shrieking for assistance, and one man who was being slowly burned to death and who could not get out begged the rescuers, in heaven's name, to kill him.

Awful Scenes.

To add to the horror the carriages caught fire and were soon destroyed. A large number of persons from near-by places were soon at the scene and did everything possible to extricate the dead and injured. The burning cars greatly hampered their efforts, but had it not been for their bravery the loss of life would have been much greater.

The scene at the wreck was pitiable. Some of the bodies taken out of the debris had been burned beyond all semblance to humanity. The clothing had been destroyed, and in some cases the jewelry worn had been melted by the intense heat. This will render the identification of the dead in some cases extremely difficult, if not impossible.

A wrecking train was despatched to the scene as soon as the fact of the disaster became known. A number of physicians were carried to the wreck, and they at once devoted themselves to relieving the sufferings of the injured.

The Marquis of Tweeddale, the Marquis of Huntley, Gen. Lumbton and Mr. Kynoch, a railway director, were in the Pullman coach. Lady Stewart was in another carriage. All got a severe shaking up. The Marquis of Huntley said that everything possible seemed to have been done to help the sufferers. The Marquis said he understood the accident was due to a signal man being asleep. As soon as possible the wounded were taken to North Allerton.

The Marquis of Tweeddale, with the Marquis of Huntley and a number of other passengers, came from the wreck on a special train. The Marquis of Huntley got off the train at Peterboro. He seems to feel more severely than the others the effects of the shock.

Among the dead is Capt. Duncan McLeod of the 42nd Highlanders.

The Dead Number Ten.

The official report of the killed in the fatal railway accident near Thirak places the number at 10. Many persons received slight injuries and a severe shaking-up.

The signalman, who was charged with being asleep at his post, has been suspended from duty pending an investigation.

The escape of the occupants of the wrecked Pullman car was little short of miraculous. The wheels were torn off, but the body of the coach stood the crash with but little damage.

Pinioned beneath the huge engine the rescuing party saw a woman. She was in great agony and screaming for help. They were powerless to help her. She was burned to death and her body reduced to ashes.

The fire burned fiercely until noon, when the flames were gotten under control.

The occupants of one carriage were imprisoned by debris and in great peril. They could see the flames slowly approaching and suffered from the increasing heat. They were rescued in the nick of time.

The engineer of the express train, himself badly injured and held down by the debris, implored the rescuers to save the passengers and not mind him.

Signalman Holmes is in a pitiable condition of mental distress. His child had died on the previous night. He had asked the station master for leave of absence, but had been refused. He had to take his turn on duty though greatly fatigued, and was so tired that he fell asleep and neglected the signals.

KILLED HER HUSBAND.

A Woman Brought to Kingston Penitentiary From British Columbia.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 3.—James Fitzsimmons, deputy-warden of the New Westminster, B.C., penitentiary, arrived with a prisoner named Mrs. Brown, whom he left at the Kingston Penitentiary. She was sentenced at Nanaimo, B.C., for the murder of her husband by strangling him during a drunken brawl. She was arrested on a charge of murder, but was tried for manslaughter and committed to the penitentiary for five years. The main cause of her crime is said to be jealously.

THAT CATTLE TROUBLE.

ENEMIES OF CANADA'S CATTLE TRADE NOT YET SUBDUED.

Not the Dominion's Representatives Are Still Fighting Tooth and Nail to Persuade the British Board of Agriculture of Canada's Freedom From Pleuro-Pneumonia.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The greatest pressure is being brought upon the Board of Agriculture to secure the prohibition of the importation of Canadian cattle. The chief reason urged by those who desire this prohibition is that Canada does not take due precautions to shut out cattle from the United States.

A deputation from the Central Chamber of Agriculture will wait upon Mr. Herbert Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, for the purpose of urging him to enforce the order requiring Canadian cattle to be slaughtered at the port at which they are landed.

Mr. Chaplin, the late Minister of Agriculture, declared yesterday that it was necessary for Canadian exemption from the schedule to be rescinded.

Dr. McEachren's interim report published yesterday has had good effect. The Canadian officials are earnestly urging the Board of Agriculture to await the full report.

The Canadian Gazette urges Mr. Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, not to be driven by threats, which show the hand of astute party politicians rather than disinterested friends of the British farmer.

It Was Cornstalk Fever.

MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—There is considerable anxiety among live stock men over the news that Canadian cattle were to be scheduled in England. A herd of 27 bulls from Peacher Creek, Man., were seized in Liverpool on Monday under suspicion of being infected with pleuro-pneumonia. A private cable yesterday says that the cattle on the SS. Hurona and Monkseaton were not affected with pleuro-pneumonia, but with broncho-pneumonia, or cornstalk fever. They have all been slaughtered.

Free From Disease.

STRATFORD, Nov. 3.—W. P. McClure, V.S., received instructions from Prof. McEachern, Dominion Inspector, to visit several herds in Oxford, which he did, and ascertain beyond doubt that pleuro-pneumonia did not exist among the cattle. The herds visited were those of Mr. Kennedy, James Munroe and Councillor Munroe, all of whom sold cattle recently to Mr. McCulloch, the well-known shipper. In this shipment there were 42 head, and it was claimed on their arrival in England that one of the cows was affected with disease. It is thought this must be a mistake, as all the other cattle are free from any disease.

A STRANGE SIREN.

Lures a Pickle Husband—The Wronged Wife Sees.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Nov. 3.—At the Assize Court yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Street and a jury, the suit of Quick v. Church was heard. It was a most unusual case, the first perhaps in the history of Canadian judicature. The plaintiff is Mrs. Sarah Jane Quick of Woodstock and the defendant Agnes Church of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Plaintiff is the wife of a man named Quick, formerly employed in a responsible position in the Karn organ factory, Woodstock. She charges the defendant, Agnes Church, a widow with a large family, of having alienated the affections of plaintiff's husband, and with having taken him away, and with allowing him to go and consort with her.

Plaintiff was represented by Mr. J. C. Fullerton, Q.C., Toronto, and defendant by D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., of Toronto.

Mrs. Quick, the plaintiff, a quiet-looking woman of about 45 years of age, entered the box and said she was married 25 years ago. They lived together at Kalamazoo for six years, and then he went away and left her for a year. He came back and they lived together for 16 years, chiefly in Goderich, Clinton and latterly in Woodstock. Her husband was foreman in the Karn works, and had a salary of $1200 per annum. They lived happily together during all these 16 years. He again left her two years ago. She saw a great change in her husband's demeanor towards her four years ago. He would stay out all night. She found out that her husband was visiting at Blandford, where defendant stayed. Afterwards her husband went to Green Bay, Wis. She followed and found him in a hotel with Mrs. Church. When she went there she found that Mrs. Church had been employed in the hotel as bar-keeper. She had a letter in her pocket which defendant offered her $50 for. She did not give her the letter.

She got the letter one night when she rifled her husband's pockets. She suspected something of the kind, and went through his pockets one night and found the letter.

As far as faulty penmanship and indifferent spelling would allow, the letter was as follows:

August 13th.

MY OWN DARLING,—I did not mean calling upon you in the street. I got home all right that night, but I feel very lonesome when my darling leaves me. I hope you will do just what is right. I would like to have you all to myself, but that day is away, away off. I do not know what is the matter, I think that much about you. Darling take better care of yourself. I want you to answer this to-night and let me know if you can come out to-morrow. I will be at Patterson's. Tell me if you are coming, or if walking or driving. I will meet you near the barn, and try to make it late. You had better drive; it makes you late. Go to bed early and take a sound sleep. I will look for a letter to-night. From yours,

MARY X X.

This letter plaintiff says defendant offered $50 for possession of.

The defence is a denial. Defendant is rather a handsome big woman about 40 years of age, inclined to be rather stout, with a rather cast, heavy features. She dresses most stylishly, seems quite composed and rather inclined to interrupt counsel in the statement of the case. At one time the judge commanded her to remain silent or leave the court.

DROPPED DEAD.

A few hours afterwards his cousin, who also has a farm near by, found Donald lying dead on the road. Heart disease was the cause of death.

A BARE-FACED FRAUD.

The following clipped from the columns of the Toronto Globe, Oct. 29th, is of sufficient importance to newspaper readers to warrant its reproduction in these columns:

To the Editor of the Globe:

SIR,—I am sure that you will agree with me when I say that something ought to be done to stop the bare-faced swindling (no milder name will do) which is going on in certain directions in our midst, and I have no reason to doubt that my experience in this city is the experience of others in many parts of Canada. I have read so much of the great success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People that I determined to give them a trial for nervous troubles. I accordingly went to a drug store to procure a supply. On asking the druggist for the pills he took down a glass jar and proceeded to take out the quantity. "But," said I, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk and that cannot be them." "O, yes, it is," said the dealer, "we always get them in bulk, and sell them that way." I had read the caution of the proprietors to the effect that these pills were never sold in bulk, and thinking that they would know best, I declined taking them, and left the store. My next experience was no more fortunate. Again pills pink in color to imitate the genuine were offered me. When I remonstrated this dealer admitted that the pills were not supplied him by the Dr. Williams' Co., but declared that they were just the same. And yet for the sake of a little more profit he would have imposed them on me for the genuine Pink Pills, had I been less cautious. As I left the store I thought the warnings against imitations given by the Williams Co. must be result of bitter experience on their part. But I did not expect I would meet with three dishonest dealers (do you think the term is too strong?) in succession. My next experience proved the third dealer little better than the other two. When I asked for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills he said he had them, and then produced a package which I saw at a glance bore another name, and which he insisted were just as good. I declined taking them, and turned to leave the store, when the druggist offered to give me the genuine pills. But I did not feel that I ought patronize a man who would have impose something else on me had I been less guarded, and declined buying. I almost despaired getting the genuine Pink Pills unless I sent to headquarters; but on my visit to the fourth drug store I was more successful, and was at once handed the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. No doubt, Mr. Editor, my experience is that of many others, and no doubt hundreds less cautious are constantly being deceived. I think the newspapers ought to do something towards protecting their readers from frauds of this kind. We frequently read of reporters doing clever detective work, etc., visiting churches in the garb of the lowly, and then writing up their reception. Here is a new field for them. Let some some clever reporter travel the length and breadth of this city in humble guise, and see how many dealers are honest enough to give him what he asks for without trying to impose a substitute upon him.

I trust, Mr. Editor, you will give this a place in your columns, as it may serve to prevent some one else from being cheated.

A LADY READER.

Toronto, Oct. 27.

THE GRIST GROUND

By Police Magistrate Dumble's Mill at the Police Court.

At the police court Wednesday three Jacks "faced the beak." John Cooper sedately sat before the Court charged with being a vagrant. He asked his worship to commit him to gaol for two months, as he had no work. The judiciary replied that he could not think of sending an able-bodied, swarthy specimen of male construction, such as the prisoner was, to gaol, but he would even go beyond the most sanguine expectations of the prisoner, and commit him to the Central Prison, Toronto, for six months. At this announcement the attitude and "mien of Cooper" changed. He begged like a trooper to be excused from accepting such a gift from the bench. The magistrate finally told him that he could take his choice—either confinement in the Central Prison, or get out of town post haste. Thus John chose the latter and vamoosed.

John Strand and John Turner were arrested and locked up last night. They were each fined $2 or 10 days in gaol. They took Hobson's choice—the days—as they had no "Langevin spoil" on their persons.

It is with feelings of regret that we chronicle the demise of Rev. J. Curts, a former paster of the Methodist church here, which sad event took place at Belleville, on Tuesday, the 25th ult. The deceased, although but one year in this place, won the esteem of not only the several congregations in this circuit, but of all with whom he came in contact, owing to his genial and Christ-like manner. The Rev. Mr. Howard, our present pastor, delivered a very suitable and impressive sermon on Sunday evening last in commemoration of the deceased. The pulpit was draped in mourning, and many hearts felt sad at the loss of such a useful man, and yet it was a consolation to know that our loss was his gain. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Curts and the bereaved family and trust that though now parted on earth that they will meet in Heaven where parting is unknown.

Several gates were carried away in this vicinity on Monday night. It is an old saying that "boys will be boys," but nevertheless some of them act indecently.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a [illegible], when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

Racked with Rheumatism.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B. B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also suffered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

Every Dose Effective

A PARALYTIC STROKE.

Mr. Ashton Fletcher, Barrister, of Woodstock, Succumbs in a Few Short Hours.

"The people of Woodstock," the Sentinel Review says, "were shocked to learn last night that Mr. Ashton Fletcher, Q.C., had been stricken down with paralysis. Mr. Fletcher has not been in good health for about two years. Indeed, last winter and for some time before his friends had almost despaired of his life. He had consulted eminent physicians without apparent relief. But during the last few months he had greatly improved. His appearance was changed. He began to look brighter and more vigorous, and his family were beginning to feel that he was on the way to permanent recovery. On Wednesday he appeared for the last time in court here, on behalf of the infant grandchild of the late S. G. Burgess. In the evening with his son he left for St. Thomas, where he spent the night. Yesterday he had a couple of cases in the division court at Rodney. On leaving the court room he complained of having a peculiar feeling in one of his legs, saying that he believed he was becoming paralyzed. He was assisted to a seat and taken to the hotel. He was able to speak for about an hour and realized his position, enquiring of the doctor whether he would be rendered permanently helpless. But he gradually lost consciousness and was brought home in the evening in that condition. This morning doctors Murray and Welford, who are in attendance, feared that the patient had only a few hours to live; but he showed slight symptoms of improvement in the afternoon. Mr. Fletcher's case is a very serious one, as it is said to be a complication of apoplexy and paralysis. He lies in a very precarious condition." The above well-known gentleman is a brother of Mrs. (Dr.) J. A. Fife, Peterborough. He succumbed to the fatal stroke on Saturday last. Mrs. Fife will have the sympathy of all citizens in the sad and sudden death of her brother.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage defying the utmost art of man to rival,

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

Indigestion Cured.

EAGLE MOUNT QUARRIES.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Seeing a paragraph in your issue of the 20th regarding the Eagle Mount granite quarries, I will, with your permission, place a few facts as to these quarries before the public.

Four years ago Mr. Murray, an old and experienced quarryman, opened these quarries and was doing a good business with them, but owing to a disagreement with Mr. Fraser, his partner, had to give them up and sold them to me. I at once sent samples of the stone to different parties in that particular line of business, among others to Mr. Jones Streets, Commissioner, Toronto, who says in a letter of recent date that the stone "is a long way better for road making purposes than the granite from Gananoque and I am strongly in favour of its use." The stone referred to by Mr. Jones is from the original Eagle Mount quarry and not surface stone.

Now, the paragraph referred to above would lead your readers to suppose that the parties mentioned as having "recently bought the Eagle Mount stone quarry" were owners of the Murray quarry. This statement if made by them, is, to say the least of it, incorrect.

With reference to the statement made in the paragraph referred to before, that dissatisfaction was expressed as to the work done by the former workmen in the quarry, I have never heard one word of complaint since I have owned the quarry, employing as I do none but the best workmen and paying the highest wages.

I trust, sir, that these few facts will give your readers to understand that I own the original Eaglemount quarry and that the other is an offshoot and a side show, so to speak, and a poor one at that.

I remain, yours obediently,
WILLIAM JONES.

For the cure of headache, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, and all derangements of the digestive and assimilative organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, always reliable, and retain their virtues in any climate.

PROMPT, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

OUR GROWTH!

WITH just pride we point to the two words at the head of this article—our growth—one of the most remarkable in the mercantile history of this town. In 1885, we commenced business in the small premises at 415 George Street. This store occupied about 720 square feet. Almost immediately our business began to increase, and six months later we were obliged to have extensions made. From that time until January, 1890, the same untiring, persevering energy that compelled the first change to keep up with the increasing business, compelled change after change, addition upon addition, entailing considerable sums of money, and unlimited courage, grit and determination. Since removing to our premises three years ago, we have kept on, keeping one idea uppermost in our minds—to treat our customers honestly and fairly, and to give them the best stock of goods, and, if possible, the best store on George Street. The result shows that the people of Peterborough, town and county, have been keenly alive to our efforts, helping us by their patronage, and believing in us and encouraging us. We take this opportunity of thanking you, one and all, good people of Peterborough, for the seventh time in seven years, from the newest customer to the tried friends who commenced dealing with us 'way back in '85. From the 720 square feet in '85 to 4,720 square feet of selling space in 1892. That's the change. From a small store, selling a few small lines of dry goods, to our present mammoth establishment, with piles of dry goods of foreign and domestic textures, reaching to the ceiling. Last October, we treated our customers to an October Discount Sale. Now, we intend doing so again. During this month we will conduct a regular bargain sale. On all purchases of $1 or over,

A DISCOUNT OF 5 PER CENT.

will be given. Remember the store, No 385 George Street.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. SHEEHY.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Many Thanks.

"The Elmira Telegram is pleased to note the increasing prosperity and popularity of the Peterborough (Ont.) EXAMINER, which has recently added a new dress, which becomes it very handsomely and pleases its many readers much, because of its improved legibility. Mr. Stratton is to be congratulated upon his success, which is so well merited."

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

Telephone Charges.

In reference to the correspondence in Monday's EXAMINER with respect to the charges made by the Bell Telephone Company and the alleged effects of monopoly the EXAMINER is able to state that the rate of charge for messages to Toronto is no new thing. It was fixed in Sept. 1891, before an amalgamation with the Ontario Telephone company was thought of. The charge of 60 cents for a message including a reply is only half the charge made for similar messages in the United States. As to a telegraphic message being the cheaper, it may be stated that the charge of the Bell Telephone company for a message of 20 words is 25 cents whereas the telegraphic rate is 25 cts. for ten words.

A Most Attractive Sale.

Some people, whenever they see the advertisement of a bargain, mark down or reduction sale, at once look upon it as a humbug. They may be perfectly correct in some cases, but when you stop and consider that sometimes the aforesaid advertisement is signed with the name of a firm that has the confidence of the public and enjoys a reputation for honesty and fair dealing, you must realize that the firm could not afford to advertise that they were prepared to sell first class goods at a reduction unless they really intended to do so. This is the identical case with Mr. J. J. Sheehy. Since Oct. 1st his store has been crowded every day. People have read his advertisement, examined his stock, purchased large parcels and received the promised reduction of 5 per cent. discount on every parcel amounting to or over $1. New goods are being opened up every day, the latest arrivals being Irish linens, mantle cloths, and a beautiful selection of sealettes. The public are invited to inspect Mr. Sheehy's windows on Saturday night next. 1dw

An Artistic Painting.

There is on exhibition in the shop of Mr. Ed. Manning, Hunter street, a handsome and artistic oil painting of a young son of Rev. Dr. Craig, Deseronto. The photo is remarkable alike for its natural life-like qualities and the excellent ability shown by the painter in enlarging it from a cabinet size photograph. This fine piece of work was done by Mr. S. G. Aseltine, late of Kingston, and reflects much credit upon his already acknowledgedly fine talents as an artist.

Campbellford's New Magistrate.

The Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, in response to a request from the Campbellford council to appoint a police magistrate for that place, the want of such an official having been long felt, has been pleased to appoint Mr. D. J. Lynch, barrister, to that position. The Herald hopes that Mr. Lynch may be long spared to discharge justice without fear or favor in every case that comes before him. Law-breakers in Campbellford will not be so safe now nor their deeds go unpunished as in the past.

The Twain Made One.

A pleasant affair took place last night at the residence of Mr. Neil McDonald, 468 Reid street, when Mr. Samuel Cottingham was united in marriage to Mr. McDonald's fourth daughter, Isabella. The event was celebrated in the presence of a small company of friends, Rev. J. E. Trotter, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, officiating. Miss Mattie McDonald, sister of the bride, acted the part of bridesmaid, while Mr. Thomas Stenton filled the position of groomsman. After the wedding all present partook of a splendid repast. The presents were fine and congratulations were tendered Mr. and Mrs. Cottingham, who have taken up their residence at 474 Park street.

ONWARD GOES THE WORK.

The New Walk Around the Customs House Building Making Headway—The Fine Stone Fence to Surround the Lot.

Mr. T. Rutherford who was awarded the contract sometime ago of erecting the new granolithic pavement, and stone fence around the Customs House building has sublet the contract for the pavement to the Canadian Granite Company of Ottawa. The latter firm are prosecuting their contract with vigor under the superintendence of Mr. J. Foley, Ottawa. The new pavement being laid is 16 feet 6 inches in width, from the building to the outside extremity. There are 2,500 sq. ft. to lay, and from present indications it is expected that the work will be completed on Saturday week. It will take about two days for the granolithic pavement to harden before pedestrians can put a foot on it. The ground is first covered with ordinary coarse stone, and on this is laid a mixture of fine gravel and cement, four inches deep, and up on this is spread the granolithic mixture one and a half inches thick. The walk will be magnificent when finished. The work of erecting the new fence around the government lot is also progressing apace. Mr. J. Bryne is looking after the job in the interests of Mr. Rutherford. The wall will be 76 feet on Charlotte street, 80 on George, and 116 to the rear of the government property. The trench is being filled with ordinary quarry stone. The cut stone is supplied by Messrs. Hall & Co., of the Longford quarries, and will be three and a half feet in height. On top of this will be a ten-inch coping of fine hammered face limestone. The other will be rock face. The posts will be capped with Queenston Heights limestone, 11 ft. high. There are twelve men and two teams working at the contract. The masons commenced work this afternoon. It will take until January to complete the work. Eight carloads of cut stone have already arrived for the wall.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

The Assize Sittings—The Evidence in Ennismore vs. Young Concluded—Argument Adjourned to Toronto—The Cavanagh-Dewart Assault Case.

THURSDAY, Nov. 3rd.

The interest in the assizes on the part of the public remains unflagging, there being a large attendance at the court room every day. The case of Ennismore vs. Young occupied the whole of yesterday up to late in the afternoon and when finished was, so to speak, not finished—the argument was adjourned to Toronto to be heard on a date to fixed.

Ennismore vs. John Young was an action brought by the corporation of the township of Ennismore to recover possession of original road allowance between lots 5 and 6 in the 7th concession. The corporation claims the right to have the forced road east of lot six in the 7th concession opened to a width of three rods and the side line between lots 5 and 6, part of which defendant has possession, opened up also.

The defendant claimed that the road which it was desired to open up to 66 feet was required by the original surveys and papers filed with the sessions to be only 3 rods wide. The defendant also contended that the new road being laid out in the east there was no necessity for two roads only 30 chains apart, and that under the municipal Act, which declares that a person in possession of an original road allowance for which another road has been substituted, shall be entitled to such original road allowance, cannot be disturbed.

The trial of this case occupied a large part of three days, and a large number of witnesses were examined on either side, including two land surveyors, Messrs. A. J. Cameron and F. W. Wilkins. An interesting feature of the case was the fact that Mr. P. Galvin, J. P., who is now in his 92nd year, and has been in the township since 1825, was one of the witnesses, and he was able to give singularly exact and clear particulars from personal knowledge. The accuracy with which he could speak of and identify different lots, concessions and land marks, without reference to memoranda, and with the most extraordinary clearness, was the admiration of all, and even the opposing counsel. The evidence in the case was taken, and the argument of counsel adjourned to Toronto on a date to be fixed by the judge. Messrs. Hatton & Wood, and Mr. Shepley, Q. C., Toronto, for the plaintiff; Mr. Edwards and Mr. Murray for defendant.

Cavanagh vs. Dewart.—In this case William R. and Agnes Cavanagh bring action to recover damages in the sum of $4,000 from John Dewart, a farmer of Dummer, for an assault alleged to have been committed on July 28th by the defendant John Dewart upon the person of Agnes Cavanagh, with intent to debauch and carnally know the said Agnes Cavanagh.

Agnes Cavanagh was the first witness called. She testified that on the 8th of July last her husband was the hired man of the defendant, Dewart. On July 9th Mr. Dewart brought a dress to her at her house. She told him to take it back as she did not want it but that he should give it to his own wife. He took the dress and went away. This was about noon. He next came to her house on July 28th. Her house was, about a mile distant from defendants own. She was in the house alone—her husband had gone to Warsaw. When Dewart came in he said to witness that he liked her better than any woman he had ever seen. She told him he should have more respect for his wife, and he said that what Mrs. Dewart did not know would not harm her. He then asked witness for something and offered her money. She asked him what he meant and he then made improper proposals. She called him a dirty brute. He caught her, drew her upon his knee and held her there; he put his hand under her clothing. She resisted all she was able to do and remonstrated with the defendant; she talked about his duty to his wife. Defendant quoted Scripture to her to show that what he proposed to her was no harm. Finally he left; he threatened to take her life if she spoke to any person of what he had done.

To Mr. Burnham—Witness had been married about 8 years, when she was married she lived at her home in Dummer, since that they had lived in Smith with Mr. Hugh Davidson; from there they went to Mr. Dewart's. She could not say how long Dewart was in the house but it seemed to her long enough to be two hours. Her husband came home from Warsaw about 9 o'clock and she told him what had occurred. He was angry and they came to the conclusion to prosecute Dewart. Two days afterwards the defendant asked her where her husband was and if he was coming back to work, and the reply was that she did not think he was. She told him that "Dick"—her husband—complained of the board, but she did not tell Dewart that he could get $22 per month. She had a conversation in a berry patch with one Mrs. Peter Ferguson, when the latter accused witness of circulating stories about her (Mrs. F.) and Dewart. Witness denied saying on this occasion that Dewart was a good, honest man, but she thought that Mrs. Ferguson said that, and she (witness) had said that Dewart was a two-faced man.

W. R. Cavanagh swore that he was the husband of Agnes Cavanagh. He was born in Dummer; knew defendant Dewart; he was otherwise known as the "Dummer Bull." On July 9th wife of witness told him that Dewart had brought a dress to her. Witness asked Dewart what he meant, and he (Dewart) had begged witness for God's sake not to say anything about it for the sake of his family. His wife also spoke to witness about a subsequent trouble with Dewart. Witness left Dewart's employ on July 29th, because "he had abused my woman." He did not bring an action sooner because he had no money, and had to wait till he earned it. After the last encounter with defendant, his wife was affected by it. She was too nervous to stay alone, and she went to her fathers, Samuel Clydesdale, of the 9th line of Dummer.

To Mr. Burnham the witness said he did not know but he bore a good name in Dummer. He had had some trouble in Smith with Mr. Davidson, who, after witness had left his employment, brought a constable to recover some property which witness claimed Mr. Davidson had given him.

THE DEFENCE.

John Dewart, the defendant in the action, deposed that the plaintiff, Cavanagh, had been in his employ. He had been engaged to work for six months. Defendant remembered 28th day of July. They were cutting wheat in the forenoon. Just as we were called for dinner Cavanagh complained of a pain in his head and left after dinner. In the afternoon witness worked in the field till within ten minutes of sunset, when he went to Cavanagh's to see if Dick was coming in the morning, otherwise he would have to get another man. Cavanagh's house is about half a mile from the field where he was working. When he reached the house he exchanged salutations with Mrs. Cavanagh and asked how "Dick" was. She said he had gone to Warsaw. She invited witness in and they sat down. Witness said he depended on her to send "Dick" in the morning, and she said she would. She asked witness to come in to the cellar as she had milk to skim or ain. He said he was in a hurry and left. He was not more than ten minutes in the house. His sons had left the field when he returned. He was absent from the field till his return about 30 minutes. He heard of this charge about the 18th of August. Witness saw Cavanagh at his house on the 29th of July. He had breakfast in the ordinary way, and said nothing about this matter. He asked witness for $3 and he told him I would give it to him in about a week. Never offered Mrs. Cavanagh a dress. There was not a word of truth in the story she told. It was all untrue.

To Mr. Stone—Had a copy of plaintiff's (preliminary) examination. Could not tell how many petit jury men he had spoken to on the subject of this case. Don't know that he asked a friend to speak to the jury in his (witness') behalf. Witness had heard reports about himself and Mrs. Ferguson. Had bought calves from the Fergusons, and gave an order on Reynolds, of Norwood. Did not give Richardson, of Norwood, an order for boots for Mrs. Ferguson. Witness went to Mrs. Cavanagh's house on the 9th for a drink—had no parcel; went again on the 28th to see if "Dick" was going to return to work. Had no reason to think that he was not returning except the fear that he might be tempted away by higher wages. He did not tell anybody that he had his hand on Mrs. Cavanagh on the 28th.

James Dewart, son of defendant, testified to working in the field with his father on July 28th, and to his father's going to Mrs. Cavanagh's. He was gone about three-quarters of an hour.

The trial of the action Cavanagh vs. Dewart was resumed this morning at 9 o'clock.

Wm. Dewart was the first witness called. His evidence corroborated that of his father and brother, as to the time the defendant left the field and overtook the lads on their way home. To Mr. Stone witness said he and his father and brother had talked over the case since the writ was served and had discussed the time his father left the field.

Mrs. Weltha Ferguson, the next witness was berry picking on August 15th and Mrs. Cavanagh spoke of Mr. Dewart as an honest decent man.

To Mr. Stone—witness had admitted that she had been frequently alone with Mr. Dewart. There had been talk in the township about her and Mr. Dewart; Mr. Dewart she said was a good neighbour and a decent neighbour at that.

Mrs. Cavanagh, recalled, testified that statements made by the defendant in regard to his visits to her house and his conversation with her were false.

This closed the evidence and after addresses by counsel—Mr. Burnham for the defendant, and Mr. Stone for the the prosecution—and the judge, the case was given to the jury.

McKEE'S NEW DRUG STORE.

An Elegantly Fitted Pharmacy Palace—A Splendid Site and Splendidly Fitted Shop—Brief Description of the New Premises.

Twenty-two years ago Mr. John McKee embarked in the drug business in the good town of Welland and fourteen years ago he entered on what he has made a prosperous drug business, at 398 George street, and his numerous customers, while rejoicing that the increasing demands of his business require larger premises, will miss the old familiar shop where year after year they have received such a courteous commercial welcome and such satisfactory service.

Mr. McKee now occupies splendid new premises two doors south of the old stand and exactly opposite the Golden Lion, and one of the best business sites in the town, as his new shop is one of the finest drug palaces in the province. From the opposite side of the street the shop-wide stretch of plate glass in the front gives a complete view of the interior and the expansive plate glass mirror that closes the view at the rear of the shop gives compensation by reproducing the interior and making an apparently unending vista. The new shop has two entrances at the extreme right and left respectively. The wood-work of the doors is elaborately ornate, the upper portion glazed with bevelled plate glass and each is surmounted by a plate glass transom light. The single central show window, in the shape of a bay, forms the half of a hexagon set with plate glass, the middle plate being 7 feet 6 inches in breadth by 10 feet in height. The other two plates forming the inner slope of the splayed entrance recess are 3 feet 4 inches by ten feet in height. Thus the show window receives light on three sides and the entire front of the shop of twenty feet in width is a crystal expanse of plate glass with the exception of the lower third of the doors.

The interior is excellently fitted up. The walls and ceilings are covered with elegant paper, supplied by the Peterborough Bookstore and artistically laid on by Watson. The floor of both front and rear shops is of maple laid in narrow planks.

The wood-work, which is an unique feature of the interior furnishing, is of solid cherry trimmed with polished rosewood and richly carved. The rows of shelving that rest on the sets of cabinets is of solid cherry divided into spaces by pilasters, beautifully carved, with the capitals of raised rosewood panels. This is surmounted with a cornice also carved and terminating above in airy spindle work in the Queen Anne style. The line of shelving is broken in the centre on each side by an ornamental pediment in wood of tasteful design relieved with carving. A similar centre piece also ornaments the middle of the beautiful screen which separates the front from the rear portion of the of the shop. This screen is also of solid cherry, the middle portion being a magnificent bevelled plate glass mirror surrounded by a beautiful carved frame in oak leaf design. Outside this is a line of small bevelled plate glass panels alternating with similar sized panels of polished rosewood. This is flanked on either side by a broad belt of carved work, which brings us to the frame of the sliding doors, on each side of the screen, hung on noiseless lignum vitæ rollers, which lead to the rear of the shop. These doors are set with plate glass with sand blast ornamentation. The plate glass transoms over the doors bear respectively the words "Laboratory" and "office."

There are no counters in the front shop, their place being taken by solid cherry tables of heavy but graceful design, with square legs, with globular bases and the facets ornamented with exquisite carving, and the spaces filled with fine spindle work. These tables are provided with plate glass show cases in cherry, of modern design. The effect of the tasteful and harmonizing furnishings of the shop make its appearance extremely striking and unexcelled for richness, elegance and originality of design in any city of the province. The shop is lighted at night with arc electric lamps of 2000 candle power each.

The rear shop, 20x34 feet, is lighted by two large windows and furnishes compact but sufficient space for well-appointed office, dispensing counter and laboratory.

The premises are heated by a Clare Bros. furnace, placed in the basement by Mr. Adam Hall.

The wood work of the shop, which is entirely original in design, was designed by Mr. D. Belleghem, who turned Mr. McKee's ideas into wood in a very creditable, artistic, and workmanlike manner, all the work being executed in Mr. Belleghem's establishment.

Mr. McKee has reason to be proud of his new shop, which is not excelled by any in the province.

The Hastings Star gives the following account of the Oddfellows concert held in that place last week in which the Peterborough lodge degree team figured prominently :—Tuesday of last week was wet and cold which no doubt kept many from attending the Oddfellow's concert, but the hall was well filled nevertheless. Rev. Mr. Cooper was chairman. The concert opened with an ode by the members of the I. O.O.F. Then Mr. Harry Rich, Toronto's comic vocalist, appeared on the stage as "Cheeky Charley." His appearance created roars of laughter, and each of his selections was greeted with great applause to which he generously responded. His make up for the different characters was splendid, he has a good voice, and in fact he was the main feature in the entertainment. Miss Lizzie Fowlds was accompanist. The Oriental parade by the Peterborough team was very nice and received much applause for the exactness with which the members went through the different movements. Miss Cooper's recitation "Mind your own affairs" was well received by the audience. The only feature in the concert which was not a success was the farce entitled "Initiation of a Candidate," by the Peterborough Oddfellows. This was a dismal failure ; it had no point in it, and reminded us of school boys days long ago. The canton should not go so far from home to inflict such tomfoolery on a patient audience.

THE PUMPKIN PRIZE TANGLE.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly permit me to refer to this matter again, as I have not spoken to any of the directors about it, with the exception of the president and secretary, thinking they were headquarters for information on the subject. In reading "Director's" explanation in THE EXAMINER of last week (which I believe to be a true version) I came to the conclusion that there was "a nigger in the fence," somewhere, when he says that a judge was appointed by the directors, and a director sent with him to see that no mistakes occurred, and their judgment was allowed to stand on the books ten days without being challenged; he makes a strong argument in favor of my pumpkins receiving the award, of of Mr. Grafton's generous prize.

When the public are aware that Mr. T. E. Fitzgerald was judge, with Mr. Dawson Kennedy to take the entry numbers, men that are known throughout the county to be intelligent and practical men, they will readily see that they are quite competent to do the business, and sufficiently intelligent to make a proper record of the awards. Will the secretary or any other man dare to say that their book was in such a jumbled mass that no one, the secretary said, "could neither make head nor tail of it," and it was and is the most intelligible of the two. The statement is preposterous. My pumpkins remained in Mr. Grafton's window for weeks without a competitor, and they are there yet along with the other exhibit. As I said in my first letter, I am willing to abide by the decision of an unbiased farmer or Mr. Grafton, the donor of the prize, and I will go one further and will consent to the president of the society signing an order in favor of the one he thinks entitled to the prize. I only want fair play, and in justice to all concerned I hope the board of directors will straighten out this tangle.

Yours truly,
ANDREW FAIRBAIRN.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane,

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejuiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

Hood's Pills cure Liver Ills.

DEAR SIRS,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family and know it is a sure cure for lumbago and frost bites. My wife was so bad with lumbago that she could not straighten herself, and Yellow Oil completely cured her. It has been a fortune to us.

DEAR SIRS,—Anti-Dandruff is evidently giving satisfaction. I have sold about half the gross I bought from you on the 23rd of January last. I use it in my own family and like it well. Can recommend it to all who are troubled with dandruff.

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Monday evening, Oct. 31st, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour of this neighborhood held their regular meeting. The meeting had been placed in the hands of the social committee and they did their utmost to have all present enjoy a sociable time. Dr. Harrison and Mr. Ward of Keene, were present. Mr. Ward took up the topic "The First Christians," after which Dr. Harrison gave a very helpful and interesting address on "Christian Work among the Young People." The meeting was closed with singing and prayer. The young ladies then with their accustomed generosity treated all present to cake, coffee and fruit, and a very enjoyable time was spent for about an hour. The proceedings were finally closed by singing "God be With You Till we Meet Again," and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Ward.

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

THE PREMIER WON'T GO

MR. GLADSTONE DECLINES TO ATTEND THE BANQUET

It is According to Precedent That the Prime Minister Should Attend This Annual Gathering, and While Reviewing the Government's Work to Outline Its Plans for the Future.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The announcement was officially made yesterday that the Prime Minister, Mr. Gladstone, had declined to attend the inaugural banquet of Lord Mayor-elect Stuart Knell. His declination is especially significant, as it has been the custom in past years for the Prime Minister in his response to a toast at this banquet to review the work of the Government and speak of its plans for the future.

DYNAMITERS WILL BE HELD.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt Opposes Their Liberation.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who has been selected as Mr. Gladstone's deputy in the House of Commons, is opposed to the release of Dr. Gallagher, Curtain and other dynamiters convicted of offences in Great Britain. It is the general impression in England that their chances of release are remote. The matter has been debated by the Cabinet in view of the intervention of the Washington Government in behalf of the Irish-American prisoners. A majority of the members of the Cabinet support Sir William Vernon Harcourt. It is pretty certain, however, that the appeal from Washington will cause a relaxation in the discipline to which these prisoners are subjected.

LONDON'S IDLE POOR.

The Unemployed Hebrews of London to Parade Barefooted.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The unemployed Hebrew workingmen of this city have decided that they will march barefooted through the streets of London on three different days. Agents of the Social Democratic Federation are organizing the idle workmen. Their agents approve of marching through the streets. Another section of the unemployed, however, refuse to take part in the procession. They have taken advantage of the offer of the East End assembly room, where they will register their names as wanting work.

Calla.

When the calla lily produces a blooming stalk, an embryo bud will always be found at its base. To get this to develop, cut the first stalk close to the ground as soon as the flower begins to fade, being careful not to injure the tender bud; then water the plant with some good liquid fertilizer. With proper management a thrifty calla will frequently produce three flowers in succession.

MISS F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A Sensible Man

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

Steamer Gilcher Supposed to Be Lost in Lake Michigan.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 3.—J. C. Gilchrist, one of the principal owners of the steamer W. H. Gilcher, which is supposed to have gone down in Lake Michigan, has given the boat up as lost. He said shortly before noon yesterday: "I am convinced that the reason we have not heard from the Gilcher is because there is none of the crew alive to tell the tale.

"There were 18 men aboard, with Capt. Weeks of Vermillion in command. His first mate was Capt. Ed. Porter of Lorain. Sydney Jones of Marine City, Mich., was chief engineer. There was a wheelman named King, who formerly lived in Vermillion, but has lately made his home in Chicago.

"The only sailor known by me was a young man named Thompson, who hailed from Vermillion. Formerly nearly the entire crew were from Vermillion, but about a month ago Capt. Weeks while in Buffalo discharged most of his old men and shipped new sailors whose names have never been reported to the general office."

The Gilcher was an iron boat, built by the Cleveland Shipbuilding Company and put into service a year ago last May. She was valued at $200,000 and was insured for $180,000. She had a cargo of 3080 tons of coal and was bound from Buffalo to Milwaukee. She was last heard from when she passed Mackinaw Friday. It is the general supposition here that she must have struck upon the South Fox reef during the storm of Friday night and had a hole knocked into her bottom.

The builders of the Gilcher claim that the wreckage now being washed ashore does not tally with any part of the work done on this boat. Her owners are convinced, however, that she has gone down with all on board.

She carried a large metallic life-boat and enough small boats to carry about 30 men. So far as is known here there were no passengers on the Gilcher when she left Buffalo.

THREE WERE DROWNED.

A Tug Sinks While Going to Aid a Vessel in Distress.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 3.—The tug James Amadeus, owned by the Smith Tug Company of this city, was going to the relief of the schooner H. P. Baldwin, ashore near Colchester, Ont., with a wrecking outfit, when off Point au Pelee 12 o'clock Tuesday night the Amadeus sprang aleak and sank. Three of her crew, Henry Howell, Chief Engineer of Detroit, Nicholls Barrett and Farron, firemen of this city, were drowned.

Robbed the "Roumania's" Dead.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Later reports confirm the earlier statements concerning the savage and barbarous treatment of the survivors and dead of the wrecked Anchor Line steamship Roumania by the natives on the Portuguese coast.

The bodies of the dead, carried ashore by the waves or dragged in from the sea, were stripped of clothing and jewels, and some of the barbarians even concealed bodies that fell into their hands in order to have the chance to get the reward for finding them. Lieut. Rooke declares that the passengers were not aware of the danger of their situation and that a strong man able to swim with a rope could have saved everybody on board. He denounces the officers and declares that the vessel itself was not in the condition it ought to have been in for a voyage to India.

Relics of the Wreck.

PENICHE, Nov. 3.—The bodies of three women who lost their lives in the steamer Roumania disaster are visible from the shore. Their clothing is entangled in the rocks, and this prevents them coming ashore.

Had a Stormy Passage.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II. reports bad weather throughout the voyage. About noon last Sunday a big sea was shipped, which did considerable damage. Two sailors were thrown to the deck and fatally injured. A cabin boy was also thrown down and his jaw broken. Some of the cabin passengers were hurt.

Ten Were Lost.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A despatch from Salcombe says there are missing of the crew of the British ship Gruna, Capt. Webster, from Berry July 6 for Hong Kong, before reported wrecked on Rifleman Shoal, eight seamen and two apprentices.

Fell Dead on the Rostrum.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Nov. 3.—Henry D. Lees, a prominent prohibitionist, while addressing a meeting yesterday dropped dead from heart disease. His last words were: "Brethren, let us dwell together in harmony and peace." He was a well-known Grand Army man and was 66 years old.

Bonusing Railways.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—The Finance Committee of this city latt night recommended that two bylaws be submitted to the ratepayers next month, one in the granting of a bonus of $100,000 to the Ottawa, Arnprior & Parry Sound Railway and the other one a $50,000 bonus to the Kingston, Smith Falls & Ottawa Railway, and coupled with each bonus to be a grant of $25,000 towards the construction of a central depot.

FIGHTING IN DAHOMEY.

Col. Dodds Promoted to Be Commander. Engagements Between the Troops.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Colonel Dodds, the commander of the French forces operating in Dahomey, will be promoted to be a general and will be made an officer of the Legion of Honor.

A despatch from Porto Novo states that a Dahomeyan chief who has been captured says the Dahomeyans are led by 200 white men. He gives the names of many Belgians and Germans. The despatch adds that after the French captured Dahomey another king will succeed Behanzin, who will be executed.

Mail advices show that while the French gunboat Opale was returning from Kobe on Sept. 30 it was attacked near Donkeli by 600 Dahomeyans armed with quick-firing rifles. Three of the French on the gunboat were killed and a number wounded. The Opale shelled the villages along the river. The next day 200 sharpshooters surprised Donkeli. The Dahomeyans fled, leaving many dead. Transports bearing invalids and wounded French troops were arriving at the coast daily. The hospitals at Porto Novo were crowded, and vessels in the roadstead had been chartered to accommodate the wounded.

HOW TO CURE DEPRESSION.

Labouchere Proposes That All Non-Resident Lands Be Expropriated.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Henry Labouchere, the Radical leader, proposes as a remedy for the depression prevailing in the agricultural industry in Great Britain that every parish expropriate the land of non-occupying owners, giving them a fair price therefore in village bonds, the land thus acquired to be let to tenants by the parish.

A Journalist Jailed.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 3.—Villeval, publisher of The Journal La Misere, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for publishing an Anarchist article. While the court was adjourning Villeval made his escape. When the sentence was passed on him the Anarchists in the court room hissed the judge, and when the jurors left the court room Villeval's sympathizers threatened to assault them.

Miners Shall Only Work 48 Hours a Week.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—At the coming session of Parliament Mr. Joseph Chamberlain will introduce a bill providing that miners shall not work more than 48 hours a week. The bill will, however, contain a provision for local exemption where miners so desire.

The Idle Jennies.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 3.—A Board of Conciliation consisting of six directors of the Chamber of Commerce and six members of the Trades Council is making another effort to adjust the dispute between the cotton spinners and their employers.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,500. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.
